Concerning the most momentous and highly anticipated eminent return of Christ, it has in the recent past literally become almost proverbial to read the word of God speak of things as near and just at hand. The word of God has done this purely for the express purpose of enunciating the enormity and certainty of that gargantuan day of reckoning. Instilled in that biblically most central prophecy on Christ's return, is the admonition that foretells of the great change that would be imperative in order to restore and make all things right. "In a little while I will once more shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. I will shake all nations, and the desired of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory," says the LORD Almighty. . . (Haggai 2:6-8). With these profound words, the LORD essentially put His signature on the interlude in which He would literally deliver the nations of the earth into a stern dispensation of purification. JEHOVAH intended that such a process achieve all the standards that befit the true hallmarks of extreme anguish, non-relenting distress and incapacitating pangs. Though the LORD Jesus referred to the distress of today as the beginnings of birthpains, nonetheless their occurrence was well intended to calibrate a season in which sooner than later, all sinners would become mourners; while repenting sinners would look unto Christ Jesus and mourn after a holy sort. Such a biblically promised shaking of the nations is what has today eventually caught up with mankind as the LORD purges off decay. Nonetheless, by pledging such a phenomenal distress and anguish of all time, the LORD did not fall short of highlighting the great escape that penitent sinners shall see in that hour. God's most resolute standard yardstick of holiness would then ensure that the remorseful who sow in the bitter tears of repentance, would shortly begin reaping in abundant joy unspeakable at rapture. In his holy script, Daniel the Prophet of the LORD, recapitulated the record distress that would clench the entire earth, to the extent that the impenitent sinners, though they laugh now, shall mourn and weep in endless horror and despair of the great tribulation and hell. By now, it is abundantly clear to zealous observers of endtime revival, that Daniel's most decorated manuscript in chapter 12:1-3, was highly instructed by the Holy Spirit not only to define the fierceness of today's global distress, but also to honour God's elect on that material day. Though scattered across the face of the earth like little dots on a map, when that great day of gathering comes, there shall not one of the elect be left out of rapture. The LORD is using this to say, that for his righteous elect whose names are found written in the book, the distance of place shall keep none of them out of heaven. In a similar reference to the beloved nation of Israel, the LORD underscored that never should the Jews ever cease to be a distinct people until all things predicted have been made right. Considering the February 27, 2010 historic magnitude 8.8 earthquake in Chile, and the horrific double-whammy dual earthquakes in China, there would be no better way to decree that the commencement of the long-awaited beginning of birthpangs are here and at hand. By the sheer factoring-in of such landmark historic events that define today's global distress; it becomes absolutely feasible to then understand man's vulnerability in the absence of the LORD. Together with the horrendous Haiti earthquake, the unrelenting deadly tornadoes,

Iceland's Eyjafjallajökull volcanic eruption, the dust cloud and the shut down of the entire European airspace, swine flu, the merciless Greek economic collapse, despicable drought, unexplained wild fires; there would not be any standard available by which rank today's phenomenal global anguish, than in a class of its own. Mankind will continue writhing in deeper pains and anguish of today's global distress because they schemed and planned for generation upon generation here on earth, but they planned not with reference to the overwhelming, approaching, and most certain event of the coming of the Messiah. The beginning of dreadful birthpangs witnessed by this generation and across the entire globe, indeed testifies to God's hiatus exerted upon what used to be a continuum of man's prosperity and tranquillity here on earth. If one were to look at the impending return of the Messiah through the lenses of the current global anguish, then it becomes absolutely apparent that His return shall for sure do away with every human schemes and indeed set aside forever all that God forbids. "And he shall rule with an iron sceptre . . ." (Rev 19:15). Testament to the inescapable requirement of the LORD's help for mankind to safely navigate through the current global distress, is the conspicuous deluge of the latter rain that is slowly but steadily inundating the righteous remnant church. Of all the plausible exegetical interpretations of the grief with which today's global distress has surprised and shocked mankind, no better word sits in place than a prolonged lifestyle of complacency. Nowhere does the bible best describe the present-day ungodly complacency as man's deadliest undoing, than in the scripture that says; while people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come upon them suddenly, as labour pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape (1 Thess 5:3). It is now becoming more and more evident that the reality of today's fulfilment of bible prophecy has finally dawned upon this modern generation, causing her to be reproved and divorced from the long-sustained whimsical notion that the coming of the Messiah was just but a mere mythical tale. Indeed, in many work places across the globe, be it in the developing, or even much more in the developed world, people have begun to treat the coming of the Messiah more as a reify with tangible irreversible reality of life and death. And

Chile Startling 8.8 Magnitude Earthquake January 2010

China Earthquake April 2010

currently within the christian community, there is a growing convergence of interests towards a clear understanding of who exactly the LORD does call his elect, and especially to the effect that He has destined them to escape the upcoming mother of all birthpangs. With over 300,000 people dead and thousands more practically maimed and amputated in what the bible merely describes as just the beginning of birthpains, then without a doubt the horrific Haiti earthquake must have helped to paint a grimmer picture of what the true birthpains will have to entail. By this shaking, surely the LORD of Hosts intended that all the hearts of men be drawn towards Him, by preparing the holy way for the fearfully irretrievable Final Escape in the rapture. Instead of the World Powers trying to subjugate today's untamable global distress, the nations of the earth would have been better served, by preparing themselves for the upcoming eidetic fulfilment of every biblical prophecy regarding the anguish of the last days and the ultimate coming of the Messiah. It cannot be held back by mankind. That becomes the overwhelming spiritual significance of the current global distress that threatens to totally halt the established systems of this world. 'And the desired will come' was made in Hebrew reference to 'the highly esteemed' i.e. the elect of the LORD. The fete of today's pangs are as a matter of fact, achieved in the majority of today's episodes of calamities, now that each bears the underwritings of an earth-shattering potential, type regardless. To the extent that today's catastrophes have now been indexed as 'Acts of God', indeed goes a long way to further underscore the scope to which mankind has now come to terms with the pangs of this day and age. The frequency and intensity with which earthquakes, tsunamis, floods, droughts, economic collapse, volcanic eruptions,

Historic Haiti Earthquake January 2010

bloodshed, and wars; are occurring today, makes one wonder if they indeed do not foreshadow an upcoming big and ugly, tribulation, to mention. It is as though the whole globe has eventually been thrust down the lane of perpetual and an unforgiving distress. To best perceive the extent of this global distress that is currently throbbing across the earth, it is absolutely prudent to reflect on the horrendous spate of human suffering that befell the nation of Haiti when that horrific earthquake struck. Witnessing the widescale demolition, and destruction of both human life and property that gripped Haiti, is what threw the entire global community aback, into an instantaneous downward spiral of anguish, distress, and extreme fear. Coming especially after such a stern forewarning which the LORD of Hosts sent me to deliver, all the way to that Island of Hispaniola, from November 22nd through 27th 2009; one is left with no choice but to wonder why the LORD's voice went utterly unheeded. Having placed before them the blessing of repentance and the curse of a horrific earthquake, it is definitely today apparent that they chose the latter, to their own demise. If the nation of Haiti were a classroom in which the other nations of the earth should sit and learn, then there is no better way to describe the impact of how man's disobedience unto the LORD can adversely ramify the life of an entire nation, and percolate down to every little fibre of its citizenry, with unspeakable devastation. "Because of this, all hands will go limp, every man's heart will melt. Terror will seize them, pain and anguish will grip them; they will writhe like a woman in labour. They will look aghast at each other, their faces aflame. See, the day of the LORD is coming — a cruel day, with wrath and fierce anger— to make the land desolate and destroy the sinners within it" (Isaiah 13:6-9). With these words, certainly the true living embodiment of this promised distress has, as a matter of fact, manifest in our time. The question that is begging in the midst of today's global distress is; if we knew aright that all earthly things must eternally pass away, then why did the nations set their eyes and hearts so much upon them, as they do now! Classical among the cases is the current second bout of the global economic crisis that has resurfaced in Europe among the Eurozone countries. Beginning with the sudden collapse of the Greek economy through an unimaginable debt crisis, this contagion has rapidly spread into Portugal and Spain. Spain today runs a high risk of following Greece into the financial abyss considering the current high debt insurance she fronts. The Spanish economy today presents the highest debt insurance in the entire Eurozone. In Portugal, on the other hand civil unrest has begun because of the austerity measures put in place. The Dubai debt crisis has also heavily taken the brunt on the global economy in a very negative way. Many expatriates and local employees in the United Arab Emirates lost their jobs in the process and returned to their home countries. All these coupled with the horrendous impact of the volcano ash on the major global airlines, can only bespeak a world under extreme distress. Like it was during the time of Noah, so will it be at the coming of the Christ. They felt secure and careless and they knew not until the floods came and on that day, they believed not what happened to them. So it is with this modern world today, a state of smug that has landed mankind into a greater shock when the beginnings of birthpains have arrived. But, on the material day of gathering, this nature of self-satisfaction is what will cause many to miss the kingdom of God.

No one stone . . .

When the LORD Jesus pronounced that a day was coming when not one stone will be left on another, He indeed revealed much on what would befall today's world. Such a great demolition of the house of the LORD can only depict a picture of total decay that warrants reconstruction. In a similar tone, Jeremiah the Prophet, had earlier on also decreed such a *fi*e having seen the level of apostasy that had intruded into their mien worship in the house of the LORD. The LORD had to emplace a strict standard of rigor in their restoration process. It was so stern that JEHOVAH caused Jeremiah the Prophet to pronounce the demolition and total destruction of the house of the LORD on Mt. Moriah. And when that day arrived, surely no stone was left on another as the house of the LORD was destroyed and set on fire. However, the LORD had equally decided that it would be the shattered rubble upon which he would find the new building blocks to raise a new house. Little did the people of Israel perceive that Jeremiah had as a matter of fact foreseen the coming of the Messiah and the noble inauguration of the spiritual dispensation of the Son of the living God as the Redeemer. This meant that the utility of the old physical temple on Mt. Moriah as a worship centre, was fast running out, as the spiritual tabernacle would take centre stage. On this premise, the LORD hence promised to rebuild the broken hearts of worshippers like a potter does with broken clay, in order to produce forth a holy vessel; the house of the Holy Spirit. Just like it was when the temple buildings in Jerusalem were destroyed with stones even pried apart to collect the gold leaf that melted from the roof when the temple was set on fire, so will it be at the coming of the Messiah. Large number of pillars were toppled in a symbolic gesture that foretells of the great collapse of the human pillars that today adorn the earth. Likewise, the spiritual pillars of man that currently reinforce the hearts of men, will be toppled, with no stone left on another on the day of his burning anger. Hearts will melt away. If the current tumbling of the global economy, physical infrastructure by earthquakes, etc, are anything to go by, then how great will be the demolition of the structures of men on that day of gathering. Today's global distress indeed stands for a warning shot fired in the sky for all that care to love the Messiah, to prepare for his coming.

That Day & Hour UNKNOWN

When the LORD Jesus foretold of his eventual return to the earth, he did not let mankind know the day and the hour when the final redemption of this evil world would come. In the meantime, He reiterated that mankind should make good of his time here on the earth by conforming their lives to God's will, on a daily basis. It is this uncertainty of the day and the hour of the Messiah's return, that has many a time caused not only the church, but as well the entire heathen community, to become indeed very lyrical in the strictest meaning of the word. Nowhere does the LORD highlight the gravity of mankind's being in the know regarding His Coming, than in the parable of the ten bridesmaids. It was at this point that the LORD reinforced the need for wise preparation and underscored the seriousness of readiness for His return. It is in this particular Matthew 25 discourse, that the LORD overstressed on the fact that those who will have readied themselves for the heavenly Bridegroom, will not be ashamed. The most required of spiritual features that stand out regarding the LORD's return, can quickly be extractable as faith, commitment, a righteous and holy living. This, by no doubt presents the most sobering reality on the day and hour of man's accountability to God Almighty.

No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. (Matthew 24:36).

As the earth, slowly but very steadily, advances closer and closer to the return of the Messiah, one thing that has now become absolutely perceptible, is that the day and hour of rapture must remain a preserve of God the Father, and Him alone. Hence, when the LORD propounded that, that day must remain unknown, He essentially indicated for all practical purposes, that the day of rapture would not be within the range of man's knowledge and experience in this realm. That undoubtedly makes the day of rapture a totally strange and unfamiliar experience that mankind has never ever encountered, and is soon to. It is this aspect that makes that day one that is yet to be discovered and explored, and unfortunately only when it does happen. That is exactly what makes the day of Christ's return a fearful moment of reckoning, especially that mankind has no point of reference with which to base any preparation. This inevitably leaves the nations of the earth with no choice except to anchor their lives onto the word of God as they get ready. When the bible affirmed that '...neither does the Son know...', it essentially presupposes that our LORD Jesus Himself has also lived through a scenario of greater expectation for that day as he anticipates His decoration and honouring. To be seated on the right-hand side of God the Father, without any knowledge in lieu of that day, bespeaks an enormous faith that cannot be fathomed in this lifetime. Likewise, the church too can make an import of the LORD's enduring faithfulness and reinforce her own faith in order to prepare appropriately. The obscurity that surrounds that most important day when the LORD will gather His elect, is the primary reason as to why it is not widely addressed across all circles of life as it is today. In other words, it would appear like when the LORD assigned the five-fold ministries, each with their respective role to act,

He then cast an unknown in the leading role of the church.

Evangelism and shepherding, all having been determined to bring the souls into the barns, yet for the sole purpose of preparing them for the most momentous unknown day.

Howbeit, the true test of Christ's discipleship at this last hour will now have to depend on how far the christian is able to translate faith into obedient living. Considering that Christ the Messiah Himself today sits at the right-hand side of God the Father, even not knowing of the day and the hour, and yet faithfully observing the strictest of obedience to the word that proclaimed forth the coming of rapture, how faithful! How much more then, should the church observe such-like faith in lasting obedience to the word that decreed her as the royal bride! With all its impending gravity, the greatest impediment to faith would then seem to be the mystery surrounding the day when the Messiah will return to gather the church. Moreover, the covertness of the coming day of rapture squarely rests on it being a surreptitiously hidden truth that has been decreed by the discreet purposes and appraised counsel of God Almighty Himself. Undoubtedly, the scripture lays to bare the impeccable certainty with which that day must be realized on the earth and in heaven.

As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking . . . (Matthew 24:37-38)

These days of Noah

The brand of contentment that reigned in people's lives during the days of Noah was such a self-satisfaction, that had the potential of practically delivering the entire earth into eternal fatality. That kind of smug was so mortal that it literally drove the people to a complete loss of touch with the basic requirements of God's law. It became a form of complacency that was as dangerous as it was mortifying. In the days of Noah, there were several elements that appeared in people's lifestyle, causing them to drift further and further away from the will of JEHOVAH. Today too, the nations of the earth seem to have gone full circle, and arrived at the same Noah's dispensation. In what may have began as simple baby-steps that were well intended to improve the life of mankind, the pursuit of prosperity and development has unfortunately converted this world into a place of a detestable class of godlessness. In such a position, the absence of the fear of God becomes pretty well-pronounced.

People were busy Eating & Drinking

Now, appertaining to eating without fasting, God Almighty has for sometime been raising a red flag on the hazards it bears to spiritual christian life. Right from the onset, it is clear that JEHOVAH's clamour against uncontrolled eating and drinking is based on the fact that it compromised the spiritual sensibility of the people in Noah's dispensation. It is that form of spiritual numbness that stopped the population in the days of Noah from listening to God's instruction. Overall, the LORD has always asserted the need to be cautious with eating and drinking, since food attempts to erode the seriousness of a spiritual christian lifestyle. The vulnerability to which uncontrolled eating exposes the church could not have been better displayed than in Deuteronomy 32:14-16, when the LORD says; . . .

. . . with curds and milk from herd and flock and with fattened lambs and goats, with choice rams of Bashan and the finest kernels of wheat. You drank the foaming blood of the grape. Jeshurun grew fat and kicked; filled with food, he became heavy and sleek. He abandoned the God who made him and rejected the Rock his Savior. (Deut 32:14-15).

There surely couldn't have been a better warning coming from the LORD on the dangers of excessive eating and drinking, than this. Albeit being crucial for the livelihood of mankind, we now see that Jeshurun who is symbolic of Israel, was indeed drifted afar from the LORD by excessive eating and drinking. There must be something about uncontrolled eating that the LORD heavily detests.

Seemingly, it may appear totally inconceivable that when the day of rapture draws nearer, God Almighty the Creator of all things, then begins to sternly re-caution mankind on the perils of eating and drinking. While during the laying of the foundation of the earth, the LORD Himself indeed deemed it right that there be food in order to sustain the livelihood of mankind on this planet; but the caution raised in relation to rapture becomes a challenge. This then raises the question as to what particular aspect of eating and drinking the LORD JEHOVAH was highlighting as an admonition on its detriment to spiritual christian life. To better appreciate this most important piece of God's instruction to man, there is an absolute need for a careful search in the scriptural domain on the matter of food. The scripture in 1 Cor 6:12-20, has always been so heavily concealed to the point that it has at times spurred-up a great controversy among theologians. Probably, this becomes yet another reminder that bible interprets bible and the deficiencies of human theology, help to centralize the Holy Spirit as the Supreme Revelator of the word. Nonetheless, chief among them, the most significant import that christians ought to appreciate in this scripture, is the fact that God Almighty dwells to a greater length on the spiritual dangers of eating and drinking. Pellucidly, this the LORD does to the extent that He clearly forewarns on what would be in this day and age termed as a deceptive 'democratic space'. In that context, the LORD reprimands the excessive permissibility that appears to have been lucratively advanced to mankind, that he may do everything and anything at will. It goes without saying though, that the implication here is that JEHOVAH GOD strived right from the beginning to give mankind the freedom to do whatever he chose to, eating included. Such a permissibility though, must have been meant for purposes of training man's sense of responsibility. However, that declaration of God-given 'democratic space' did not come without a stern warning on the dire consequences of a regulated eating and drinking in the life of the church.

"Everything is permissible for me"—but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is permissible for me"—but I will not be mastered by anything. "Food for the stomach and the stomach for food"—but God will destroy them both (1 Corinthians 6:12-13).

By these words, the LORD made a clear

digression from the freedom that man had perceivably earned for himself. Mentioned in direct relationship with eating and drinking (stomach), the LORD couldn't have left a better mark on the risk of the grim danger that food exposes a christian life to. Understandably so, the majority of devout christians will agree with the fact that food and eating, if not well modulated, can jeopardize a christian lifestyle. The perils of food as brought to light by the LORD, did not necessarily imply food per se, but indeed pointed at its spiritually detrimental effects. Much as food still remains a basic requirement in the sustainability of man's livelihood here on earth, its unchecked spiritual consequences though, can lead to the most heinous act of 'the feeding of the flesh.' And in order to well understand how the menace of 'feeding the flesh' can reign-in on an otherwise well intended christian life, it is prudent to acknowledge the constant conflict that goes on between the Spirit and the flesh. This is because a life lived in the Spirit would not gratify the desires of the sinful flesh (nature). It is today obvious to ardent christians that the sinful nature (flesh) does desire what is particularly contrary to the Spirit, while the Spirit will often deliberately desire what is exactly contrary to the sinful nature. In this way, the two; the Spirit and the flesh, are in a constant conflict with each other to the extent that many christians nowadays end up doing what they otherwise would not have done or wanted to do. This is the rightful exposition of the reason as to why during the days of Noah, the unregulated eating of food led to the demise of an entire earth. Moreover, when the rapture draws nearer, God Almighty sternly castigates the eating of food as one of the major stumbling blocks that could potentially stop today's church from seeing the eternal Kingdom of God. Eating food without any form of fasting has today become the chief cause of the greater dominion of sinful flesh among otherwise well-meaning christians. In point of fact, the acts of the sinful flesh are outrightly impurity, sexual immorality, idolatry, witchcraft, self ambitions, jealousy, drunkenness, sexual orgies and the like (Galatians 5:16-26). Since our LORD Jesus is the perfect example of a singular focus on the will of God the Father, then emulating his walk on earth should become the most central undertaking in christian life. At the instance of the inauguration of his ministry here on the earth, the LORD Jesus conveyed the most impeccable message yet on the dangers of eating in a spiritual christian lifestyle. Upon being baptized in the Jordan river, Christ Jesus the Son of the Living God, immediately left for the wilderness in order to pray and separate from eating by fasting. That interlude of fasting and separation from eating turned out to be the most rewarding, because of the outstanding spiritual fete he attained as the ministration of the Holy Spirit replenished and re-nourished his mission (Matthew 4). It clearly emerges that that kind of Holy Spirit ministration could not have been achieved in the absence of fasting. This is the reason for which the LORD JEHOVAH pin-pointed out the eating that went on in the days of Noah as one of the most precarious acts that today's church can ever engage in, just prior to rapture. The rampant disobedience that the people in the Noah's days engaged in, can only come as a testament to the diminished spiritual lifestyle they lived. That also hints that their sensibility to the word of God had been seriously compromised leading to a fatal numbness. In that defiled spiritual order, it is obvious that the flesh reigned over the Spirit and led the whole earth down the gallows of death. Today too, the majority of christians have not paid a particular attention to this raging conflict between the Spirit and the flesh, in their lives. This presents one of the key spiritual landmarks that testify that the Noah's days are here, and unbridled heedlessness becomes the key feature of the day. A scolding of this scale by the LORD, is principally intended for those Christ-loving christians to stay away from Jeshurun kind of fall. Jeshurun's situation has today re-surfaced in the church of Christ, thereby greatly re-emphasizing on just how much the uncontrolled eating can cause, not only the church, but the entire nation to forget their Creator and Maker. The LORD has indeed loved us with freedom upon salvation, but that liberty ought to conform to the holiness standards of JEHOVAH, the God of Israel. The LORD is strongly exhorting the church on the importance of prayer and fasting in order to tame and subdue the sinful desires of the flesh. Only a holy christian lifestyle of prayer and fasting is eternally sustainable.

Marrying and giving in Marriage

When it comes to preparing for the day of Christ's return, the LORD earnestly precautions mankind to be careful with certain types of marriages that could cause one to miss the rapture. JEHOVAH in essence draws a solemn parallel between what happened in marriages during the days of Noah and what has befallen matrimony in these last days. The LORD does this within the backdrop of the well established reality that marriage is a sanctified and holy institution that is God-ordained. When the LORD JEHOVAH created marriage, He did so for the purposes of a sound fellowship in the livelihood of mankind on the earth. The worthiness of marriage as a novel institution of God, is heavily dependent on its ability to sustain the godly values with which it was originally created. Its novelty to JEHOVAH GOD though, is easily depictable in the fact that in many occasions, the LORD wonderfully refers to his relationship with Israel as a marriage, in which Israel is the wife of JEHOVAH. And because the basic foundation of such a marriage greatly rested on covenant building and sustenance, a default by Israel often resulted into the annulment of the cordial relationship. A vivid case in time is what the LORD presents in Isaiah 54:5-7, when he declares that;

For your Maker is your husband, the LORD Almighty is his name, the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; he is called the God of all the earth. The LORD will call you back as if you were a wife deserted and distressed in spirit a wife who married young, only to be rejected," says your God. "For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with deep compassion I will bring you back.

Hence, as at creation, it can be obviously seen that marriage in its original purpose, was undoubtedly intended to glorify the LORD, and Him alone. Having said so, it then becomes extremely puzzling to hear the LORD castigate marriage as one of those items in life that literally blocked the people during Noah's dispensation, from entry into heaven. Without a doubt, there must have been aspects of marriage that triggered-off such a bitter controversy between the LORD and His own ordained institution. Today it is evidently common to see the majority of christian marriages drifting into a state of conflict with the LORD, the Creator of marriages. However, the only way that a marriage can sour-up before the LORD, is when such a marriage transforms itself into an idolatry. God Almighty has repeatedly reaffirmed Himself as the Jealous One of Israel, hence demanding all total attention from all men, including the married. Unfortunately though, when a marriage turns idolatrous, then the attention of loyalty that they ought to have pledged unto the LORD is essentially robbed away. Such are the majority of today's marriages that the LORD is neither central, nor glorified. A marriage that honours the LORD will always by every standard consider the fear of the LORD first, in all they undertake to do. But, for the marriages of today to be synonymous with those in the days of Noah, then it can be plainly said that sin has entered marriages. And that is the reason why the scripture laments that when the day of rapture comes, while the LORD will be gathering his elect, the rest of the world will be busy marrying and giving in marriage. In retrospect, since only sin can keep one away from the LORD, then it is plausible to say that today's marriages that have been likened to the days of Noah, must be wallowing in sin. It is true that in these days of Noah, as the rapture draws even nearer, many christian marriages are constantly caught up in sexual sin, among others. Coming this late in the day, such marriages for sure cannot glorify the LORD whose intent was that all marriage mirror the holy wedding of the Lamb.

Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship is there between light and darkness? What harmony is there between Christ and Belial? What does a believer have in common with unbeliever? What agreement is there between the Temple of God and idols? For we are the Temple of the living God. As God has said; "I will live with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people". Therefore, come out from them and be separate, says the LORD. Touch no unclean thing and I will receive you." " I will be a Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the LORD Almighty." (2Cor 6:14-18).

Though mainly put forward in reference to the wedding of the Lamb, this scripture was however intended to be the yardstick for all marriages that they may be presented holy before JEHOVAH. But, if this now is the benchmark by which to standardize all marriages, then how much more have today's marriages drifted away from the will of God. That is exactly the reason as to why the LORD Almighty is grieving over today's marriages of Noah's dispensation. This kind of grief conveys a lot of love though, considering that without a spiritual transformation in today's institution of marriage, then as it was during the time of Noah, so will it surely be at the coming of the Messiah. When the LORD Himself added against marriage, by saying that;

"and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away."

That can only indicate how much the LORD is today beseeking married couples not to be lost in the complacency of 'peace and safety' in marriage, but to centre their families on the preparations for the coming of the Messiah. The truth of the matter is that today's marriages often present enormous daily errands to the extent that it is very easy for couples to sideline the requirements of the LORD. In an attempt to fend for their families, not only in this modern age, but also within the backdrop of the global economic meltdown, it is absolutely easy to sideline Christ the Messiah! That is the rationale as to why JEHOVAH forecasted that while a remnant few would be preparing for the coming of the Messiah, by addressing holiness,

The Wheat Field

the rest of the world would instead be deeply engaged in the chores of their busy marriages. It is the enormous capaciousness of God's love and mercy that could not have allowed him to go without counselling mankind on the macabre dangers of giving-in marriages, at the expense of eternity. The LORD's cautionary warning on the dangers of giving-in marriage must have implied that there was an eminent risk of spiritual plunder in marriages. Beyond the shadow of a doubt, the chores, errands, and conflicts that have infiltrated the present-day marriages, can easily steal-away ones eternal destiny; as more focus is paid on keeping the marital boat afloat. By giving-in marriage, the LORD essentially implied that in these last days people would be caused to abandon their spiritual ambitions of eternity with God, for the sake of sustaining their marital relationship. It also fundamentally entails marriages literally caving-in to immense and sustained pressure that is exerted on them by the fast-paced world of these last days. To the extent that many marriages have today practically bowed-out, buckled-under, and even conceded defeat into the capitulation of marriage, can only reemphasize that without a stout anchor on the Blood of Jesus, the destiny of marriage is hell. To a greater degree, the global financial meltdown has undeniably exacerbated the spiritual decay in marriages, to the point that the majority of couples have now cut-out any considerations of eternity and fully complied in great despair, to the pressures of this world. Such a drop-out from pursuing God's purposes is what has caused a massive backsliding, and the relinquishing of godliness and eternity in today's marriages. If this picture of marriage is just a prototype of the bigger picture, then one can comfortably say that today the church has run amok under the weight of worldly pressures. If a most beautiful God-ordained institution like marriage can now degenerate to a place where individuals have to pull-out of God's will and quit pursuing holy living, then there sure is a dire need for revival to visit the church. Consequently, when JEHOVAH bitterly lamented that as Christ's return draws closer, many would be giving-in marriage; verily He indeed bemoaned the widescale backsliding that has today characterized the marriages of this dispensation. This situation has gotten so bad that even once-devout christians are now practicing ungodly marriages of convenience, in a condition that can only depict alot that has literally thrown-in the towel. God Almighty is today imploring mankind to convert their marriages into Christ-centred, holy institutions, that glorify their Creator.

Two men working in the field

By heralding that the day and hour of the Messiah's coming is unknown, the LORD undeniably revealed so much regarding the prerequisite readiness that the church ought to put in place for rapture. Astoundingly, in order to underline the shock and surprise with which that day of Christ's return will storm the earth, the LORD draws an exceptional parallel between the secrecy of that day and two men working in the field. JEHOVAH God, in His most sacred exalted counsel, decrees a vow that of the two men who will be found working in the field, only one will be taken up in that irretrievable gathering of the saints. On every occasion when the holy scripture remarks on men, the LORD principally alludes to His servants, the pastors. Honestly, when JESUS OF NAZARETH completed the work of redeeming mankind on the cross, He assigned specific tasks to the servants in the vineyard. However, the LORD diligently tagged the legitimacy of that servanthood to a complete allegiance to the assigned tasks in that vineyard. But, to say that the day and hour is unknown, appears to have a refining effect on the quality of servanthood that the LORD was talking about. Unmistakably, the scripture in Matthew 24:45-51 precisely refers to this particular servanthood and the assigned tasks, vis-a-vis the secret return of the Master;

"Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the proper time? It will be good for that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns. I tell you the truth, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself, 'My master is staying away a long time,' and he then begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards. The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Admittedly, because these two men are working in the same field, it is rightful to say that they are both toiling in the vineyard of the LORD. And for the LORD to have deliberately opted to take only one, it must be unquestionably true that, while laboring in that vineyard, the other servant must have engaged in acts of lawlessness. Nowonder, JEHOVAH Himself prewarns that not all who proclaim 'LORD, LORD...' will enter into His eternal Kingdom. Appropriate to this unyielding caution onto His servants, the LORD however raises two most important attributes that could help today's pastors to maintain anchor to readiness for that unknown day. These two attributes are faithfulness and wisdom. The only way then to restore the defiled servanthood that is today laboring in the house of the LORD, is by the pastors embracing these two most cherished qualities. At this last hour, the pastors ought to shepherd the flock with absolute faithfulness to the assigned tasks in the house of the LORD, while appraising wisdom. This is the only way to centre the fear of the LORD into the church of Christ, in these diminishing moments before rapture. The surprise with which the LORD promises to gather his holy saints in the rapture, is what particularly makes that unknown day very critical to address. Of the two men that work in the house of the LORD (vineyard), the faithful and wise one is reknown for taking good care of the people in the LORD's household by giving them the right food at the proper time. In this final countdown prior to the most anticipated rapture, the hour is ripe for feeding the household of the LORD with the proper spiritual food. Indisputably, the right food on which to feed the church of Christ at this last hour is definitely the righteousness and holiness of the LORD. Now is surely the proper time to cover the sheep with the unfailing Blood of Jesus, which is assuredly the only spiritual nourishment that avails the righteousness and holiness of God. The pastors that realize this most noble task of lawfully tending today's sheep on righteousness, are indeed symbolized by the one man that the LORD takes on that day of reckoning, while leaving the other. To the extent that the Blood of Jesus is the one and only wholesome and ultimate sacrifice, then the act of worship unto the LORD is veritably an all or nothing phenomenon. Nothing can ever be miscible with the precious redeeming Blood of Jesus during worship. The church of Christ is today moving closer and closer to the midnight hour in which case requiring that the sheep be fed correctly at this proper time. On that account, when the midnight hour drew nigh for the house of Jacob in Egypt, the LORD had commanded Moses to instruct the house of Jacob to take the blood of the perfect passover lamb, without defect for that proper time (Exodus 12:1-30). Moses who represents the priesthood, instructed that every household take the blood of the perfect passover lamb, and sprinkle it on the door frames of the houses in which they lived. Sure enough, when the midnight hour struck only the blood of the perfect passover lamb mattered in Egypt. Correspondingly, because the midnight hour has drawn nigh for the church too, then the shepherds who are the priesthood of today, are certainly being instructed to commence feeding the sheep on the blood of Jesus. This is the proper time in which to cover the church, not with prosperity, but with the Blood of Jesus, whose capacity to prompt repentance is unparalleled. In reference to the other man that the rapture catches unaware, and is left behind, the LORD doubtlessly implied today's pastors who instead of preparing in readiness, are busy saying;

'My master is staying away a long time...'

Tragically, a careful look at today's church immediately reveals that as a matter of fact, she has been ensnared by this same old trick of the adversary. It is the only plausible explanation that can account for the current state of slumber, in which the church is not even preparing for the coming of the Messiah. The LORD is today censuring the pastors that are unlawfully engaged in this kind of slumber that they may wake up to the calling of this revival hour. JEHOVAH is doing this with the understanding that the church is the main instrument of the Holy Spirit for transformation across nations. However, the portentous lawlessness with which the rogue disobedient pastors of today take care of the sheep, must have seriously grieved the Holy Spirit to the highest degree possible. Sure as can be, it is this unbecoming heedlessness within today's priesthood that was verily well indexed when the LORD angrily retorted;

"... and he then begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards..."

Assuredly, today's sheep of Christ have been heavily beaten spiritually by the servants who have persistently mauled their meagre finances. In his use of the drunkard to describe shepherds who are in lawlessness, the LORD must have been disgusted with today's disobedience and rebellion within the priesthood. In its raw definition, a drunkard presents as somebody who habitually drinks too much alcohol. These could not have been kind words from the Omnipotent, especially when directed towards His own servants in the house. The only imaginable situation at which the LORD would now call His own pastors drunkards, is when they have surely crossed the red line and abused the very grace that redeemed them from the dungeon of death. Categorically a drunkard is one who habitually drinks alcohol to the extent that he is stupefied and becomes irrational in character and behaviour. Apart from the stinging nature of this stern rebuke, most important then becomes the need to clearly sort out and understand what exactly causes a shepherd to be termed a habitual drunkard. What today's shepherds don't seem to well understand is that of all the enticing snares that the adversary positions in their practice, the love of money is the most intoxicating and addictive of them all. Irrefutably, a closer look at some of the conduct of the present-day shepherds, indeed reveals a state of an intoxicating addiction to the love of money in the church. It is this addictive habitual conduct that has gradually but steadfastly held the church hostage in a state of perennial sin. If only the shepherds had known that habituation to sin constitutes a church that has lost all sensibility to evil thereby being rendered spiritually numb. Granted that the church can continue in sin to the point of addictive drunkenness, then it would be true of her that the threshold of sensibility of sin has been undoubtedly raised. In effect, this is the condition that today tragically prevails among the majority of pastors and congregations in churches. Sin cannot be detected anymore and hence goes unchecked in the christian lifestyle of this age. A lifestyle of this nature is what the LORD articulately referred to as "to eat and drink with drunkards. . ."

Two women grinding

Whereas reference is made to men as servants, women on the other hand do represent the LORD's symbolism of the remnant church. Considering that when the LORD Jesus spoke about His distinguished return to the earth, He referred to it as being synonymous with ten virgins that step out to wait for the bridegroom. By taking one woman out of two, and five wise virgins out of ten, the LORD in essence implied that of the remnant that will step out to seek holiness and await for rapture, only 50% will be gathered-up in that mighty harvest. This becomes yet another shocking reminder that the true meaning of the day and hour unknown, is that the surprise nature with which the LORD will appear, will most definitely find not only the world, but also half of the remnant few unaware. Grinding of wheat kernels with a hand mill is the primary process that gives rise to wheat used for baking bread. Jesus said that He is the living water and He would make the church well-up with springs of living water. He further went on to say that He is the Light of the world, and that the church was made after Him as the Light of the world. The word is the true bread of life and by working with a hand mill to grind wheat kernels into flour, the LORD essentially implied that those two women were teaching the word in the church. And for the LORD to depict how he would aptly move in to take only one of the two women that teach the word in today's church, it must be that the one left behind teaches an adulterated word. Coming from this forewarning, it is now possible to well perceive the consequences of today's impenitent pastors preaching a corrupt gospel. Pertinently, today it is possible to vividly spot multitudes of churches in which the word has been severely corrupted with the current gospel of prosperity, to the extent that they would fit the model of the woman that is left behind at rapture. These are the kinds of churches and christians that the LORD is vigorously reproving by advancing a warning that if they do not reform into penitence and remorsefulness, He would have to pull the rug under their feet. It must be said though, that as much as it is JEHOVAH's utmost desire that nobody ever goes to hell, He however has repeatedly resounded a stern warning on man's failure to shape-up and repent. Admittedly, in that context no shepherd would ever long to envisage that these words of rebuke be fulfilled upon their lives, when the LORD said;

Remember the height from which you have fallen! Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place (Revelation 2:5).

Centrally, it is now feasible to comprehend that when the LORD proclaimed; "that day and the hour no man knoweth. . ." JEHOVAH principally denoted a firm warning that all may wisely prepare for that day, lest they fulfil bible prophecy that promises to leave one woman on earth.

Keeping watch

In order to best interpret the core message with which the LORD declared that; "that day and hour no man knoweth," it is absolutely fundamental to examine the strategic directives that flank this crucial proclamation. Key among them, is the LORD's pronouncement of an austere instruction to the church to be watchful in these last days just before rapture. With such amazement, this heavenly message of watchfulness beholds the difference between a people whom God has called to communicate the light of His sacred truth to the world, and those still groping in darkness. While the church had wondered at the glorious plan of redemption that will consummate at rapture, it is however the secret nature of that unknown day that caused the LORD to caution mankind to be extremely watchful, when He said;

"Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your LORD will come (Matt 24:37-42).

To best attain an excellent illustration of what the LORD of Hosts meant when he said, "keep watch"; the basic definition of 'watchful', cannot be ignored. An exploration of what it takes to be watchful essentially implies being very alert and on a constant lookout by waiting attentively. Furthermore, a watchful person is often a very careful and cautious person, who keeps vigil by staying awake for a given purpose. And in that vigil, the watchful person will always be very observant and highly expectant of the awaited event. If these were the directives that the LORD entrusted upon the church for rapture, then for sure a closer look at the present-day house of the LORD reveals that she must have stooped too low to take up the rude and forbidding rebellion of her earthly surrounding. Whereas the LORD Jesus may have had His glory veiled-up that the majesty of His outward form might not become an object of attraction, but never was this the intention of the light with which the church was ordained in this dark world. In His most humble meekness, the LORD Jesus concealed the original glory with which He was with the Father in the beginning, in order that He may lead people to God the Father. In that way, He purchased all men from all tribe, language, people and nations for our God in heaven (Revelation 5:9). However, when the LORD apportioned the church her ordination, He gave her the right to be the light of this dark world, and never to conceal that lumination. The church was hence supposed to have operated as a witness that Christ is to return in the rapture, but in her failure to do so, none of the heathen would even prepare. This is because both the church and the heathen, have eventually now known not that His coming is now at hand. In their Sunday church services, morning and evening, all was supposed to have been pointing at the Lamb of God, and yet even here there is no preparation to receive Him. Disastrously though, today's rebellious pastors have continued rehearsing their meaningless prayers and performing their rites of worship just to be seen by men, but in their strife for worldly wealth and glory, they have not even prepared the sheep for the LORD's return. These defiant shepherds of today's church, act as though they know not that the greatest event of all the ages is just about to take place. With astonishment this heavenly bride has beheld such a cold indifference on matters of rapture, and this late in the day.

Because the tidings fill heaven with enormous joy and a deeper more tender interest for the holy beings, God Almighty deemed it fit to compel the church to prepare for the coming of the holy Messiah. In view of the LORD's most striking advisory on the gravity of watchfulness, the question then becomes, 'Why has the present day church not bothered to be watchfully alert and on the lookout for that sudden snatching away of the saints?' This modern day church has literally faulted on every aspect of watchfulness as advanced

In view of the LORD's most striking advisory on the gravity of watchfulness, the question then becomes, 'Why has the present day church not bothered to be watchfully alert and on the lookout for that sudden snatching away of the saints?'

by the LORD. For instance, if watchfulness indeed denotes a state of being very alert, then the question becomes; is today's church really spiritually alert with regard to the coming of the Messiah? A church that is alert is one that is fully aware, attentive, and wide-awake, especially at this last hour as the nations delicately veer towards rapture. Contrarily, the kind of apathetic indifference that pervades the church world over, with its selfish and world-engrossed clamour for earthly things, today's christian can in no way be any closer to watchfulness. What becomes even more disturbing is the fact that alertness also requires that one be swift and agile. And yet it is today common knowledge to all christians that the current church of Christ is no where close to any form of agility, especially if the wedding of the Lamb were to take place today and now. And lo! If it is true that alertness also requires one to adopt an attitude of vigilance, caution and readiness towards an expected event, then how far wafted off is today's church from the basic command of God. Today's christians ought to have appreciated the importance of spiritual vigilance in order to not only do exploits for the kingdom, but also to preserve their hard-won spiritual gains as the coming of the Messiah draws closer. How about caution? Acknowledging that the church is still as much the focus of God's solicitous love, then the spiritual alertness with which God is counselling christians to walk, as a matter of fact, defines a life under a state of advisory. And this is totally consistent with what happens in ordinary life, when an advisory is issued for people to maintain a constant alertness in readiness for an impending act. Today the church of Christ stands at the threshold of rapture thereby desperately demanding a state of high alert. But since faith can in no way be allied to presumption in these most critical last days, then spiritual alertness among christians must undoubtedly include a lifestyle depicted by a constant lookout. This becomes absolutely imperative as today's saints attentively await the rapture. And if there was any way in which to validate the alertness with which the LORD is appraising the church today, then it becomes the call to live a very observant life and be highly expectant of that long-awaited event, the coming of the Messiah.

To be on Guard

Because faith petitions God's promises, and yields forth the spiritual fruit of obedience for those who are watchful, then, there will be in store for them a crown of righteousness which the LORD, the Righteous Judge will award them who have longed for His appearing (2 Timothy 4:8). The most important cradle of a life lived in spiritual watchfulness, is the righteousness that it establishes and sparkles in the lives of the saints.

"No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Be on guard! Be alert! You do not know when that time will come. It's like a man going away: He leaves his house and puts his servants in charge, each with his assigned task, and tells the one at the door to keep watch. "Therefore keep watch because you do not know when the owner of the house will come back—whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or at dawn. If he comes suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to everyone: 'Watch!'

God will safeguard all those who walk in the path of obedience in the highway of holiness; but to depart from it constitutes a ruinous venture into the devil's pit hole. Central to obedience is the capacity to be able to recognize that when scripture repeatedly echoes a warning about a particular thing, then extreme caution ought to be paid it. The LORD Jesus too did not presume on God's instructive word by acting unbidden, hence nor should we on this matter of being watchful even unto the rapture. In this perspective, even the scripture in Mark 13:32-37, continues to reiterate the same directive that, that day and hour is not known, thereby requiring the church to be highly watchful. However, when the scripture in Mark 13:32-37 tackles the secrecy of that day of gathering, it brings to light the need for the church to be on guard. Being on guard essentially means the protection of something against danger or loss. Prefaced with the secrecy of the eminent day of Christ's return, being on guard becomes an important attribute of christian walk at this hour. To best underline the import of what is advanced here, it is absolutely imperative that the church perceive the risk of plunder and loss for which the LORD commands the saints to be on guard. The risk of plunder that the LORD is expressing serious concern over, involves the dangers posed by the adversary over a life of purity. Today the church has largely ignored this timely precaution and terribly gotten entangled in the heedless lifestyle of compromise with sin. Believing that His great love and mercy would save them from the consequences of sin, today many christians have indulged in presumption that has led them to transgress His law. It is a life that is absolutely deceptive and disastrous because all the LORD ever wanted was to lead the church to a place where she would cease to be unnecessarily in the way of temptation. Keeping guard then becomes very fundamental in the christian walk in order to safeguard a righteous salvation. God Almighty Himself has for a long time emphasized the importance of safeguarding the latter anointing of the Holy Spirit at this hour. In one such case, JEHOVAH forewarned of the great risk of plunder that would be eminent in these days, when He said,

Then I heard what sounded like a voice among the four living creatures, saying, "A quart of wheat for a day's wages, and three quarts of barley for a day's wages, and do not damage the oil and the wine!" (Rev 6:6)

thereby bringing them down. This phenomenon is happening more and more today with lawless shepherds exploiting the otherwise well aspiring christians. The shepherds who set themselves to intercept the wonderful communion between the LORD and the remnant elect, do so by exploiting ignorance on the part of their victims. God Almighty clamoured to the apocalyptic rider of the black horse and instructed him not to damage the oil and the wine. The oil and the wine are used in this context by the LORD in order to symbolize the latter anointing of the Holy Spirit and its power. However, for the LORD to have yelled out for the protection of that last-promised anointing on the church, there must have been the real danger of a serious plunder of that most authoritative anointing. How though can man receive the latter rain that was promised in Joel 2:28-32, and then recklessly allow plunder? That implies that the glory and peace of heaven and the joy of communion with God, were but dimly comprehended by man, and yet well known to the adversary. The enemy must be aware of the great potential of the latter anointing in literally redeeming not only the fallen church, but also the heathen into rapture. This is the only plausible translation of why the enemy can easily rush for the latter anointing in the church, while the church is still not on her guard. The Man of God from Judah in 1 Kings 13 offers the most pertinent reality of what can befall a faithful christian lifestyle when the anointing is not safeguarded and hence plundered.

Now there was a certain old prophet living in Bethel, whose sons came and told him all that the man of God had done there that day. They also told their father what he had said to the king. Their father asked them, "Which way did he go?" And his sons showed him which road the man of God from Judah had taken. So he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." And when they had saddled the donkey for him, he mounted it and rode after the man of God. He found him sitting under an oak tree and asked, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" "I am," he replied. So the prophet said to him, "Come home with me and eat." The man of God said, "I cannot turn back and go with you, nor can I eat bread or drink water with you in this place. I have been told by the word of the LORD: 'You must not eat bread or drink water there or return by the way you came.' " The old prophet answered, "I too am a prophet, as you are. And an angel said to me by the word of the LORD: 'Bring him back with you to your house so that he may eat bread and drink water.' "(But he was lying to him.) So the man of God returned with him and ate and drank in his house. While they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the old prophet who had brought him back. He cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, "This is what the LORD says: 'You have defied the word of the LORD and have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you. You came back and ate bread and drank water in the place where he told you not to eat or drink. Therefore your body will not be buried in the tomb of your fathers.' "When the man of God had finished eating and drinking, the prophet who had brought him back saddled his donkey for him. As he went on his way, a lion met him on the road and killed him, and his body was thrown down on the road, with both the donkey and the lion standing beside it. (1 Kings 13:11-24).

There was the sin of obedience in this man of God from Judah, the working of the power that withstood the dominion of darkness and that is the reason, the enemy, with intense interest watched the wonders that he had done at the altar. The old prophet here represents the old anointing that has broken ranks with the LORD and adulterated, because of compromise with sin. While on the other hand, the man of God from Judah stands for the new anointing that satan knew he did not hold absolute sway over. The only way then, was to employ a most cunning deception at a time when the man of God from Judah had not raised his guard. This whole episode led to the plunder of a most precious fresh anointing of the LORD because of not keeping guard. Today this acts as a vivid reminder to the church, on the seriousness of preserving the fresh latter anointing of this hour, against plunder. To keep guard, the church must also watch over and control passage through the entrance across her boundaries. In Israel, watch sentry towers were erected along the perimeter wall that enclosed the house of the LORD. And on each booth stood a man who watched over and kept guard to ensure that the marauding Bedouins did not gain entry, with their livestock, into the house of the LORD. That would have constituted a most grievous defilement upon the sacred house. The church too must keep guard and maintain vigilance that the marauding preachers of prosperity, preachers of financial anointing and wealth transfer, false prophets, and the marauding false apostles do no gain entry into this most treasured house of the LORD. Since keeping guard as raised by the LORD also entails to control and restrain aspects such as speech and behaviour, then it goes without saying that the church ought to live a guarded life that reflects the salvation she has. Hence when the LORD said that that day and hour no man knoweth, He significantly gave a very powerful message to this end church on the need to keep guard in order to enter the kingdom of heaven. This he emphasized that they would observe in order to overvalue heavenly things and set their hearts upon the coming of the Messiah. However, not without hindrance would the church hearken unto the righteousness of the LORD by keeping guard. The adversary will always strive to place stumbling blocks that hinder the church from guarding the precious holiness of the LORD which was inherited through salvation. Today's christians however, should find consolation in the fact that even the LORD Jesus, from the time when he was a babe in Bethlehem, till the end of his mission here on the earth, he was continually assailed by the evil one. But the image of God was continually manifest in Him and throughout the councils of man wherever He testified. This is why even the church today faces the forces of confederacy of evil that have been set up on her track to engage in warfare against her and if possible, to prevail over her image of God. It highlights to a great extent, just how central it is for the church to jealously keep guard over the most sacred anointing of the Holy Spirit through whom she can overcome the adversary. One of the most powerful of tools that the church can engage to harvest the souls, in this most critical dispensation, is communication. Apparently, this most valuable skill of communication appears to have been banished from the church's presentation. Whereas the LORD Jesus employed this heavenly skill of communication to draw all men unto the LORD, the church has instead not exploited this for the kingdom. The LORD Jesus communicated to his audience by both voice and behaviour. In other words, he walked the talk that caused all the nations to desire the kingdom of God. On the other hand, in the church's attempts to communicate, the tones of her voice have instead reflected an expression of utter incredulity, even as her words rankle a form of bitterness in the minds of the heathen. Today's unbelievers have now perceived that in the church's manner of speaking to them, there was a disguised attempt to extort money from them in the gospel of prosperity and financial wealth transfer. The current rampant fronting of the gospel of 'sow-a-seed and obtain your miracle now', has become the biggest curse and undoing in the church. It is because this gospel of money and wealth that today saturates the Global Christian Television networks, has become well recognized by the unbelievers to be an utter contempt unto the holy name of Jesus, as it constitutes the blatant selling of the Blood of Jesus. Hence, when the LORD commanded that the church keep guard, it also connoted the instruction to shield her words in order to ensure that only what is spiritually beneficial to Christ Jesus, is released. How artfully beneficial would the church approach the heathen with the gospel had she restrained herself from the spiritually maligning preaching and behaviour that she is currently engaged in. Because guarding also bestows on one the responsibility of shielding somebody or something, then, the church as the light of the world has the responsibility of shielding the nations of the earth from being overtaken by the current spiritual darkness. The LORD God demands of the church as ambassadors of Christ to exemplify his holy and righteous image of THE LIGHT.

Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did (1 John 2:6).

The LORD Jesus came as a witness to testify concerning the light so that through him mankind might believe and be aided in his life of toil. He came to affirm the authenticity of the kingdom of God to which he bore witness. Christ whom the church follows is the light from whom comes all spiritual illumination because He is the light of the world who holds out the wonderful hope for man. For with Him is the fountain of life and in his light mankind saw light. Amply attested was the fact that the incarnation of Christ unveiled the hidden mystery of God's light to the church, that eagerly awaited man's submissiveness to the appointed time. The church was destined to likewise reflect this light of Christ onto this dark world. And because the adversary has a covert negative intention to create a doubt on the divine truthfulness of the gospel, through the deceptive preaching of money and false prophecies in today's church; it is indeed also the responsibility of the few remnant holy saints to jealously safeguard the hard-won holy gospel of the Blood and light of Jesus, from eminent defame by the darkness of this world. As did God send his divine angel to stay the hand of Abraham from offering Isaac on that mountain, so was he satisfied with Christ's willingness to enter the bloodstained path, and hence the Father sent Him the Holy Spirit to deliver him from death. This is the same message of hope that the Holy Spirit brings to today's church, that even as was the Saviour so faint from distress and rejection, hunger and the craving for a drink on the Cross, so was the LORD faithful enough to deliver him even from pits of death. Pointing to this, the Holy Spirit is instructing the remnant elect saint of today that however marred their visage may appear today from that of the worldly, now the moment of deliverance and hope has drawn nigh (Romans 13:11-14). This is the bloodstained path that the LORD OF HOSTS pleaded with the church to jealously safeguard and keep watch over, that no marauding strangers may defile. It is the withholding of such beautiful truth concerning the revelation of what the LORD meant when he commanded, 'keep guard', is what has today spurred up a contradiction between the corrupt sentiments that the church is spewing out, and the spiritually exalted position she ought to be at this last hour. Considering that things can get pretty decayed in an unchecked christian walk, then the LORD's instruction to keep watch must have been instructed by the need to in-build within the holy christians the responsibility of acting as a safeguard in the house of the LORD. A safeguard on a machine normally serves to monitor any signs of malfunction and dysfunction, and promptly reports them before the machine is irretrievably destroyed. Likewise, the LORD is instilling upon his remnant holy elect in the house, to keep guard as a safeguard and 'safety valve' and promptly report any signs of decay that may terminally destroy the house if unchecked.

The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean (Rev 19:14).

The directive that the LORD gave when he said keep guard, supersedes this realm and transcends into the next dispensation. This is principally due to the fact that in Rev 19:14, we see that Christ the Commander of the heavenly hosts is heavily guarded by the raptured saints who safeguard him as he makes that triumphant entry into Jerusalem. Given that Christ was most heavily assailed by the fiercest of temptations in the time of his greatest weakness during fasting, then to keep guard in today's church, would essentially also imply being aware that today's saints must always maintain a firm reliance upon "Thus saith the LORD", as their strongest rod. With the rod of "Thus saith the LORD", the saints today can literally ward off any attack. But, the fact that the enemy has today well tried the faith and submission of shepherds and saints alike, can only imply a state of lesser reliance on "Thus saith the LORD", as their main line of defence. "Men shall not live on bread alone, but by every word that proceeded out of the mouth of God". This must be guarded in the lifestyle of every believer in order to see the kingdom of heaven. The digression that today's church has experienced from the central holiness of the LORD indeed reflects a major departure from the fealty with which she was sworn in her ordination vow at the table of the Last Supper.

See that what you have heard from the beginning remains in you. If it does, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father. And this is what he promised us—even eternal life. I am writing these things to you about those who are trying to lead you astray. As for you, the anointing you received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and as that anointing is real, not counterfeit—just as it has taught you, remain in him. And now, dear children, continue in him, so that when he appears we may be confident and unashamed before him at his coming. If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who does what is right has been born of him (1 John 2:24-29).

Emplaced in that beautiful instruction handed down to the church, when he Said, 'keep guard', is the instruction that; in the presence of the witnessing universe, the LORD testifies that it is a lesser calamity to suffer whatever may befall man, than to depart in any way from the will and holiness of God. One can only imagine the magnitude of fie of disapproval that must be resonating from the LORD towards the present day church because of her departure from His righteous will, into the gospel of prosperity. Deep into the wilderness, when all means of sustenance had failed, God Himself sent Israel manna from heaven. And a sufficiently constant supply was provided for them. The LORD then said to Israel,

"I have humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger and fed thee with manna which thou knowest not, and neither did thy fathers know it, that I might make thee know that men doth not liveth by the bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD, doth men liveth." (Deut 8:2-3).

That provision was to teach Israel that while they trusted in JEHOVAH God and walked in his ways, he would not forsake them but provide sufficiently for them. The LORD is today petitioning the church to keep guard on this basic biblical principle that she may be provided for miraculously and sufficiently, in order not to drift into the present day despondency. Such despondency has even brought sexual sin in the church. In the New Testament, it is the Blood of Jesus that provides for the saints miraculously sufficiently and abundantly. It is this Blood of Jesus that was given to the church in the beginning as an everlasting pledge of livelihood, that the LORD commands the church to keep guard of. The question then becomes; has the present-day church of Christ jealously and zealously kept guard of what they received, even at the beginning? How come today's christians have not seen it yet, that in the last greatest conflict of the controversy with the world, those who are loyal to God, by keeping guard of the holy salvation they received from the beginning, will see every earthly support replenished because they refused to break his law of obedience to the righteous Blood of Jesus. Then, the central enunciation that 'the day and the hour is unknown', indeed percolates very deep into every fibre of the holy christian walk as the church is required to prepare for the glorious appearing of the Messiah. The adversary operating through the world and the flesh, has always endeavoured to cause man to sacrifice his conscientious convictions unto the power of the Blood of Jesus. But, unfortunately for the adversary, the day is coming when he shall be ashamed in his evil, and his fake fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall his counterfeit vines bear fruit, and the labour of his fake olives shall fail, as the holy saints, and I repeat holy, shall joy in the salvation of their God. This is the eternal hope that the church of Christ ought to enviously keep guard of. These are the holy and righteous elect who will have patiently endured the harassment of this evil world, and tolerantly awaited God's time to bring relief, in the safety of rapture. Of all the invaluable lessons to be learnt from our LORD Jesus Christ, and His wilderness experience, none is more important than that which bears upon the control of the appetites and the passions being fronted by this world on a daily basis upon the christians of this day and age. And to God's holy elect, should come home the vivid reminder of the uncontrolled indulgence, and disease, and degradation of the heart, and the decay condition of this world, that will be upon its face as it was during the floods of Noah and in the Sodom and Gommorah. The church is commanded to cover herself with the precious Blood of Jesus upon the verge of this fearful time she now lives in. Only those christians who will bring their lives, livelihood, and lifestyle, under the subjection of the supreme will of God, shall undoubtedly constitute the royal bride of Christ on that unknown day and hour of his return.

Not to sleep

Without being heavily subjected to a thorough public exposition of this nature, the critical Mark 13:34-37 narrative of the day and hour unknown, can be most easily left mingled and unnoticed within the enormous throng of biblical scriptural milieu. In this holy text, the LORD introduces yet another very critical domain of the discourse on the rapture of the church, and the need for preparedness. This, JEHOVAH does by elevating the greatness that was already dwelt upon with kindling enthusiasm in the previous Matthew 24 dialogue on the unknown nature of the day for Christ's return. Upon the occasion of the coming of the Messiah, to which such prominence has been given by the said scripture, JEHOVAH said;

"It's like a man going away: He leaves his house and puts his servants in charge, each with his assigned task, and tells the one at the door to keep watch. "Therefore keep watch because you do not know when the owner of the house will come back—whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or at dawn. If he comes suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to everyone: 'Watch!' (Mark 13:34-37).

Thus a high price for being watchful could be secured and rewarded, especially on the day of reckoning at Christ's return. Having dwelt in this word, the remnant church would not be left out without performing the most novel act of devotional worship at the wedding feast of the Lamb. This being the chief reason for which the holy remnant elect have earnestly waited this long. This Mark 13:34-37 scripture further highlights that the unknown nature of that day is synonymous to a man going away and leaving his house and servants in charge, each with His assigned task. The church today has been assigned His task of making disciples of Christ Jesus across the ends of the earth. Incredibly though, the act of discipling bestows the responsibility on the teacher that his disciples may be, 'like father, like son'. At this place, today's shepherds have failed to score the mark due to the horrific promiscuous rate at which money is being preached and pastors are falling from glory. The attestation to the fact that the instruction to accomplish His task in the house, has largely gone unheeded arises from the chaotic spiritual disorder that now pervades the church. Such disorder is likened to the consequent mayhem that reigned in the Temple of the LORD on Mt. Moriah during the grand fall when promiscuity overtook all the holy order that the LORD had bestowed. Then the Temple of the LORD indicated more of a noisy tempest of a cattle market rather than the sacred house of JEHOVAH, as there could be heard sharp upheaval of bargaining, the chaotic lowing of cattle, the commotion of bleating sheep, and the turmoil of cooing doves, all together combined with the shinking of the shekelim coins and the angry disputation of payment disagreements. It then became so chaotic that the worshippers were literally disturbed and the word preached totally perished in the uproar of the invasion upon the august house. Today too, the failure of the church to heed the instruction of the Owner of the House, and her subsequent abscondment from performing His assigned task, has led to a similar tempest. Pastors can today openly be seen busy selling and bargaining on the price of Olive oil, presenting special offers of the day, and howling at the top of their voices in attempt to be the most heard in the market place. Thus has been abandoned the taught lesson that wherever God manifests His presence, the place be considered holy. This is what in the Mark 13:34-37 record on the unknown day of Christ's return was well referred to, as the church falling asleep. With such a searching glance, Christ had taken on the scene before him when he took three of his most beloved disciples to the garden of Gethsemane and instead of being watchful, they fell asleep. The heart-rending rebuke that the LORD handed down upon the sleeping church at Gethsemane on that day, revealed His prophetic insight that already had looked into futurity and seen not only the years but also the centuries and ages in which the church would depart from the truth and be put to sleep by the enemy.

"If he comes suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping..."

---

With these words come a sense of extreme fear that totally overpowers as though the church were arraigned before the tribunal of the LORD. The presence of these old words sanctified the church and indeed made sacred a Temple reared unto the LORD, only if the church can today wake up from the long slumber she has been in. The LORD forewarned the saints for He foreknew how the inclination of their hearts would be corrupted with immorality and the love of money in this last hour.

The zeal of thine house has eaten me up (KJV). For zeal for your house consume me and the insults of those who insult you fall on me (NIV) (Psalm 69:9).

---

Oh lo! How the LORD wishes that the officers of His Temple would today open their mouths and make these beautiful utterances in the House and right before His holy presence. In this present age, the tent of the LORD is totally destroyed and lies desolate with no devout worshippers since all their hearts have turned callous, and no one is left to pitch JEHOVAH's tent at this last hour. Any ardent spirit-filled christian eye-balling the church of Christ today, would be terribly awestruck by the great overshadowing of the truth by deception and falsehood. Then also during the time of the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem, it is the abhor of what was unfolding in the house that caused JEHOVAH to seriously lament the condition of His tent, even when he said;

He then brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD, and there at the entrance to the temple, between the portico and the altar, were about twenty-five men. With their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, they were bowing down to the sun in the east (Ezekiel 8:16).

The artificial worship in today's churches couldn't have been any much more closer to what Ezekiel the prophet saw, than it really does now. Darkened and defiled by evil, the hearts of the worshippers today no longer reveal the glory of the Divine Holy One of Israel. Today's pastors have literally turned their backs towards the altar and are now sitting at the entrance of the house facing east by accumulating theological knowledge that exalts human wisdom at the expense of the honourable instruction of the Holy Spirit. Sexual sin has now officially come on board, as false prophets, false apostles, and other witches continue to run the show in the house of the LORD. If this does not constitute worshipping in the house with their backs turned towards the altar and their faces towards the sun, then what else does? What today's pastors need to wake up to, is the realization that the church was erected by the LORD for the abode of the divine presence of the Holy Spirit, and was designed to be the object lesson for the nations, of what the bride of Christ would present. Just like the new Jerusalem, descended down from on high, in the splendour of her glorious adornment and in the glamour of her righteous inhabitants, and in the radiance of the Son of Man who is her light, so was the church supposed to luminare at this dark hour. God Almighty in heaven designed that the church of Christ should be a continual witness to the highest providence and destiny available to every soul ever created on the earth. In failure to realize this witness, who shall stand when He appears? Know ye not that ye are the temple of the Living God and that the Spirit of the Living God dwelleth in you?

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are (1 Corinthians 3:16-17).

It is absolutely portentous for perpetual sin to overshadow this noble destiny at which the christians are themselves the temple of the living God. Like it was during the temple times in Jerusalem, when the defiled promiscuity around the temple courts represented all too truly the temple of their hearts then, so it is today in this present-day church that the defilement of prosperity gospel and decay is the true reflection of the state of the heart of the believer. Today, the christian hearts have been thoroughly polluted with excessive over-indulgence with worldly pleasures and the sensual contamination such as dressings and fashions and fads that present near nudity and many so-called spoils, that define this day and age. While this goes on, the inveterate word of God is firmly established in heaven, saying that know ye not that ye are the temple of the living God, and that the Spirit of the living God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of the living God, know him not that God shall destroy him? For the temple of the living God is holy which ye are. On the Cross at Calvary, Christ Jesus shed his atoning Blood in order to cleanse this heart temple that today lies littered with all the filth of the world, including immorality, pornography, homosexuality, and adultery. As he hung on that Cross at Calvary, the sights of authority, indignation, power, and righteousness were greatly expressed in his marred appearance. This is the suffering and the passion of the Christ, that the church ought to have never forgotten, since it was the building of a temple for which they should have greatly rejoiced over and regarded as absolute favour. Numerous cultural practices are today enjoined upon church services and activities without a proper instruction as to their exact import into christian life and righteousness. This has caused the worshippers to offer their sacrifice of worship without comprehending that they are actually typical and an archetype of the one and only perfect sacrifice who is the LORD Jesus Christ. Hence, when the LORD proclaimed that, that day and hour is unknown, he truly emphasized on the work that Jesus performed on the Cross, and we should never forget this. In order to not lose that which they received from the beginning, the church must always keep in mind that over the centuries, she has pressed into Christ's presence with urgent pitiful appeals requiring of the LORD to bless her and that the LORD's ears have heard every cry emanating from her. With extreme pity that exceeds that of the sons of men, the LORD has always stooped low over the suffering of man and given attention to everyone by healing them of whatever afflictions. The LORD is earnestly desiring to restore the soul and the body that they may return home to him and proclaim the unmatched majesty of his name.

The trap

Further forewarning the church regarding Christ's unknown day of return, the LORD diligently details in the book of Luke by elaborately saying that;

"Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with dissipation, drunkenness and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you unexpectedly like a trap. For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth. Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man." (Luke 21:34-36 NIV).

In Luke, when the LORD describes that secret day of rapture, He raises the following important aspects required for a righteous preparation: i) being careful ii) hearts weighed down iii) hearts dissipated iv) drunkenness v) anxieties vi) a trap vii) being watchful viii) to pray ix) the great escape x) to stand before the Son of God. These spiritual features are so critical to the church in order that she may prepare perfectly for the Coming Lamb of God, who is without blemish. There is no better place at which to encounter the perfect nature of JEHOVAH than when He talks about the consecration with which the believers must walk in the days towards the coming of the Messiah. Mirroring His demand for the offering presented at passover, to be without blemish, that offering indeed represented Christ the Son of the Living God. Evidenced in that passover sacrifice that Israel presented before the LORD, was indeed Jesus Christ Himself as the eternal offering that is free from any spiritual or physical deformity.

but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect (1 Peter 1:19).

God had promised to dedicate the First-born of heaven to save the sinners and that this gift would be acknowledged in each and every household, by the earnest consecration of their first-born. In the historic deliverance of Israel from Egypt, the dedication of the first-borns was again commanded that the law of the presentation of the first-born may be made particularly significant. While it was a memorial and lasting ordinance of the LORD's wonderful deliverance of the children of Israel, it profoundly prefigured the great deliverance that was to be wrought-out by the First-born of heaven onto all humanity. As the Blood sprinkled on the doorposts had saved the first-borns of Israel, so the Blood of Christ was meant to save the entire world. And if this is the One after whom the church has been bidden to righteously prepare for, then how much of readiness should the church be clothed in today. "Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear." (Fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the saints (Rev 19:7). To the extent that the LORD Almighty describes the unknown day of rapture as a trap, it must surely mean that only a select devout and holy few will make it. Upon its classical definition, a trap is a device meant to catch and kill or prevent from escaping. Such a device is often known to include a concealed pit or a mechanical device that springs shut. Absolutely stunning is the understanding that the LORD has set up the day of Christ's return as a trap that is intended to ambush and trick the unwatchful to death. It is a day that JEHOVAH has decreed for catching them unawares into a situation in which it will be difficult to escape. But an even greater shock resonates from the fact that this trap has been set up and lies concealed with the intent of catching the disobedient. This declaration of a trap at rapture is meant to be a startling factor that can only befit an occasion that is meant to not only humiliate the disobedient, but also bring them to death. Looking through that day and hour that is unknown, it is possible to then see how horrifically agonizing the post-rapture tribulation period will be. If indeed it is meant to ensure that nobody escapes, then he who paid the ransom for the sins of the whole world, has offered us the best opportunity for getting away.

The majority of christians today turn out to religious services and feel goose-bumps, self-refreshed and pseudo-comforted by the word preached at those pulpits. But through the rampart lawlessness that is being disseminated at those pulpits, today's believers have virtually neglected meditation on the word, watchfulness, prayer and fasting, hence losing the opportunity to prepare in righteousness for the coming of the LORD. In that way, the church has found herself in a place where she is more of a spiritual destitute than even before she received the word. This agony has resulted into her sorrowing and hence the desperate feeling that God has dealt hardly with them. The christians today do not see that the fault is their own, especially because by separating themselves from the righteousness of the LORD, they have essentially shut away the light of His presence. Idle-talk, neglect of prayer, evil-speaking are among some of the sorrowful acts that have caused the church to drift afar, and lose the Saviour's presence and peace. The only path to restoration shall have to come from the church re-loving Jesus much more than the world, so that the hearts of the believers may once more be softened by His Divine Influence, as their own character behold the beauty of Christ's nature.

If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing our LORD and Savior Jesus Christ and are again entangled in it and overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning. It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them (2 Peter 2:20-21).

Today's wealth and its fraudulent pelf is what has caused the church to continually ponder on the matter of preparedness, despite the warning that Christ's return will present like a trap. While the earthly priesthood will one day cease to exist, all attention will then be focused upon the Holy Spirit as the Minister of the new law and unto the Blood sprinkling that he received at God's throne by the beautiful works at the Cross. Men's perception of deeper spiritual events such as the prophetic dispensation the church has entered into, can be parochial unless inspired by the Blessed One of Israel. It is for that reason that the Prophet Joel declared a time of muse insight into the word for the final purification of the church. Today the church of Christ lives in the season of the greatest outpour of the Blessed One of Israel whose presence lavishes mankind with deeper revelation on the word, never seen before. In the book of Luke then, when the LORD announced for the church to be careful regarding the day of the coming of the Messiah, he literally implied that the church must now act with caution and attention. Moreover, JEHOVAH's reprimand in declaring 'be careful', meant that in the sanctuary of the LORD, the christians must now show close attention to accuracy and the detail of everything and anything regarding that unknown day of Christ's return. In other words, the LORD is today pleading with the church to stop the casual and careless christian lifestyle she has beheld over time, and to now take heed because of the proximity to rapture. In other words, JEHOVAH having foreseen the advent of post-modernism advancing towards the church, he intended that the church give a serious attention to the forewarning and advice on the secrecy of that day of rapture. And indeed take that seriousness into account when acting at all times.

In the earthly tabernacle that Moses established, the church can learn a few things pertinent to this hour. The way to the holy of holies was concealed and no man was allowed to access that mighty presence of JEHOVAH. But when Jesus died on the Cross and purchased all men, his atoning Blood covered the Mercy Seat of the Ark of the Covenant of God, and opened a way for the church into the most holy site. But when it now comes to the unknown day and hour of Christ's return, God Almighty decrees with certainty that the way into the holiest of all is well manifest through Christ Jesus. In that way, JEHOVAH declares that the day of rapture is like a trap meant to ensnare not only the heathen, but most seriously also the unfaithful christians.

The thief

The “thief” comes most unexpectedly. The “thief” also comes into the house not to take anything and everything available but to scoop only precious items such as the golden stuff. Therefore, the present day church ought to ensure that she becomes a precious entity (2 Tim 2:19-20) and golden enough in order to be snatchable by this coming midnight “thief”.

And test you like gold... (Zech 13:7-9).

Believers are today thirsting for the knowledge of the truth, in a desperate attempt to regain their bearing towards godliness. In this quest for spiritual clarity, it has now emerged apparent that only the LORD God can impart the Spirit of inspiration upon the church, by constantly renewing her onto the knowledge of the truth for this last hour. The church is desolate and scattered globally and the expectation of the Messiah's coming is to some extent being shared more like a fable whose reality has been reduced far beyond achievable. It is such human bigotry that has hindered the light from shining through the hearts of men. For which reason, an even greater spiritual hunger has manifest causing the sheep to feed virtually anything advanced to them. In the process, it has cost the church her most precious time of preparation for the King's coming. However, in the midst of that beclouded view on the Messiah's return, the LORD re-kindles humanity's hope by declaring that that day will materialize, and sooner than later. However, the only standard being that JEHOVAH categorizes the utmost secrecy of that unknown day and hour, like a thief.

Now, brothers, about times and dates we do not need to write to you, for you know very well that the day of the LORD will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, “Peace and safety,” destruction will come on them suddenly, as labour pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you, brothers, are not in darkness so that this day should surprise you like a thief. You are all sons of the light and sons of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness 1 Thess 5:1-5.

It is a call to a holy preparedness.

The LORD's Sheep Devoured

The May 14th, 2010 Vision of the LORD

The Vision

The desire for an earnest reformation in the church, right now sits at the centre of the LORD's Heart. The confession of sin appears to be distant, hence His appeal and repeated renunciation of the church's apostate ways at this hour. There is no better place at which to perceive God's yearning for the church to reform, than at this very stunning May 14th, 2010, night vision of the LORD. It was between 3-4am in the night, when the LORD God Almighty visited with me in a very very astonishing way, to talk to me about the state of the church today. In that vision, the LORD brought me to a place of worship and took me around in the Spirit, to show me the different aspects of His house that needed a thorough reformation. Within the house of the LORD were the sheep of Christ worshipping. However, JEHOVAH the God of Israel then showed me the shepherds in the house, in their most shameful form of complacency. The LORD in this vision, made me know that the shepherds were very much aware of the grim danger that lay outside the house of the LORD.

The devour

Outside the house of the LORD, I was then able to see lots of wild beasts that looked like mean dogs with very long mouths that were beak-like. Those dogs were most aggressive and with very sharp teeth and were roaming outside the house of the LORD. The LORD made me appreciate the great danger that they posed onto the lives of the sheep that were inside the house of worship. Then, at that time, an immediate instruction was handed down from heaven to the shepherds, directing them to be extra cautious and vigilant with gate-keeping that the wild beasts may not make their way into the sanctuary. However, to my greatest shock and stun, I witnessed in this vision as the shepherds tried to shut the door to the sanctuary in vain. The door that the shepherds were trying to shut had been seriously compromised in its strength and ability to keep the beasts out of the house of the LORD. Though seriously compromised, that temple door that the LORD showed me, still maintained some significantly strong reinforcement of vertical iron bars that could practically keep the wild beasts out of the house of the LORD if well shut. Within this tremendous vision of the LORD, I was then very shocked to see that as the shepherds tried to close the door, the outside wild beasts aggressively advanced towards the very door, with the intent to attack the sheep that they could well see through the bars of the ravaged door. It was then that I saw the complacent pastors who had no vigilance, literally being overpowered by the beasts at the door. In a moment, the beasts overpowered the reluctant pastors and made their way into the sanctuary. It was also most stunning to realize that the shepherds did not have even a stick in their hands, or a shepherd's rod with which to ward off the attack that was now eminent in the house of the LORD. Then, at that moment came forth the horrendous yelling, wailing and mourning of the sheep as the beasts began to recklessly devour them. When this was bad enough a situation to handle, then came the most horrific episode within this attack. In a split-second, when I looked towards my right-hand side, then I saw that the sanctuary wall on that right-hand side had a collapsed portion that made it porous. I was then able to see a group of more grievous wild beasts outside the sanctuary of the LORD. The wild beasts I saw had some longer tails and sharper teeth contained in their long beak-like mouths. Those beasts that I saw marauding outside on the right-hand side of the Temple, appeared to be more dangerous and were in a large group. It was then that it took a very short time and I was so stunned and shocked to witness how those beasts made their way into the sanctuary of the LORD. Then, from that point on, nothing else mattered except a massive commotion of tempest that ensued in the house of the LORD. The LORD then took me around the house after the beasts had destroyed the sheep and what I saw was absolutely unsightly. There was a terrible scatter as many sheep had been heavily beaten and devoured to the point that they lay all over the grass in the house. The grass in the vicinity was totally trampled upon and blood-stained in the struggle that ensued when the sheep were being bitterly and terribly devoured and mauled. While some of them had been severely maimed, with some limb totally plucked off at the sharpness of the teeth of the wild beasts, others on the other hand, had their stomachs plucked off and eaten. The amount of blood that was *smear*ed at the place as the struggle went on, was totally abhorrible and an unsightly scene to behold. The horrific destruction trail that the wild beasts left behind is what absolutely shocked me in that vision to the point that I broke down and wept. On the other hand, as the LORD continued to take me around the house, I also found other sheep that were hiding within the grass, totally under trying to evade the attack, and they lay there with their little ones in a state of extreme fear and trauma. This ugly invasion into the house of the LORD took place in two quarters, from the ravaged door on the left hand-side and the collapsed wall that created the porous entry from the right-hand side. The LORD made me experience the agony that consumed Him as He watched the precious defenceless sheep of Christ mercilessly devoured. The wild beasts that invaded the house of the LORD to devour appeared to have come with the one and only objective, to destroy as much as could be achievable in the shortest time. Even most astonishing to me was when the LORD made me understand in this vision, that after the heavy devour, the sheep lay there helplessly. But, to witness the cascade of events boiling down to the massive carnage, is what exactly made me weep in that tremendous vision of the LORD. My heart sank so deep in this vision when the LORD finally took me around to witness the excessive damage that had been done on his special sheep and their current helpless condition. The vision I saw greatly troubled me so much.

Pastors picking up their bicycles

Then came the second part of this vision at which the LORD OF HOSTS showed me a white car and asked me to go speak to the pastors that were standing by. The LORD OF HOSTS gave me a strict directive to ask the pastors to come with me and enter the white car that I was going to drive towards the mission field. It is incredible and most baffling that the pastors refused to enter the white car, and instead chose to go pick up their own bicycles that were parked on the right-hand side of the white car. I was very astonished because I very well knew that along the journey there would be some eminent danger of wild beasts. And yet here they were, as supposedly prudent pastors, choosing to take the bicycles that could virtually expose them to the vicious attack of the wild beasts that the LORD made me aware to be roaming that dangerous road. However, when I looked at the bicycles that the pastors were picking up for this voyage towards the mission field of the LORD, I realized that they were very old bicycles whose mechanical advantage had been seriously degenerated. Even more puzzling was that I managed to quickly recognize that not only were those bicycles old, but also black in colour. Then the LORD OF HOSTS opened my eyes further and I was again able to see the pastors at their homes and there was such a serious strife among their children and themselves. I saw the pastors homes with rebellion abound and disobedience alive. Moreover, then came the moment when I saw those pastors, this time around caught in a very bitterly heated arguments and disputation. The disagreements that I saw ensue between pastors, were so bad that they literally part ways, only for each one of them to remain solitary. It was then that this cruel episode caused me to jump up and wake up from that vision, only to break down in great shock. The LORD saw it all and grieved it all. How sad that such a vision can be presented by the LORD at this last hour in the history of the church!

The Revelation

In this vision, it is absolutely very clear that as the LORD's glance sweeps over the throng of churches all across the globe, His eye definitely kindles while His face lights-up, causing Him to be stirred with deep pity and sadness. While in His first coming, Jesus may have mingled freely with the populace giving no outward evidence of His Majesty and taking no measure to bring Himself to popular notice, His return in the rapture though, will be well dramatized to the extent that literally every living being on the face of the earth, will get to know that He is the Messiah. The dominion of the kingdom of darkness must be overcome by the glory of the LORD that was well pledged in Joel 2:28-32. And because the LORD Jesus is the embodiment of all of God's power promised to the church, then the unfolding presented in this vision, can only help to further the conviction that today's church has not yet recognized her weakness and called-upon Christ for help. God Almighty in heaven willingly sacrificed His most beloved Son Jesus Christ so that all who receive Him would have forgiveness and redemption from the cruel dominion of the devil's reign. And to witness the church literally being attacked, mauled and torn-down, can only help to reiterate that there is a spiritual dysfunction in the house. In that vision, what comes out elaborately clear, is that death has entered the church. It is ironical though, for death to befall the house of the LORD, especially that the One after whom they follow, is One who gives eternal life; the unblemished Lamb of God who was sacrificed for all man's sin; and is the Bread who satisfies all spiritual hunger; also being the Living Water who quenches all spiritual thirst; and the Light who guides the redeemed away from darkness; while at the same time, He is the Shepherd who leads the church away from danger into greener pastures. It must also be remembered that He is the Vine who gives life to all His branches; and is the Counsellor who comforts and teaches the church all she needs for a new and abundant life. How then, can death have befallen the church at this last hour prior to rapture, if she really were connected to the True Vine? The same God who created the universe is indeed able to create a new life within the church by illuminating His Light that exposes and drives away the darkness of the human race. That same Light that brightens the dark corners of the world, is the True Light of the world and the source of life and spiritual renewal for a dying church.

The broken door

The broken door that the LORD presented in this vision, essentially represents the appalling state of neglect that has today degraded the sacred sanctuary of JEHOVAH God. With most of the door ravaged and leaving only the skeletal metal grills, there is not much protection being accorded to the precious sheep of Christ in the house any more. While things in the house of the LORD may appear well and at times even feel normal in the physical realm, unfortunately though in the spiritual realm, things have gotten really out of control. The vulnerability to degradation and decay that the LORD presents in this vision, is a kind of prototype that mirrors today's apostasy in church. To best understand the specific elements that the LORD presented in this vision, it would be beneficial to characterize each of the individual players there. First and foremost, we see that when the LORD in that vision brings me into His sanctuary, He shows me the shepherds who were in the house and the sheep that were engaged in worship. And secondly, JEHOVAH God draws my attention to the wild beasts that were outside expressing an indescribable gusto of appetite for devouring the sheep inside the sanctuary. What emerges out of this most disturbing scenario is that dilapidation and desolation must have been the primary reasons as to why no maintenance and servicing could be accorded the sacred House of The LORD. Additionally, the shepherds in this vision did not appear to have been able to distinguish clearly what the LORD was instructing when He commanded that the sanctuary door be closed to ward-off the beastly attack. And what today's church understands not is that they should have turned their eyes in faith to Him that is invisible and yet beholds the revelation of God's protective glory upon mankind. The necessity for the Holy Spirit comes in very central in today's church presented in this vision, since ears that had never listened to the LORD's Voice, cannot be able to listen to the words of His witness, except that they be spiritually enlightened ears. This must have been the root cause for the disconnect between the LORD's directive to shut the temple door and the shepherds' failure to obey. In declaring the institution of the five-fold ministries, God Almighty affirmed the custodianship of the church onto the shepherds. That affirmation also included the custody and stewardship of the word being preached in the church. Thereafter, any misgivings and fall-out from God's established order of grace would definitely have to be accountable to the shepherds and their spiritual wrongdoings. The shepherds that the LORD presented inside the sanctuary, and instructing them to shut the door, are the genuine servants of the LORD who are called after Ephesians 4:11-16. The only tragedy with them being their disgraceful fall from God's favour and hence their spiritual deafness. It is today's corruption of the gospel that must have not only drifted the shepherds away from their most noble pastoral calling into an adulterated service unto to the LORD. That spiritual gliding away in essence represents a shamefully backslid priesthood whose only intent is to feed themselves at the expense of protecting the sheep in the house.

Being all-knowing of the present and the future, the LORD say it well in advance that an interlude would surface at which decay would make in-roads into his sacred priesthood. And such a dispensation has truly now caught up with the church of Christ, at which place her priesthood is today more concerned with funds-raising, TV telethons, selling bottled oil, selling water from River Jordan, giving inspirational speeches, soliciting for seed money, preparing cruise-ship tours, organising modern women's conference that have nothing to do with salvation, etc. The depiction that the LORD unveiled in this vision, is the true state of today's pastors who are more pre-occupied with constitutional reforms and other money generating church activities than helping enhance spiritual growth and a holier salvation among the sheep. It is a state of neglect that has predisposed the sheep to an eminent invasion from the marauding wild beasts of this dark world. God Almighty well spoke about this in Ezekiel 34:1-17;

'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who only take care of themselves! Should not shepherds take care of the flock? You eat the curds, clothe yourselves with the wool and slaughter the choice animals, but you do not take care of the flock. You have not strengthened the weak or healed the sick or bound up the injured. You have not brought back the strays or searched for the lost. You have ruled them harshly and brutally. So they were scattered because there was no shepherd, and when they were scattered they became food for all the wild animals. My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered over the whole earth, and no one searched or looked for them. "Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, because my flock lacks a shepherd and so has been plundered and has become food for all the wild animals, and because my shepherds did not search for my flock but cared for themselves rather than for my flock, therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against the shepherds and will hold them accountable for my flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue my flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them. " 'For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will search for my sheep and look after them. As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness. I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the countries, and I will bring them into their own land. I will pasture them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines and in all the settlements in the land. I will tend them in a good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel will be their grazing land. There they will lie down in good grazing land, and there they will feed in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will tend my sheep and have them lie down, declares the Sovereign LORD. I will search for the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd the flock with justice. " 'As for you, my flock, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will judge between one sheep and another, and between rams and goats. Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you also trample the rest of your pasture with your feet? Is it not enough for you to drink clear water? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet? Must my flock feed on what you have trampled and drink what you have muddied with your feet? (Ezekiel 34:1-17)

The wild beasts

Almost impatiently, they waited outside with a great urge of raiding into the sanctuary of the LORD to do exploits for the kingdom of darkness. Sometimes the church goes through life excusing her shortcomings to various disadvantages that the world may have stacked against her. Likewise, there are believers that today grow up in churches where wisdom is modelled and taught according to the principles of this modern world. In this way, the majority of today's christians are not privileged enough to receive wise counsel in the house of the LORD. If the present-day church were indeed deprived of spiritual guidance from the word, she may have been justified to feel having been short-changed, and hence became angry, resentful and ashamed. But, the problem is that she has the full uncensored access to the wisdom of the Holy Spirit whom God the Father Himself freely and willingly honoured her with. Ideally, all believers, including the pastoral community ought to have received wise and godly counsel from the Holy Spirit in order to gain understanding on how to safely navigate themselves away from the dangers emplaced on her path by the adversary. The enemy has placed wild beasts along the way through which the church is to pass. Regardless of spiritual upbringing, every christian should have a non-tapered access to God's wisdom from heaven.

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him (James 1:5).

The fear of the LORD actually breeds all the wisdom that the church requires in order to live safely in this dark world and consequently access the kingdom of God. Having said that, it is important to point out that the wild beasts whom the LORD presented outside His sanctuary, are as a matter of fact spiritual devourers than physical. That the door to the sanctuary was not closed in good time to keep away the wild beasts from invading the innocent sheep, greatly underscores just how far spiritual carelessness among the pastors can go a long way in obliterating the LORD's treasured flock. What particularly most astonishes, is the manner in which the wild beasts shoved their way into the sanctuary by practically overpowering the pastors at the door. This is what makes this vision especially significant. Notwithstanding, the violent biting and devouring and killing by hitting on the ground, is what derives the genesis of these wild beasts to the devil himself. The most plausible question then becomes, who exactly are represented by these wild beasts in the physical realm? In God's order of things, and going by the fact that the shepherds could not shut the door firm enough to keep the wild beasts out, that in itself amounts to an invitation advanced to the deputies of the adversary, to come into the house. It makes perfect sense that these wild beasts are the semblance of a foreign army that disguises its agents to dress in the enemy's uniforms, and join the enemy side in pretext to be part of that force; and yet with the intention of wrecking havoc within the enemy's camp. The wild beasts in today's church of Christ are those pastors that masquerade to have been called into shepherdhood, when in actual sense they were not called by JEHOVAH God. It doesn't take to be a rocket scientist or brain-surgeon to be able to quickly distinguish these fake servants from the genuine shepherds called of God. A scenario of this nature is what makes this vision particularly astonishing and specifically abhorrible to the LORD, the God of heaven. While he called His servants to serve in earnest honesty, the LORD also exhorted His shepherds to observe a clear separation from the deception and falsehood that defines this dark world. Such separation has been highlighted in scripture, to the extent that it even hinges on the wedding of the Lamb of God.

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the LORD, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you. And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the LORD Almighty (2 Cor 6:14-18).

When legitimate pastors who have been called after the order of our precious LORD Jesus, later enter into a concession with illegitimate servants who have other intentions not consistent with salvation, then corruption is said to have infiltrated the word of God. Such adulteration of the holy word of God has often caused the presence of the LORD to depart from not only those conceding pastors, but also from entire churches that they shepherd. Today it is common to see this scenario repeat itself totally unabated, over and over again, across the entire globe. Only the daily reproving of sins, day after day, is capable of strengthening the conviction that a shepherd is truly sent of God. But, given the holy nature and reputation of JEHOVAH, the failure to rebuke sin can only ascertain that a pastor is called not of God. However, no matter the atmosphere of influence they may surround themselves with, manners of gentility they may publicly assume, and the impression of a sense of power they may stage, such illegitimate pastors will however never be able to wholly conceal that they are fake. It is for this reason that JEHOVAH is puzzled as to why His legitimate pastors would not be able to pick out on who these wild beasts are. Many legitimate shepherds today fail to seal the door from these illegitimate, and go further ahead to invite them into the churches they pastor. When such a fake priesthood makes its way into the sanctuary of the LORD, that is when it can be said that a rampant invasion has occurred against the sheep. These are the false apostles one sees today roaming around from church to church, city to city, and nation to nation, preaching nothing else other than how to prosper and become wealthy on this earth. Also included in this bracket of wild beasts are the false prophets whose predictions always centre around how believers can become wealthy overnight. The messages from such false prophets are essentially centred around how to sow a big financial seed and how to reap an astronomical financial harvest on this earth. The evangelists too have not been spared from the contagion of decay. Today, it is common place to observe evangelists who are as a matter of fact, in their true identity, wild beasts, loitering from place to place asking for ‘seed’ money, while selling small bottles of anointing oil and prayer shawls. And in most instance, for them to sell such prayer shawls, they have to preach wearing them as a marketing strategy purported to demonstrate just how anointed such pieces of garment are. It is indeed very absurd that legitimate pastors called of the LORD, have even now colluded with these illegitimate servants for purposes of funds-raising in their churches. Many genuine pastors have today fallen to the extent that they now even look upon certain false apostles and false prophets in order to raise money for church buildings and/or projects. This description of the state of the affair in the church could apply to none other than the long-promised apostasy of the last days. The pastors of today have not locked the sanctuary door strong enough to permanently prevent these wild beasts from getting into the sanctuary and devouring the sheep. When such wild beasts as the false apostles, and false prophets are invited into the church, they begin to harvest money through trickery and even to the extent that they propagate sexual immorality into the church, as they openly lust at women and to make it worse, men too. And because the precious sheep of Christ are naturally a dependent and vulnerable lot, they always will obey every instruction that cometh out of the pulpit, be it false or true. When the innocent believers are told to go sell all their stocks or their homes and bring a big seed money to the “apostles” or “prophets,” they always faithfully believe and follow through with action. That is what has constituted the greatest devour and mauling of the sheep as the majority of them even remain utterly undelivered in the church. The massive adulteration of the word that is today championing the gospel of wealth and health, has indeed devoured the sheep of Christ to the extent that they can’t see the truth anymore, thereby heading to hell. In the absence of preparing their christian lives in absolute holiness, the church cannot see the kingdom of God.

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the LORD (Hebrews 12:14)

The failure to rebuke sin, with the subsequent maligning of the truth, is what has caused the gospel of prosperity to negatively impact the believer’s ability to walk in righteousness and holiness in today’s churches. This is the greatest devour of the sheep of Christ, of all time. That in itself is the best interpretation of this May 14th, 2010 vision, in which the sheep of Christ were heavily devoured and viciously mauled to death, by the wild beasts. That death depictable in the vision, is fearfully worrisome, because it depicts a spiritual and an eternal death in hell when the sheep fail to prepare and enter the rapture.

Collapsed wall

With wonder and awe, I witnessed in this vision, the collapse of the sanctuary wall on the right-hand side. It is at that moment that all pandemonium broke lose as groups of marauding wild dog-like beasts raided the church, thereby mutilating, maiming, devouring, and literally mauling every and any sheep at their sight. But what exactly does the collapse of the sanctuary wall represent in the spiritual realm? To say the least, the wall is an instrument of protection and preservation. In Jerusalem when the temple of the LORD was built on Mt. Moriah, it was erected with a perimeter wall for purposes of protecting the house of JEHOVAH. The collapse of the wall that the LORD presented in this vision further restates the great desolation that is today establishing in the house.

Then I said to them, “You see the trouble we are in: Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be in disgrace.” I also told them about the gracious hand of my God upon me and what the king had said to me. They replied, “Let us start rebuilding.” So they began this good work. But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. “What is this you are doing?” They asked. “Are you rebelling against the king?” I answered them by saying, “The God of heaven will give us success. We his servants will start rebuilding, but as for you, you have no share in Jerusalem or any claim or historic right to it.” (Nehemiah 2:13-21)

When the fullness of time for the fulfilment of Christ’s most awaited return tarries, a great darkness was long well promised upon the church. Appointed in that divine promise was the vast decay that would sweep across the church as it pronounces the desolation of neglect. While death still remains a dreaded mystery among the christian believers, it is incredible though that the consequences of sustaining the unhealed wounds of sin, they perceived not. But the cry for the vast heart of humanity cannot continue to go unheeded by the desolate church. That can only imply that even as the Messiah tarries to come there is greater reason for repentance as the window of grace still beckons the sinful church. When the wall in the church collapses, it translates into a direct call to restoration through remorsefulness. During the time of Nehemiah, when the wall of Jerusalem was fully collapsed, it presented the most highly disgraceful chapter in the entire Hebrew chronicle. Today too, the collapse of the wall in the church that the LORD presented in this May 14th, 2010 vision, is the greatest indicator yet, of the shameful disgrace that has finally caught up with the present-day church. Like Jerusalem, while the illumination of the truth seems to have departed from the church, hope can still today be marshalled thanks to the many souls who are still looking for light in the midst of this perplexity and sorrow. It is this kind of grief that can jolt the church into action and the rebuilding of the spiritual wall that is today collapsed.

You see the trouble we are in: Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be in disgrace.”

With the Jerusalem wall in ruins, Nehemiah proclaimed the onset of troubles for the house of Israel. And the situation is not any different in the present day church where the collapsed wall indeed has led to free and an unvetted access into the sanctuary by ferocious wild beasts of this age. The LORD is calling the church to the rebuilding of the spiritual wall that surrounds the sanctuary in order to circumvent the activities of the agents of the enemy. The one language that ought to be spoken widely within the christian community and be recognized in their hearts is the language of holiness and righteousness. This is what can mitigate the current onslaught that has been waged upon the church and her sheep. It is a reminder of the 2003 mighty visitation of the LORD, in which He wrote for me Nehemiah 2:20 in the sky. The LORD is today pleading with the church leadership to gear themselves up for the process of rebuilding the wall that is collapsed. In this process of rebuilding the wall, it must remain important to recognize that JEHOVAH used Nehemiah’s event of restoring the wall as the benchmark opportunity to draw the line between those who are his and not.

We his servants will start rebuilding, but as for you, you have no share in Jerusalem or any claim or historic right to it.”

Beyond the spiritual uncertainty and gloom that has shrouded the church’s prospects for eternity, the believers can now count on the lamentation of the LORD echoed in this shocking vision of May 14th, 2010. The right to inheritance and spiritual heredity in the kingdom of God, coupled with all the historic pledges that were inscribed on the Cross at Calvary, all now seem to hinge on this one most important factor; the rebuilding of the collapsed wall around the present-day church. That wall is spiritual and reinforced by the building blocks of holiness and righteousness. “... but as for you, you have no share in Jerusalem or any claim or historic right to it.”, with these words, JEHOVAH God indeed drew the line between those who are His legitimate shepherds and the ingenuine wild beasts that are bent on destroying the sheep. For those legitimate pastors who have fallen in the apostasy of this day, if they will repent and begin the process of rebuilding the spiritual wall around the salvation in the church, not only will they have preserved the spiritual gains thus far, but they also will indeed have rights in the New Jerusalem, the home of the righteous (2 Peter 3:13).

The Iranian Nuclear Crisis

Understanding Its Prophetic Significance

The September 27, 2005 Vision

Position Of Iran

Persia, the present day Iran, is very significant and widely spoken about throughout biblical prophecy. Daniel's prophecies highlighted Persia as one of the four gigantic empires that will rule in the times of the gentiles (Luke 21:24). Ezekiel the Prophet also greatly underscored of an important time when Persia (Iran) would join other Islamic nations in a joint invasion of Israel under the leadership of "Magog" (Russia) (Ezekiel 38, 39). However, in that invasion the word of God decrees that these nations would be devastated by the direct wrathful judgment of God Almighty on behalf of His covenant people, Israel. According to the word of God, Israel must stand alone, with God. Although the Bible warns that the invading armies will ultimately be destroyed by God Almighty Himself, nevertheless it will be an extremely devastating war for both Israel and the entire world.

The Vision

On September 27th 2005, at a repentance meeting in Mbeya Tanzania, that night the LORD spoke with me regarding events about to befall the earth. In that conversation, I saw the visions of the LORD in which a historic war broke out on earth. The LORD Almighty showed me a nuclear facility that is in the desert and located at the foot of a mountain. I then saw two powerful missiles that were shot and directed to the nuclear facility by the foot of the mountain. It was incredibly amazing to see how the copper-plated propellers of the missiles spurned in the air until they struck the nuclear facility by the foot of the mountain. It was at that crucial instant when the missiles struck the facility, that a humongous historic flame blasted out and it was such a fire that I have never witnessed in all the days of my life. That flame was so huge and it contained little flames that were rising vertically into the sky and almost touching into the heavens. Likewise, the width of that flame of fire which blasted out from the missile strike, was as far from the east as the west is. It was the biggest war the earth had seen in this present time.

Yet to be Fulfilled

This war that the LORD Spoke about in that September 2005 vision is yet to occur on this earth. After that vision, it took sometime and then suddenly a global crisis began to unfold involving the western powers, the EU and US, including Israel and Iran. As this conflict developed, it became abundantly clear that at the centre of the controversy was a nuclear facility that Iran had been secretly and yet steadfastly developing behind the scenes. In the manner of their disputation, it has recently emerged that as a matter of fact, that nuclear facility has been in operation for sometime without much notice or publicity. While tremendous global diplomacy has been engaged on this matter, especially under the auspices of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), Iran has been indeed maximising its use of that controversial facility. In the process, the issue of rights to ownership of nuclear research facility has also arisen thereby almost polarizing the global community of nations. Whereas Iran claims that its nuclear research facility is primarily intended for peaceful purposes, i.e. nuclear energy production and medical research, the US, EU, and Israel have instead insisted that Iran's ambitions are squarely intended for the delivery of a payload. Iran has since failed to convince the community of nations that it is indeed engaged in a peaceful nuclear research program and not weaponization. Most recently, Iran has defied several UN Security Council Resolutions that were intended to compel her to halt her nuclear program. The evidence of Iran's hidden agenda are the high-speed centrifuges that Iran has been installing in order to boost her capacity for developing highly enriched Uranium. It is the highly enriched Uranium (over 80%) that are of a great utility in developing nuclear weapons. Iran's ambitions to join the nuclear club have not been kept secret, hence being displayed in President Ahmedinejad's rhetorical speeches. This is what has recently ignited a bitter row between the US,

EU, and Israel on one side and Iran on the other. The fearful thing though is that on a daily basis there seems to be a gradual but steady movement towards this most dreaded war of our lifetime, that the LORD presented in this vision.

Israel to Strike Iran

That September 2005 vision of the LORD in which He showed me the war that is coming to Iran is particularly very significant at this hour before Christ's return. This is especially important because of the prophetic significance that this war underscores in God's timeline to the endtime. In the way things are building-up, it is plausible that Russia which in the first place, helped Iran to build that nuclear facility, has been in support and in favour of Iran's position. While China as a Permanent Member of the UN Security Council may have in the past played neutrality, the fact of the matter is that China in most cases usually leaned towards Iran. Sometimes that leaning has been expressed through an abstinence vote at the UN. The US and the EU on the other hand have always insisted on the need for Iran to totally halt her nuclear program and come out clean on how and what amount of uranium she has enriched and for what purposes. It is this argument that now put the entire global community at the brink of the most catastrophic war that can ever take place on the face of the earth. Most recently there have been contemplation of a fourth round of stinging and most stringent UN Sanctions against Iran. The nation that fires the missiles which the LORD showed me in September 2005 vision, in which the nuclear facility was struck and destroyed; was definitely Israel. Israel security is currently at stake as a result of Iran's nuclear activities in that volatile region. The Israeli Defence Forces (IDF) have in the recent past stepped-up their military exercise and mock war strategies in a dramatic show of force that has sent shock chills across the region and globally. In another follow-up vision of April 30th, 2007, the LORD showed me Israeli war planes that were preparing to strike the Iranian nuclear facility by the mountain. I saw in that April 2007 vision, the Israeli airforce with their strike aircrafts ready to deliver payload and strike to detonate that facility.

Iranian President Ahmadinejad, Brazilian President Lula and Khomeini during the signing of a nuclear production deal.

Brazilian President Lula in Tehran.

Iranian President Ahmadinejad, with the Brazilian President Lula in Tehran

Turkish Prime Minister Erdogan in Tehran.

The nuclear facility that the LORD showed me in that dream was undeniably the Natanz Nuclear Research Centre. Recently, a lot of diplomacy has been directed towards diffusing the Iranian tension with the west. This has caused several world leaders to visit Tehran in a last ditch effort to avoid another round of UN sanctions. Because of the sometimes near biblical utterances of President Ahmadinejad to the effect that he would bring a storm over Israel, no one has taken his armament lightly. Ezekiel the Prophet saw the storm that would come over the land of Israel.

You and all your troops and the many nations with you will go up, advancing like a storm... (Ezekiel 38:5-9).

Brazilian President Lula visited Tehran on May 16, 2010 and met with Iranian leaders to broker a compromise in the international standoff over Tehran's nuclear program. This comes in the wake of a new demand by the US that implied that new sanctions are the only way to force Iran's co-operation. Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva was compelled to use Brazil's friendly relations with Iran as a neutral broker in order to try and defuse this escalating dispute. Since evidence of a clandestine Iranian nuclear program first emerged, negotiations with world powers and visits by UN inspectors have failed to persuade the US and its allies that Iran is not pursuing a weapons capability. This is what is going to ignite and spark off the war that the LORD showed me in that vision of September 27, 2005. While Washington has taken a hard-line stance, Russian President Dmitry Medvedev on the other hand considered the Brazilian leader's last ditch efforts as a last chance to avoid crippling sanctions, or war. Silva was able to revive a UN-backed proposal in which Iran would ship its stockpile of enriched uranium abroad to be processed further and returned as fuel rods for a medical research reactor. This deal was signed together with the Turkish Premier Erdogan. But just to prove that this war must take place just as that September 2005 prophecy proclaimed, the US and its allies have dismissed the Brazil-Turkey- Iran deal as a mockery of International Diplomacy. That can only imply that an eminent war is in the offing especially given that Israel has announced its greatest interest in monitoring just how much such a deal can achieve, in disarming the Iranians. Like Brazil, Turkey suggested that the uranium swap could take place in Turkey.

Significance to Rapture

It is fearful that today as we speak the world has drawn much closer to the Iranian war and yet that war has a very significant spiritual bearing into the life of the church. This calls for stringent measures in preparing for the coming of the LORD. Whether that war happens before the rapture or after rapture, is not the issue. All that matters is that the preparations for that war present a major spiritual landmark that time is over and the Messiah is coming. Believers need to walk in righteousness and observe a stricter holier lifestyle of salvation, in order to ready themselves for Christ's return (Rev 19:6-9). Fine linen is righteousness.

China Earthquake 2010

Prophecy of October 5th, 2009

Yushu Devastation ...and there will be earthquakes... (Matt 24:7)

The recent earthquake in China stunned the whole earth with fear, at what God's wrath can achieve. During the time when the Hebrew people were taken captive, and the need arose that the darkness should be dispelled and the mystery of their future made plain, the LORD directed that even from babyhood, the children should be taught His goodness and His greatness, especially as revealed by His law. Any nation that deviates from this sacred command by failing to exalt the LORD's greatness and awesomeness, has always met His wrathful vengeance as a reproof for disobedience. JEHOVAH has time and again reiterated the need for mankind to be exhorted with a meek and penetrating mind, of great insight of thoughtfulness and wisdom beyond this physical realm, in order to focus on his kingdom in heaven. The LORD has demanded this, very much aware that His image that is bestowed upon mankind is a righteous and holy likeness (Genesis 1:26) How much more blessed then would the people of Yushu China have been, should they have learnt to read His word and obey the parchment rolls of His sacred commands. No wonder the LORD Says of such wisdom:

Prophecy of China Earthquake
October 10, 2009
Windhoek, Namibia

"Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, Ye and searched it out. And unto men he said, Behold the fear of the LORD is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding. (Job 28:28)

In nations where tradition and eastern religions have to a great degree supplanted the formalism of man at the expense of the written word of God, the image of God is hardly traceable on people's minds and their souls.

Why dost thou strive against him? For he giveth not account of any of his matters.

With these remarks, the LORD laid his fingerprints on the fury that would consume not only rebellious man, but also nations that embrace heedlessness. And for the people of China, when the warning to repent from immorality and eastern religions was delivered, in that October 5th, 2009 prophecy, it is as though the LORD's admonition read;

The April 14, 2010, Yushu Earthquake Prophecy Fulfilled. The Giant Chinese Army Responded With The Massive Rescue Team. Thousands Dead And Buddhists Temples Destroyed.

and if that nation I warned to repent of its evil repented, then I will relent and not inflict on them the disaster I had planned (Jeremiah 18:8).

The Vision

On October 5th, 2009, the LORD Spoke with me vividly and sternly about events that were going to befall China. In that vision, the LORD lifted me up and took me to China and showed me a massive earthquake that would strike that land if they failed to repent from the worship of the idol gods of eastern religions. The LORD also showed me a lot of mud in schools and institutions of learning in that fearful vision. By mud, the LORD OF HOSTS implied sexual sin and defiled worship. The LORD decreed that in the absence of repentance in China and the return to Jesus Christ, at my word that earthquake would take place as a follow-up to the previous one. In that dream when I pronounced the judgment of the LORD, I then saw lots of brownish chariots of powerful and sturdy horses and military vehicles rushing at break-neck speed to respond to the earthquake. I also saw caterpillars for moving the earth and lots of displaced people lining up to receive food in tents. After that dream, I woke up and went live on Jesus is LORD global radio station and pronounced the judgment of God over China. I said the Voice of the LORD is now over mainland China and that in the event they don't heed and repent from idol worship, that earthquake would have to strike. On October 10th, 2009, in a revival conference in Windhoek, Namibia, I again reiterated that the judgment of the LORD was coming upon China for the worship of idol gods of the eastern religions and that an earthquake would strike mainland China if the absence of repentance.

Fulfilment

To the shock of all the nations, come April 14th, 2010, that prophecy was accurately fulfilled as all Global News Outlets interrupted their normal programming to report a BREAKING NEWS coming out of mainland China. A horrific earthquake had hit Yushu, a buddhist stronghold and killed lots of people, while leaving others buried in the rubble. And just as the prophecy had pronounced, military convoys upon convoys rushed to Yushu for rescue. And just as the prophecy of the LORD had laid it out, indeed caterpillars were used to try and dig people and dead bodies out of the rubble. The smell of death covered that mainly buddhist land as thousands of corpses were cremated live on television. The message of the LORD is absolutely clear that time is over and regardless of their power, supremacy or military might, every nation must now bow down and repent and fully submit under the jurisdiction of the Blood of Jesus. The coming of the Messiah has drawn nigh. Hasn't the mouth of the LORD Spoken!

Today's Global Wars

Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Somalia, Thailand, Nigeria, Darfur, & Mexico

...there will be wars and rumours of wars... (Matthew 24:7)

Vision of the Red Apocalyptic Horse

From the earliest of times, the faith in peace had given much care to prosperous and wealth-endowed nations. Today, there is no exception to that rule as many developed nations including Canada, US, Netherlands, Britain, Spain, Italy, Greece, Japan, Germany, have teamed up into global coalitions of nations to do battle in Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan, and other hot spots like the Korean Peninsula. To better understand why this global bloodbath and bloodletting, it is prudent to revisit the April 2, 2004 vision of the LORD in which He presented to me the RED HORSE from heaven and his pitiless HORSEMAN. In that vision, the moon was right above the glory of the LORD and I saw blood flow cover the earth to the extent that the moon became shaded with blood (Revelation 6:3-4). After presenting that prophecy on the release of the Red Horse of the apocalypse, the earth has since then witnessed some of the most horrendous bloodletting in her entire history. The war in Iraq for instance, has been on-going with horrific scenes of butcher and countless numbers of the dead, and maimed, to the extent that the global community appears to have developed a strange numbness to that massacre. Regardless of who is killing who, the key bottom line is that the total sum of bloodshed and the dead, testifies to the RED APOCALYPTIC HORSE having passed here. And this prophecy on global bloodshed is being fulfilled on a daily basis right before our own eyes. The war in Afghanistan has also claimed her place in the annals of history on this planet in this age. Other provinces of southern Afghanistan having recycled back to extremism, and still remains to be liberated todate. Such wars, coupled with a spree of suicide bombers, have resulted into despicable bloodshed that can only depict the endtime chronology unfolding. The war in Waziristan province of Pakistan has also claimed its own right within the global catalogue of conflicts. Military assaults, drone air strikes, and the massacres of innocent civilians by the extremists Talibans, have all combined to fulfil the prophecy of the release of the RED APOCALYPTIC HORSEMAN. The most recent bitter and morbidly bloody conflict between the Red Shirts and the National Army of Thailand is what has thrown the current state of global conflict to another cadre. It is very shocking and breathtaking to see civilians staking it out against a whole National Army of Thailand and the chaos that befall

Bangkok, with many building burnt down in the centre of the city. The drug cartels and gangs of Mexico have also not been left out, to the extent that Ciudad Juarez is currently rated the most deadly in the world. To witness drug gang engaging a whole National Army, Police and Civil Protection force combined, is something no man can explain except that they read Rev 6:3-4. The war in Somali has also claimed global prominence, especially that the African Union had to unite and form a coalition to confront extremist Al Shabaab. The fight between the police, muslims and christians in Jos, Nigeria, has also poured lots of blood, regardless of who is killing who. The war in Darfur has also turned global attention to Sudan to the extent that life has been reduced to violence and the worst degradation. The 2007 post-election violence in Kenya, the South Africa xenophobia, the war in Yemen, the war in DR Congo, the Oromo Rebels in Ethiopia, the war in Northern Uganda between government forces and LRA, the current conflict between South and North Korea, the post-election violence in Iran, the drug wars between the FARC rebels and government troupes in Colombia, are some of the conflicts that constitute the hallmarks of the manifestations of the visitation of the RED HORSE OF THE APOCALYPSE. These are the signs that Jesus forewarned would come before His eminent Return (Matthew 24:7). Repent and prepare for the coming of the Messiah..

The 2004 Volcano Prophecy that Shutdown Flights Globally

The Iceland Volcano Prophecy Fulfilled After 6 Years

THE SIGNS & WONDERS OF THIS DISPENSATION Joel 2:28-32

Within the entire bible, the most fundamental prophecy is that which heralds the much awaited coming of the Messiah. The LORD Jesus opened up the entire spiritual treasury of heaven, when He systematically revealed the signs that would appear right before His return. No truth essential to the church's entry into the rapture was withheld and no sign or wonder that marks the time prior to that day, was neglected in that wonderful discourse. Having undertaken the mission to redeem mankind, he spared nothing, however dear, which would be necessary for the entry of the church into rapture. It testifies to the fact that while God's hatred to sin is eminently as strong as the judgment of death, his love for the repentant sinner, is however, stronger than death. When the LORD Jesus set out to enumerate the course of events that would appear on the face of the earth right before his most awaited return, no divine agency was left unemployed. He gave it his very best with the object that no man may be left out of the kingdom of God. In that discourse, favour was heaped upon favour, and gift upon gift, when he laid open the infinite wisdom of God as he described one event after the other that mankind was supposed to look out for. His obvious greatest joy and happiness would then be found in loving the holy beings that will celebrate the wedding feast of the Lamb. Those are the righteous elect who will have overcome the sin of this dark

March 24, 2004
Prophecy of Iceland Volcano given

world, together with its excessive decay. Today, sin has led to the most despicable degradation in the human society and church.

Beginning of birthpangs

In the light of the Saviour's revelation in that most central Olivet discourse, the heart of the Creator regarding sin, even from eternity, was absolutely well revealed (Matthew 24; Mark 13; Luke 21). The LORD Jesus promised that preceding his return for the church, there would be an extremely agonizing dispensation dubbed the beginning of birthpangs. In the days of the beginning of birthpangs, the LORD Himself promised that every lost soul would doubtlessly understand the perilous nature of their own adamant rejection of the truth. This is because the LORD destined that the Cross would be preached and its real bearing would be seen in every mind that has been blinded by transgression. It is as though for much of her entire lifespan, this aging earth has only acquainted herself with strictly one side of the Calvary Cross that proclaims grace and love. It must be emphasized that the back of the Cross greatly bespeaks horrendous judgment that was laid down as ransom for man's sins. It is no wonder at the back of the Cross where the LORD Jesus lay his back, so much Bloodstain abound! But, time seems to have caught up with mankind to the extent that he may have to realize the completeness of the Cross by owning the unfoldings at the back of the Cross. Having said that, before the rapture of the church with its untold mysteries, it was promised that sinners would stand in awe and tremble at the One that was slain. The tongue would stick on the roof of man's mouth, as anguish would cause their knees to rattle and quake recklessly uncontrollable. The LORD also well pledged that every lying excuse would be swept away in the distress of the day, and that human apostasy would appear in its most heinous form.

April 2010 Prophecy fulfilled
Iceland volcano erupts

Then men would begin to clearly see what their choice has been, and every question of the truth and error in the long-standing controversy between right and evil, would have been made plain. It is as though the LORD had determined that He would not let man's obnoxious rebellion get away with that sprawling level of heedlessness. This, the LORD seems to have decided in spite of the technological advancements, aircraft engineering, aerospace science, satellites, medical breakthroughs, the discovery of synthetic cells, regardless. God Almighty knew it too well that mankind would one day have to stand and take the blame for the existence and the continuance of evil rebellion to His holy authority. In His Omnipotent Majesty, JEHOVAH designed the beginning of birthpangs to be that time at which it would be well verified to all men, that the divine decrees handed down from heaven, were veritably not meant to be an accomplice to sin, especially by today's abuse of the sacred grace. Even with the horrendous shutdown of the entire European airspace, together with the ensuing travel chaos and economic tempest, God Almighty ensured that one message did not escape the attention of man; that there would not be any defect in God's Government hence no cause for disaffection in the Blood of Jesus as the one and the only way out for mankind. The LORD also ensured that when the beginning of birthpangs starts, through its manifestation in such horrific events as the Iceland's volcano eruption, every thought of all hearts shall be revealed, and both the loyal and the rebellious will unite in declaring one thing, "Indeed just and true are Thy ways, thou King of saints, who shall not fear thee, Oh! LORD and glorify thy Name, for Thy Judgments are made manifest."

And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, LORD God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Who shall not fear thee, O LORD, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest (Revelation 15:3-4).

Remarkably, the eruption of the Iceland Eyjafjallajokull volcanic mountain had such a disarming effect that rendered all human technological advancement to a nullity. With its ramifying effect spreading all over the globe, as passengers were stranded across the face of the earth, and its trickle-down effect on the entire aviation industry and national economies. This event was indeed acknowledged to be force majeure, in other words, an act of God. Most importantly though, is that Mt. Eyjafjallajokull's eruption came as a reproof of mankind's over-reliance on technological advancement of this day, and open disobedience to God's command.

The 2004 Iceland Volcano Prophecy that Shutdown Flights In Europe & Globally

The Prophecy That Ignited A Historic Travel Chaos Globally

The Vision

On that March 24, 2004, when I decreed this most stunning prophecy on the coming of a volcanic eruption in Iceland, never did it ever occur to the nations, that its realization would be such a humongous clampdown. It was in a small television recording studio in a place called Hurligham, a suburb of Nairobi, that the LORD tremendously spoke to the nations of the earth. In that March 24, 2004 conversation with the LORD,

I saw the most dreadful visions of things to come. The visions I saw were of events that would inevitably befall the earth and her inhabitants. In that vision, the LORD lifted me up and took me to a place that was quite far and the voice of the Creator said, "Come and see what is about to take place on the earth." It is then that when I lifted up my eyes, I was able to see a humongously huge mountain standing right before me. The mountain I saw was in a place of extreme cold to the extent that it was covered with blocks of frozen ice. Upon setting my eyes on that great mountain, then the voice of the LORD Said that, that mountain would have to erupt and release a lot of lava in a volcanic explosion never witnessed before on the earth. In the nick of a second, as the Voice of the LORD had directed, the volcano mountain erupted right before my eyes. What particularly became most fascinating about that vision is that the LORD took me very close to the erupted volcano and asked me to touch the ice that had covered the mountain top, as the explosion rolled it down in boulders. The ice that I touched in that vision, was very cold and pure white. As the LORD continued revealing to me this mighty event that was going to happen to the earth, I then was able to look inside the exploded volcano and I saw a lot of rocks that were being violently thrown out from the inside of the volcano. The LORD allowed the rocks together with their disintegrated particles to hit me inside that vision. It is the enormity of the raining small glass and rock particles that particularly became overwhelming. As the volcano erupted though, there was such a violent ejection of rocks of all sizes and manner up into the air, into the sky. It was such a force that can only reflect the Might and Splendour of God's Power. During this entire event, episodes of blinding lightning stroke right in the dead centre of the volcanic eruption, thereby throwing the whole spectra into a colourful array of God's display. The LORD allowed the lightning to hit me in that vision, that I may clearly perceive the gravity of this historic event to come.

Wonders in heaven and on earth

As this episode continued on in that mighty March 24, 2004 vision, the Voice of the LORD then Spoke saying, "This will be one of the wonders in heaven and on earth." At that very moment in that most stunning conversation with JEHOVAH, then I saw two billows of smoke plumming out of the Eyjafjallajokull volcano.

Black Ash Cloud

The first column of smoke that the LORD showed me as going to plume out of that volcano, was a thick dark black one. As the thick dark black plume came out of the volcano, it was immediately followed by a second thick dark smoke. Then in a split second, the LORD again lifted me up above the earth and right into the thick dark smoke that now completely covered me, and that is when I realized the content of this dark smoke. The dark smoke I saw was as a matter of fact caused by a huge plume of dust whose particles the LORD allowed to shower on me. The dust that the LORD showed me as coming from this volcano, was indeed as a result of a huge eruption that shattered the rocks at such tremendous millions of degrees Celsius. The shattering of the rocks was so immense at extreme astronomical temperatures, that it literally pulverized the dust into a fine powder of ash. However, some of the rocks were not fully pulverized into ash causing them to remain particulate. The immenseness of these happenings, especially taking place right before my eyes in that vision, is what caused me to be hallowed by His majesty. It is at this very time that I was able to see how high up into the sky this volcanic dust and ash had risen. Still in this humongous vision, then like one who is capacitated to see through the veil, I was now able to see a second plume of black volcano ash rise into the heavens. Much as I could not read the mystery beyond these two black volcanic ash plumes, one thing however stood out more spectacularly. In that March 24, 2004 vision of the LORD, as I was contemplating on the two black volcanic plumes, I suddenly realized that they had risen verily above the clouds. Then came the next event at which the two black volcanic ash plumes now began to fuse together and merge. This is what for sure presented the humblest of sites to behold, when they resulted into one of the most humongous fusion above the earth structures I have ever witnessed. The black volcano ash then became a humongous dust cloud that began to spread and cover the surface of the earth. In that vision, the LORD by voice told me that, that black plume would cover the western part of the earth.

Shiny Particles

Caught up in the milieu of this very dark black volcano dust and ash, with nothing in its appearance that would attract ordinary attention, then I was surprised when the LORD lifted me up and placed me right in the middle of the fused black volcano ash. At that place then I realized that the volcano dust and ash were beginning to descend with the tiny particles showering over me like a sprinkler would. In that vision, when I attempted to look up from under the cloud that had now submerged me, then I saw shiny particles that were descending towards the earth with little sparkles that totally covered the sky above the earth. As the tiny particles fell towards the surface of the earth, the LORD allowed them to shower me and some of them indeed landed with piercing effects, as sharp objects again would. This whole scenario manifesting an appearance like that registering a near cosmic event as the splendour of the sparkles glittered their way through their dark volcano ash in the reflection of the sun. Indeed, little did I know that these were the small glass particles that the high temperature at Eyjafjallajokull volcano had created. No wonder these glass particles were raining down and causing sharp pains as they contacted my skin and yet beautifully reflecting the sun that shone right above them. This is what totally captured my imagination in this vision, to the point that it was fabulous. The heavenly extravaganza though, did not manifest in that vision until the volcano ash cloud began to fly with the clouds in the same direction. As fast as the clouds moved above the earth under the influence of the winds, so did the now-formed volcano ash cloud. For me it was a kind of competition I had never witnessed before as the two types of clouds were now flying together except that they were at different elevation. The volcano ash cloud was at a much higher altitude than the ordinary clouds.

White Ash

Instantaneously, following the uncommon plumming of the black volcano ash cloud, then immediately came the climax of this spectacular unfolding above the earth. At that moment in this vision, a white plume of volcano ash shot out of the Iceland mountain and unlike the black volcano ash, this white cloud formed a near vertical pillar. And that pillar of white volcano ash went so high up into the sky as it mixed with the black ash cloud. That became the moment at which the plume from the volcano ash descended covering the entire western part of the world. And then the voice of the LORD from heaven declared, "And when this happens, it shall be the news item across all the earth." At that time the entire sky above the western part of the earth became covered with the volcano ash cloud and no one would escape. Then the Voice of the LORD coming from heaven again, declared, "And this shall be one of the wonders in the heavens and on the earth." At that time in this vision, it then dawned on me that nobody was able to flee or get away. Then come a last time, the voice of the LORD from heaven said, "Tell this people to repent, the Messiah is coming." And then I woke up from that dream.

Fulfilment

When the prophecy of the Iceland volcano was given way back on March 24, 2004, it is as though it could be possible to hear the undertones of people's proud minds answer back, saying; "Who is the LORD that I should obey His voice?" But, when the April 14th, 2010, struck on the calendar, and the otherwise largely dormant and unknown Eyjafjallajokull Iceland volcanic mountain violently exploded into life, literally every living being on the face of the earth immediately understood that this time around things would not be the same again. The eruption of Eyjafjallajokull volcano was with such an astronomical force that it sent the people of Iceland scampering for life, across that chilly island. The first images that began to decipher through, presented a picture that did not depart much from the immediate moments after the nuclear bomb in Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Then come the critical 24-hours after the explosion when all pandemonium broke loose across the globe owing to a phenomenon known as the jet stream. Talk about the most accurate fulfilment of every word spoken by the LORD, then this was it. That, that March 2004 prophecy deliberately pin-pointed out that when the prophecy comes to pass, it would heavily impact western Europe, and when it surely came to pass, it is western Europe that was marooned, is an argument no one can gainsay. How the LORD engaged the jet stream to quickly accomplish the accuracy of His own word, is what has remained a puzzle unto this day.

The Boulders of Ice Melted Down

As though to fulfil the exact pronouncements of the March 2004 prophecy, when I said that the LORD had shown me huge blocks of ice exploded out and rolled across the escarpment of that mountain towards the bottom. The violent eruption of Iceland's Eyjafjallajökull mountain indeed began when it blew a hole in the mass of ice and created a cloud of smoke and ash that went high into the air. With ice on fire, the volcano created a huge melt of the humongous boulders of ice that had originally sealed and capped its peak, and then brought down heavy floods in Iceland. It is this heavy melting of huge blocks of ice at temperatures of several millions of degrees Celsius, that caused a huge flood sending people fleeing their homes. The Iceland's Department of Civil Protection and Emergency had a difficult time coping with the distress calls across the entire island. Just to emphasize on the enormity of that event, the meltdown of boulders of ice created such an inundation that literally swept away well established civil structures like bridges. In some instances, several bridges were immediately dismantled by Iceland's Civil Protection Agency in order to give way to the rushing floods. After a brief respite, the Iceland volcano erupted a second time, but, this time around from a different glacier covered vent.

This led to a massive melting of boulders of ice that had covered the vent, and hence spurred heavy floods that came down rushing and gushing like a storm, in a historic phenomenon never encountered before in that island. This flooding spurred up an emergency night time evacuation of hundreds of people in the flood zone. About 800 people living nearby were evacuated as a precautionary measure instructed by geophysicists of Iceland's Institute of earth's sciences. Within 24-hours, initial reports already indicated that glacial melt from Iceland's Eyjafjallajökull volcano had already raised local rivers by as much as 10 feet (3 meters). That is just how enormous the melting of the ice was in that eruption. Major roads were closed as flood water continued to gush into the ocean. When the Iceland's Eyjafjallajökull volcano erupted, a fiery display beheld the skies as it sent fountains of lava shooting high into the air and ribbons of lava flowing down the cliff faces. As Iceland's volcano lighted up its face with the glow of light, it poured out a 27-storey magmatic rock thanks to the force that ejected those rocks. During all this episode, there was continuous evacuation in nearby villages because of flooding that resulted from the heavy meltdown of glacial ice. The uncertainty of the entire cascade of explosions was evident in the faces of the residents of Iceland because when they thought they had seen it all, then just hours later, another eruption broke out at another part of the volcano. This sent them fleeing due to eminent flooding from the steep Eyjafjallajökull volcano. What particularly stuns beyond comparison, is the matter of how the volcano literally took every word that was spoken in that March 24, 2004 prophecy, and accurately brought it to pass. In that 2004 prophecy, the LORD had asked me to decree about the huge boulders of ice, which he even allowed me to touch in order to feel their chill. The LORD then led me to pronounce that the eruption would split those boulders of ice, and turn them into a fast-flowing river. When it all came to pass, it was absolutely amazing to see the perfection of the accuracy of the word of God spoken 6 years ago, coming to 100% fulfilment. Indeed on that April 16, 2010, when the volcanic eruption of Iceland's Eyjafjallajökull mountain started, it exploded beneath a 650-foot-thick (200-meter-thick) block of ice. And the enormous fiery heat from the eruption quickly transformed the glacier into a fast-flowing torrent of water.

Since the volcano is quite steep, the floodwater came down rather powerfully in such a short time hence throwing the people into extreme panic. A deeper sense of anxiety then quickly gripped the entire Iceland, as people were very nervous and worried because of fears that they would not be evacuated in time.

Volcano Ash

Black & White Ash Cloud Appeared

When the fullness of time had come for the 2004 Volcano Ash prophecy to be fulfilled, a worrisome cascade of terrifying events began to unfold in Iceland, right before the eyes of the inhabitants. It had been long since Iceland last experienced such an intense seismic activity and tremors, as was now happening. It all happened as the Eyjafjallajökull volcanic mountain relentlessly erupted thereby sending the inhabitants of that otherwise normally quiet island, into sleepless nights. Many in that chilly Iceland, knew that those unrelenting tremors couldn't have been any indicator of good things to come, at all. Rumbling again and again, and even louder, this Iceland's volcano indeed took its people by storm when it suddenly blasted its way through its ice-capped seals that had been dormant for over 200 years. As though their peace had been thrown out through the window, the people of Iceland watched helplessly as the Eyjafjallajökull volcano began throwing-up and spewing magma chunks the size of cars into the air. But, it was the intense bubbling of lava and production of more tremors that now finally sent the residents of Iceland fleeing for their lives, as they lamented that they couldn't take it anymore. It appeared as though everything under the sun was now at stake in Iceland. Uncertainty gripped the island as the first reports of what had happened there began to trickle through to the other ends of the earth. This otherwise previously very peaceful Iceland volcano began to rapidly intensify its fiery activity and now spewing very black smoke against an amazing backdrop of northern lights. The build-up of lava and molten rock notwithstanding, it became as though a spectacular manifestation now beheld the skies, with the aurora borealis meeting Eyjafjallajökull's fire fountains. It is at this point, that the true sign and wonder of our dispensation unfolded before the television cameras of the earth. To the Icelanders though, it simply left them without breath or a word to say. These stunning images surely showed a heavenly phenomenon of green aurora ripples just above Eyjafjallajökull's fire fountains. However, the spewing of molten rocks the size of cars intensely continued around the fountain and the vent within the crater.

A huge cloud of smoke then began to get pumped into the air as shifting winds directed their ash plumes. The ash plumes forcefully streamed by travelling through the jet stream and directly targeted Western Europe. As this happened, the dark ash plumes began to mix with clouds associated with that system, within the beauty of the Northern Lights. This Iceland's troublesome volcano, furthermore began blowing white fluffy plumes while shooting thick ash and smoke deep into the heavens. In its spectacular appearance within the backdrop of the Northern Lights, something still remained quite suspicious about this volcano. As it continued exporting its white fluffy and thick dark fumes towards Western Europe, it became absolutely obvious that it was headed to reeking a monumental havoc over

Travel Chaos

And no one could get away . . .

The March 2004 prophecy had clearly and unambiguously affirmed that when the fulfilment comes to pass no one would get away. To emphasize the gravity of the words of that prophecy, the enormity of the force of its fulfilment, came on Friday April 15, 2010, by 7:39am, when the Iceland volcano ash virtually disrupted and literally shut down all air traffic across the entire Western Europe. With a cloud of authority designed to impress the people, with its spectacular fiery fountain, and to command the haughtiness of its gigantic stature, the Iceland volcano ash cloud literally began to Hoover over Europe and take over its super busy airspace. The situation got so bad that all the major airports across the entire continent of Europe, including Charles de Gaulle in Paris, London's Heathrow, Frankfurt in Germany, and Schiphol in Amsterdam, were all literally shutdown with not even one flight able to take off. When the volcanic ash from Iceland's Eyjafjallajokull mountain snarled air traffic across the entire Europe, it led to the largest cancellation of thousands of flights ever seen in the history of modern aviation. According to the intergovernmental body that manages European air travel, this was totally historic and unprecedented. What made matters even worse was the fact that as it shutdown the entire European airspace, no one knew, not even the specialists, for how long that closure was going to last. One thing stood out clear in people's minds though, that the volcano ash if not well handled, could cause aircraft engines to fail and lead to deadly air crash and fatalities. In a nutshell, France, Germany, Ireland, Sweden,

Norway, Belgium, Finland, India, Denmark, Poland and the Netherlands all announced the complete closure of their airspace, with the authorities in each country observing a strict no-fly zone. The Norwegian cancellation included the cancellation of even helicopters to off-shore oil installations. Even US transatlantic flights were cancelled in response to the ash cloud. China too moved in with a sweeping cancellation of all its flights to Europe, including Air China. The Hong Kong-based Cathay Pacific also followed suit by cancelling all its flights to all European destinations, in order to pay attention to the effects of volcanic ash cloud. Stunningly, the Iceland volcano was continually spewing and launching clouds of ash to the altitude that commercial airliners fly at 30,000-35,000 feet, hence requiring the upper level winds to blow the ash and disperse it out before any aircraft could venture into that aerospace. It is amazing how everything now very much depended on the Iceland volcano and its spewing activity. Even flights from the Middle East, including Emirates and Qatar, Saudi Arabian Airlines, Air Jordan, and the Israeli El Al, cancelled all their European schedules. Japan also bowed down to the enormous pressure that Iceland's Eyjafjallajokull volcano exerted globally on the travel industry. Flights from Africa to Europe were equally grounded, leaving passengers scattered all across the airports of the continents. This disruption surely caused a horrific havoc for air travel around the entire world, given that it led to the largest number of stranded passengers ever recorded in the history of modern aviation. Flights from Australia also cancelled their European routes. Even the US Air Force shutdown its bases in England, RAF Mildenhall and RAF Lakenheath, due to volcanic ash cloud that was hanging over the European airspace. That meant dozens of US Air Force F-15s and other fighter jets and tankers were not able to fly. And flights to Iraq and Afghanistan flying through European airspace were indeed diverted to other routes. The irony though, was that the ash itself wasn't necessarily visible in the air, but it could still pose a serious threat to aircrafts. Many were heard saying that if the air that rushes through the jet engines were to mix with ash, it could cause engine failure and electrical difficulties within an aircraft. Just as the prophecy pronounced, that when this all comes to pass, no one would be able to get away; and it was so when the Iceland volcano erupted. It did not matter whichever airport it was across the globe, one common denominator became that people were stranded in the waiting lounges and could not take off for the western part of the earth. Passengers spent sleepless nights waiting for their respective flights to take them to their destinations, with virtually no hope of any good news from the airport authorities.

to be stranded at airports, the fulfilment of this March 24, 2004 Iceland volcano prophecy heavily devastated the global economy. According to experts, the European economy, especially the airline industry took a major hit as airlines lost lots of the much needed cashflow and spent every little penny in their kitties taking care of stranded passengers and air crew. By May 22, 2010, British Airways and Air France-Royal Dutch Airlines (KLM) have as a result of this prophecy, reported record losses of close to a billion dollars each. The economic impact suffered by the European economy is expected to go on for extended periods of time in the struggle for recovery. Airports are estimated to have lost over US$200 million per day in the midst of the air traffic shutdown. It is estimated that upto 6.8 million passengers were affected globally. Accommodation and food for passengers that were stranded midway, became the toughest deal ever for the airlines to manage. The financial impact of the flight disruption owing

Economic Impact

Ash Cloud Shut Down Economies

By compelling thousands of flights to be cancelled, and over 6.8 million passengers to the volcano ash cloud, is still being felt today far and wide. Many countries that thrive greatly on tourism were hit even hardest as tourists could no longer arrive, nor leave. Huge amounts of tourist dollars were lost by the actions of a single volcano that the LORD spoke about on March 24, 2004. Meanwhile,

Exporters of perishable goods and flowers such as Kenya, were very badly affected. Food exports from Africa and Caribbean were among those hardest hit, with reports of Kenyan farmers being forced to dump stocks of fresh foods and flowers destined for European countries. That scale of caused real problems for those nations and companies trading perishable goods, including foods and flowers, which depend on air freight.

And considering the massive nature of the Eurozone economies, that is expected to cause a lot of European countries to get any economic growth this year at all.

Third bout of Volcanic ash

In what began on March 20, 2010, the Iceland Eyjafjallajokull volcano mountain erupted, the fulfilment of this novel prophecy has continued to present such an enormous challenge to the global aviation industry. As late as May 17th, 2010, a third bout of this volcano ash cloud has confronted Western Europe again even as the prophecy declared in March 2004. Having shutdown flights in the month of April, on May 17, 2010, the volcano ash cloud has again led to major developments. This Monday, May 17th the ash cloud moved east into England and again led to the British air authorities to close down two major airports in the UK namely, Heathrow and Gatwick. All flights into and out of Heathrow and Gatwick airports were cancelled beginning 1:00am Sunday. These cancellations were the latest rounds of weekend closures of airport across the UK and Europe. Amsterdam's Schipol airport also announced its closure in this third bout of the fulfilment of the volcano ash prophecy. Birmingham, Norwich, Manchester, Liverpool, etc, were among the airports that have shut down. In addition, Dublin airport was also shutdown affecting even transatlantic flights coming from the US towards Europe. That all governments in Europe began monitoring the situation and the safety of passengers, is what still remained paramount as they evaluated the ash cloud movement above the earth. Many passengers have again gotten stranded in this month of May because of flight disruptions caused by the fulfilment of this mighty 2004 prophecy. A problem that began in mid-April, when the volcano glacier of Eyjafjallajokull mountain erupted and sent a cloud into the atmosphere, thereby disrupting international flights, has persisted on into May. Unfortunately for mankind, scientists have thrown in the towel and said that there is no way to know how long the volcano would continue spewing ash into the air. In some cases, seismologists, geophysicists, and volcanologists have predicted that this problem could go on another year. This has presented a very serious hazard to aircrafts by reducing visibility and damaging flight control and ultimately causing jet engines to fail. Surely, it takes the mighty hand of God for such a scenario to unfold in the face of a technologically advanced earth.

The Message to the church

Joel 2:28-32

On March 24, 2004, when the LORD God Almighty released the prophecy of the Iceland volcano that would violently erupt and disrupt life on the earth, therein was a very stern message unto the nations of the earth. In that vision, every single utterance that the LORD laid forth, was recently most accurately fulfilled when the Icelandic Eyjafjallajokull volcanic mountain erupted. This bore testimony that the mouth of the LORD had spoken, and that every single deference within that prophecy implied the grace of God. In that prophecy, the voice of the LORD said that upon its fulfilment, it shall constitute one of the chief spiritual landmarks of the signs and wonders on the earth and in heaven. For this to be occurring at this hour in the church, it can only imply that Joel's dispensation of the latter outpour is behold. Then finally the voice of the LORD said, "Tell this people to repent, the Messiah is coming." The LORD is calling upon all the nations of the earth to realize that the beginning of birthpangs is at hand, and there is an urgent need for them to repent and prepare the way for the coming of the Messiah. If the beginning of birthpains can be such horrific with flights being cancelled globally and airspace shutdown all over busy Europe, with millions of passengers stranded in airports across the entire globe, and planes locked out in different non-base hangers, then how much more horrific and severe are the upcoming birthpains. Blessed is the church that works her way out for deliverance. That means "Seek me and when you seek me with all your heart you shall find me" (Jeremiah 29:13).

the International Air Transport Association (IATA) reported that the European economy suffered in billions of dollars in lost business. The body that controls European air traffic, Eurocontrol, reported that the Icelandic volcano ash cloud essentially forced the widest and most expensive shutdown in European aviation history. The global shutdown that the fulfilment of this Iceland volcano prophecy brought upon the face of the earth is said to have literally dwarfed the closures which followed the September 11, 2001 terrorist attack on New York and Northern Virginia. Oil prices plunged below expectation in Asia and Middle East as the volcano ash cloud continually undermined the global economic recovery. In the Eurozone, the closure of the aerospace devastated economic activities beyond air travel and airline industries, so heavily to the extent that the governments called for a serious meeting of industrial leaders. Moreover, the disruption losses was repeated in agriculture-based economies across Africa and South America. While supermarkets' supplies of some fresh produce were seriously affected, car maker Nissan on the other hand, also announced a suspension of production of three of its models in Japan because it was unable to import parts from the Irish Republic. Other types of businesses that went down as a result of the fulfilled Icelandic volcanic prophecy, include businesses that handle conferences as those meetings were cancelled, stranded staff across the globe, and delays to deliver air mail. Productivity in many countries suffered globally due to workers being unable to return to work, according to the Centre for Economic and Business Research (CEBR). Meanwhile, major courier companies FedEx, DHL and TNT also reported delays and disruption to their services. A drop of between 1% and 2% for European economies as a result of the Iceland volcano ash prophecy was not ruled out.

Apostasy in Church

Absurdity of Prosperity Message

Since the loss of his inheritance in heaven, the enemy has determined to find revenge by causing the church to share in his disgraceful fall. Very much aware that in our own strength it is impossible for us to deny the clamour of our fallen nature, the enemy has perpetually taken advantage of hereditary weakness and hence fully engaged his false insinuations to ensnare all whose trust in God is not. He has devised new schemes and channels with which to assault especially the church. At the nativity of our LORD Jesus in a cuddled Bethlehem manger, the enemy already knew that One had now come with a divine commission to dispute his dominion over mankind, and to finally set the church free. This caused the adversary to tremble much, at the angel's message attesting the authority of the new born King. Much as it was difficult to fathom the mystery of this great sacrifice of love, the glory and the peace and majesty and the joy of heavenly communion, were mightily manifest abound. That the Son of God should come to this earth as a man, certainly filled the adversary with fearful amazement and with an extreme sense of apprehension, to mention the least. To the enemy, the declaration made in the garden of Eden pronouncing that,

"I will put enmity between thee and the woman and between thy seed and her seed" (Gen 3:15) had now indubitably translated into the fact that he would not hold any persuasion over the church, any longer.

"And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from the Jordan and immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness. And he was there in the wilderness, forty days, tempted by satan, and was with the wild beasts." "And in those he did eat nothing" (Matthew 4)

In this way, the LORD Jesus clearly verified the authority of his commissioning and that never again would the adversary ever have a leeway for corrupting the church. With these words, Christ highlighted to the church that the great appetite and the excessive over-indulgence in the things of this world, were the grounds for the greatest temptation. And fasting would be the hallmark for a separated life. This is just where the ruin began when the church by the indulgence of appetite disobeyed and finally fell. And yet, it was obvious that when the LORD Jesus charted for the church the path to the Holy Ghost by fasting, He stood in the strength of perfect manhood and possessing the full vigour of body, mind and Spirit, having been surrounded in a daily communion with heavenly beings. Armed with this level of Holy Ghost power, the LORD Jesus was then able to enter the wilderness and cope with the adversary. If the church too had stuck upon this humble pathway of wilderness righteousness, the apostasy of this day would never have ravaged it this much. It had all along been obvious that the seductive excesses of this dark world would be laid by the adversary, right before the church, in order to ensnare her into sharing in the grand fall with the enemy. "If Thou be the Son of God, command these stones that it be made bread". Not without a massive travail, could Jesus give audience to the enemy. But then "It is written . . ." became the eternal antidote that literally broke the backbone of deception. The question then becomes, "how could the church have bought into the seductive ensnares of over-indulgence?"

Prosperity . . .

The church of Christ in this era has mainly been instituted on the sermons of a prosperity gospel, that has caused her apostate condition. Today's christians have unfortunately not well appreciated that the current apostasy in the church, undeniably amounts to a house that has literally renounced her loyalty unto the LORD. JEHOVAH the God of covenant firmly honours His pledges to the extent that mankind can literally live off every word that proceeds out of His mouth. In the clamour to sustain her earthly livelihood, the church of Christ committed the greatest blunder ever, by forgetting that the most important foundation upon which her provision was well promised, is righteousness. Then there came the deception, as if in an answer to her prayer, one in the guise of the prosperity gospel from heaven, which she readily accepted without any careful afterthought. Pointing to this reason, over the greater part of her life, the church has virtually engaged in the sermons of a false form of christianity that fronts the spiritually reckless living in compromise with sin. Strewed in the church's impaired vision of prosperity are all the excesses of earthly wealth and pleasures to the extent that holiness has been sidelined. This has essentially rendered the church spiritually too faint and feeble to even enter the bloodstained path that Jesus charted out for her, on the Cross at Calvary. Though the church well recognized the bloodstained highway of holiness from the beginning, contrarily her act is as though she were not provoked into a bitter controversy with the broader highways of this sinful world. Following His passionate suffering on the Cross, the LORD Jesus unmistakably aggravated the church into an eternal controversy with this evil dark world. It is His undaunted stature on the Cross and the suffering of such a condition of things to exist, that raised to the church a red flag on the parleying with sin, that she may not give the enemy an advantage over her life. By conceding to the disguised demands of this sinful world, nothing good has come out of the church's worship, neither has God been glorified by her praise. In the absence of holiness, the evidence of christian walk is today worthless to break the stronghold of rebellion in the church and summon God's might, because human capacity, strength and power have indeed predictably weakened in the face of such a humongous mountain of earthly darkness to surmount. Unfortunately for today's apostate pastors, while this scenario perfectly rolls out, faith, which is the pillar of christian walk in the church now reposes in God. This kind of weakening of faith is what has opened a huge door to deception and rampart falsehood into today's house of the LORD. Only a righteously obedient walk in the highway of holiness can unravel for the church the true defining intent of holiness when the LORD said,

"Above all things, I desire that you prosper" (Isaiah 35:8-9)

In God's version of prosperity, all opulence was originally intended to draw the hearts of the believers closer and closer to Christ Jesus the Redeemer. And yet all this misconception on prosperity today happens when, on man's behalf, Christ conquered such temptation by enduring the severest of adversity. JEHOVAH had earlier on marked the bottom-line of his prosperity for man, by firmly asserting that all prosperity must direct the church into a righteous and holier standing with the Creator. By this means, JEHOVAH opened an unlimited floodgate of earthly and heavenly prosperity to the church that hearkens onto His holy command; to be the light of the world. Many spiritually conscientious believers look on the conflict between JEHOVAH and Israel as having a special bearing on the own life of today's church. Rightfully so, within the demarcations of every christian heart, this JEHOVAH-Israel controversy is often repeated many millions of times a day as mankind battles the sharp arrows of sin that continually strike him. Nonetheless, the LORD's stand on prosperity remains the same;

The LORD will grant you abundant prosperity—in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock and the crops of your ground—in the land he swore to your forefathers to give you. The LORD will open the heavens, the storehouse of his bounty, to send rain on your land in season and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations but will borrow from none. The LORD will make you the head, not the tail. If you pay attention to the commands of the LORD your God that I give you this day and carefully follow them, you will always be at the top, never at the bottom. Do not turn aside from any of the commands I give you today, to the right or to the left, following other gods and serving them (Deut 28:11-20).

However, it is the faulting of the word of God in this dispensation, that has largely magnified apostasy today and the blatant practice of open lawlessness and shameless heedlessness in the church of Christ. As pronounced in the word, in his open expression of his intention to prosper mankind here on the earth, nevertheless was it God's object that such prosperity focus the heart of the church entirely into the perishable decay realm. By design though, God's ultimate blueprint for man's creation very much implied that every blessing of prosperity would be able to cause him to be caught up with the Messiah in the glorious gathering at rapture. However, it is now more and more evident and to a greater extent that the conception of this novel plan of God still remains for the most part, misconstrued to the present church. For this reason, the grievous spiritual misinterpretation that today presents the false gospel of prosperity, has by and large wiped-out the church's authority and honour, to a state of near-irrelevance. With most of today's believers in this degenerate condition, worship observance has now been seriously reduced to a mere formalism. As one keenly observes the church's worship services today, it is difficult to miss out on the men-of-the-cloth performing their solemn ministry while the house is thronged by suffering victims upon the altar of sacrifice. So great is the suffering in the present-day church that the ailing virtually remain in affliction with neither deliverance nor healing visiting the altar. While showing how narrowly superficial the wisdom of men is, today's absence of the Divine presence of the Holy Spirit raises every question before the church, and places the truth of God in an entirely new aspect. Today's seductive sermons on prosperity and financial wealth transfer, have undoubtedly failed to present themselves watertight to the truth, and instead manifested a serious waterloo at such a critical hour. Caught up in the contemplation of these spiritual settings, today's holy devout elect of God who have vowed to remain beside the LORD, and resolvedly opted to seek to be separated, will undeniably constitute the rapture church. The amazing manner in which post-modernism in the church has in this day and age beheld itself true to type, thereby faithfully replicating its object worldly values, is what has now re-awakened new impulses on a greater problem at hand. The anonymity and impunity that scorns today's post-modern lifestyles is what has now permitted pastors to openly confess to living for self, as the christians convert to a more casual relationship with the ALMIGHTY. Contrary to their expectation, it is the theological human wisdom being lectured by pastoral graduands of modern-day bible colleges that has most systematically overtaken the guise and caused the Spirit-filled christians to see their meaning more clearly. The LORD Jesus Himself became obedient in every particular to the word of God taught in the Synagogue, but He wisely did not conform to their rabbinical rites and usage, instead choosing to learn the reverence of God Almighty. Likewise should any serious pastoral student have listened to the theological lectures, and instead aptly leaned on the greatest promise God ever released to the church, the promise of the Holy Spirit as the ultimate Teacher. This is the kind of resolve that can break the vicious cycle of corrupt shepherds and shepherding. Modern christianity in its finest manoeuvring, through its adulterated gospel of 'sow-a-seed to get your miracle', has been proven seriously deficient of the prerequisite benchmark of holiness, to the degree that church has today largely become business enterprises whose sole purpose is to gather wealth. This pitiless fleeing of the LORD's sheep is what now brings in common scenes of preachers acting comical even on matters that seriously hinge on the Cross and the Blood of Jesus. It is incredible though that the peddlers of money-laundering in today's church cannot see that their expectations in regard to prosperity are not sustainable by biblical prophecy that define this hour. Neither can the preachers of prosperity admit that they have misapprehended the scripture that they so-claim to teach and uphold. And by the ‘defunct vehicle’ of spiritual fatherhood, from one to another, they have passed-on the iniquity. It is as though the scripture in John 1:5 has been painfully fulfilled right before our own eyes when it said, “The light was shining in darkness; but the darkness apprehended it not” (John 1:5).

God has persistently been seeking to give light to man as he gropes in darkness, causing JEHOVAH to deliberately use the only means by which he can reach out to mankind. Repentance as authored by the Blood of Jesus will forever continue to remain the only means by which the LORD can help facilitate man’s cross-over from pitch darkness of sin into the brilliant light of the truth. However, for today’s shepherds though, the scenario is much more sophisticated than earlier thought, owing to their ‘learned’ nature. In their pride, the pastors of these last days have seriously and most sombrely scorned to admit that they should receive instructions from any messenger sent by the LORD to advocate repentance. In their deplorable departure from the truth, today’s apostate pastors, evangelists, false apostles and false prophets have lost sight of the Coming of the Messiah, and they know not that He has just tarried behind for the purposes of repentance. In such manner, today’s apostasy has literally caused all the prosperity-preaching shepherds to act as a form of anti-climax, in which they have halted the rest from revival, yet also missing the helpful hand that the LORD has extended at this hour.

“See, I will send you the prophet Elijah before that great and dreadful day of the LORD comes. He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers; or else I will come and strike the land with a curse.” (Malachi 4:5-6)

The time of this promised endtime revival is nigh and here. Markedly, an indismissible Holy Ghost revival is today beginning to restore righteousness and holiness across the ends of the earth. It is the youthful modesty and grace of this, endtime Holy Ghost revival that will eventually disarm the prejudices of the prosperity priesthood in its totality in order to unconsciously open their minds to the word of God, that the Holy Spirit may speak to their hearts. But while that blessed revival is yet to totally consume the earth, today’s spiritual decay indeed marks a significant departure from the expected norm. This is owing to the fact that any church which especially walks the highway of holiness, should have trusted the LORD’s counsel explicitly on matters of repentance. Furthermore, even in the greatest milieu of money-preaching and prosperity advocacy, the fears on the unexpected return of the Messiah are beginning to be aroused. The church in her best spiritual performance and sensibility knows it too well that never was an earthly confined living, the original intention for which Jesus was sent to the Cross to pay such a horrific heart-wrenching price of redemption. Because of its obvious inborn spiritual shortfalls, the prosperity gospel has completely failed to rebuke the sin that has today intruded the church, and instead opted to accommodate worldliness and spiritual decay within the christian fraternity. Rejoiced as they may seem today, this kind of apostate church cannot however afford the luxury of forgetting the grief and anxiety that their unreadiness will cause upon the return of the Messiah.

“I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you. This is to my Father’s glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples (John 15:5-8).

Blessed are they that the Messiah will return only to find them fruitfully hearkened unto the true vine of the glorious vineyard, while woe unto they that will be found in an unfruitful place of prosperity gospel and the sermons of financial wealth transfer. When the church ceases to uphold her stature as the light of the world, then divinity ceases to flash through humanity because gross darkness befalls. Spiritual decomposition of this nature is today responsible for the rampant ungodliness and systems of heathenism that have invaded the church. In a snapshot, it would appear as though for an entire lifespan, the church and her apostate priesthood has lost sight of Him whom they should not have ever forgotten, even for a moment. It is the reason for the heavy manifestation of excessive perversion, love of money, sexual immorality, homosexuality, lesbianism, gayism, even among the pastors. Now, if the LORD is the True Vine upon whom the branches depend for a daily livelihood, how then can anyone forget about Him, even for a moment. The ilk of lawlessness in the house of the LORD has primarily been sustained by the fact that on every opportune occasion for re-awakening, the anxiety of the christian has mainly been relieved, by casting blame on the devil’s act, and yet not by censuring themselves for compromise. Where then is the authority and power of the Blood of Jesus that was shed at Calvary! This kind of reproof by the Holy Spirit is principally designed to enlighten the church on what has negatively impacted her central calling to evangelize the righteous nature of the Redeemer. A derisory fall of this cadre has a lot to do with her being brushed in bad light, to the extent that in most occasions, today’s christian now bears a repulsive, other than attractive image which the heathen would neither long to bear, nor desire to associate with. This does not do any good to disseminating the gospel since it essentially disclaims kinship with God. The robust rubric of such a disgraceful fall, is what has essentially sustained the momentum of the current most appalling state of perennial spiritual infancy in the church. Unfortunately, this spiritual immaturity is what has now become the hallmark of christian walk today. Needless to say, the falling away from true faith has today well entrenched in the church, even to the extent that believers are now reduced to a despondent batch that could care less about the word and its inherent power. It is regrettable that this contemptible plummet has gone on globally and virtually undetected for a very long time, and even more so this late in the day. The failure to intuit this seemingly obvious but very sneaky fall in the church, is what has majorly contributed to the loss of sensibility to sin among christians. It is a numbness that has raised the church’s threshold to sin, hence lulling her to eternal damnation, in a form of spiritual gangrene. Sadly, it is so disheartening to realise that the real definition of gangrene is as a matter of fact the local death and decay of the body as a result of lack of blood in that area. It can be said of the church today, that she surely lacks the Blood of Jesus in the body. If she doesn’t repent urgently, this gangrene could as well kill her. The raising of the threshold to sin and evil simply means that christians gradually become accustomed to not only observing sin in the church, but also accommodating it in their personal lives. This is the careless living of compromise with the world, that has apparently not factored in the fear of the LORD and his holy reputation. Spiritual numbness of this sort is what has exactly besmirched worship to the extent that today christians no longer view their lifestyles as the true worship that Jesus taught on the Cross. If there was any take-home lesson that Jesus emblematically left on the Cross, it was the crucifixion of the flesh. In that most exuberant greatest disposition of love towards the church, as the LORD gave His life on the Cross, He also unveiled to her the biggest secret to a successful christian lifestyle. And that secret literally lay in the complete obliteration of the sinful desires of the flesh in order to be born-again. This is one particular aspect of christian salvation that the larger majority of the present-day christians have least understood. Contrary to the sad association of material possession with success, a true successful christian lifestyle involves the shunning of sin and walking in absolute holiness for entry into the kingdom of God. The failure by the Pastors to augment their teachings with this novel cradle of the gospel (the Cross), is what has now turned church services into a great dishonour of our time, hence reducing it into mere pascal rituals of human traditions, other than a true worship in the spirit and in the truth. It is surprising though, that a form of faithlessness has gradually encroached into the holy pulpit, with the shepherds veritably lacking the conviction to believe for divine provision from the LORD. This lack of assurance that is currently proliferating among Pastors to the effect that God may not be able to miraculously provide for them in this day and age, is what has unfortunately hatched out a stinging wave of virulent false teachers of the word. This clique has today mutated into a bunch of Pastors who can outrightly lie publicly, in order to loot offerings and the so-called ‘seed’ money from the faithful. They are the false prophets of the day. The priesthood today can openly deceive and feast on the sins of the saints in order to earn their so-called decent living.

They feed on the sins of my people and relish their wickedness (Hosea 4:8).

Promised in the beginning as one of the key landmarks of the last days, it is nevertheless most painful to live to see this apostasy play itself to full course in our time. This level of officious worldliness, with its sullyng post-modernism, right at the centre of the church, is what has finally provoked GOD Almighty to releasing the horrific pangs of the Rider of the BLACK APOCALYPTIC HORSE. Though, a necessary step within the prophetic timeline to rapture, this third HORSEMAN is intended to shake mankind from his more earthly inclination, back to a heavenly proclivity. The LORD intended that the subsequent global economic crisis unleashed by this HORSEMAN is what is meant to REPROVE this apostate church back to the echelon of her holiness. By collapsing and melting down all the structures of prosperity that had beclouded the christian vision, the LORD Almighty purposed that the release of the BLACK HORSE purge the hearts of the saints off materialism back to spiritual purity. Such structures of prosperity that had lodged themselves inside the hearts of the christians, include aspects like accumulation of financial stock reserves, idolizing of homes and cars, priding in what they do and have. Surely these structures had robbed God off the attention of man. Even among the Israelites, JEHOVAH has been super passionate about covenant keeping, reverence, worship diligence and a non-contaminated relationship. God the Father is equally very jealous of the church and deserves the total attention of the believers. This is the rationale for which JEHOVAH can deliberately crumble down every distraction that may sway mankind away from his complete attention. This, the LORD has previously done with that likewise obstinate generation at the monumental Tower of Babel pride. The dominant endeavours by this third HORSEMAN in shaking-up the global economy, is irrefutably a divine effort that is aimed at awakening the church of Christ on the necessity to REPENT from her corrupt deeds and prepare the righteous way for rapture (Isaiah 40:1-5). Righteousness is the fine linen with which today’s christians ought to clothe their hearts with, in order to enter into this most awaited wedding feast of the Lamb (Rev 19:6-9; Heb 12:14; 2 Cor 5:1-5). By virtue of the global FAMINE that this APOCALYPTIC HORSEMAN discharges, an astonishingly parallel corresponding ravaging spiritual hunger has pervaded the church of Christ worldover. This has especially built-up into a humongous spiritual scarcity for the essential gifts of the Holy Spirit in the body of Christ. And that is the reason today’s christians can be heard faking tongues, and false prophets heard counterfeiting the holy voice of God, while regular preachers can be seen faking miracles, etc. There surely is a huge clamour for the Holy Spirit to visit the house at this hour of great need. The visitation of the Holy Spirit is the only intervention that would finally release the much-needed wisdom of God into the current apostate church. All God-loving christians will today agree that if the global economic crunch is what it takes to return the church back to God, then it is a good thing, and so be it. The advantage of the current economic shake-up can only accrue onto the lives of the christians, in as far as it reprioritizes the quest for eternity in their hearts. Considering the increased pomp of worldliness that highlights christian lifestyle today, there is surely no greater awakening that best describes the actions of the man of the BLACK HORSE, than this scripture;

<sup>15</sup>Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. <sup>16</sup>For everything in the world—the cravings of sinful man, the lust of his eyes and the boasting of what he has and does—comes not from the Father but from the world. <sup>17</sup>The world and its desires pass away, but the man who does the will of God lives forever (1 John 2:15-17).

The Historic Haiti Earthquake Prophecy

Prophesied: November 24, 2009
Fulfilled: January 12, 2010

Haiti & Dominican Republic Forewarned in November 2009

Should the people of the earth have held a believing Spirit, they wouldn't have been found as rebellious critics of the LORD's word, but rather as precious elect at His protection in these perilous last days. Many nations thus today close the door to the most precious opportunity of making things right with the LORD, just as did the people of Haiti in November 2009. If that nation had responded to the Holy Spirit's call to repentance, they would have recognized the voice of the heavenly King that forewarned them. Because of one purpose only were they conscious, to indulge in the excessive immorality of this dark world; they hence saw it not that the word sent unto them was indeed full of freshness, truth and eternal beauty of God's love. The people of Haiti surely missed their most important opportunity to get right with the LORD, and be reconciled with His Majesty. In a brief, it is such waywardness of mankind that has cost him the sight with which to recognize the LORD's spontaneous nature, loving sympathy and glorious redemption, even from the wounds of today's sin. Furthermore, only one presence still continued to overtake their hearts, the insubordination with which they defiantly desired to break away from God's command, and be free from His holy requirements. If penitence and faith are the honourable duo that enable a soul to receive wisdom from the LORD, then it can be said of the people of Haiti, that when the warning came in that November 2009, they undoubtedly neglected the key of understanding that makes man knoweth God. In the nature of His forewarning to them, it is as though God's impulsive love demanded instant obedient remorsefulness without which He would be ready to leave them free to turn back and speak to their own desires.

For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened. Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles. Therefore God gave them over in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another. They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served created things rather than the Creator—who is forever praised. Amen. Because of this, God gave them over to shameful lusts. Even their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural ones. In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed indecent acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their perversion. Furthermore, since they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, he gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what ought not to be done (Rom 1:21-28).

During the entire period at which Haiti and the Dominican Republic were thoroughly warned of an impending historic earthquake, and especially from November 22 through November 27, 2009, it was as though the LORD God had shed a new light upon that Island of Hispaniola. Every pronouncement spoken during that visit was, unmistakably directed to the words of Isaiah the Prophet, that said,

Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool (Isaiah 1:18).

With the worldly pomp that reverberated 24/7 at the sexual sin beaches and homosexual resorts, there was no way the hardened hearts of the people of the Dominican Republic and Haiti were going to easily give-in, and heed the LORD's directive to repentance and the earnest hearkening onto the everlasting testimony of Jesus. One could easily feel every heartbeat of the LORD as He longed to gather the people of the Dominican Republic and Haiti under His wings, especially given the dispensation in which the earth has now entered. As the cripples got up and walked, the blind saw, the deaf heard, and the mute spoke in those 2009 revival meetings at which Haiti was forewarned; one could almost feel that there wasn't going to be any more tolerance with rebellious nations, except a strict compliance with:

"Every valley shall be exalted and every mountain and hill made low..." (Isaiah 40:1-5).

Positively so, the LORD wasn't seeking their sanction for His redemptive work at Calvary, but rather an assertion to them that worthless are worldly pleasures, human powers and earthly treasures. However, one may ask, "Why then did He have to warn them and heal them at the same time in those November 2009 meetings?" Unmistakably, in that process JEHOVAH intended that they receive His free gift of the amazing eternal grace that broke through the bondage of hades and disarmed death's dominion.

Stunning Haiti Earthquake Prophecy

When the LORD sent me to warn the people of Haiti way back in November 22-27, 2009, it was vividly evident that with His long outstretched hands, He was crying out to that nation saying, "In the midst of you standeth One whom ye know not, even He that cometh in the name of the LORD." Philosophers, seismologists, geologist, geophysicists and theologians alike, had for more than two centuries endeavoured to study into the patterns of mysteries and of earthquakes, but, none of them had ever been able to walk into a place and decree with absolute certainty that an earthquake was coming to a locality, and it indeed got fulfilled at that place. For the people of the Island of Hispaniola it must have been a rude awakening for me to have walked in and decreed such an astronomical force of God Almighty as coming to touch down.

It all began in May, 2009, when I saw the visions of the LORD in which I had attempted to travel to the Island of Hispaniola to warn both the Dominican Republic and the Nation of Haiti to repent and turn away from evil, in order to prepare the way for the coming of the Messiah. Unfortunately though in that May vision, I saw myself taking a flight that was passing through Europe and while in the connecting flight, I saw in that vision that I would fail to reach the Island of Hispaniola to warn the people of Haiti and the Dominican Republic. It was then that I began a prayer and dry fast for the mission to bring this mighty announcement of the coming of the Messiah, to the people of that Island.

June 17, 2009 Vision on Haiti

While in one of those prayers and dry fast, the LORD spoke with me by lifting me up and taking me into the nation of Haiti and showing me what was just about to befall that land. In that vision, I saw a historic earthquake that would come and strike that land including the Dominican Republic. And when I saw the earthquake, I also saw a lot of people gathered in one place and so many hospitals set up even outside by the grass. Still in that June 17th vision, the LORD further spoke to me about the horrific death that would consume the people and even the tsunami by the beach that would devastate that island. When I woke up from that vision, on June 18th, 2009, I was very disturbed at the state of sin that the LORD had shown me in Haiti and the Dominican Republic, i.e., the Island of Hispaniola. I was even much more perplexed in extreme shock at the horrendous judgment of the LORD that was going to visit that island, and especially Haiti. However, with all arrangements put in place, when I tried to travel to the Dominican Republic in order to deliver this most stunning prophecy and judgment of the LORD, indeed as the vision I had seen earlier in which I had failed to arrive, I surely missed my connecting flight from Frankfurt to Puerto Plata. I tried in vain to book other connecting routes in order to arrive at the already prepared revival meetings in the Dominican Republic. I surely failed to travel to the Island of Hispaniola just as I had seen in the vision and I returned to Kenya. Upon arriving in Kenya, I immediately got on phone and called the pastors in the Dominican Republic and spoke directly with Pastor Felipe Aquino regarding what the LORD of Hosts had decreed over that island. Realizing that Pastor Felipe Aquino had put my phone-call directly live on air on a christian radio, I spoke with a stern clarity on the intended purpose of my visit to that Island of Hispaniola. I declared vividly clear and live on radio, even as millions were tuned in, that the LORD of Hosts was sending me to pronounce a most historic massive judgment that would strike that island, owing to the horrific sexual sin, among other sins that had established there. In that vision which I explained to them live on radio, I said that I was seeing a lot of people extremely affected by that judgment including treatment of people being done under trees. I also said without any ambiguity, and with the most sober of voices, that I was seeing a horrific tsunami floods that would announce the coming of the historic Haiti earthquake. Additionally on November 23rd, 2009, I held a second revival meeting in the city of Puerto Plata, and again warned with the sternest of voice about a historic previously unseen earthquake that was now going to come and strike the island of Hispaniola. To the multitudes that attended the revival meetings in Puerto Plata, this was the strangest phenomenon they had ever encountered. Having never experienced the kind of earthquake that I was standing at the altar and announcing as coming, they were at first most sceptical and disbelieved. A great suspicion arose though as many of their sick were healed in those meetings to the extent that the deaf ears opened, cripples walked out of wheelchairs and many other outstanding miracles took place. It was this and only this alone that caused them to begin to be wary that come after that historic earthquake. Following that phone conversation, it was agreed among the pastors that a date be set for me to make a second attempt to visit the Island of Hispaniola and decree the Oracles of God in the complete hearing of the multitude of the citizenry of that land. The revival dates were set for commencement from November 22nd till 27th the year 2009.

Stern warning in Puerto Plata

The day on which my feet stepped on the Island of Hispaniola, I declared upon arrival in Puerto Plata that that island would never ever be the same again. It was on November 22, 2009 when I held the first massive revival meeting in the Dominican Republic to the words spoken in those meetings must have come from JEHOVAH the LORD of Hosts. It was as though through nature and through types and symbols, God had spoken to the people of Haiti and the Dominican Republic as a lesson to humanity through the language of humanity; the healing of their own sick. Among those who had been styled ardent believers, there was a genuine cause for concern especially given that the sins I enumerated were real and as rampant as I had declared. The need for repentance seemed to throb the hearts of the church leadership and their congregations alike. Last but not least, I further went live on a christian radio on that November 23rd 2009 morning, and delivered the heaviest of warnings to the millions that were tuned in live, on the coming of THE MOST HORRIFIC HAITI EARTHQUAKE.

Severe warning in Santiago City

On that November 24th, 2009, with a convoy of pastors, I left for the second largest city in the Dominican Republic called Santiago. If one had thought that the warning of the coming Haiti earthquake was sternest in Puerto Plata, then they would have needed to hear what the LORD Spoke at Santiago stadium. It became the most scathing of attacks yet onto the compromised christian lifestyle that was being propagated in both Haiti and the Dominican Republic. I also warned about the sexual sin and homosexuality by the beaches of that island, and the gospel of prosperity that had hampered the church's mission of salting the island, and illuminating its populace with the light of Christ. It is indeed the nature of healings that the LORD performed in Santiago, that truly affirmed His word on the coming historic earthquake.

Harsh warning in Higuey City

Throughout all the three days in which I held massive revival meetings in the city of Higuey, if there is any message at all that remained central, then it was that of the harshest warning that a historic earthquake was on the way coming. While speaking to the pastors at the Bishop's Council in Higuey, I sternly declared in that Pastors Conference that a historic earthquake would have to take place on that Island of Hispaniola in order to confirm to them that time was over for sin and the love of money in the church, and that the LORD had sent me to prepare the way for the coming of the Messiah. All throughout the three days, November 25th, 26th, and 27th, 2009, I kept repeating over and over again that a historic earthquake would strike that land just to prove to the people of that island that the time for repentance had come and that indeed the LORD God Almighty had sent me to them, to turn them away from their evil ways, and receive Jesus in a holy preparation for the rapture. Even as perplexed as the people looked, the massive healing miracles that the LORD performed, became the testament of what had been prophetically fully set before them.

Fulfilment

After the final three days of mighty revival meetings in the city of Higuey, with the convoy of pastors, we headed back to Puerto Plata that I may catch my flight and leave that land. However, before leaving that land, I ultimately declared that, "When all these things come to pass, then you shall know that surely the Prophet of the LORD has today walked amongst you." With those words I left the Dominican Republic in the name of the LORD. As the word of the LORD slightly tarried, it surely must have taken the gift of carrying a steadfast soul for one to have continued reciting the mighty utterances that the LORD had laid on the land. Little did most of the people of Haiti and the Dominican Republic realize that all that I had said while in that land, were as a matter of fact, from that holy line through whom the knowledge of God had been preserved. Unfortunately, some may have attempted to strengthen their faith by dwelling upon the assurances that had been given them through the gospel of prosperity, without any privy of what was in the offing in that land.

The black January 12th, 2010

Nevertheless, it took a record less than two months, from the date of that mighty prophecy, when on the most fateful January 12th, 2010, every word of my tongue was suddenly and literally fulfilled right before the eyes of the nations of the earth. If there was a day that the people of the earth would indeed term the black day, then it would by merit be that January 12, 2010, when a historic 6.9 magnitude earthquake struck Haiti with such an unmatched impunity. All the global television networks interrupted, and halted their routine programming to report this shocking event that had taken place on the Island of Hispaniola, and specifically in Haiti. It was the nature of the demolition and destruction that befell Haiti that sent shock waves across the entire face of the earth. With no words to describe the level of calamity that had just presented, every nation on the face of the earth held their breath while contemplating on their own situation in that respect. Sympathy, sorrow, loathsomeness, fear, were among some of the reactions that chilled mankind across the earth. It was deeply agonizing to merely watch first-hand accounts of the horror and devastation on Port-au-Prince from the earthquake that threatened to break all records ever set by Temblors. Then came the unbearable pain that rattled through people's hearts across the globe as they watched rescue workers struggle to clear rubble and bodies that had been bemirched, mangled, half buried, crushed, from the streets of Haiti's "flattened" capital. The impact of that 6.9 earthquake was so devastating that government officials reported the death toll at a staggering over 300,000. Then in the midst of it all, thousands of injured people waited desperately for medical care outside badly damaged hospitals, just like the prophecy had clearly specified in that November 2009 visitation. It became extremely difficult to even watch the unfolding situation in Port-au-Prince as dead bodies were piled in the streets, while an unknown number remained trapped inside collapsed buildings. Basic services like water and electricity were out, and the Haitian President Rene Preval declared that his government indeed needed help in clearing the streets so that rescuers could reach the dead and trapped in some of the hardest-hit areas. It caused the President of Haiti himself to cry out saying, "We need medicine. We need medical help in general," "Some of the hospitals have collapsed with patients and doctors in them." It was absolutely miserable what the judgement of the LORD can do to a rebellious nation, when people began digging through the rubble of levelled buildings with their own bare hands, looking for survivors or dead bodies. If there was a way to demonstrate the ending portions of that Hebrews 10:26-31 scripture which declares that it is a dreadful thing to fall in the hands of the living God, then it was on that day well dramatized before the right eyes of the nations of the earth. Horror was heaped upon horror, and death upon death, when rotting dead bodies were piled upon rotting dead bodies. It became a form of fear that could drive an entire nation into numbness. The true fruits of the wounds of sin and rebellion were on that day laid to bear before the eyes of the nations of the earth. In Port-au-Prince and its suburbs there were reports of whole blocks of collapsed buildings, with thousands of bodies piled inside those buildings and in the streets. In the region of the shadows of death that had befallen Haiti, men sat unsolaced, and with longing eyes they looked for the coming of any form of deliverance and help when that darkness hour in Haiti should be dispelled. Having failed to repent when they were warned both on radio and television broadcasts that covered the two nations of that island, Haiti and the Dominican Republic, clearly spelling out the horrific earthquake prophecy that was given way back on November 2009, now the people of Haiti appeared to be inclined to God. As this desperation for God's help consumed the land, video images captured just moments after the temblor showed dust-covered survivors rushing through the streets, yelling in terror, like a nuclear bomb had landed. Others trapped in buildings were seen punching out debris and bricks, and shouting for help and trying to squeeze themselves matched that of several nuclear bombs put together. In order to thoroughly reprove the sin that had been cited in that November 2009 prophecy, and call for a genuine repentance, the LORD ensured that the combination of its magnitude and geographical shallowness made it particularly the most dangerous earthquake over the centuries. It is now absolutely clear that the coming of the Messiah has drawn nearer than the nations ever thought, especially owing to the fact that in that November 2009 prophecy, the LORD asserted that when this earthquake would happen it would be the proof that the rapture is near.

worse for the people of Haiti when gunshots sounded off in Port-au-Prince, thereby escalating their misery. Then came the unrelenting cascades of aftershocks, with each of them being able to stand on their own merit as individual respective earthquakes. This further crushed the hearts of the people of Haiti, as screams and wails could be heard with each aftershock that followed. The LORD created a punitive state of terror when some few people who still had their homes refused to go inside, fearing collapse. Scores of Haitians huddled together in parks and sidewalks, trying to get help and rest, but all was in vain because JEHOVAH the God of Israel had finally said, "Enough is enough."

Hand of God was too Strong on the land of Haiti. Then the wrath of God descended upon that nation for failure to repent in these last days. He does not spare the young, neither does He the old and elderly. This should stand as a warning to all the nations of the earth that this time around, the LORD Almighty has COMMANDED REPENTANCE, and there is no bargain around this most critical matter because the Messiah is coming.

Thousands amputated

Just as an example, in one school that collapsed in Haiti, people were unable to take care of that situation and many kids perished in that Petionville town of Haiti. The entire city of Port-au-Prince surely collapsed, including the major points such as hospitals, hotels and even the presidential palace, and the sea port. The enormity of the judgment of God contained therein, in the Haiti earthquake, could be reflected in the fact that governments and agencies across the globe geared up to help, including rescue teams from China, Iceland, France, Chile, Cuba, South Africa, US, Spain, Russia, Venezuela and Israel, among many others. As this happened, reports and images of collapsed hospitals, crumbled homes and men and women carrying their injured neighbours through the streets, on wheelbarrows continued to cipher through the news outlets, and caused a truly heart-wrenching episode to behold. In small makeshift clinics in Port-au-Prince, doctors and medical staff were completely overwhelmed with the casualties coming in, rotting corpses, and the bleeding wounded seemed to cover every inch of the clinic. They were equally overwhelmed by the thousands of cases that required amputations. To this end, the doctors and medical staff resorted to buying electric saw and butchered people's limbs in the most agonizing and unsightly event ever since the earth was created. The electric saw amputations became horror scenes as patients were amputated without tranquillizing anaesthesia. Simple wounds that could have been healed were infected and led to amputation in order to save the lives of those patients. Verily, it is indeed a very dreadful thing to fall in the hands of the living Go (Hebrews 10:31). Until today, the nation of Haiti remain in the most precarious condition as people are bundled up in polythene refugee camps. Today the people of Haiti are languishing in refugee camps, and lamenting a demolished nation. But the only remedy FOR HEALING HAITI IS REPENTANCE in Christ Jesus.

out through cracks in the collapsed structures. Haiti's Port-au-Prince was indeed flattened by this unforgiving earthquake to the extent that the UN consul general reported more than 300,000 people dead in the final tally.

God's wrath struck

Exactly when did the LORD decide to descend His wrathful vengeance on Haiti? It was shortly before 5 p.m. that Tuesday January 12, 2010, that the LORD struck Haiti with such a wrathful retribution for their rampant sexual immorality, widespread witchcraft and open devil worship. This heavy retribution the LORD unleashed through the historic 7.0 earthquake that centred about 10 miles (15 kilometres) southwest of Port-au-Prince as was later reported by the US Geological Survey. The wrath of God in that earthquake fulfilled every word of the prophecy that I released on that island when I said that it would be historic, and no one would be able to run away, as there would be no where to run to. That temblor was so robust that it could be felt strongly as far as in eastern Cuba, which is located more than 200 miles away. Geophysicists in several universities, including at the Department of Earth Sciences in Durham University in England, reported that Haiti earthquake's power

Don't Miss Rapture

In that prophecy, the LORD in no uncertain terms, had reaffirmed on the fact that when this Haiti earthquake would occur, it would indeed present the hallmark of the beginning of birthpangs. And if such a horrific earthquake in which over 300,000 bodies rotted and decomposed, was just but the beginning of birthpains, then how much more severe is the horror that decorates the birthpains proper. The coming of the Haiti earthquake, especially after having been prophesied more than a month in advance, surely acted as a severe admonition to sin, to all the nations of the earth. It is as though God Almighty used Haiti's rebellious devil worship and immorality, to warn the entire earth that people who engage in these vices would face His most dreadful wrath. It is a reflection of the dire consequences that await an obstinate people who will miss the rapture, and get plunged into the great tribulation. The horrific smell of death that consumed Haiti is what threw their agony and pain to another level. A staggering 3 million plus people, one-third of Haiti's population, were directly and physically affected. About 10 million people felt the heavy shaking from the earthquake. As night fell over that island on that fateful day, the LORD made things further struck the rebellious people of Haiti when there was no clear system for clearing debris, removing bodies and treating the injured. Simply getting through the streets to collect the dead bodies was seemingly an impossible task. From the Haiti capital, Port-au-Prince, where shooting could be heard in the background, there was hardly any heavy machinery to try and dig through the rubble, as people resorted to doing it by hand. The hospitals that were themselves the destination of those patients who might survive, were nonexistent or had a terrible structural and medical infrastructure.

Haiti's native heroes and cast members were put to shame of their cultural practice of voodoo, as they were reduced to searching for their people. Given the overwhelming nature of the disaster, even the Haitian government threw in the towel and admitted to defeat. Like I had warned them before that it would be, indeed it came to pass that the Mighty Judging

Its Jan 2009 Prophecy & Feb 2010 Fulfilment

The Temblor That Tilted The Earth's Axis & Shortened The Days

For the people of Chile, it was as though century after century had passed and the Voice of the LORD had ceased to instruct the land. Against the written norm of God's word, all the people and the powers in Chile seemed to have recruited themselves to battle fundamental christian principles of righteousness and sound godliness. Sexual sin in Chile had become widespread even as homosexuality was finally institutionalized in that land. Many devout and faithful believers were now becoming entirely exhausted of the apathy that had spread even into the church. But just like God revealed to Abraham the slavery of Israel in Egypt, and declared that the time of their deliverance would come after her sojourning of 400 years, so has the LORD pledged to the church of Christ that her salvation would come after experiencing a dark dispensation of bondage to sin. There is no greater message that the people of Chile needed to understand than this, in the months that proceeded their earthquake prophecy that I personally travelled there to deliver. As was the hand of Pharaoh heavy upon Israel when she was doing her time in Egypt, so is the oppressors hand today so heavy upon the church, not only in Chile but also globally, to the extent that many believers are now just ready to exclaim. For Israel's case, as they had longed for the final day of their liberation, and freedom, they however found consolation in the words of the LORD, that said;

But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves, and afterward they will come out with great possessions (Genesis 15:14).

And with these words, it surely came to pass that the LORD faithfully delivered Israel from that despicable jail. To the church of Christ in Chile, and globally too, the LORD has likewise long made an unprecedented pledge to listen to her cry and deliver her from the bondage of sin that has come to characterize this hour of need. The church of Christ has today become more degraded through the ages of repeated transgression upon transgression without any due regard of the law of God. Such has been the case in the Chilean church of Christ to the extent that the LORD finally sent me there to reprove their hurtful reproaches. The advent of post-modernism and the dire urge by all to ape it, has not made the Chilean christian condition any better. The scourge of sin and its degrading decay in today's church world over, is exactly what has deterred the shepherds in Chile from preaching the good tidings unto the meek, and to fail to bind up the brokenhearted, with what ought to have been an obvious proclamation of liberty to the captives. Little did the people of Chile know that the prophecy the LORD had sent me to deliver in that January 19-26, 2009, on the coming of the horrific earthquake and tsunami, was indeed the picture of the glory of His reign of an empire which should succeed all earthly kingdoms of sin.

The Fury of God

Just as the year 2009 began, the LORD OF HOSTS sent me to the beloved nation of Chile with a message that was as stunning as it was shocking. When I began the series of revival meetings in Santiago, Chile by proclaiming the mighty announcement of the Coming of the Messiah, and the need for that nation to begin preparing in repentance; no one in that land understood the true gravity of the squelch of those words. Perhaps it could have sounded to them like just another evangelist had visited town with a lesser fancy stature of the day. As the revival meetings began in Santiago de Chile, what particularly seemed to have captivated the hearts and minds of the congregations, was the manner of the blunt, and blatant rebuke and castigation of sin, with which the LORD JEHOVAH had sent me. By delving and greatly dwelling into territories that had now been clearly marked as no-go zones for preachers, nothing less than a speechless stun could have stormed the stomach and minds of the congregants as they pondered what next. It is particularly this fire and brimstone of the gospel of repentance and holiness and the manner of his presentation, that must have sieved through the true elect of God, from the compromised church in Chile. The darkness and homosexuality had well engorged itself to the full course of its reign both in the nation and in the church. As a matter of fact, one of the main contentious issues for which the LORD was not willing to take concession was that part of the priesthood in the pentecostal and evangelical churches that had been split out as now openly supporting and advocating for gayism in the church. Pastors were even fighting for homosexual money as they openly supported gayism in order to enrich themselves.

The Vision

By contemplating and worshipping their own conception of christianity, there was absolutely no way in which the church of Christ in Chile would have escaped the wrathful attention of JEHOVAH God. It all began with a series of unrelenting visitations of the LORD God in which He began to speak with me heavily regarding the defiled state of the church in Chile and the respective contaminations that had led to her decay. In one such vision on January 21st, 2009, while still in Santiago Chile, the LORD showed me a vision of the state of the church of Christ in Chile. In that vision, the LORD showed me His house and a lot of grass that had grown unchecked all over around and inside the house. At the same time, JEHOVAH took me into the house and showed me the darkness that had followed the grass that grew inside, and very few people were inside the church worshipping. The worshippers were so few that I could literally count them all on my fingers. Then He further showed me the great split that had scourged the pastors to the extent that they were competing, fighting, disputing, and in disagreement on all matters. After that, the voice of the LORD said, "Go tell this people that if they repent, I will fill the house of worship." While still in that vision, the LORD then Spoke by Voice again saying, "If they don't repent, I will shake this land with a massive earthquake. That is the moment at which in this vision, I saw a massive earthquake hit the nation of Chile. Following the earthquake, I also saw huge tsunami floods that came out of the ocean and inundated entire cities. Finally in that vision, the voice of the LORD commanded, "I have given you power today, and you can literally call the ocean to come out and flood their cities, if they don't repent." I remember waking up from that mighty visitation of the LORD in great shock and fear for the nation and people of Chile. In the subsequent revival meetings, I immediately began to pronounce this massive historic judgment of the LORD that would strike Chile in the event that the church and the nation fails to hold a sacred assembly and repents before JEHOVAH. In those Revival meetings, I was very categorical in proclaiming the coming of the massive historic earthquake to Chile. I also came out very stern to the effect that by the enemy's falsehood he had practically emboldened men in sin that they may wear out the forbearance of God and extinguish His Light in their lives. This I said was meant by the enemy for purposes of causing the nation of Chile to abandon the word of God and its holy requirements and shift into a satanic jurisdiction. The strife for supremacy among the pastors in the church of Christ in Chile, had seemed almost wholly successful. This is what catapulted the pastors into a rapid spiral of preaching head knowledge theology that had nothing to do with the word nor did it have anything to do with the righteous requirements of the LORD. Many false prophets and false apostles have hence been raised by this system of seductive falsehood and the clamour for money. Christian television has not been left out at all in Chile as they have self-converted into instruments of post-modern era in church. Far from preparing a holy church for rapture, the shepherds in Chile have instead heavily engaged in the normal traditional routines of life, and a care-less attitude. This is what caused the LORD to send me to speak such ominousness and the curse of judgment in Chile. As the revival meetings in Chile proceeded on during that January 2009, the LORD again visited with me very mightily and spoke with me very seriously about the massive historic earthquake that was coming Chile's way, in the event that she again fails to repent. In that second vision on the judgment that was coming to Chile, the LORD took me in the Spirit and showed me again the massive historic earthquake that he had decreed and affirmed that it would now have to happen except that Chile holds a nationwide repentance of wailing and remorse for sin. At that moment I saw an earthquake that shook the land of Chile very violently leading to a lot of destruction of property. Oh lo! Didn't I faithfully relay that strong warning from JEHOVAH on an impending earthquake, to the church of Christ in Chile including a session with the Board of Directors of the National Council of the evangelical Bishops of Chile. After that, I even left for Concepcion, Chile at which I held an open air meeting and thoroughly warned that land. As though that were not enough, I continued to warn the pastors of Chile on how they have robbed God of His mighty glory and defrauded the world by a counterfeit of the gospel in the name of prosperity. Sexual immorality, false prophets, false prophecies, false apostles, lack of fasting, lack of the fear of the LORD, contamination, witchcraft, homosexual beach parties, drug addictions, lesbianism and the legalization of the heinous act of abortion, were some of the issues that generated controversy between the LORD and the Land of Chile.

The ironical situation that drove JEHOVAH absolutely angry, enraged and into the fury of his wrath, was that homosexual money donated to pastors was as a matter of fact used to build the house of the LORD.

Homosexual beach fiestas

Afterward, the LORD again spoke with me in a very mighty vision regarding the sexual immorality that was threatening to totally degrade and humiliate the nation of Chile on the face of the earth. In that mighty vision of the night on January 24th, 2009, the LORD this time around showed me a sexual sin party by the beaches of Chile. In that conversation with JEHOVAH, He elaborately enumerated to me how sexual immorality had been deeply entrenched into the Chilean society, and especially on how homosexuality had proliferated all over that nation. This the LORD said had gone on too far to the point at which many people around Latin America travelled to the beaches of Chile to celebrate an annual beach fiesta and party at which sexual sin would be the agenda of the matter. In that vision, the LORD showed me a street that was totally full and filled up with youths and young adults as they celebrated that evil immoral fiesta by one of the beach cities, from where they overlooked the ocean. In that fiesta, I could see young people dancing, and at times in rows and stretching their hands in unison while others were on the roof tops of houses just to get a glimpse and a share on what was in the street of sexual sin. Upon waking up from that vision, I again confronted the pastors and the entire church of Christ in Chile there explaining to them very clearly what the LORD had said regarding immorality in the land. I described even unto the National Council of Bishops of Chile on what the LORD had said about that immorality fiesta and party. Finally on the last night I left Chile, the LORD again visited with me this time even more sternly and spoke with me regarding the horrific earthquake that would now have to strike Chile for failure to repent. Because of that final visitation of the LORD on Chile, before I left the land of Chile, I still met Bishop Juan Carlos Reyes, who was one of my co-hosts and explained to him very clearly at the airport that now JEHOVAH God had finally decided and made up his mind that an earthquake of historic magnitude would strike Chile. I still remember very well how Bishop Juan Carlos met me at the airport to receive this heartbreaking message on Chile, and how I sent him to go tell the national council of evangelical Bishops of Chile, that this time around, God Almighty had now decided to bring it on; the earthquake had to now happen over Chile. With that said, I left the nation of Chile having asserted to them that when all these things come to pass, they shall surely know that the Prophet of the LORD has walked among them.

Chile warned live on television

Having heard what the LORD had said in several meetings all across Chile, the host and director of the television program called "Puertas Abiertas" Bishop Eleodoro Gonzalez honourably invited me to his TV program. In that program, I clearly forewarned of the massive historic earthquake and tsunami that was coming towards Chile in her failure to repent. In that program, this is how the LORD put it,

"I see him coming to shake you, shake you, and shake you." "I see the ocean coming, I see the ocean, I see the ocean coming to vomit over this land". "I see the Angel of the LORD in this land, and remember that he is the same angel I saw before the first Asian tsunami, and he is the same Angel I saw before I pronounced the coming of Hurricane Katrina." "He is coming to shake you, shake you, shake you" "Chile repent and return to holiness for the coming of the Messiah is now nearer than before." "I saw the Angel of the LORD standing there in the ocean, and upon me words commanding the ocean to come out, I saw Him throw fishes, little crocodiles and lizards, and manner of sea creatures into people's houses and their balconies. I have seen the Angel of the wrath of God if they did not repent and turn away from deception. In that broadcast, I also forewarned of the massive tsunami that the LORD had given me authority to release by commanding the ocean not to stop, using my most terrible prophetic tongue. I clearly brought to the attention of the nation of Chile in that global broadcast, that the LORD had commanded for a national repentance in Chile, in which the divided church was now required to unite and most urgently, in order to save the nation from the wrath of God. In response to the question Bishop Eleodoro posed on that TV program, on how they were to go about the national repentance that God had commanded, I underlined that the pastors and the bishops of Chile needed to call for a meeting at which they themselves as the priesthood and the custodians of the law of God would repent first before the LORD of Hosts JEHOVAH for practising lawlessness and heedlessness in the house. I then said that the next step would be for the restored priesthood to summon the entire church of Christ into a massive national repentance of the Church for the sexual sin and abortions and the gospel of prosperity that had degraded and humiliated the church. I highlighted finally that the ultimate thing the church ought to have done to avert the wrath of God, is to finally call for the entire nation of Chile to return to the LORD in a massive unprecedented national repentance of historic proportion. I underscored that in that massive all-out national repentance, the government and its leadership must be in attendance, including the Presidency of Chile.

LORD, the same Angel who brought judgment to the land of Egypt, I have seen him here in Chile. Chile please repent and turn away from sin for time is over!

Apparently, the Television Nacional de Chile (TVN) that carried this program, is a TV network whose broadcast reaches globally to the five continents of the earth. I specifically warned live on television that the false prophets and false apostles who have appointed themselves into those offices, would have to face the

The Prophecy Fulfilled

Deception of sin reached its ultimate height in the land of Chile, when this humongous prophecy tarried. All the agencies for depraving the souls of men were indeed put to full operation with the view that the word of God spoken against Chile did not realize. Little did the people of Chile perceive the full length and course of God's unchanging word. The little window of one year's opportunity that the LORD privileged Chile with from January 2009 when the earthquake prophecy was pronounced, till January 2010, was as a matter of fact the true window of grace within which God Almighty was expecting the nation of Chile to repent as commanded.

And it Struck

Then come February 27th, 2010 when the LORD said, "Enough is enough", and all the global news networks suddenly halted their normal programming and immediately turned their total attention to the nation of Chile. They began to report BREAKING NEWS arising from an event that had just occurred at 3:34am in Chile. A historic earthquake had indeed struck Chile in such a massive way that even geologists stammered and staggered to announce its exact magnitude and class. The quake in Chile on that Saturday caused severe damage, including in Talca. This massive 8.8 earthquake further spurred up a very strong tsunami. A strong aftershock struck Chile on the following Sunday, a day after that destructive 8.8-magnitude earthquake left hundreds of people dead and a long swath of the country in smoky rubble. What particularly places Chile in a totally new scale, is the massive globewide tsunami alert that was immediately put into effect across all the five oceans of the earth. Meanwhile the death toll continued to rise, particularly around Concepción, Chile's second-largest metropolitan city, which was roughly 70 miles from the quake's epicenter. The aftershocks continued being reported all around the clock. In the capital city of Santiago, aftershocks violently shook buildings and sent residents fleeing and scampering for their lives. In the immediate hours and days following the quake, the Chilean authorities themselves announced that more than 1.5 million people had been displaced by the enormous quake. Concepción, where I had also visited to particularly warn the people to repent in order to avert the wrath of God, was especially hard hit with over 100 people trapped under the rubble of a building that had collapsed. Elsewhere in Concepción, cars lay mangled and upended on streets littered with telephone wires and power cables. A new 14-storey apartment building fell, while an older, biochemical lab at the University of Concepción caught fire. On the other hand, in order to accurately fulfil the words of the prophecy spoken in that January 2009, in the nearby port of Talcahuano, a giant wave of tsunami struck and flooded the main square before receding and leaving behind a giant fishing boat on the city streets. That is what fulfilled the words of the prophecy spoken in January 2009 to the sharpest degree of accuracy, unprecedented and never seen before. I had clearly pronounced all over Chile, including at the Bishop's council meeting and live on Television Nacional de Chile that in the failure to repent, the LORD had asked me to command the ocean to come out and vomit on the land. That is exactly how the large fishing boat was vomited by the ocean at the centre square in the Port city of Talcahuano. The quake caused the former Chilean President Michelle Bachelet, to say that it was the worst tragedy in the last 50 years hence declaring a state of national catastrophe he in Chile.

Global tsunami alert

The Chilean earthquake was by far stronger than the 7.0-magnitude one that ravaged Haiti six weeks before its arrival. The Chilean earthquake was reported to have tied for the fifth largest in the world since 1900. It set off tsunami waves that swamped some nearby islands before moving across the Pacific. The island of Hawaii began massive evacuations before dawn, for the fears of destructive waves that were coming. Countries as far away as Japan and the Philippines were on high alert and ordered some significant evacuations in anticipation of waves hitting their shores. As Chileans were only just beginning to grapple with the devastation before them, even more than two dozen significant aftershocks struck the country in succession. In Santiago, the capital city where the January 2009 prophecy was first launched, residents were extremely terrified as the city shook for about 90 seconds. Some people ran screaming from their downtown apartments, while car alarms and sirens wailed during the middle of the night. At least one apartment building collapsed, and one highway buckled, flipping cars. Residents in Santiago city were thrown into a second cascade of severe panic because it trembled all day as people dashed out of their apartments and stayed out all night long because they had nowhere else to go. In Talca, 167 miles south of Santiago, almost every home in the centre of the city was severely damaged, and at night, people slept on the streets in the balmy night air near fires built with wood from destroyed homes. All but two of the local hospital's 13 wings were in ruins. Major seaports and airports, including the main airport in Santiago, were out of operation across the central region. Part of the ceiling at the airport was reported as collapsed, but that runways closed for landing and take-offs as the LORD even paralysed their communications.

Quake Tilted Earth's Axis

In addition to causing such a widespread death and destruction, Chile's 8.8 magnitude devastating earthquake was so powerful in its force that it literally shifted the Earth's axis permanently. Because of the enormity of that historic earthquake, it created a shocking phenomenon when it practically shortened days on this earth. Even Aerospace, Satellite, Geophysics, Astronomy, and NASA Scientists recorded this strange phenomenon when the earth indeed tilted from its position due to the mega gigantic forced released by the fulfilment of this no machine on earth can measure for the earth to have been impacted to the point of shifting and then tilting at an angle. While the tilting change and shift maybe difficult to comprehend in this lifetime, however, it is totally unsettling to even think that God Almighty can send One to talk to it some holy words, and it infact listens, and obeys, and moves position is a matter that cannot be taken lightly at all. This directly bears on the entire future of the mother planet earth. How much impact then must something as concentrated as the Chilean earthquake have on the entire planet?

While many may have now been compelled to ask the question, how does an earthquake move the planet's axis? It is plausible to first understand that this has to do with some humongous megaforce that cannot be measured in the nautical scale of the earthly instruments. Only a God-directed record gigantic earthquake like the Chilean 8.8 magnitude can shift huge amounts of rock, thereby changing the distribution of mass on the planet. Such a change as was caused by the fulfilment of that January 2009 Chilean earthquake prophecy can essentially deliver the unmatched power of God to alter with a mega unprecedented force that was delivered down at a steeper angle, making it more sufficiently effective in moving the Earth's mass vertically. This indescribable force generated by the Creator's Supreme Power was hence most effective in shifting the Earth's figure axis, in order to fulfil the beginning of birthpains and the signs and wonders of this dispensation (Joel 2:28-32; Matthew 24).

The message to the church

Over the ages mankind and especially the church of Christ, has viciously suffered victim of satan's cruelty. The Omnipotent Creator views this condition of man with a lot of pity and sadness especially that JESUS OF NAZARETH died on the Cross to redeem mankind from this on-going satanic brutality. It is the reason God promised to deliver the bewildered and deceived of this generation, in this dispensation of restoration, through His Majesty and Enormous Power, even including the use of signs and wonders. That the Chile earthquake was prophesied more than a year and one month in advance, and accurately came to pass is a clear indication that in these last days prior to rapture God is going to capture the attention of man even using mighty signs and wonders. The tilting of the earth and shifting its axis of rotation is one of the biggest signs and wonders that can ever present on the earth. The LORD promised in Joel 2:28-32 that there would be such earth shaking wonders in heaven and on the earth in the days immediately preceding the coming of the Messiah. The purpose of all this is a captivating message on the need for the church of Christ and indeed the nations to prepare wisely through repentance and a strict observance of holiness and righteousness. Amos 9:11-12 promises the restoration of today's defunct church by the LORD rebuilding the tent that is in ruins. However, the rebuilding of that tent and the restretching of its cords, like we see in Jeremiah 10:20-21 will most obviously require devout servants of this age who are able to totally give in to the task as sons of God. These are the servants that the LORD will use in this hour to strengthen His law of holiness and righteousness through the sacred grace of our LORD Jesus and when the church will embrace absolute holiness, what a spectacle for infinite purity to behold! This means that time is over

January 2009 Chilean earthquake prophecy. Based on calculations thus far, every day from that day became 1.26 microseconds shorter permanently. The tilting of the entire mega structure of the earth, together with its imaginably enormo weight, by an earthquake, is what goes a long way to re-emphasize the power of the tongue of the prophet. It must have taken a gigantic force whose torque

the rate at which the planet rotates. And yet it is such planetary rotations that go a long way in determining a day's length as set by the LORD God. Scientists were extremely puzzled, shocked and literally thrown out of their models, at the shift that was generated by that record quake. The fulfilment of the January 2009 Chilean earthquake prophecy fundamentally sliced through Earth

THE GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE

Prophecy of the Mexico to California Earthquake

Prophecy Given In Puerto Ordaz - Venezuela On March 20th, 2010
Prophecy Accurately Fulfilled On April 5th, 2010

The Holy Spirit is today exalting the mighty power of the Blood of Jesus in order to debase the deception and falsehood that has most recently marred the image of God in the church. No one except Christ Jesus can re-fashion anew the character of the church that has been thoroughly ruined by sin and a christian lifestyle of total compromise with the world. Today the LORD has looked upon mankind, and especially the church with lots of compassion because of the way they are being corrupted by the nuances of post-modernism, lawlessness, heedlessness, and ungodliness of this age. All this is happening within the backdrop on the fact that that the LORD Jesus Christ went to the Cross at Calvary in order to restore in man the image of JEHOVAH his maker. From the days of Enoch till today, the promise for the church to rapture has been repeated severally even through the patriachs in keeping with the hope of the LORD's eminent appearing. And that is the reason the LORD has now sent the Holy Spirit to renew this hope in mankind, and especially the church of Christ. The current wave of visitation that the Holy Spirit has launched across the four ends of the earth, was long promised as a means of making things right before the return of the Messiah. That visitation of the Holy Spirit though, could not have come without much power and authority from on high. The LORD Jesus Himself greatly hinted on the grand distress of the hour, that would throb the hearts of men in the days prior to His return. Just like did the LORD promise to gather all the Jews of the dispersion from all over world back to Jerusalem for the annual feasts of the LORD, so did He promise to gather the church from her current spiritual scatter back to the LORD at rapture.

For the LORD Himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the cloud to meet the LORD in the air. And so we will be with the LORD forever. (1 Thess 4:16-17).

This promise of deliverance into the kingdom of God was inaugurated and launched on the foundation, that when the time had fully come God had to send His son born of a woman, born under law, to redeem those under law, that we might receive the full rights of sons. (Galatian 4:4-5). The true sonship of God will only be achieved on the day that the church is raptured and enters into the wedding feast of the Lamb of God. And since only righteousness can constitute the fine linen bright and clean with which the church enters into rapture, then God is today shaking the nations that may wake up to the realization of his holy requirements at this hour. Just like when the tidings of the wilderness prophet and His wonderful announcement spread throughout Galilee, and His message percolated through to the remotest hill towns and fishing beaches by the seas, so is the LORD today bringing forth the massive announcement on Christ's return that man may prepare their earnest hearts in the church's truest response. The coming of this tremendous wave of earthquakes, including the Great North Earthquake that started from Mexico and went North, is yet another evidence that Daniel's testimony on the greatest distress that would befall the face of the earth before Christ's return, is at hand.

" At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people will arise. There will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then. But at that time your people - everyone whose name is found written in the book - will be delivered. (Daniel 12:1)

The beginning of birthpains presents the introductory and preliminary signs that the LORD promised in the days prior to Christ's return.

PROPHECY OF THE GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE
Prophecy of the Mexico to California Earthquake Given - Puerto Ordaz VENEZUELA March 20th, 2010 Fulfilled: April 5th, 2010

Vision of the Prophecy

When the LORD sent me to Venezuela, among the multitudes that had gathered about the grounds in Puerto Ordaz, there was a great expectation that something new was about to be released. This is because of the great manifestation of the Power of the LORD that descended upon that city, healing the cripples who got up from their wheelchairs and walked, the many deaf ears that opened, and many blind eyes that opened among other very many diseases that were healed. Prior to the mission to Venezuela, when the LORD was pretty sure that all was set for me to leave for Venezuela, He visited with me in a very mighty and unusual way on March 14th, 2010. In that mighty visitation of the LORD, the LORD showed me what the venue would look like for the revival meetings in Venezuela and how he would come down and heal His people.

It was while still in that vision that He finally began to speak with me about a great earthquake that would come upon the earth after my visit to Venezuela. In that vision, the thick dark glorious cloud of the LORD's glory appeared on my left-hand side and He made me know that God the Father Himself was inside that glory. Then the voice of God the Father began to come forth from the cloud of His glory saying, "Come and see what is about to befall the earth." At that time immediately the LORD lifted me up in the Spirit and took me all across the earth and even to Israel, the centre of the earth. After that, the LORD again lifted me up and took me to Central America and then He asked me to pronounce the coming of a very massive earthquake. And immediately I pronounced that earthquake in that vision, then the Voice of the LORD God Almighty Spoke from the thick glorious cloud saying, "Look, because you have pronounced that earthquake, it will now take place." The Voice of the LORD again Said, "Look, it is now happening." Immediately, JEHOVAH lifted me up and at that time I saw a humongous earthquake that began from Central America and went all the way towards the North into North America. Still within the same vision, then the Voice of God The Father Said, "THE GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE". While still in that March 14th, 2010 vision, then the LORD Wrote for me a piece of paper that appeared like a newspaper headline and He Presented it very close to me in that vision so that I could read what was written. When I read what was written on that paper in that March 14th 2010 vision, it read in captions "THE GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE". Following this writing that God The Father Presented, then He lifted me up again and His Voice Spoke from the cloud again Saying, "There is another one coming to, THE GREAT SOUTH EARTHQUAKE." And the Voice of the LORD finally Said, "Tell this people to repent and prepare for the Coming of the LORD." And then I woke up from that vision and realized that the LORD God Almighty who is God The Father Himself, had indeed Spoken to the ends of the earth regarding the most awaited Coming of the Messiah. Immediately I woke up, I called JESUS IS LORD RADIO and went live on air to announce that strictly based on the words of my tongue, there would now be THE GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE. I then immediately knew that the revival mission to Venezuela would indeed be a mighty one at which the LORD The God of Heaven was going to shake the nations of the earth again. I also realized that the dispensation had shifted and that the Coming of the Messiah has drawn closer.

The Prophecy

Upon arriving in Venezuela, I immediately announced on March 18th 2010, in one of the largest pastors conferences that there was now going to be THE GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE as the LORD had commanded me. Come March 19th 2010, during the humongous crusade in Puerto Ordaz, I again announced the prophecy of the GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE that was coming. Finally on Saturday March 20th, 2010, I made an elaborate announcement that because the LORD had sent me to that part of the world, that there would now be a massive earthquake beginning from Central America and heading all the way north towards North America. Upon arriving in the Venezuelan city of Caracas, I again held a series of pastors' conferences all the way into Guarrenas at which I repeatedly announced the coming of a massive earthquake, the GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE that would start from Central America and head towards North America. After that, when I arrived in Kenya, I visited the Sunday service in a church on Mombasa Road on April 4th 2010, and while giving them the update of what the LORD had Spoken and done in Venezuela, I still reiterated that the LORD had announced from Venezuela, the GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE that would start from Central America and head north towards North America.

of San Diego, California, swimming pools. Residents across Southern California and Arizona experienced massively serious ground shakes. This area of California had not felt a shaking so cruel and severe like this for a very very long time. Entire stores were moved, and people ran for their lives towards the exits of literally every building on the face of the earth, in that part of the world. Multitudes of people who escaped from buildings gathered out in parking lots in great fear and terror as they contemplated what next. The fear for the worst consumed their hearts and minds. It was reported that the quake was the largest in the Baja California area since 1992. Large aftershocks immediately followed that massive quake including one that registered followed the tarmac road splitting right into the middle and going with it north is what became most stunning and fascinating. Buildings crumbled down as they gave in to the enormous force of that GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE. In some places the city's hospitals were also damaged, causing doctors to attend to patients in the parking lots. What a scene! Other spontaneous aftershocks continued to rattle that entire region from Central America towards North America just as the prophecy had highlighted. Because of the gravity of the GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE, it created a shocking phenomenon of fissures in the earth, to the point that the earth opened up and water poured out. Severe damage was also inflicted on agricultural infrastructure that affected wheat however, were expected to live in seclusion in which there would not be any communication of fellowship with sin except to evangelize Jesus Christ as Saviour. It is the promise to restore and purify the church for her eventual presentation as a glorious bride before the LORD, that has now prompted JEHOVAH to shake the nations as an awakening. Within the highway of holiness that leads the church towards rapture, and the kingdom of God, there is a promised tumult that is currently visiting the four ends of the earth. In His own pronouncements, the LORD Jesus promised that there would be famines and earthquakes in various places in the days right before His return.

chilling message about Christ's return. It is vividly clear that there is a prophetic acceleration in place and that acceleration appears to be the one running God's timeline of events. The need to repent across the church of Christ, and receive the Holy Spirit for eventual restoration cannot be over emphasized. The LORD is asking whether in this day and age there should surely be any believers whose souls have bowed down with the burden of the myriad of sins. It will have to take believers who are extremely burdened and grieved at the state of sin in the church, for the LORD's reproving Spirit to replenish purity into today's churches. In the same way with which Jesus came to establish a kingdom that was in opposition to that which the Jews

Fulfilment Of The Prophecy

Spoken with such a stern and yet unrelenting authority, what became most astonishing to the nations of the earth that had watched the global broadcast of that GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE prophecy was the fact that in about two weeks after its pronouncements, that prophecy was rapidly fulfilled when all global news outlets began beaming breaking news. A massive earthquake had just happened on that April 5th, 2010 and the earthquake followed exactly every word to the letter that the prophecy had pronounced. A massive historic earthquake hit Mexico in Central America and went directly north towards North America just like the March 20th 2010, prophecy had prescribed. As the global news networks began to report this historic event, they described that a 7.2 magnitude earthquake had struck northwest Mexico's Baja California on Sunday, rattling Arizona and southern California, and leaving a massive trail of devastation and hundreds injured.

Buildings collapsed in Mexicali, Mexico, as well as in California while in Arizona, there was massive shaking. The quake struck at 3:40 p.m. (6:40 p.m. ET) about 110 miles east-southeast of Tijuana, Mexico. In Mexicali, a major metropolitan area and the capital of Mexico's Baja California state buildings were ripped off, telephone poles toppled, roads split-open and severely cracked and supermarket aisles strewn with food that had fallen off shelves. The entire city lost power, and water splashed out a whopping 5.5 magnitude, and other smaller temblors. Swimming pools in the Los Angeles suburbs swang as water splashed out in this massive quake that was also felt all the way to Phoenix, Arizona. There was power outages and people were trapped in elevators. Nine minutes later after the Mexico quake, a magnitude 4.1 quake rattled windows in Santa Rosa, north of San Francisco. That was considered a separate earthquake from the one that struck in the Baja California desert. In the scale of things surrounding the on-going beginning of birthpangs, this GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE scores quite significantly because it is one quake that has affected the largest number of people in the most recent times. This GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE that began from Central America in Mexico and headed north into Arizona, Nevada and California, affected over 20 million people in one go. That becomes historic on its own accord. But to observe the way that earthquake in some cases directly crossed. Canals that irrigate almost 60,000 hectares [148,000 acres] in the Mexicali valley were severely damaged. As the authorities opened up temporary shelters for affected families in the city of Mexicali, then reports arrived of massive landslides onto the highways.

Prophetic Significance

When The LORD God Said that the bride of Christ should be adorned in fine linen bright and clean, He recognized that in the church a purity of character that had never before been perceived in any man, would have to be realized. This was a call to the church to get into direct acquaintance with the holy nature of the LORD and His glorious kingdom. Though the church was emplaced amid widely different and evil surrounding, they Nations will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There would be famines and earthquakes in various places. (Matthew 24:7).

Even more significant is the fact that in that March 14, 2010 vision that proclaimed the coming of the GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE, the Voice of the LORD coming from the thick dark glorious cloud Said, "Tell this people to repent and prepare for the coming of the LORD." Understanding the prophetic significance of the GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE couldn't have been more clearer than this. The LORD is using this earthquake to announce to the nations, that while darkness still covers the face of the earth, the coming of the Messiah though is at hand. Moreover, the rapid fulfilment of that prophecy in two weeks from its decree, is what sends out a most desired, so is He coming in the rapture to establish a kingdom which is opposed to the sinful desires of this world. For that matter, events like the GREAT NORTH EARTHQUAKE are meant to signal unto the church that time has come to conform to that kingdom of righteousness which the Messiah bringeth. The reason the LORD is today sending this purifying word to the ends of the earth, is that it may serve as a testimony unto the nations of the earth on the coming of the Messiah. Never before has the earth experienced such a non relenting cascade of historic and record-breaking earthquakes as most recently witnessed. This should serve to the vast throng of believers as a message that the solemnity of the divine presence of the LORD is at hand as a witness to His coming. More so especially that these earthquakes

I prophesied have happened with the greatest precision of accuracy. Notwithstanding, the humility of taking the humiliation of our fallen nature, this time around the King of Majesty is coming back to take that very fallen church, but a repented and holy one. That the earthquakes have been sent as a forewarning, is a lot of love to humanity because He indeed will come as a thief;

But you brothers are not in darkness so that this day should surprise you like a thief. You are all sons of the light and sons of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness, so then let us not be like others who are asleep but let us be alert and self controlled. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk get drunk at night (1 Thess 5:4-7)

The European Financial Meltdown

Debt Crisis In Greece, Spain, Portugal & The Collapsing Euro Currency

Prophecy Of The Black Horse

Prophecy that Melted Global Economies

None among the millions of hearers that gathered in that mammoth meeting, not even the seasoned theologians themselves, discerned the import of these words uttered on that Saturday August 23rd, 2008,

"I have seen the Black Horse released from heaven to the four ends of the earth."

The Holy Spirit through this August 19, 2008 vision, taking up the illustration, indeed prophesied the coming of the Global Economic Crisis and Financial Meltdown. I had been deeply moved in that August 19, 2008 vision as I saw the nations bowed as a suppliant, pleading in tears for the markets to have mercy and pity on them. While direct from the Father's throne in heaven issue the beams of His everlasting Glory, this time around His Tremendous Majesty was delivered by the release of that merciless Black Horse across the earth. I had known just how much sin has hardened the hearts of man and how difficult it would be to discern this mission of the LORD. I knew it too well that God the Father had already seen and felt it all, how much the nations of the planet earth would writhe in agonizing pain, following the release of this sturdy pitiless Black Horse of the Apocalypse, but I also understood too well that His purpose would remain steadfast. Notwithstanding, the humiliation of taking upon herself a more worldly and sinful lifestyle, in the church's fallen nature, this Voice from heaven would still have to declare that this is the dispensation in which the highway of holiness must be prepared for the coming Messiah.

The Vision

It was way back on August 19th, 2008, before anyone could ever contemplate that the highly sophisticated and most robustly stable Global Financial Markets and Global Economies would ever take a hit of any form or kind. In that vision of night, the LORD visited with me in such a tremendous manner that left me totally bewildered and astonished at this prophetic hour and what it beheld for the nations. In that August 2008 vision, the LORD lifted me up and placed me right before His marvellous throne of everlasting authority. It is at that place that I saw the Majesty of His Glory completely cover the throne and He made me

German Chancellor, Angela Merkel Said May 19, 2010 "Euro Is Now In Grave Danger & If Euro Fails, Europe is Gone!"

aware that He that sits on the throne, was indeed seated on the throne. It is at that exact moment that the third Living Creature around the throne of God was released and advanced towards me. Upon being absolutely certain that I had identified his facial features, that third Living Creature with the Face of Man walked back into the Glory of the throne and released the most scary and astounding Black Horse of the Apocalypse (Rev 6:5-6). After that I saw the rider of the Black Apocalyptic Horse criss-cross the earth with such an impunity that it was matchless. Waking up from that August 19, 2008 vision, I was indeed very puzzled by the events that were closing-in on the earth. On Saturday August 23rd, 2008, I stood before a multitude of more than 2 million people at the Nakuru Girls' High School grounds and declared the release of the Black Apocalyptic Horse, and that its most immediate impact would be the negative repercussion on the Global Economy and Financial Markets, with the final aftermath of Global Famine. Oh lo! Did I not say in that prophecy that this was the beginning of birthpangs and the introductory onset of the horrendous Financial Meltdown and Economic Crisis that would illustrate the post-rapture Great Tribulation. Barely, two months from that prophecy, come October 7th, 2008, all the Global Financial Markets indeed obeyed those sharp words and collapsed across the entire earth. That essentially marked the genesis of all Global Markets and Economies heading south. The Lehman Brothers, the largest banking institution on the earth collapsed in a twinkle of an eye, sending all the Financial Markets tumbling down the floor. The downward spiral of Financial Meltdown and Bankruptcies filed by top notch and well established Financial Institutions across the globe, sky rocketed and baffled mankind. It was a big and ugly of this age as millions upon millions of people were laid off from their jobs, and millions more lost their mortgage homes, as unemployment levels shot up into the heavens. Literally every nation on the face of this earth, felt the effects of the stinging pinch of that collapse. The Global Credit Lines were totally frozen in what one could characterize as a flash of a second, as banks tried to save their bases in those uncertain situations. And just when one thought that things were beginning to thaw up, then one was shocked by the Dubai Debt Crisis that now threatened to knock down the only pillar of support that had survived that wrath. The Dubai Debt Crisis, coming at such a time when the nations thought sanity had began to prevail again in the Financial Markets, is what really threw mankind way aback. I had known it too well that it would be difficult for this post-modern world to indeed discern the mission of this Black Horse of the Apocalypse. When Abu Dhabi tried to redeem her, he almost went down with her as Dubai's debt turned out to be as a matter of fact, heavier than had been earlier perceived. It became the bandwagon of the common man's tragedy. Expatriates left Dubai in their largest numbers as real estate development stalled and sent Dubai's throng of contraction workers on the way home. The Black Horse of the Apocalypse had passed here too. The Economic Situation in the US has been most horrific following the release of this Black Horse of the Apocalypse. Unemployment has been the highest ever with many families depending on hand-outs in the form of welfare support. Families have lost their homes in the US as many car manufacturing industries were forced to either file for bankruptcy or receive bailout tax payer money which came with lots of painful austere measures.

Humiliating Debt Crisis in Greece

One would not have been able to clearly perceive the gravity entailed in the release of the Black Horse of the Apocalypse, until one witnessed what the cruelty of this Horseman could do to the softest underbelly of the European Economy. When all seemed to be going well and stable for the European Economy and its most prestigious Eurozone Economic Block, then she again now just connected with the sphere of Financial Meltdown. Never was there a place at which the saying that whatever goes around comes around, was well fulfilled than in the Eurozone. As one may have read European partial immunity to the full wrath of the Global Economic Crisis, then now it stuns that the Black Horse had already passed here too. In what may have started as an ill-fated and most unfortunate tax-revenue miscalculation and misappropriation in Greece, it later turned out to be a full blown Economic Crisis that had to be addressed and now. Attempting to reverse those long-term Economic Misdeeds had to involve the Greek Government's full engagements of the most stringent of Financial Austerity Measures. That is when the bubble busted as worker pay and pensions were reduced, and a hiring freeze put in place with immediate effect. This acted as a spark plug for a non-stop wave of worker protests, and violence in the streets of Athens, on a daily basis. And because Greece is a member of the Eurozone, the contagion of its Debt Crisis began to infect other Eurozone members and especially when the Standards & Poors quickly downgraded the Greek Credit Worth into a "Junk Status." This is what infected all the Eurozone countries as stocks held in those countries plummeted and led to the further downgrading of the Credit

PROPHECY OF THE GLOBAL ECONOMIC CRISIS On August 23rd, 2008, when Prophet Dr. Owuor stood before more than 2 million people at the Nakuru Girls' High School grounds and declared the release of the Black Apocalyptic Horse.

Euro Currency In Gravest Crisis

Greece's Financial Debt has now grown so big that the country has implemented austere measures to try to curb its Debt Burden. Because of the severity of Greece's financial woes, European Union leaders reached an agreement that they would use funds from both the EU and the International Monetary Fund (IMF) to help the financially-crippled Greece. Whereas years of unrestrained spending, cheap lending and failure to implement Financial Reforms may not have seemed catastrophic then, the release of the Black Apocalyptic Horse however, exposed the soft underbelly vulnerability of such a lucrative European living. This has left Greece badly exposed as the Global Economic Downturn struck. The advent of this Black Apocalyptic Horse and the fulfilment of this prophecy is what whisked away a curtain of partly fiddled statistics to reveal debt levels and deficits that exceeded expectation. Just to underscore the power of this August 23rd, 2008 prophecy, Greece's National Debt, was raised by this Horseman to a staggering record €300 billion ($413.6 billion), which is way far bigger than that country's economy. Moreover, to further emphasize that he will be relentless in his mission to disconnect man from his allegiance to Financial Prosperity, the Rider of the Black Apocalyptic Horse has essentially instigated Greece's credit rating, which is an assessment of its ability to repay its debts, to be downgraded to the lowest ever, meaning it will likely be viewed as a Financial Black Hole by foreign investors. The Credit Worth of Spain and Portugal were equally downgraded at the same time. The effect of this contagion will leave most Eurozone countries struggling to pay their bills as interest rates on existing debts rise. This is what has now reflected badly on the Credibility of the Euro causing it to badly slump, into its lowest rate ever. An emergency meeting had to be convened by the German Chancellor, Angela Merkel to address the future of the Euro. Commenting on the grim situation, Angela Merkel said that the Euro was in the Gravest Danger ever, and that if the Euro indeed fails, the entire Europe will have gone down.

Spiritual Significance To The Rapture

By the sin of disobedience, the earth was cut off from heaven and alienated from its communion until Jesus came and reconnected it again with heaven. For centuries upon centuries God has painfully witnessed the resurgence of the same kind of disobedience, resulting from man's adherence to his prosperity and financial gains. But today the LORD is thoroughly shaking the earth and completely dismantling his financial prosperity infrastructure so that the human voice may reach the ears of God again, and his petitions find acceptance in the courts of heaven. This is the only way in which mankind can hearken to the Holy Spirit and hence most urgently prepare for the Coming of the Messiah. That is the meaning of the release of the Black Horse from heaven, and His dreadful demolition of man's high dependence on earthly prosperity and financial wealth. God is disconnecting man from keeping his treasures on the earth, where moths and rusts and thieves can destroy and steal; while rearing mankind's attention towards heaven in order to store his treasures in heaven where moths and rusts and thieves cannot destroy. The Messiah is coming.
