By all standards, the greatest prophecy Jesus ever gave to the church, is that prediction which he released while seated on the Mt. of Olives, and popularly known as the Olivet Prophecy. This is because in that prophecy, the Lord Jesus revealed the spiritual landmarks that would denote the dispensational course for His return and the signs of the end of the age. While it may have seemed that among the four glorious gospels, only Matthew, Mark and Luke recorded that Olivet Discourse, John on the other hand, and as a matter of fact received its interpretation and documented it in the book of Revelation chapter 6. Central to the Olivet prophecy though, is the breaking of the first four seals of the scroll of God and the corresponding release of the four horsemen of the Apocalypse. These first four horsemen of the Apocalypse essentially demarcate the prophetic timeline towards the rapture of the church. That is why, when the Lord spoke with me in a mighty vision, on July 29, 2009, and showed me the Pale Horse that is coming to the earth, it essentially underscores a very significant mark on the timeline clock of God, highlighting that the rapture has now drawn nigh. It was while on my way to the mighty revival in Venezuela, that I had a 24-hour stopover in Johannesburg, and while there I saw the visions of the Lord.
B y shedding his most precious blood on the Cross, Jesus Christ the Lamb of God, essentially purchased our complete salvation into eternity. Nevertheless, when God Almighty surrendered Jesus to the world and the world to Jesus as a sacrifice, he did not merely end there, but intended far more than just deliver us from that destructive sin and death. The Lord God Almighty also promised us, an unwarranted entry into his kingdom, in which we would not only be the children of God, but also be transformed into the priests of Jehovah (Rev 5:9-10). It is this unmerited heredity that causes us to marvel at his relentless love for mankind. Most challenging to man, then becomes the ability to detect dispensational change, and especially as it relates to the time of the Lord’s return, to unlock the secret understanding into the secret mysteries of God Almighty, requires that we access the revelation availed to us in the bible through the Holy Spirit. Jesus Christ the Lamb of God, is the only one merited with the exceedency to unlock the hidden secrets of God in this kind of eternity revelation. And that is the reason that in his description of the heavenly throne-room, the Holy Spirit celebrates the worship of the tremendous joy unspeakable that animated their souls as they engaged in this great worship of honour unto the Lord of Hosts. They all seemed to be in one accord and continuously gave honour to the Lamb of God that was slain for the sins of man. Surely, on that day the church honoured the worthy Lamb of God with all glory and worshipped in the Spirit. However, while still absorbed in the heavenly celebration of the wedding of the Lamb, then came forth the most tremendous voice of the Lord, saying: "Look and see, who is coming." And in the slightest moment, when I turned towards my left-hand side, I was shocked to see the rider of the pale horse coming with such a ferocious impurity towards the earth. As the rider of that horse drew near, he spoke to me in a very clear way towards the earth, I immediately recognized the tremendous darkness that was following him from behind. The pale horse of God, indeed is a fearful host with some outstanding features that I was able to observe. One of the major features that I was able to discern was not in his eyes but from his eyes down towards his mouth. And that is why I had a very high worship. They were very wonderful in rhythm and a unmatched melody to behold (1 Cor 15:50-56). It is while in that heavenly worship that I noticed the glow of the glorious gown that the raptured church was wearing. The more they worshipped in rhythm and sway in this very gentle fashion, the more flashes of lightening were emitted from their glorious gowns. The flashes that their glorious gowns radiated were similar to those that a camera flash would emit at photo taking. Such was the glory that adorned the worship at the wedding supper of the Lamb that was held in the place that the whole place emitted radiance of the glory of the Lord. I could see the divine Lamb of God as spilling over from heaven to the rest of the created realm. No matter how much dissent dominates the earthly scene today, there will come a time when all mankind will bow down before the Lamb and God Almighty. That will unveil the moment at which the supreme lordship of Jesus Christ will be celebrated across all creation. But, to better understand the rolling out of events leading to the return of the Messiah, it is crucial to comprehend the process in which Jesus Christ the Lamb of God begins the opening of the scroll in the throne of God. It is this that sets in motion, a series of occurrences leading to God’s victory over sin and death.

THE GREATEST PROPHECY JESUS EVER GAVE

The most imperative prophecy that Jesus ever gave to the church, was the one that he relayed to his disciples while seated on the Mount of Olives. This most important prophecy is also often referred to as the Olivet Prophecy. It all began when Jesus was leaving the Temple grounds and his disciples privately approached him to draw his undivided attention to the Temple architecture. In that confidential dialogue, the disciples pointed out to him the various Temple buildings, their design and fascinating beautification including the precious stones and gifts of gold that were used to adorn it. But to their dismay, the Lord Jesus responded by saying: "Concerning this building, you will not see that stone upon stone until it is all destroyed, then will come in the midst of a very crowded and busy airport hour. Nevertheless, what stands out most is the message with which this vision is released from heaven. We all know it too well, that in the recent past, I have given prophecies of the release of the white horse, the red horse and the black horse; and all those prophecies have come to pass in a very short record time interval. The most recent of them being the August 19th 2008 prophecy on the release of the black horse, and the coming of the global economic crisis and famine; and the prophecy of a global war will be left on top of another, in its most dreadful war. The fact that the rider of this horse is given full authority and power to kill mankind by the sword, famine, disease and the beasts of the earth. This fourth horseman of the APOCALYPSE when he arrives, is given full power to kill unto one fourth of the entire population of the earth. But, it is absolutely clear that such a large scale annihilation of mankind will only take place during the tribulation after the holy church of Christ, God’s elect has been taken up into the safety of Revelation (6:7-8). But we also know that of the seven seals of the Apocalypse, the red horseman is an unmistakable harbinger of the imminent death of many millions of people as warriors, and that means that the release of these four horsemen of the APOCALYPSE is intended to signal God’s waging of war on the lawlessness and godlessness of this generation prior to rapture. (Read more on the PALT Horse Pg 25).

THE OLIVET PROPHECY

I t all began with one simple moment when Jesus had the privilege of shrinking away from the multitude, in order that he could have an intimate, secret conversation with me. It was that moment when Jesus had the privilege to bring forth the most important revelation that Jesus ever laid out in prophecy that Jesus ever gave to the church. It is absolutely intriguing to realize that when John was describing the revelation he had received from the Lord on the seven seals that close up the scroll of God, he did not merely end there. But to their dismay, the Lord Jesus responded by saying: "Concerning this building, you will not see that stone upon stone until it is all destroyed, then will come in the midst of a very crowded and busy airport hour. Nevertheless, what stands out most is the message with which this vision is released from heaven. We all know it too well, that in the recent past, I have given prophecies of the release of the white horse, the red horse and the black horse; and all those prophecies have come to pass in a very short record time interval. The most recent of them being the August 19th 2008 prophecy on the release of the black horse, and the coming of the global economic crisis and famine; and the prophecy of a global war will be left on top of another, in its most dreadful war. The fact that the rider of this horse is given full authority and power to kill mankind by the sword, famine, disease and the beasts of the earth. This fourth horseman of the APOCALYPSE when he arrives, is given full power to kill unto one fourth of the entire population of the earth. But, it is absolutely clear that such a large scale annihilation of mankind will only take place during the tribulation after the holy church of Christ, God’s elect has been taken up into the safety of Revelation (6:7-8). But we also know that of the seven seals of the Apocalypse, the red horseman is an unmistakable harbinger of the imminent death of many millions of people as warriors, and that means that the release of these four horsemen of the APOCALYPSE is intended to signal God’s waging of war on the lawlessness and godlessness of this generation prior to rapture. (Read more on the PALT Horse Pg 25).

THE SYNONYS

D uring the 24-hour stopover in Johannesburg, on that July 29th 2009, as I slumbered on the chairs at the airport waiting lounge, the Lord again spoke with me about the coming of the Messiah. It was in the very busy airport hours between 2-4pm when I slumbered, and saw the visions of the Lord regarding the rapture of the church. The visions I saw were those of the wedding of the Lamb of God in which the church had been taken up into the wedding supper of the Lamb. One of the visions that I was unable to forget showed me the glorious church of Christ that is raptured into heaven, as she had just gained entry into the wedding supper of the Lamb. The bride of Christ that I saw taken up into the kingdom of God, was a very glorious and holy gown. She wore a glorious wedding gown that had a ‘train’ that wonderfully flowed past her feet (Rev 19:7-8). But what was most fascinating about this raptured church is that her entry into heaven was marked with a great celebration and a very high worship. They were in their glorious immortal bodies as they lifted their hands up in such a wonderful rhythm and an unmatched melody to behold (1 Cor 15:50-56).

Revelation & Wellness Magazine
The White Horse of the Apocalypse
The Vision Of His Release

When Jehovah God proffers the scroll that is in his right hand, to the Lamb that is seated on high, the true picture of the authority apportioned to Christ, is unveiled. Now, as the Lamb breaks open the first of the seven seals on the scroll of God, the first of the four horsemens of the Apocalypse is released.

And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer (Rev 6:1-2).

Many people have for a long time erroneously assumed that this HORSEMAN is Christ. And that is why many are today deceived by the false Christianity that the first HORSEMAN of the Apocalypse who rides on the white horse, brings into the earth.

2The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the Light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God (2 Cor 4:4).

When Jesus confided in his disciples on the eve of the end of the age, it became the greatest prophecy of all time, in the bible. This is because it foretold of the clue that would precede his Coming. And owing to the fact that the one and only reason for which the bible was ever written by the Holy Spirit, was that mankind may finally gain entry into the kingdom of God; this most significant prophecy becomes critical to the church. The divulgence that Christianity means being a follower of Christ, hence can only give a hint that we have no choice but to allow Christ unlock the hidden secrets of the first seal, for today’s church to see. While it is true that Christ Jesus will return to the earth on a white horse, the rider of the Apocalypse white horse is not Christ. Prominence should be given to the attention that while the rider of the white horse holds a BOW on his hand, Christ comes with a mighty SWORD.

3And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse: and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head was a nimbus of light, and he had a name written that no man knew, but he himself. 4And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The WORD OF GOD. 5And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

The mysteries bestowed upon the scroll of God in the heavenly throne room, can be clearly adduced within the domains of the scripture in the bible. It is this, that permits the church to conceive the extent of the depth of the great devastation he inflicts on the church, it is paramount to first deduce the true meaning of the word conquer. In basic layman’s terms, to conquer means to come off with victory and nothing less. To put it in other words, it implies taking control of a place by force of arms or it equally means to win a victory over a people in a war. Therefore, one quickly understands the weightiness with which the first HORSEMAN performatively announces the advent of the church to the attention that while the rider of the latter three HORSEMEN thrusts and struggles to conquer Christians, the church becomes triumphant. The last rider who is most deadly and whom the church vows to defeat was most certainly the first HORSEMAN who is mounted on the white horse as being, to forcefully conquer this most crucial dispensation between the first and the second Coming of Christ. The weightiness with which the first HORSEMAN launches battle against the christians emanates from the fact that he conquers by deceiving.

The White Horse & Spiritual Deception

If the face value, the three other HORSEMEN of the Apocalypse would appear to cause more suffering than the first, but that is not the case in reality. Actually, the first HORSEMAN precipitates the majority of the suffering by the events decreed by the hidden mysteries of the first HORSEMAN. The catastrophic episodes resulting from the manifestation of the effects of the latter three HORSEMEN, literally occur to mankind because of being deceived. As such, the first HORSEMAN is branded the most delusory among the four HORSEMEN of the Apocalypse. He is most deadly because he leads mankind to eternal death. The most accurate oracle that would describe this first and most deadly HORSEMAN of the Apocalypse, is that which catalogues him under the brand name SPIRITUAL DECEPTION. And indeed, he is called religious deception. However, to best understand the schemes and whims with which the man on the white horse achieves his overwhelming conquest over the church, one must examine the ‘vehicle’ of his conquest. The first HORSEMAN thrives on the fact that since the onset of post-modernism and the clamour for globalization, man has increasingly become so casual and shallow, in his religious interests. These twin traits of spiritual casualness and shallowness in man’s pursuit of God’s ways have been the greatest undoing of the church. It is this, that enables the first HORSEMAN to get on top of the church and exploited to the max, globally. Remember, his mission was to ensure that he conquers and nothing less. Humanity is totally vulnerable because he has no idea of the gravity of the suffering that is caused by this white HORSEMAN. Accordingly, the majority of people today do not perceive the extent of damage caused by this spiritual deception, not only in their personal lives but also globally in the church as a whole. Discerning the importance of the first HORSEMAN is therefore a critical prelude to the church of today, requires that we examine the interpretation that Jesus himself gave on this HORSEMAN. That interpretation is recorded in the book of Matthew: "Jesus left the temple and was walking away when his disciples started talking about all the attention to its buildings. "Do you see all these things?" he asked. "I tell you the truth, not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down." As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age? (Matt 24:1-3).

The stones that Jesus referred to, that make up the Temple buildings, were as a matter of fact, spiritual stones and not physically. Amazingly, in saying this, Jesus was literally addressing only his disciples, which was a small group of people. Nowonder, he uses the phrase ‘you’ as they privately sought audience with him. Nonetheless, the Lord was referring to the spiritual stones that would make up the current church of Christ.

As you come to him, the sign of your coming and of the end of the age is this that by definition birthed out of the blood and the cross. One need not go very far, to agree that looking at the church today, surely has fallen into the trickle of this schism man on the white horse. Even most unfortunate though, is that those who are being deceived are people who have been given the message of Jesus our Holy Spirit and the truth. It is for this reason that the first HORSEMEN of the APOCALYPSE has been referred to as being the most pernicious to human race since he causes even God’s own chosen elect to fall. Just to envisage how catastrophic the manifestation of the effects of spiritual DECEPTION in the church are, a close look at the book of Hebrews chapter 6 verses 4-6, becomes a sobering awakening unto the church.

It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit, who have tasted the goodnes of the word of God and the powers of coming age, if they fall away, to be brought back to repentance, because to their loss they are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting him to public disgrace (Hebrews 6:4-6).

The same scripture is echoed in Hebrews 10: 26-31 and 2 Peter 2: 19-22. The spiritual deception that the rider of the white APOCALYPSE HORSE brings to the church, fundamentally cuts on the numbers of the Lord’s very elect by making them immune to the true GOSPEL. It is incredible though, that these people in the church receive the Holy Spirit and the truth and then they chose to reject it for a false Christianity. This is the exact scenario that the first HORSEMEN of the APOCALYPSE is, and there is no better way to grasp the fall from the truth into a falsehood, than what is presented in Galatians 3:3.

4. After beginning with the Spirit, are you now trying to attain a goal by human effort? (Gal 3:3).

The work of the first HORSEMEN then appears to be that of basically conquering the souls of the christians and to lead them to eternal death. In so doing, he also blocks the unborn again from the truth since he causes christians to act shallow and sinful in the eyes of the heathen. The rampant acceptance of sin into the church practically repels off the heathens from receiving Jesus. Moreover, as this man on the white horse destroys the born-again elect of the Lord, he likewise blocks the perishing from accessing the truth. Any mediocre revival that maybe staged by the false Christianity he unleashes, will normally equally lead those who are deceived to the lack of holiness. The true task of the man on the white HORSE of the APOCALYPSE, hence then becomes that of introducing the world and its apparent post-modernism into the church of Christ. It stuns one though, to realize that this first HORSEMEN brings the Hollywood globe. This he does, by instituting the false gospel that focusses the church onto the earthly living. An earthly gospel of that nature misses the focus on heaven, heavenly principles and requirements. Bluntly put, the first HORSEMEN obliterate heaven from the minds of those that are elect. By deceiving the pastors to the extent that they literally champion a gospel that cannot accommodate the holiness of the LORD, the white HORSE from heaven achieves its most desired conquest in the church.

For all this, God alone employs that very first original trick of the devil to prey on the church. He exhaustively uses the trick of the lusting of the eyes that was employed in the garden of Eden. In that way, today’s pastors quickly begin to lust at the things of the world thereby forgetting the kingdom of God. It is this that by definition furthered the gospel of prosperity that has now established in the church. And just to prove how much he is bent on conquest, one doesn’t have to turn anywhere but to look at how the gospel of prosperity has become so popular, even openly gay homosexual pastors, any pastor or church that preaches holiness and the kingdom of God at this hour, will literally face a bitter rejection in today’s church. The confounding power with which the first HORSEMEN of the APOCALYPSE has been endowed is the deceptive principles which he lays on the hearts of the pastors causing them to use biblical scriptures to justify false Christianity. They may even say that women should not worry about how they dress because they claim that God does not look at people’s appearance. As a result, the love may be a scriptural quotation, it is also important to factor in Matthew 5: 27-28. This calls for responsibility among christians and catapults the new law of the grace a pedestal higher that the proverbial abuse with which it is the devil who is fighting against the law of Moses. Whilst spiritual fatherhood may have been a novel concept of discipling in the church, the rider of the white HORSE has picked it and taken it into the heads and the hands of the preachers of earthly prosperity. Out of this has come a tremendous cascade of false apostles and false prophets that have given birth to other pastors and prophets who continue to proliferate the false Christianity observed in church today. The advent of the false prophets of the prosperity gospel is a true attestation on just how much the white HORSE has conquered the church globally. By sending these false prophets and false apostles, to plant churches globally; the man on the white HORSE has practically birthed out his disciples of falsehood in every nation of the earth. In its greatest irony, the elect of holiness and righteousness, who continue to be the true followers of Christ, have now been reduced to a mere remnant in the church. It is this remnant that will eventually enter into the kingdom of God.

A and a highway will be there; it will be called the Way of Holiness. The unclean will not go up it; but the lion will not step on it; wicked fools will not go about on it. No lion will be there, nor will any fercious beast set foot there; it will not be found there. But only the redeemed will walk there. (Isaiah 35: 8-9).

The LOVE of MOST

As the Lord Jesus continued to relay the prophecy of the signs that would eclipse the church right before his return in the Rapture, he further elaborated in Matthew chapter 24 verse 12 that:

4 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

It is as though the greatest dispensation of darkness has now fallen the earth especially on the iniquity that has become completely rampant in the church. But this is consistent with the eleventh hour which the prophetic timeline has clocked. Apostasy has today reached a new high in which even openly gay homosexual pastors and bishops are being ordained at the pulpit. Exactly this is what Jesus meant when he said that many will fall away from the true faith and turn to a false form of Christianity which lacks in holiness. Very much aware that holiness is the most momentous benchmark standard of the Lord for the church. If one need not be a genius to quickly see that the first HORSEMEN of the APOCALYPSE literally slams the door of heaven on the church. It bespeaks desolation. Such is the apostasy of this hour that the love of many will wax cold. A burning candle becomes hot and dynamite in the hands of the one who allows burning, but waxing cold insinuates no more burning, nor more Light emitted and hence dead Christianity. That is the true signature footprint that the white HORSE leaves in the church. The Holy Spirit’s definition of love is Agape which basically implies God’s love for mankind. But we all know that the love of God for mankind is Christ Jesus. Hence;

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him shall not perish, but have everlasting life. (John 3:16)

It is this precious love that was predicted to wax cold. That openly denotes that God Almighty gave his precious gift of love and they have today waned it cold. The waxing cold essentially refers to a state of the heart of the believers who had in the beginning accepted Jesus and received his witness only to fall away from the true faith into the shameful apostasy of the day. Likewise, it bespeaks the shift from the first primitive, holy, and glorious church of the first century to this post-modern church of today. And that is exactly why the first HORSEMEN of the APOCALYPSE have the pleasure of modernization of the Christianity hence adulterating the word. The ensuing defiling acceptance of the world into the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ becomes the biggest shame in the church. Even though such apostles were predicted by the holy Spirit in 2 Timothy 3: 1-7, God’s elect were precisely cautioned to have nothing to do with it.

But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, treacherous, rash, conceived to profane grace rather than lovers of God— having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them. “They are the work of Satan” and are carried by every wind into homes and gain control over weak-willed women, who are loaded down with sins and are swayed by all kinds of evil desires, passions, andavarice.

The global christian television with its selling of oil, books, trips to holiday vacations, and cruise ship pleasures with barbecues, little ornaments, shawls, miracles, sowing of seeds, and all the commercialization that today plagues the gospel has but, well fulfilled the mighty prophecy that Jesus gave in Matthew 24. The prophecy on waxing cold of the love of many people, is practically being fulfilled every minute that goes by in today’s church of Christ. By referring to the many’, the Lord implied the majority of God’s own people who would in the last days let the love of Christ wax cold in their hearts, to the extent that other ids would be exalted higher than the Lord, in their lives. It is an absurd scenario that... creates a massive global wave of a majority of christians headed to hell while only a minority remain headed to rapture.

The First Horseman & Today's Split Church

Substantial reference was made by Jesus, towards the fact that the endtime church at the very brinks of rapture would turn out to be a split church. While the day of his return would remain secret, the appearance into the scene of a split church was nevertheless intended to be a clear landmark that the Messiah’s Coming has drawn nigh.

40No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

41As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.

42For in the days before the flood, the people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and the flood came and destroyed them all.

43So you also must be ready, for the Son of Man will come at an hour when you least expect him.

44Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come (Matt 24:36-44).

In the foregoing, we see clearly that Christ, in his most eminent prophecy to the church, pointed towards the fact that the majority of God’s elect would be practically struck by the sharp merciless arrows from the bow of the first horsemen. This would result thereby in the spiritual people eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and the flood came and destroyed them all. While only a minority remain headed to the church, it is only true that only a small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

The Holy Spirit of God Almighty can help the current church to get heavenly focused that leads to the wedding feast of the Lamb. This is so because of the great commercialization and globalization that has today eaten into the gospel of Jesus Christ. It has practically rendered the most novel gospel of the blood and cross at Calvary either totally irrelevant to the hopes of the post-modern christians or virtually impractical in their glamorous setting. Choosing to live a holy and meek life of righteousness, can today prove to be a great challenge within the christian fraternity. Walking the blood and cross of Jesus will hence require a tremendous self-sacrifice from among the christians who chose that unpopular narrow road. On the contrary, the other segment of the split priesthood are those that will have been led astray by the schemers of this first horsemen of the apocalypse. They have been led into the false Christine that has carried the church into half, with one half getting into rapture while the other internal corruption. It becomes particularly disturbing to know that the church that chose to have a field day and thrive in their kingdom of darkness is left behind at rapture, can only be lukewarmness (Rev 3:15-16). If there would be any one perfect way to summarize the activities of the first horseman of the apocalypse in relation to the church, it is his achievement in transforming God’s elect into a lukewarm church. The majority of today’s church are deceived by the post-modernism of the day to a place whereby they now maintain a lukewarm attitude towards salvation. It has today become commonplace for the man to mix the world with the holy salvation of our Lord Jesus that was hard-won at Calvary.

Christians today have really forgotten God’s decree on separation and the living of a separate life:

1Do not be yoked together with unbelievers, for what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?

3What harmony is there between Christ and Belial? For what do a believer’s temple and that of an unbeliever?

7What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For you are the temple of the living God. As God has said: “I will live with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people.” (v 24) Therefore come out from them and be separate, says the Lord. Touch no unclean thing, and I will receive you.” (v 18)

11I will be your God, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.” (2 Cor 6:14-18).

One church hence flies into rapture while the lukewarm church enters into tribulation just because lukewarmness greatly lacks in holiness. Lukewarm christians simply have to flee to rapture. The lukewarm church that Jesus symbolized by the woman who is left behind after rapture, is exigently a church that is not alert. Lukewarmness creates a myriad of activities around the life of a christian to the point that in most cases the believers would get more focused on the earthly realm than heaven. It is the reason Jesus cautioned on the need for the church to get heavenly focused by maintaining a watchful stance within the last watch of the night.

By rebuking his third most beloved disciples on slumber, at the garden of Gethsemane, the Lord Jesus came out very artificiately stunned on the grave danger of sleeplessness in church. Watchfulness has always remained one of the most precious character traits of the church. The majority of today’s churches are lukewarm, modern and deceived, to the point that they are not yet ready to flee into rapture. Their watching is not good enough.

Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come. (Matt 24:42-44).

Today’s Saints Deceived

What the Lord meant by deceived in Luke’s account of this most crucial biblical event is that they have been led astray. Without a doubt then, this infers a more serious scenario in which the man of the apocalyptic white horse leads the church astray, away from the Lord. It is not just a mere drifting away. This is the clearest indication that when Christ gave this warning and prophecy, he was practically talking to his own church.

The reason being that only saints who are ardent believers and followers of Christ can be led astray. It presupposes that they were initially in right standing with the Lord, and then led astray through this cunning first horseman of the apocalypse.

To the strat church, it is as though the most celebrated warning that the Holy Spirit recorded in the book of Colossians 2:8, is not seen.

See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophies, which depend on human tradition and the basic principles of this world rather than on Christ (Col 2:8).

This kind of leading astray of God’s elect, can only mean that the first horseman of the apocalypse in real sense, either perverts biblical scripture in the church or takes away the bible as the foundation of church. In so doing, he replaces long standing biblical principles with the deceptive philosophies of man that are tuned in conformity with the sinful nature of this world. Abhorring pain though, comes in as a result of the fact that God’s own elect who were deceived by this Horseman, do not just tumble and fall, but are led into eternal death. This is because if they had just tumbled and fallen while on the righteous course, they would still have ended up into the wedding feast of the Lamb. But being led astray results thereby in a different trajectory which is actual far removed from the only highway of holiness that leads to rapture.
The Red Horse of the Apocalypse

The April 2, 2004 vision of the LORD: And the creature like an ox released him

On April 2, 2004, the LORD presented me with an exceptional vision in which I saw the release of the HORSEMAN of the red horse. In that vision, I saw the RED APOCALYPTIC HORSE from heaven with his rider greatly traversing across the earth. This was first time the LORD Almighty presented me to the vision of the red horse of the apocalypse as he was released from heaven. That specific April 2004 vision, the LORD showed me the rider of the red horse holding a sword and moon turned blood red as the rider of this red horse paced across the earth and wherever he passed, there was a trail of a lot of blood. I saw within the glory of the LORD the creature like an ox release him. What was most astounding of the rider of the red horse is the ultrasonic high speed at which he traversed the land across the earth, to the extent that one might think he is seeing more than one red horse. That is the reason in that March 2005 newspaper reportage I mentioned that I saw what appeared like several red horses traversing the earth, and yet it was just one mighty red horse traversing the earth at an ultrasonic speed, to the extent that no sooner had you seen him at this corner, than he appeared from this other corner. And when this red horse hit the seas he split them open like a high-speed cruise ship with water splashing on both sides and the back as it makes it way through. This caused me to truly understand the gravity of what his impact would be on the earth. Further to this, the red horse spots a very important unique feature that is only exclusive to itself. These are the blue flame-like feet that cover close to his hooves. It caused me to publish this revelation into a christian newspaper. In that March 2005 article of the christian magazine, I clearly elaborated on how this red horse was going to unleash untold suffering among the peoples of the earth. Together with other aspects of his release, in that March 2005 edition of the newspaper, I described the deplorable bloodshed that was coming to visit the earth, to the extent that I called it BLOOD, BLOOD, BLOOD. Surprisingly, come the March 17, 2008, the LORD once more reminded me of the vision of the HORSEMAN on the red horse and his most disturbing impact on the earth. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse’s ongoing manifestation on the earth.

REVELATION

The first horse, a white one, while being the least understood is perhaps the most important because it produces the most insidious deception called universal religious deception (Rev 2:11-14). And yet we see that the other three horsemen are also heavily involved in, and influence this world’s sufferings including false religions. Few people truly comprehend the gravity of the four horsemen, because only a few are able to listen to the Holy Spirit and his interpretation which is the vital key to understanding the novel book of Revelation. The deceived followers of the man on the white horse go forth conquering and to conquer based on their erroneous belief that the white horseman has imparted. This directly overlaps with the second horseman of the apocalypse, the red horse whose name is war. This second horseman has today wreaked phenomenal havoc on mankind with constant wars that have consumed the entire globe. Matthew 24:9. Matthew 24:9 in the Olivet Prophecy Jesus himself hinted that the fulfillment of these prophecies would still have to bring a desperate time in which human annihilation would be a real threat. But, in that prophecy what stood out most is when the LORD Jesus forewarned of wars that would be upcoming in the dispensation prior to his return for the church. Whilst some may argue that man has always had wars on the earth, it is important here to emphasize that the kinds of wars Jesus of Nazareth was referring to, were those that would be historic on their own merit, having not visited the earth before; 'And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places (Matthew 24:6-7).

The translation of this prophecy is obtainable from the book of Revelation chapter 6 verses 3 and 4. ‘And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. And there went out another horse that was red: and POWER was given to him that sat thereon to TAKE PEACE FROM THE EARTH, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword (Rev 6:3-4).

The rider of the red horse is called war and the red colour that his horse spots plainly represents war with its most horrendous effects of bloodshed. When Jesus gave this prophecy, it greatly underscored the season in which two kinds of wars would consume the earth. It essentially acts as an admonition against the sin and godlessness that have taken over the earth. The first kind of war that the LORD referred to here, is that type of war that we see today being fulfilled in Somalia, with a random and sporadic violence that at times even seems senseless. The earth today has since seen lots of these kinds of wars as the rider of the red horse traverses the earth. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse. And the creature like an ox released him. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse. And the creature like an ox released him. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse. And the creature like an ox released him. This was meant for me to alert the entire earth of the red horse.
prophecy on the rumours of war that he said would consume the whole earth. War has become invincible to the extent that the HORSEMAN of the RED HORSE must now be bearing a sword that is tainted with a lot of blood and coated with human fat. The political military and economic polarization that has today formed power block across the earth seems to be the catalytic agent that is building up the recipe for wars across the earth. Economically, wars like those witnessed in Nigeria are literally arising from a welfare conflict between the have and havenots. Same thing applies to D.R. Congo with its minerals. The wars of this endtime have claimed an unprecedented number of deaths across the global population. These dreadful and frightening events would not be necessary at all if man would turn away from his evil ways of war, disobedience to God, false Christianity, false religion, vanity, greed, immorality and sexual sin, witchcraft, the gospel of prosperity without holiness and all agents that produce man’s worsening state of decay. With a deep heart-rendering repentance by mankind towards Jehovah His Creator, the effects of the blood-red second HORSE would have been ameliorated; except that now the nations of the earth have proven their unwillingness to repent and return to God. And the rider of the red horse must continue riding on as he conquers more and more territories with his sword becoming more and more tainted with blood and human fat. This second HORSEMAN of the APOCALYPSE must ride roughshod to teach man a very painful yet necessary lesson about the consequences of the wounds of sin. However, the beauty of it all is that the elect of God need not be unduly alarmed or frightened because their holy and righteous walk which pleases God, earns them divine protection from the mayhem. As this global insularity goes on with relentless WAR, the elect of the LORD however, will always be protected to the extent that the effects of the RED HORSEMAN will not be permitted to run its course in their lives. The very elect of God will be provided with a place of protection from this tempest events.

Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. (Rev 3:10)

We can lay claim to these promises if we qualify as God’s very elect in the holy ways of our christian walk. The very elect of the LORD surely do not suffer the consequences of the effects of the SECOND HORSEMAN because they are not taken in by the spiritual deception of the FIRST HORSEMAN. The 2006 Israeli-Hizbollah WAR was one of the most horrific conflicts that the planet has seen. In that WAR, there was tremendous collateral damage in which several high-rise apartment buildings were flattened, office buildings wiped out as the Hizbollah continued to tighten their WAR stance. Israel however, was fighting for her safety following non-stop cascades of Katyusha rockets that made life in the northern part of Israel a total nightmare. This affected towns such as Metulah and even upto Nahariyah. And because the Jewish state is sandwiched by a multitude of enemy nations, they were compelled to go into Lebanon to demolish the missile launchers of the Hizbollah in order to restore calm in Northern Israel. The Iraq WAR too has gradually mutated into a ceaseless senseless conflict in which several nations are involved, and their own internal bloodletting between the Sunni and the Shi’ites groups. The amount of blood that has been shed in Iraq is what clearly paints the portrait of the presence of the second APOCALYTIC HORSEMAN on the RED HORSE. The Afghan WAR too now threatens to build up as a well-lugged conflict on its own merit, whose end may not be in the horizon as of now. The Taliban against the rest of the world and the Taliban against the Pakistanian government, has really fulfilled this prophecy of the release of the HORSEMAN of the RED HORSE. All these WARS and conflicts around the globe do emphasize one thing; that the HORSEMAN of the RED HORSE was truly given power to take away peace from the earth and cause men to slay each other (Revelation 6:2-3).

The Black Horse of the Apocalypse

The Most Dreadful August 19th, 2008 Visitation

Prophecy Of Global Economic Crisis

THE MIGHTY AUGUST 19TH 2008 VISION OF THE BLACK HORSE

On the 19th day of August 2008, the LORD God Almighty spoke with me regarding one of the most historic milestone events that was about to befall the four ends of the planet earth. On that day, I saw the night visions of the LORD God Almighty, and the vision I saw consisted of the most traumatic incidences that were about to ensue across the whole world. In this particular unusual vision of the LORD, I saw heaven standing open and a myriad of distressing events that were about to befall the earth, unfolding right before my eyes. At first glance, the LORD started showing me the tremendous glory that surrounds His throne in heaven, and how that glory bestows the signature authority of God Almighty in heaven. The manner in which the glory descended from heaven and colonized the obscurity and darkness that had consumedated in the skies, gave a symbolic overtone of things to be. The darkness that had abounded the skies prior to the onset of the LORD’s glory figuratively symbolises the great spiritual darkness of sin that was long foretold as coming over the earth. Such darkness, the bible enumerates as that which would establish sin unto the four ends of the earth, even in the church. Colossal sin and evil has long being forecasted in the books of 2 Timothy chapter 3 verses 1 through 6, and Daniel chapter 12 verse 1. However, in this vision, when the glory descended and began to change the total appearance of darkness over the earth into a brilliant countenance of illumination; then that marked the novel presentation of how the latter glory of God would deliver mankind from the sinful darkness of this last hour. The scripture in the book of Joel chapter 2 verses 28 through 32, vividly expound on the authoritative mark of the endtime glory and how it would obliterate sin. This is absolutely consistent with the revelation of the church in preparing the glorious sinless church right before the wedding of the Lamb (rapture). Nonetheless, it was during this process as I continued to marvel at the splendour of the heavenly glory of majesty, that all of a sudden the Holy Spirit lifted me and I found myself standing right infront of the throne of God Almighty in heaven. The glory that surrounded the throne of God Almighty was so remarkable that it conferred even a much bigger authority it beheld. It was at this juncture that all of a sudden came forth an insurmountable mass of very living being from the depths of the LORD’s glory.

Extreme Fear

It was at this very instant in the vision, that the Holy Spirit immediately made me very aware of the severe sternness and gravity of appearing before God Almighty’s throne in heaven. What particularly jolted me with intense shock, was the fact that this most serious living creature that came forth from the throne of God, was slowly but most steadily advancing towards me. At that point in time, I hadn’t yet begun to perceive that the underlying intention of why this living creature pressed-on-forward towards me, was for purposes of identification. The LORD God Almighty had at that moment wanted me to clearly be enlightened of the features that marked this particular living being from His mighty throne. Jehovah our God did this in order to enhance my understanding within this vision, of the cadre of events that were about to unfold on the earth. The LORD also deliberately intended that I attain a complete understanding of the specific place in the prophetic timeline that these impending events would take. That can now clearly be revealed as being most important in bringing a time mark towards rapture, in order that the church may prepare in due course. However, that which stands out most is the fact that at this very juncture in this most extraordinary vision, is the baleful fear that suddenly consumed me with an acute fright. It is the steadfastness and the unblinking of the eyes of this advancing living creature from the throne of God, that especially perplexed me in egregiousness, trembling, and uttermost fear before God. If this alone were anything to go by, then surely appearing before the throne of God, will have to be the most severe and dreadful moment man will ever live to encounter. It is no wonder that the scripture dwells quite a bit on the importance of believers working out their salvation in fear and trembling (Philippians 2:12). Notwithstanding, in this vision, the more this living creature from the throne of God continued to progress towards me, the more I became totally gripped with such a stupendous level of understanding of what it entails to be in the awesome presence of the Lord, and the fear therein. The moment of reality however, did not dawn until this living being finally came face-to-face with me at a proximate distance of about three metres from my location. It is important to understand that the three metre distance described here, is a direct translation of the events as they occurred in the vision, into our earthly physical realm. It hence may not necessarily instruct on the actual spiritual distance the living creature that came close to the living creature from the throne of God Almighty.

The most titanic jiffy and flash yet, appeared almost in complete in this face-to-face encounter that ensued in this phenomenal vision of the Lord. Today, I can clearly have the primal vision as a descriptive awakening in this vision, ultimately emerged out of observing the glory of the Lord that abounds the face of this living creature. The sobering clarity of his glorious eyes and the extreme gravity of the glare from them, was an intense display that made me aback. It was this intense sobriety and seriousness of the stare from this living being that clearly reflected on the enormity of the perfect austerity in God’s holiness. By this, I was greatly apprised to the fact that in front of the throne of God is the most dreadful location one can find himself at. And gradually, I became enlightened and seriously validated on what it will mean for the church at rapture. It is common knowledge today that the church that raptures, will have to be given the privilege of presenting herself before the white robe of God Almighty. It is at this moment that every true servant of God, when the church will appear before the Lord, that all her ways will be weighed. Everything and anything that raptured believers ever did on the earth, said with their tongues, schemed in their hearts and contemplated to do will be accounted for right before this fearful throne of God. The word itself pronounces that it is a dreadful thing to fall in the hands of the living God (Hebrews 10:31).

Face Like Man

A monumental conversation with the Lord that grants in such a prodigious magnitude the reality of the vision of the living creature that appeared before me, must have much to do with the eternity of mankind. The startling moment of revelation though, came from the identity of this living being that God Almighty released from His throne towards me, in this vision. It is as though the Lord released this mighty living being to engage with me in this vision, and in such a manner that would underscore his identity. In this way, Jehovah intended that I would be able to perceive the profile of progression along God’s own prophetic timeline. Indeed in this vision, I was able to quickly identify the face like man on this living creature from God’s own throne. It is this recognition of the face like man, that particularly shook me with utmost shudder. Without unveiling the finest details, the face like man I saw was the most solemn face one can ever live to encounter. It was lucidly obvious to me in this vision, that the frowned face, with its characteristic lines and expressions spoke it all. The message that the face like man proffered was then most serious as the grimace expressed. Apart from the seriousness that the face like man inferred in this vision, there is also the underlying missive of disapproval that kept coming through as I continued to engage this living creature from the throne of God. I quickly understood that any word of prophecy that this visitation was going to subsequently convey, would most certainly have to entail a significant level of ominousness.

Black Horse

Remarkably, after the Lord was certain that I had fully grasped the face of this living creature from heaven, then he caused the creature to turn around and head back to the glory. However, the return of this living creature back towards the glory of the Lord, would then become the most defining moment in the vision. A series of sequential events then quickly began to unfold from around that time. So when this living creature walked back to the glory. It then became this time that rolled-out what has since become the biggest prophecy yet to visit the earth, in our time. As the creature with the human face went back towards the throne of God, I was able to see him release the BLACK HORSE from heaven. As did the creature, so did the BLACK HORSE come out of the glory of the Lord. The BLACK HORSE seemed to have been given a similar message as was the creature with the face like man. This I can now reveal because when the BLACK HORSE together with the rider were set free, the BLACK HORSE equally began to advance towards me. Upon reaching very close to me in this vision, the BLACK HORSE greatly surprised me as he spotted a very long man. Standing right before me with his rider in front of him, the black horse rose from heaven immediately and most unexpectedly began to dramatically stretch out his flowing mane. What emerged out most vividly is that the rider of the BLACK HORSE had also been instructed from the throne of God to present to me with clarity, his identity. While the black colour of his coat may have been the most important feature of his identity, I must say here now, that the mane that this BLACK HORSE spotted actually became the crown of his identity. As if to crown it all, in a grand breathtaking scene, the BLACK HORSE began to stretch out his long glorious white mane, then letting it fall back and converge on his neck. The mane I saw on the BLACK HORSE was second only to the humanly white and gloriously glorious with the blesse nedness of the Lord. Here I was now, standing right before the BLACK HORSE whose mane is pure glorious white. The neighing of the horse could still be heard from afar in a manner suggesting that he is ready to be liberated. What followed then was even more stunning. The living creature with the face like man eventually extricated this most sturdy BLACK HORSE, with his rider readily saddled. I then saw the rider of the BLACK HORSE head for the earth, and another day’s wages, and three quarts of barley for a day’s wages, and do not damage the oil and the wine! (Rev 6:5-6).

Face Like Man: Who is this Creature

In the holy bible, the book of Revelation has stood out as not only the most intriguing, but also the most fascinating scripture of this hour. In Revelation chapters 1 through 3, it clearly becomes apparent that the Holy Spirit is involved in preparing the church through repentance. It is for that reason that, the reference to churches such as the one in Sardis, in which the Holy Spirit refers to the spiritual beauty of those believers who do not soil their white garments.

Yet you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes. They will walk with me, dressed in white, for they are worthy (Rev 3:4).

The context in which the Holy Spirit uses the word worthy strictly refers to the holiness of the Lord in the church. Similarly, in the same book of Revelation chapter 3 verse 11, the Holy Spirit cautions the church on the need to hold on to the original gospel that they received at Calvary as it would be the most important benchmark at the coming of the Lord. By this, it is possible to corroborate the concern of the Holy Spirit regarding the deception of the last days, which was incomvertibly forecasted as coming to reign, even inside the church. This kind of trend that is deliberately directed at purifying the church, continues on in these first three chapters of the most treasured book of Revelation. However, commencing from Revelation chapter 4, one quickly encounters a totally different spiritual unfolding. In Revelation chapter 4, the Holy Spirit exhibits the mighty manifestation of the presence of God Almighty in heaven. And at that throne, two main features stand out, namely; at the twenty-four other thrones that surround the throne of God, b) and the four living creatures around the mighty throne of Jehovah God. The twenty-four thrones around the mighty throne of God are occupied by the twenty-four elders around God’s throne. Nevertheless, most central to the throne of God are the four living creatures within His glory. The Holy Spirit who is the Only Expositor of the bible, cogently opens up the respective identities of these four living creatures around the throne of God. Based on their facial countenance, the first creature presented is a lion, while the second is like an ox, the third being like the face like man, and the fourth like an eagle.

The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a face like a man, the fourth was like a flying eagle (Rev 4:7).

From this scripture, it is overtly evident that in that August 2008 vision, the unveiled creature with the face like man that emerges from the throne of God, is the third living creature. It is this third living creature around the throne of God that releases the BLACK HORSE. And that became the main reason as to why God the Father deliberately orchestrated an encounter between this third living creature and myself, prior to the release of the BLACK HORSE. Therefore, the identity of this spiritual encounter in this vision, was that it would greatly enable me to correctly identify the creature that releases the BLACK HORSE, as strictly being the third living being around the throne of God. The arrangement of the four living creatures around the throne of God was specifically designed, because it is intended to reveal much on their spiritual positioning within the prophetic timeline. Understanding the prophetic timeline is crucial towards the return of the Messiah. On the other hand, the book of Revelation chapter 5 unveils a scroll that is in the right hand of God the Father. He holds it in his right hand. This chapter 5 immensely celebrates the seven seals with which the scroll in God’s hand, has been closed. And that is the reason why when Jesus Christ opened up His heart to the

The mighty 2 million plus Repentance Gathering in Nakuru-Kenya at which the release of the black horse and the prophecy on the impending global economic crisis and famine, was pronounced. The meeting took place on Saturday, August 23rd and Sunday, August 24th, 2008. This was exactly twenty-three days prior to the fulfillment of the vision, which is from October 15th 2008. The Lehman Brothers file for bankruptcy in an act that sent the financial markets tumbling across the globe.

Revelation

It is accurately lucid that on every occasion when the Lord God speaks, that conversation is primarily intended for the church of Christ. In that way, because the church was eloquently baptized as salt of the earth, such a message spoken to her would have to affect all the nations of the earth. Only through the medium of the church, can the message of God be infiltrated and be realized across the nations of the earth. Having said so, it now emerges unambiguous that the rider of the black horse of the APOCALYPSE effectively adds a new twist into the pains that the four HORSEMEN unleash on mankind. The unmatched embracement of the biblical word of God in every conversation from Jehovah, offers an opportunity and novel platform through which to decipher any message that has descends from the Lord. With no exception therefore, the message arising from this phenomenal August 19th 2008 vision, can only come from the bible. Moreover, in His most sacred reference to the black horse, the Holy Spirit celebrates the global impact of this horseman in the book of Revelation chapter 6 verses 5 to 6:

“When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come!” I looked, and there before me was a black horse! Its rider was holding a pair of scales in his hand. Then I heard what sounded like a voice among the four living creatures, saying, “A quart of wheat for a day’s wages, and three quarts of barley for a day’s wages, and do not damage the oil and the wine!” (Rev 6:5-6).
church, and revealed to her the signs of his coming in Matthew chapter 24, the unveiling of that most important prophecy later became embedded in the book of Revelation. Consequently, it is of utmost significance for the church to be able to connect the spiritual dots between the complex elements at the throne of God Almighty, and the ultimate Coming of the Messiah. Of the seven seals that define the prophetic timeline, only the first four are most critical, especially with Christ. These first four seals are most significantly crucial to the church because they relay the prophetic timeline towards the return of the Lord in the rapture. Only the Lamb of God has the authority to unlock the seven seals that define the apocalyptic timeline of God. There is a corresponding relationship that interplays between the opening of the scroll and the four living creatures around the throne of God. In fact, to the extent that when the Lamb unlocks the first of the seven seals at once, he is revealing the first living creature (like lion) that appears and releases the white horse. The opening of the second seal directly relates to the appearance of the second living creature (like ox) in who in return releases the red horse of blood and war. And in this particular August 19th 2008 vision, when the Lamb unlocked the third seal of the scroll, it is the third living creature (face man) that unleashes the rider of the black horse of the apocalypse, across the globe. All this, what really matters most, is to ascertain exactly what the manifestations of the release of this black horse are, and most especially how they translate in the physical realm of man. Like all the other three horsemen of the apocalypse, the horseman who rides on the black horse represents a significant prophecy that was directed to the church.

Historic August 2008 Prophecy

Following this monumental August 19th 2008 vision of things to befall the earth, I was immediately compelled to stand before over two million people in a little Rift Valley town of Kenya and prophesy. At this town called Nakuru, I proclaimed the coming of a devastating global economic crisis and a ravaging famine that would visit the four ends of the earth. In that prophecy that was handed down in a mammouth gathering on that Saturday, August 23rd 2008, and Sunday August 24th 2008, I came across very clearly that the anguish of economic crisis and famine would now have to visit the world, because the Lord God had spoken. In that pronouncement, I extensively elaborated to the effect that because the word of God says that the rider of the black apocalyptic horse holds a weighing scale on his hands, then there would inevitably have to be a global economic crisis visiting the earth, especially now that the mouth of the Lord had spoken. The weighing scale that the scripture in Revelation chapter 6 verses 5 and 6 refer to in connection with the rider of the black horse, is symbolically intended by the Lord to imply buying and selling. It is this buying and selling that fundamentally represents trade and commerce, in the global economy. The Lord in this vision placed it in the hands of the rider of the black horse, could only have implied that the entire global economy had now been transferred into the hands of this rider of the black horse. It then became possible to quickly understand that God was implying here that a ‘black day’ was set to visit the global economies. To ascertain this, the scripture in Revelation chapter 6 verse 5, regarding the release of this black horse, stipulates that the voice shouts from among the four living creatures with a stern command. In that command, the voice of the Lord firmly pronounced; “a quart of wheat for a day’s wages and three quarts of barley for the same denarius”. This is exactly what compelled me on that August 23rd-24th 2008 to equally proclaim a global famine that was looming over the earth. Therefore, the third horseman who rides the black horse principally epitomizes a historic famine, of ravaging proportions that has never visited the earth before. In the context of the greatest prophecy that Jesus ever gave to the church, one cannot fail to identify the role of Matthew chapter 24 verse 7 in this conversation; ‘Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places (Matt 24:7).

Likewise, the malnourishment predisposes the world force to disease and unhealthiness that greatly impedes, not only food production, but also the generalized economic productivity of manpower. This is what would normally cause a cascade of multiplier effects that would spiral the global economies to the south.

The Rapid Fulfilment

When the Lord spoke with me on that August 19th 2008 night, I was able to immediately perceive how pensive that message would gravitate on the life of the nations. Going by the scriptural definition within the context of what the scripture was implying here that a “quart of wheat for a day’s wages and three quarts of barley for a denarius...” basically point the church towards a severe malnutrition that would visit the earth. It put it in perspective of the ancient Hebrew definition, a quart of what essentially represents the amount of wheat supply that an average person must have to access the basic nutrition that translates into a severe global famine pronounced in this monumental prophecy. This is the inflation and famine conditions that was foretold as coming to befall the earth right before rapture. As inscribed in the book of Revelation chapter 6, when the Lamb unlocks the third seal thereby releasing the black horse, “a quart of wheat for a day’s wages and three quarts of barley for a denarius...” basically point the church towards a severe malnutrition that would visit the earth. It put it in perspective of the ancient Hebrew definition, a quart of what essentially represents the amount of wheat supply that an average person would need for a day’s sustenance. And it must be remembered here, that the key word is sustenance, which means merely for survival. And because barley is a foodstuff of relatively lower nutritional value, it was often used by the poor to mix with wheat in order achieve a given minimum supply of nourishment. This kind of food shortage was meant to cause a hyper inflation of food prices. In this way, the Holy Spirit was using barley to relay an important missive to the church. That when the black horse would be released, families would be both undernourished and malnourished. The undernourishment greatly takes away from the productivity of the labour force since they cannot afford their minimal daily energy requirements given the reduced quantities of food intake.

Cascade...

It would be totally imprudent to fail to mention that human civilization has been mainly built on economic progress and prosperity of this age. Over the centuries, economic growth and development has become the epicentre of all forms of human activity. For that reason, nations have been ranked squarely based on how they measure on the economic barometer that the World Bank and IMF have instituted. This has often caused countries to be grouped as developed, or developing. It is a ranking that has at times caused a lot of controversy because countries with greater economic progress have been classified as first world while those with limited economic growth have always been catalogued as third world. This is the main reason why the developed economies have in the recent past innovated more complex and intertwined financial markets that have spawned across the globe. As a result, a more reliable system has recently emerged in which financial markets have maintained a comfortable stability over the years. High performance software and modelling of market progression, have in the recent past literally made it possible to predict stock markets performance, to the extent that people have literally

HOW THIS HISTORIC PROPHECY WAS RAPIDLY FULFILLED

At the time of the pronouncement of the release of the black horse from the throne of God, nobody in that little village Kenyan town of Nakuru clearly perceived the gravity of what that August 23rd 2008 utterances would mean. Like the 2nd millennium strong gathering understand that even as the prophecy was being spoken to the four ends of the earth, it would indeed be the most humongous prophecy to ever shake the earth, in this present day. Similarly, the magnitude of the effects of the manifestation of its fulfiliements were not fully conceived yet. But, to the greatest shock of all nations, it took barely a month and a half for that prophecy on the release of the black horse to be accurately fulfilled to the letter, on October 2008.

While visiting the church in Toronto, Canada, it was a m a z i n g l y stunning to witness the collapse of all the global financial markets on that October 7th 2008. In so doing, the rider of the apocalyptic black horse caused the most horrendous and devastating global economic crisis and famine. In what started as the collapse of one institution, one day the nations of the earth woke up to a severe crisis in which all the financial markets melted down. The greatest distress of this generation then ensued; causing Presidents and Heads of States from many nations to begin gathering in several capital cities, as they desperately attempted to salvage the collapsed financial markets. Finance Ministers from the G8, G20, and name it, have since then been holding series of crisis meetings in order to try and salvage the global economy. In the process, a global recession was officially announced across the earth. This has since then affected literally every nation ever created by Jehovah on the face of this earth. But the most important question then becomes how exactly this global economic crunch could take such a devastating effect across the four ends of the earth?

LEHMAN BROTHERS COLLAPSES . . .

Exactly twenty-three days from the day when the prophecy on the release of the BLACK HORSE was pronounced, the LOrd brought its record fulfilment to pass. It all began on that September 15th 2008, when one of the largest global investment banking institution called Lehman Brothers collapsed. It is a day that has now become known as the BLACK MONDAY because the events that transpired on that maternal day will forever live to be remembered on the earth. For a giant investment banking institution, that had been naturally very stable like the Lehman Brothers, to all of a sudden and from no where, with no forewarning; abruptly come tumbling down and crash, this has still remained a complex puzzle for the experts to fit. When the directors of the Lehman Brothers woke up that morning and realized that the economic health of their institution had swiftly degenerated into a state that threatened the very existence of the global economy. In that program, the US Federal Reserve innovated a historic record array of schemes aimed at salvaging the credit markets, Wall Street, and the entire economy. But unfortunately, as a result of that Lehman Brothers collapse, the global economy precipitously declined and headed south. Many analysts began to predict that this would be a financial crisis worse than the great depression of the 1930s. This was according to experts, meant to be a signalling of a nightmare of the possible end of CAPITALISM. The fear then became that this could as well be the sowernder to free market economics. The collapse of the Lehman Brothers on September 15th 2008 therefore became a deeply traumatic moment that marked the end of the debt markets as had conventionally been known. It literally exposed the deep flaws of the financial systems that man had spent all his life constructing. In other words, the deep flaws in human wisdom that lacks in the fear of the LOrd. It also brought the evil excesses of the credit markets to book. Governments, the G20, and financial institutions were greatly shaken to their very core. It immediately emerged then that at the heart of this global economic crisis were more complex debt instruments than even bankers acknowledged that they could not unravel. They literally threw in the towel. It is obvious that the LOrd had to intervene because of man’s wayward behaviour that had now escalated out of proportion. At the height of the flourishing financial markets, people did not even see the need for God. The Wall Street for example had now even overstepped her moral line and gradually converted herself into a quasi-casino for offshore pensioners. How could this fail to catch the attention of the LORD? Rapacious unrealistic and unscrupulous profits exacerbated the remuneration of individuals and companies to the extent that God did not feature in their lives anymore. As the global financial crisis unfolded further, it actually emerged that man was absolutely unable to monitor and contain the financial system, let alone forecasting their trends. Toxic debts have now emerged that threaten the very existence of the so called sophisticated economies. These types of toxic debts today threaten to not only paralyse but also to AMPUTATE the limbs of most of today’s G7 richest nations. Hence, the collapse of the fourth largest investing banking institution, Lehman brothers, is what sent shock waves that reverberated all across the global financial markets. Citigroup also reported subprime related losses of historic levels. Bear Stern also collapsed in the process. Leading mortgage lenders lost colossal amounts of money, thanks to their clients defaulting to remit mortgage. In a move that further sank the global credit markets, Bank of America lost US$50 billion in a very short life span, while AIG crushed, hence requiring US$80 Billion of rescue package. In a spate of a month leading banking institutions like HBOS, Royal Bank of Scotland, Washington Mutual, Fortes, Wells Fargo, Hypo Real Estate, Lancebanks all collapsed. Stock markets hit record lows, across the globe, and equities have been pumped into investing in stocks. Pension funds, and equities have been pumped into stock markets with a greater degree of returns. All these technologies have been geared towards ameliorating the risk factors in stock markets, while maximizing profit margins. It is within the backdrop of all this kind of technological sophistication, and the manipulation of the elements of market stability, that suddenly came the global economic crash.

Catalyst

The bankruptcy of the investment banking giants, Lehman Brothers, was used by the rider of the BLACK HORSE as the catalyst that stirred up the global economic crisis. As the aftershocks resonated around the world, other stock markets apart from Wall Street also collapsed. Vulnerable banking houses fell and the international financial systems for sure did grind to a halt. Corporations slid into bankruptcy as job losses mounted to phenomenal historic highs. And eventually, countries across the world went into a global recession. That means that when the LOrd released the rider of the APOCALPYTIC BLACK HORSE, no one was spared the effects of the crisis he ignited. Looking at the remnants of the devastation, many investors even committed suicide in the countries pondered what they should have done differently. For the first time, many nations eventually left their economies into free-fall as a last minute ditch. The fulfilment of the August 19th 2008 prophecy on the BLACK HORSE, really tested the assumption and thinking of man; as what was previously granted among the analysts to the point that they put it in this way regarding entire economies: It is healthy to keep ones mind as neutral as possible not knowing what to expect as days go by. The rider of the BLACK HORSE had now been tested and found to just be a fairy tale that should be wiped from many people’s thoughts. The rider of the BLACK HORSE of the APOCALYPSE suddenly and most unexpectedly rendered to ‘too big to fail’ what had now been tested and found to just be a fairy tale that should be wiped from many people’s thoughts. The rider of the BLACK HORSE of the APOCALYPSE suddenly and most unexpectedly rendered to ‘too big to fail’ what had never been known as a concept. The collapses of the Lehman Brothers, ought to have been a lesson in humility to the global financial markets. The sudden hastily crumbled and collapsed market stability, that suddenly came as a result of the rider of the BLACK HORSE, while investors were not expecting anything even as the global financial markets continue to bite on, is one major lesson that mankind’s complex financial systems which on the surface appear very stout and stable; are actually very awfully fragile. Surely, it would never have been possible to write off the existence of GOD ALMIGHTY while living on GOD’s earth. The second lesson is no amount of human effort is capable of stopping a crisis from snowballing into the economic disaster it has today become. It is now moving in the lines of the great depression especially with such heavy investments on war in Iraq, Afghanistan, Somali, Sri Lanka, etc. The third lesson that man has picked up from the effects of the rider of the BLACK HORSE, is that the law of capitalism that has perpetuated the existence of extreme greed and the clamour for materialism, and the self-reliance of mankind away from God, were on that day shattered worldwide by this BLACK APOCALPYTIC HORSEMAN. This today has thrown man to his rightful place as a dependant of God Almighty in the global economy. This has many consequences. The rider, the rider of the BLACK HORSE, not only would be a force that is not be able to do business because he literally instantly froze their accounts. Similar dislocations played out across the globe in an unbelievable fashion, as stock traders scratched their hair and their jaws dropped. And what becomes even most baffling is that at times it was not the real collapse that caused the meltdown, but, that all financial systems across the globe became paralyzed with a strange kind of fear. Companies that had built with their own two hands and used to work together so well, with such a long history of great harmonious cooperation, all of a sudden could not trust each other anymore. This further paralysed the global economy bringing it to its knees. The global financial system went into a state of dysfunction as it proved too fragile to handle the distress. This became an absolutely new phenomenon in the global market place especially because it has well established itself over the centuries. The rider of the BLACK HORSE ensured that doing business became too expensive and money to sort out, as trillions of tax-payers dollars went down the drain in an attempt to resuscitate Wall Street. At this place, it is prudent to say that the deep pains of the global economic crisis are a necessary spiritual corrective that God Almighty had to levy on mankind because of his increased drifting away from the reliance of the Almighty, and his increased addiction of dependency on the global financial markets. It was surely intended by God Almighty to purge off the rottenness out of mankind’s lifestyle of godlessness, and to return him to the reality that he actually is a created being whose God is Jehovah. Now, wherever you may record that from the onset of the global economy collapse, many people have started returning to churches and even began shouting them in their largest numbers. From the ill-equipped, and the over-the-top encouragement for home ownership through lies of what one earns, etc., man’s fingerprints are all over this global financial crisis. God finally brought him to book. It came out very clearly that it is today in this post-modern world, a near impossibility to make man institute big spiritual changes in his personal life in the absence of a crisis of this magnitude. That is the reason God Almighty brought in the black horse from hell. One can comfortably say that God Almighty of heaven released the BLACK HORSE in order to wind down the huge non-bank financial institutions like Lehman Brothers, and to close down complex financial companies in such an orderly fashion, sequentally to initiate major spiritual reforms in man’s lifestyle. Through the effects of the rider of the BLACK HORSE, today’s banks and financial institutions have been greatly humbled to a place where they now tread more gingerly for at least the rest of their lives, as they gradually acknowledge that man actually has no control of the majority, if not all of life’s instruments. But in this way, mankind at least seems to be headed to a revival of a new kind, as homeowners now turn homeless and begin to look for rental units, also as the employed have now turned jobless, as health insurance become something of the past. At least they can now depend on God Almighty for their health, healing, and to fend for their daily living. Surely the BLACK HORSE of the APOCALYPSE came to destroy man’s economic prosperity to perils that now only mirror the collapsing of the TOWER OF BABEL (Pride).}

The Backdrop of Deception

The four HORSEMEN of the APOCALYPSE punctuate major spiritual landmarks on the Clock of God Almighty. Their release has long been discussed in the bible by the Holy Spirit. Many christians have lived their lives and gone to sleep to the dust of the earth, without ever living to see the moment of the release of these HORSEMEN. It therefore serves a great privilege of the release of these HORSEMEN by the Lord, a sequence that seems to indicate that they are following each other in rapid succession. We have seen that the first HORSEMAN is even more incredulous in turning very large numbers of believers into an illusory kind of Christianity that as a matter of fact is very hollow and rightlessness. It gets even more spiritually devastating at this last hour, to factor in the false eastern religions that seem to disguise as new age therapy, yoga therapy, massage therapy, etc. These kinds of hidden therapies have practically encroached into the church and effectively gotten mixed with the lifestyle of today’s christians. This can only infer that today’s church must continue looking much more to Jesus, the Revelator, as the head, in order to clearly uncover for her the secrets around this third HORSEMAN, and his implications thereof. Though frightening, these pains and signs that the BLACK HORSE releases upon mankind, are yet necessary endtime warnings and spiritual landmarks that are intended to be the ‘magnetic compass’ for the church. Such a spiritual magnetic compass, if well followed can carefully and accurately navigate the church through the current spiritual quagmire, into big public outcry prompted a serious government investigation. Such deception as has been brought into the church by the rider of the WHITE HORSE can only make the global economic crisis worse. It confounds the effects of the BLACK HORSE making him spiritually more virulent.

Famine

Today’s War & Black Horse

When Jesus himself gave the greatest prophecy of all time in the book of Matthew chapter 24, he mentioned the spiritual indicators that would forewarn his return. It is absolutely apparent that in that central prophecy the Lord foretold the coming of the beginning of birthpains that would present, among other things, earthquakes and famine. He unambiguously said, ‘Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places (Matt 24:7)’. Notwithstanding in this prophecy, the only way to unlock the spiritual positioning of the effects of these wars between nations, earthquakes and famines, would be by the revelation of the Holy Spirit concerning them in the book of revelation chapter 6. We have seen that when the Lamb of God opens the second seal, the second living creature that looks like an ox, sets free the RED HORSE. In this prophecy, the Lord himself refers to the onset of wars in which one nation would fight another. Even since the release of the RED HORSE was pronounced, the earth has witnessed a horrendous form of bloodshed to the extent that the entire global population is almost becoming numb to bloodletting. The war in Iraq, the war in Afghanistan, the war in somali, the war in Democratic Republic of Congo, the post-election violence in Kenya, the Xenophobia bloodshed in South Africa, the North Korean nuclear crisis, the upsurge of nuclear war to Iran, the bloodshed in Sri Lanka, and the list goes on and on. And we intentionally note that the effects of war have caused large sections of populations to migrate from their homelands hence being rendered refugees in foreign lands. The global refugee situation has now exploded to the surface upto the point at which the EU, the US, today hold joint conferences to discuss the global refugee crisis and human migration. This can only mean that instead of these people setting and getting involved in agricultural food production, large numbers of otherwise able people are rendered refugees and dependent on food handouts, either from the World Food Programmes (WFP), or the native host nations. This in itself acts as a trigger to escalate the famine that has thus been unleashed by the HORSEMEN of the BLACK APOCALYPSE HORSE. The fact that adults and young men engage in active war as we can today see in somali, Sri Lanka, Democratic Republic of Congo, can only aggravate the effects of the rider of this BLACK APOCALYPSE HORSE. In such wars, able people are forced to exchange their hard-earned foods, either from agriculture farming, harvesting, and processing, which are processes that largely require stability and sedentary human order; these processes are literally grounded to exist in a complete halt because of the lack of peace.

Therefore, the way that God Almighty intended in Matthew chapter 24 verse 7, people would be removed from active farming hence reducing food production. However, what is even most astonishing about this dispensation of the BLACK HORSE, is that Jesus literally referred to the onset of FAMINES and not a single FAMINE. This confounds many famines that would have transpired the surface of the earth. Many times God Almighty employs adversity in order to bring mankind back to his will. Among adversaries Jehovah has used, war has featured very prominently as a means of inducing famines. In those famines, God Almighty intended to remove Israel from her fatal comfort and cause them to turn to him. And because God does not change, the same would have to afflict this post-modern world too, as it did Israel; ‘If the Lord doth not change. So you, O descendants of Jacob, are not destroyed (Mal 3:6).

God Almighty always intended that great famines be employed to reverse the corruption in the church and the land. And that is the reason that now in this dispensation of the last hour, greater war-induced FAMINE has finally befallen the earth. We can remember too well the great famine that engulfed Judah following the besiege of the land by the Assyrian army. Even in the greatest of this ravaging global FAMINE, God will for sure protect his elect that have chosen the path of holiness and righteousness.

The poorest of the poor will finally and desperately lay down in safety. But your root I will destroy by famine; it will slay your survivors (Isa 16:8).

The effects of war that the rider of the black horse brings onto the earth, can only help to further confound the great devastation of FAMINE that the APOCALYPTIC BLACK HORSE imposes on the earth. And because cyclical and repetitive FAMINES are caused by disrupted human settlements, wars have hence today become a main contributor of hunger and FAMINE in several places across the globe. It is amazing that the advent of the release of the APOCALYPTIC BLACK HORSE is now causing the world to look at WARS differently. In fact, one would courageously say that the WARS that plague the earth today are in essence a disguised form of FAMINE which is covered with a veil of evil. That is the reason that the world faces extreme starvation due to dwindling food supplies and increased food prices.

A Record One Billion Hungry

It is suffice to say, that pictures of bloated bellies of African children are today common scenes in the global news networks. Even skeletal people are currently being exhibited across the global news channels. It is no doubt that even after the fulfillment of the August 23rd-24th 2008 prophecy of the BLACK APOCALYPTIC HORSE, and the corresponding collapse of most global economies, the quality of human life on earth has deteriorated.

On September 22nd 2009, the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization (UN-FAO) revealed an alarming statistic on the state of human welfare across the earth. In that report, the UN-FAO reports that in this year 2009, a record 1 billion people are going to be registered as hungry and severely malnourished.

Such malnourishment the report says, will result into reduced productivity as the undernourished people succumb to severe disease infections. If there was any place at which to clearly envisage the real multiplier effects of the BLACK APOCALYPTIC HORSE, then it would be here. This is because the devastating effects of hunger, malnourishment, and disease can only help to further diminish the economic productivity of the already dwindling human workforce. For that matter, the ultimate realization is a multiplier effect whose bottomline is global economic downturn and FAMINE. To make matter worse, WARS that have now become a common scene across the globe, have left a trail of lessons to learn. The 1994 genocide in Rwanda for example, affected northern Rwanda which is, as a matter of fact, considered the bread basket of Rwanda. If the nation of Rwanda were a classroom in which the world should sit and learn from the effects of WAR, then surely it could be summarized as “WAR”, is in essence a dragnet whose “fangs” are the WARS that WARS can be stopped by peace treaties, FAMINES that follow them tend to be more widespread and uncontrollably deadly. The other example at which today we can see this clearly is the Rift-Valley. In what began as a simple disputed December 2007 election results, it all mutated into a huge widespread post-election violence and inter-ethnic WAR. Whereas one could easily see that the effects of the infinitely violent violence consumed the entire country, it becomes more accurate though, to pinpoint that it indeed mostly affected the Rift-Valley. But unfortunately it is this mostly affected Rift-Valley that has always been the bread basket of Kenya. With most of the farming community finally displaced into the Internally Displaced People (IDP) camps, agricultural food production was literally brought to a complete halt. As a result, it was reported that WAR, Kenya is today one of the countries most ravaged by hunger and FAMINE. Tragic tales of war-induced FAMINES of this nature are today repeating themselves across the earth and the situation is getting even worse. Nobody can forget the horrendous FAMINE that has visited Haiti, with its consequent social unrest and upheaval in that nation. Not only have the WARS impeded food production, but also it has led to massive starvation of mankind when it affects the distribution of food from areas of surplus in production to areas of deficit and scarcity. As the rider of the BLACK HORSE continues to race up and down the earth, crucifying one nation after the other. Evidence has it that this problem of food distribution from surplus to scarcity is going to become the most complicated. The war in Somalia that has now birthed out pirates in the high seas, is one example that helps to explain just how critical the problem of food distribution is going to become in this last hour before Rapture. In fact, the escalation of the problem in food distribution, is what ultimately fulfills the prophecy when the voice from among the four living creatures said “A quart of wheat for a day’s wages and three quarts of barley for a denarius”. That is because the failure to distribute food from areas of surplus to those who have starved has escalated food prices in deficit areas and trigger a hyper inflation up and down the earth, crisscrossing various places”, as the beginning of birth pangs dwams. This essentially denoted that when the advent of his return would draw nigh, there would not only be the onset of many FAMINES in different places, but also several repeating cycles of devastating FAMINES across the earth. Moreover, a fastidious appraisal of this central Mt. of Olives prophecy, beautifully unveils a greater insight into what exactly the LORD meant, when he referred to various places’. In a practical sense, the LORD Jesus was actually referring to such FAMINES occurring in many places with an increasing frequency across the whole wide world. And rightfully said, the LORD was already forewarning then, that many nations would be severely affected by this food shortage, and yet not all places would be afflicted. That was the main reason as to why right before His most awaited return in the Rapture. This absolutely presupposes the sudden explosion of hideous famine conditions and its corresponding ghastly hyper inflation on food prices, within the designated areas of scarcity. The irony though is that while all this is supposed to be happening across the globe, the LORD highlighted that there would be, on the contrary, certain patched areas in which a nomalcy would prevail with an excessive food surplus.

Quart of Wheat

In that Matthew chapter 24 Olivet prophecy, Jesus most assiduously committed his disciples that; “there would be earthquakes and famines in various places”, as the beginning of birth pangs dwams. This essentially denoted that when the advent of his return would draw nigh, there would not only be the onset of many FAMINES in different places, but also several repeating cycles of devastating FAMINES across the earth. Moreover, a fastidious appraisal of this central Mt. of Olives prophecy, beautifully unveils a greater insight into what exactly the LORD meant, when he referred to various places’. In a practical sense, the LORD Jesus was actually referring to such FAMINES occurring in many places with an increasing frequency across the whole wide world. And rightfully said, the LORD was already forewarning then, that many nations would be severely affected by this food shortage, and yet not all places would be afflicted. That was the main reason as to why

Poverty...

Stunningly enough, when the Lamb broke open the third seal, the rider of the BLACK APOCALYPTIC HORSE was released and fanatically charged towards the earth with such an impatience that greatly foreordained the grievous damage he was just about to inflict. What even most defined the gruesome stature of his derring-do mission, is none other than the dramatic events that suddenly unfolded in heaven at the time of his release. It all began with the voice of God Almighty emerging from among the four living creatures and strictly assigning this ruthless rider of the BLACK HORSE to exorbitantly re-price the cost of the most basic of food items on earth. In that monologue, Jehovah God gave a stern charge to this third horseman to ensure that one quart of wheat goes for an entire day’s wage, while three quarts of barley be priced for a day’s wage. This is what greatly发烧ened of the huge food calamity that was just about to befell the unsuspecting households, worldwide. Because of the extended nature of the household in the Hebrew setting, a normal unit was often inhabited by an average of twelve people. When the man, as the head of the household, always went out to labour, he brought home sufficient foodstuffs to feed the entire family. And since a quart basically defines a single unit of measurement of cereal that approximates nothing more than two pints, then one can only imagine the level of distress that this pitiless rider of the BLACK HORSE was commanded to reign on today’s subsistence households. God was instructing this third horseman of the APOCALYPTIC to literally stir-up a very acute shortage of cereals across the earth. The world the way

Mixing barley...

Operating within the backdrop of the first two horsemen of deception, and the third horseman of the APOCALYPTIC essentially defines a new spectrum of human misery and suffering. At the time of his release, the rider of the BLACK HORSE is bestowed with enough authority, power, and the tools with which to vanquish mankind in his ordained task. Going by the current WARS that have today plagued nations, this rider of the BLACK APOCALYPTIC HORSE finds himself released in an environment in which food production is already compromised by the effects of WAR. And yet, the callowness of man’s heart following the great sell-out to the WHITE HORSE of deception, can only aggravate the situation as traders dishonestly exaggerate the food scarcity. Under these circumstances of dire strait, it is hence not uncommon to find that the poor families are the ones hardest hit by the economic realities. In the ancient Hebrew order, the only way in which poor households extricated from horrendous food scarcity, was by capitalizing on the cheaper barley. How much more then will households be distressed to settle for the less nutritious commodities in this most horrific desperation of the BLACK HORSE. The reason for which at the release of the BLACK HORSE, the LORD commands three quarts of barley for a day’s wages, is because that cereal is of lower nutritional value than wheat. Among the worst of these, a food scarcity manifested in the land, the poor households would take a quart of wheat and mix with three quarts or more of the lesser nutritional barley, in order to increase the food supply across the globe, which the less privileged in the society provided for their households. And one can only imagine how much that is going to reply itself at a much higher amplitude during this current APOCALYPTIC FAMINE. In rural Africa today, the situation has already gone out of hand, to the point that large numbers of people have started to die, ever since the

Kenya 2009 drought

in his language he employed the catch phrase ‘in various places’. At this particular place, the Olivet prophecy basically construed that there would be areas of food scarcity and areas of food surplus (plenty). In principal, this would then greatly exacerbate the effects of the BLACK HORSE since it practically enacts the onset of repetitive occurrences of FAMINES in places, in this most crucial designation. The LORD clearly expounded on this FAMINE prophecy to the extent that the FAMINES he referred to, would rapidly accelerate across the globe, thereby we know it, operates in such a way that anything adverse touching on food security as appertains to cereals, would most certainly yield an agonizing anguish, because it clearly threatens the livelihood of entire households. In other words, the level of malnourishment that the rider of this BLACK HORSE was authorized to reign-in on man, would have to be historic. This is because a quart of wheat, is more than one person’s meal a day. It is for which reason, estimates place the price-tags for food items in this BLACK HORSE distress, as being twelve-fold the norm. A price designation of this kind, clearly sets the stage for a dire state of hyper inflation, in which everything goes haywire. The resulting utter social upheaval therein, notwithstanding.

Kenya 2009 famine

release of this hardheaded rider of the BLACK HORSE of the APOCALYPSE. For those households that are still surviving in the most famine-hit rural Africa, the food scarcity has intensified to the point that people are not eating even wild berries. The refraining effects of adversity with which the rider of the BLACK HORSE subdues man, is what is most humbling. In this dispensation, this third HORSEMAN of the APOCALYPSE has indeed exploited DOOMSDAY to the point that, not only men have died, but also together with their animals. The situation has gotten very bad that as the animals die from thirst, mankind is left with no source of livelihood at all. In those famine-stricken neighbourhoods, for any household to even strive for a quart of cereals, it has become a nightmare. This is because the rider of the BLACK HORSE of the APOCALYPSE has literally hiked the price of maize, millet, sorghum and rice to the point that they have soared through the roof. And that can only mean that it is out of reach for the majority of these poor households. In these kinds of circumstances, it becomes a great privilege for a household to even afford quantities of the low-nutritional sorghum. What used to be the tradition at scarcity, as people mixed small amounts of maize with relatively larger quantities of sorghum, has since faded away as families remain bare-handed, having lost all their crops and livestock. Many households have been rendered by the rider of this massive BLACK HORSE of the APOCALYPSE, to the extent that many affected people today sit awaiting for either a miracle, or a meal. And because of this phenomenal level of abhorrent distress, brought about by the rider of the BLACK HORSE, most households today cannot even afford their daily normal basal nutritional requirements. It is a sad situation that has now greatly reduced the quality of today’s workforce and hence impeded economic productivity per capita, and especially in the third world countries.

Oil and Wine

Just when one thought that the release of the third APOCALYPTIC HORSEMAN would have followed the normal sequence of events as did that of his two predecessors, then suddenly came the most dreadful voice of God Almighty desperately yelling for man’s salvation. The loud cry and great clamour that unexpectedly rocked the LORD’s throne, pleading for the safeguards of man’s wellbeing, is what would particularly astonish to the verge of futility. The stringent directive that the rider of this BLACK HORSE of the APOCALYPSE has been giving, greatly underscored the eminent danger of depletion that looms in this dispensation. That instruction read in part:

... and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine (Rev 6:6).

In that most important prophecy that Jesus gave to the church while seated on the Mt. of Olives, he referred to the appearance of a scathing famine that would occasion such distress. The LORD used this phrase to intimate that whereas the majority of the nations would experience the unforegoing scourge of endless famine, there would be pockets of plenty. It is vividly clear that in the more humble famine-stricken regions of the earth, there would be a scramble for survival as households barely make it with their wages. Among these poor and heavily starved upon a shoestring the preoccupation of the breadwinner would be to secure some little wheat and barley that their loved ones may not be wiped out by famine. It is the reason God Almighty loudly exclaimed to the rider of the BLACK APOCALYPTIC HORSE saying, ‘a measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny...’ It is incredible that upon passing this rigorous command onto the third HORSEMAN of the APOCALYPSE, God Almighty turned around and instructed him to safeguard the oil and the wine. In biblical context, while the poor craved for basic sustenance through wheat and barley, the wealthy always lusted themselves in oil and wine. Therefore, the oil and wine mentioned here in the book of Revelation chapter 6 verse 6, distinctly symbolizes areas of food plenty. It is the reason why the LORD Jesus in that Mt. of Olives prophecy, definitely presented that there would be famines in various places, entailing not all places.

Cheese and Oil

In order to clearly comprehend the instruction of the LORD onto the church at this most critical hour regarding the command to ‘NOT HURT’ the oil and the wine, it is prudent that Christians understand the underlying basis within which the LORD made reference. Among the Israelites, it was common practice for the Hebrew people to live in structured communities. The wealthier often built their houses on the hills from where they had a panoramic view of the entire landscape as did they enjoyed an exclusive separation. The flourishing livestock was normally trashed into the valleys that demarcated the affluent hills. And it goes without saying that the majority poor always dwelt within the mountain valleys. Likewise, there was a clear distinction between the feeding habits of the rich and the poor. The poor heavily relied on the pita bread that was carefully baked by placing yeast dough on a hot-curved stone, as the main component. The rich however, mainly depended on a selection of carefully-processed rich cheese that was delicately processed to their taste. Cheese was considered an upscale entree into anyone’s menu at that time because of the inherent scarcities of the moment. Additionally, it was customary for the well-to-do to maintain sufficient stocks of the most treasured olive oil. No meal was complete without the presence of a top selection of wine being served at the table. Such wine had to come from well established vineyards whose quality records had been well-tested over time. And hence, the main meal among the well-off included the central course which was largely constituted of cheese that had been well-soaked in fine olive oil for a considerable amount of time. The process of soaking the cheese in the olive oil, had to strike a delicate threshold at which the cheese was fully and optimally drenched with the oil. At table though, as the cheese was scooped from the oil unto the platters, it carried with itself a significant amount of fine olive oil. At a glance, was a characteristic picture of the olive oil surrounding the cheese on the plate. But, it is the manner at which the cheese was eaten, that spoke about their affluent class. The freshly baked hot pita bread would be served at the table under a bread cloth that ensured it was preserved hot. Eating the cheese involved breaking a piece of the pita bread, and using it to scoop a piece of cheese; but, it always carried with it a significant amount of oil that equally soaked the pita bread to softness. Any meats that were served at that table would be, but side dishes. In this way therefore, the wealthy always had cheese and wine at their table. It became a symbol of plenty in that society.

Not hurting it...

Symbolically then, when the LORD God Almighty released the third HORSEMAN of the APOCALYPSE across the four ends of the earth, He essentially smit the earth with such a historic famine. The scarcity that this famine would birth out, had to be that of monumental proportions as food prices sky-rocketed twelve-fold. However, Jehovah on the other hand, expressly gave strict instructions and always betokens the flow of the anointing of the Holy Spirit. And the wine constantly strengthens the power of the anointing of the Holy Spirit that then emerges very clearly that when God Almighty instructed the rider of the BLACK HORSE to safeguard and not hurt the oil and the wine at this last hour prior to capture, he implicitly referred to those christians that have received the latter and most promised anointing of the Holy Spirit. The LORD had earlier on forewarned in the scripture, that in the last days prior to the return of the Messiah, there would be two kinds of zones across the earth. God Almighty hinted on the fact that the earth would live to see areas of great spiritual hunger and famine at which people would be running around not for physical bread and water, but in search of the true word of God.

13The days are coming, declares the Sovereign LORD, when I will send a famine through the land—not a famine of food or a thirst for water, but a famine of hearing the words of the LORD. 14Men will stagger from sea to sea and wander from north to east, searching for the word of the LORD, but they will not find it (Amos 8:11-12).

The LORD forewarned that this endtime spiritual hunger for the word would be so intense because the word of God will have become very rare and hidden to man. And like it is written, ‘When they fail to access the TRUE LIVING BREAD (word of God), would spiritually die and perish due to starvation. And all this would be orchestrated by a tremendous spiritual DOOMSDAY in which areas of scarcity would experience extreme thirst for the life-giving living waters of the Holy Spirit. Visions would be rare in those hunger-stricken spiritual regions, to the extent that the church would be both desolate and lost. On the other hand, God Almighty promised that there would be areas of extreme spirituality in which a magnificent most powerful endtime revival would be throbbing. In such areas of plenty, there would be bread, no thirst nor hunger because the fresh TRUE LIVING BREAD (word of God) from heaven would cover their tables as the latter anointing of the Holy Spirit flows in the church. Christians that would find themselves in these areas of perpetual spiritual plenty are the ones that constitute God’s own elect. The LORD comes out with such a stunning cry and yell to this third APOCALYPTIC HORSEMAN, for the safeguarding and protection of His own elect that dwell in the land of spiritual oil and wine. In other words, when the rider of the BLACK APOCALYPTIC HORSE ferociously charges towards the earth with such an unmatchable impunity; God Almighty steps out and orders him to ensure that He ‘hurts not’ those christians who have received the Holy Spirit. These are the believers that live in the land of endtime revival of the Holy Ghost. God Almighty would also ensure that His elect do not starve both physically when the material famine inflicts the earth with food scarcity, and spiritually when apostasy of the last days befalls the church (2 Tim 3). It is indubitably indicating that the spiritual happenings in the church today, against this fulfilled prophecy of the release of the BLACK HORSE. The church of Christ today has been split into two bodies; with one part experiencing the fullness of the anointing in her entire history, while the other is over-indulging in the excesses of a phenomenal outpour of the latter oil and wine. Such a mighty endtime anointing of the Holy Spirit was long predicted and promised in the book of Joel chapter 2 verse 28 to 32;

And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit, and your young men shall see visions, your old men shall dream shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and smoke out of the earth, and the moon shall be turned into blood, and the sun shall be turned into smoke out of the earth, and the sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD come. And it shall come to pass, that whoever shall call upon the name of the LORD shall be delivered: as Hosea hath said, They that are operational. As described by the realms. By carrying a pair of L...the way without unto the utter waters on the right side. And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured four thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ankle. He measured four thousand; and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knee. He measured four thousand; and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the thigh. He measured four thousand; and he brought me through the waters; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that I could not pass over. And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? And he brought me and caused me to return to the brink of the river (Eze 47:1-6).

Safeguarding oil

The spirit-filled church of Christ of this hour, will have practically lacked the spiritual food and fellowship with the church. In such a spiritual poverty at which their lives are begging for just a little bit to keep her lamp on. But the wise virgins totally dwelled and delved in such a spiritual plenty at which their lives literally thrive in the midst of the most horrendous FAMINE. By the nature of God’s own instruction to FARMER, when he encounters the revival church of the Holy Spirit, he safeguards their integrity for the L ORD, and to safeguard his very own life. The use, the oil and the wine reflect that there will be pockets of plenty in the midst of the most horrendous FAMINE in the church. Christ’s reference to FARMERS in various places suggested that there would be other places that would simply lack the bread of heaven, and would hence separated from the world. The evidence of this separation can only be reflected in the most important fruit of the Holy Spirit; the fear of the LORD. Even Jesus himself signified the fear of the LORD as his disciples, after the resurrection, draws nigh, the church would split into two. One part of his body would be constituted by the foolish virgins, while the other made up of the wise and prudent church. The wise church enters into the wedding feast of the Lamb because she is seeing a carrying a jar of oil of which figuratively stands for the latter anointing of the Holy Spirit. As the midnight hour draws nearer, the church that is represented by the foolish virgins is facing the day of the Lord as a severe drought, famine and acute shortage of the oil, to the extent that she goes around begging for just a little bit to keep her lamp on. But the wise virgins totally dwelled and delved in such a spiritual plenty at which their lives literally thrive in the midst of the most horrendous scarcity on earth, and when God the Father instructed the rider of the BLACK HORSE to safeguard those living in the land of oil and wine, it is clear that Jesus himself, as a farmer shows determined that the oil of the wise church would be safeguarded from plunder by the imprudent church. The LORD himself knew that the unwise church who has from the beginning lacked the fear of the L ORD, would try to rush and squander the most precious oil of the wise church, in a plundering spree. Unfortunately for the foolish church, it is God the Father that designates those to live in every region and city can be found in his age-old criterion of holiness, harmlessness of heart, and the fear of the LORD. The divine protection by God Himself, from widespread plunder, is what causes the wise virgins to rejoice because of the money request of the imprudent church, for a little share. The revival church of this hour should therefore be very watchful and take careful custody of their bounteous spiritual supply in the midst of this acute FAMINE.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. ‘And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.’ While the bridegroom tarried, they took their lamps and went forth to meet him: ‘And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. ’ When all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. ‘And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. ’ But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for both us and you: ‘And they said one to another, My lamp is failing, and there is no oil in my vessel; go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. ’ ‘And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. ’

The church to which Jehovah is going to pour out his spirit, it is a church with a quart of wheat for a day’s wages, and three quarts of barley for a day’s wages, is a church that is in sin. She falls in sin because she is deficient in understanding the treasure of the knowledge of God, an anointing that the Holy Ghost of God has given her heart. And because she fails to shun evil, she surely remains for a long time in a dark space, in the absence of understanding (Job 28:28). On the grounds that she lacked the fear of the Lord, the imprudent church continues in sin because of having been totally deceived by the rider of the first APOCALYPTIC HORSEMANS that rides the WHITE HORSE. It is the deception arising from the rider of the WHITE HORSE causes that falsehood to consume this church, hence deliver her from the spiritual provision of God Almighty. That is how she ends up into such a monumental spiritual hunger of her lifetime. The rider of the WHITE HORSE, shows how then does she expect to enter into the spiritual kingdom of God? Most churches today are unfortunately caught up in this quart of wheat for a day’s wages, a situation that has caused them to face extreme spiritual starvation, hunger and famine. And in their failure to genuinely seek the face of God as a lasting remedy, it is so sad that many nominally chartered churches have resulted to a hyped-up fallaciousness in which they are selling and buying oil from one another. It is the Holy Spirit who dwells in the holy christians, that emits the Least of the word (Matt 25:13-14). For as long as the Holy Spirit lives inside the holy christians who walk in the fear of the L ORD, the person of the antichrist and his horrific deception will always be held back. But such a church that houses the Holy Spirit in their bodies, is raptured then no one will be left to subdue and restrain the antichrist, hence he will be unleashed for a full scale of tribulation on the earth. Given that Jesus overcame death and the hades, it now makes perfect sense as to why in that July 29th 2009 vision at which the L ORD showed me the church of the end of the earth, pitch darkness was following him very close. We know today that the rider of the PALE HORSE is named death and hades follows him closely. Therefore, the only way death can can exterminate the riders of the PALE HORSE that collects the victims, is when the Holy Spirit that carries the Spirit of Christ has been lifted up into heaven. And the only time when the Holy Spirit, who is the Spirit of grace, will be taken away is at rapture when the church which is the Temple of the Holy Ghost will have been snatched away;

For the secret power of lawlessness already exists, but the one who now holds it back will continue to do till he is taken out of the way (2 Thess 2:7).

The fall of the last days is the most tragic in the entire history of the church of Christ. This is because it can be seen as a form of spiritual death to the level that the church experiences a severe desolation that can only be described as a death. But such a death of the anointing of the Holy Spirit does not merely refer to the church s behaviour without notice. Even in the biblical times, many deliverents and sign first encroached into the church gradually before the grand fall. It is therefore the steady purity and loss of the revival church every day acts as an indicator of a looming spiritual desolation. And yet, the oil and the wine that the L ORD celebrates as he sets free the rider of the BLACK HORSE, typically eulogizes the last revival of the Holy Ghost in which multitudes will return to Jesus and be restored in the endtime harvest. It is true that today many believers are running halter-skelter from church to church in search for greener pastures. It has become commonplace for believers to observe Christians visiting a new church every Sunday as they look for where the true word is being preached without the contamination of money and prosperity. A great thirst of a unique natural reigns in their hearts creating such a hollow void that they will always long to be satiated with the TRUE BREAD (Holy Word). And by the way, nothing else can quench that thirst except a true worship in the true spirit and truth of the word and worship the L ORD without stopping, followed by a genuine preaching of the word regarding salvation, the Blood, the Cross, righteousness, holiness, repentance, the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Messiah. There is indeed a tremendous spiritual FARMING of the word and its revelation, cutting across to the entire globe. Preachers too have today expressed this same complaint with such an enormous longing to be restored, and be spiritually nourished because it has finally dawned on them that as they now preach and under the sun, it is an abomination before the L ORD. An abomination by virtue of the fact that they are the teachers of the law and hence lead many people into eternal damnation. This dispensation has become so critical to the point of terrible fall within the priesthood to the extent that pastors have even purchased dog tags’ engraved with the L ORD’s prayer. This level of repugnancy gets worse a notch lower by the fact that it is the L ORD himself who will purchase those blasphemous dog tags. And this has been aired openly on global christian television. The church of Christ has not bothered to safeguard the anointing of the Holy Spirit even though it is far too familiar with the fact that in these last days there is an extreme spiritual hunger and FARMING, worldover. The latter anointing of this hour is most

Repetition & Holiness Matters
God’s Elect

The way in which the prophecy on the coming rapture of the church rapidly fulfilled definitely reveals a greater sense of urgency that right now prevails at the throne of God. Predicted on the August 23rd 2008 will happen within the holiest hours around midnight that will consist of the most historic events occurring in the spiritual realm. This rapture of the church as the rider of the black horse as the church about whom he says, ‘The vision of the rider on the black horse is the vision of the church’ (Revel 1:13). Furthermore, the first sin that man committed on December 21 2012, 10:11 AM will happen when the manger baby Jesus will be born. It also became the greatest moment of intellectual disarmament when human wisdom acknowledged defeat. Whereas the market forces may have been fluctuating up and down within the market place in order to uphold man’s prosperity, on that fateful day the earth woke to the realization that truly there must have been a higher being in market sustenance. Owing to man’s rebellion he realized that he had reigned in a place that had well hinged itself on financial and monetary prosperity, God Almighty of heaven abandoned the marketplace, and precisely handed over the global economy into the hands of this reckless rider of the black horse. The global financial markets then surely landed in the hands of this wild black horse that immediately alone created an economic nightmare. It literally turned into a horrific ‘ECONOMIC HOLOCAUST’ of all time, when all the stock markets were wiped out of the face of the earth. The pair of scales that the rider of the black horse held in his hands, strongly suggests that in this wave of devastation across the earth, God was not only going to shake the global economies of man, but even much more. He was also intent in warning the world of righteous deeds of mankind in such a way that only those deeds were worthy enough to tip the balance, would be spared the horrendous agony. It must be remembered that as scripture says, that only those in Saudis, who are worthy, having not soiled their white garments, will walk with the Lamb on that day. The worthy entitles the holy elect of God. Listening to the strict orders with which God was going to execute this black horse at the time of its release, that he would look for the oil-worthiness and the wine-worthiness, of men, in order to safeguard them from the implacable calamity. When Christians receive the Holy Spirit, he gradually infills them to the extent that they become worthy, because he principally converts them into mere vessels only whose importance is the treasured content contained therein.

And such a Holy Spirit-filled believer then becomes the oil-worship church through whom the sacred anointing oil of the Holy Spirit can now luminously flow. It is the protection of these oil-worthily elect that God Almighty greatly deliberated on, at the release of this feral HORSEMAN. The oil-worship church is a often that prudent church who lives in the absolute fear of the Lord in these last days right prior to rapture. This holy spiritual protection is demonstrated by the five wise virgins who were spirit-filled and hence spirit-transformed. A spirit-transformed believer is one in whom victory over the flesh has been fully realized, since the actions of the sinful desires of the flesh have now been obliterated in such a people. A church of that order normally becomes fully conformed to the heavenly realm through the holy works of the Holy Spirit, whose radiant Light she will be indubitably blazing with the gross darkness hour that dawns this dispensation. Even as the pitch spiritual darkness of today continues to colonize the ends of the earth, such oil-worshippers will often depend on the wine-strength of the anointing to overcome the challenge of the hour. It is amazing that the economic downturn has taken several dimensions including the worldwide record unemployment that the market has now entered to near hopelessness, and the famine that is humiliating human civilization of this age. An economic ‘avalanche’ of this rank has surely never visited the earth before, given the tremendous leap in information technology and financial management of the day. It is fearful to even envisage that this classic melodrama is only going to deepens the already ever growing crisis, following the UN General Assembly and Security Council Meetings of September 2009, the G20 Summit that convened in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania, for the first time in the history of the world, such a group of leaders gathered together under the G8 in order to stem the global recession. It has now become the preoccupation of all nations, hence the concerted effort. But even as they do this, it is incumbent upon all to observe the subterraneous and the subsequent lack of godliness with which they are going about this. Little have they known that there is a HORSEMAN who is currently seated on the most terrible BLACK HORSE, and pacing with the economics in his hands, across the four ends of the earth. This global anguish over food, water, housing, employment, financial market, loss of pension funds, and their related rates of suicide, is consistent with the forecast that foresees the greatest distress ever, visiting the nations right before rapture. Be that as it may, the Lord promises that in the midst of that quagmire, his people, anyone whose name will be found written in the book, would be delivered (Daniel 12:1). Those whose names will be found written in the book, are God’s own elect church about whom he proclaimed such a massive armour of safeguard as he preserves the oil and wine, during the release of the third HORSEMAN. It is this church that finally enters into the most honoured and anticipated wedding of the Lamb. But who exactly are those that God Almighty may be so fond of as to be able to call ‘his people’. The Holy Spirit who is the ultimate revelator, has gone on biblical record to celebrate the peculiarity of these elect people, in the same manner that the church whom the Lord honours as ‘his people’, is a remarkably well refined and purified group of christians.

“Awaake, O sword, against My Shepherd, Against the Man who is My Companion,” Says the Lord of hosts. "Strike the Shepherd, And the sheep will be scattered, and the sheep of My pasture, and I will smite My hand against the little ones. And I shall come to pass in all the lands, says the Lord, to utter My voice against the wicked in the land, and against those who have chosen the narrow path that leads to the kingdom of God (Matthew 7:13-14). This highway of holiness that the righteous church taws, is tapered because it is meant to cut off all the excesses of this world. In Zechariah 13:7-9, God Almighty describes that elect church as the one-third that has still to be further reduced by the refining fire of the Holy Spirit. It is a remnant church that is heavily fortified from today’s global economic downturn. Daniel’s accurate depiction of an anguish ...as has not happened since the beginning of nations until then... meant exactly such a humongous distress that would have to require God’s divine intervention for anyone to survive it. It is such a nose-dive that has today virtually affected every nation and everyone on the earth. Albeit, what will count most in the midst of all this on going purge, is the spiritual message that it is intended to relay towards the coming of the MESSIAH. It is often very easy for people to be caught up in the pains, and forget the true gist of the completion. The truth is that the release of the third HORSEMAN with his painful manifestations is meant to be a last and final call to the church that she may wake up from the slumber of worldliness, and prepare for rapture.

The WEDDING WINE AT CANA

In the beginning

The weak human form cannot overcome the relentless challenges of the world on its own, thereby explicitly proclaiming man’s total dependence on the Holy Spirit. God’s original plan for the church, intended prosperity that spiritually embraces her most prized heavenly heritage. When Adam squandered the offering freely given to him, and was banished to paradise, it became the biggest icon yet that prosperity was going to be disturbed. This caydonality pointed towards the fact that down-the-line prosperity was going to become the biggest source of disobedience that would ever thwart the man’s greatest obstacle for entry into heaven. As Adam plundered God’s treasured prosperity for personal selfish ends, he immediately lost heavenly connection and tragically came face-to-face-to the flaming sword of God. The sword that descended did not only strike the ground at the garden of Eden, signifies the judgment of God against sin. The symbolic butcher-style back and forth brandishing of the sword to emit flaming flashes, impeccably demonstrated God’s greatest displeasure with the embezzlement that man had suddenly committed. As a matter of fact, this sword that was now coming to butcher mankind and the land, to a greater degree allusioned that the cup of God’s wrath was overflowing. On the grounds that man fell to sin, he inevitably got caught up in that same sin of double-speak that the LORD, that integrated death and pain into man’s lifestyle. This just underlines how much God Almighty hates the fraud of misappropriation that had now impinged man’s existence. Interestingly, the first sin that man fell to, is that of squandering God’s blessing of prosperity to man’s personal earthly gain. It is this very prosperity-induced insubordination that today threatens to keep the church eternally away from rapture. The severity of the sin of noncompliance was on that day well verified when God Almighty brought in the most revered part of his throne, to tackle defiant mankind.

After he drove the man out, he placed on the east side [a] of the Garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life (Genesis 3:24). Death and pain then unfortunately befell in a manner that surely befit man’s disloyalty to God, thereby spurring God Almighty to take action right from the onset. The thistles and thorns that God eminently proclaimed upon the earth, certainly flower-sented of the pains man was going to incur from that moment on. Restoring the church back to her most esteemed spiritual wilderness state, is the most certain entail the dignified amelioration of the gifts of the Holy Spirit in the house. A lot is right now at stake in the house of the LORD, especially given that the house has now veered into the stretch of her home-run towards rapture. Consequently, any spiritual refurbishing that may occur in the church, between now and rapture, must only come from the most pledged latter outpour (Joel 2:28-34). Even in the advent of that vouchcd visitation of the Holy Spirit, only ardent christians though, will appreciate the oil and the wine the rider of the black horse was instructed to preserve and its import on endtime revival. This is squarely because the last revival transcends beyond the physical realm as it focuses on the souls of the devout holy saints. Only the spiritually enlightened though, will be able to catch a glimpse of the enormity of the endtime events and what exactly the rider of the black horse wants to deliver from the brink of delusion of this age. Moreover, the rider of the black horse was aware that the white horseman had emerged victorious by finally provoking the current controversy between the Lord and church. And for God to have warned that this is indeed one of that deception, two men would be working in the field, and he would only capture one, the conquest by the white horseman must have been monumental. Likewise, the Lord promised that due to the falsehood and the extreme fraudulence of mankind, two women would be grinding at a mill, and only one would be raptured. Correspondingly, the rider of the black apocalyptic horse was also instructed to bring famine on one section of the populace, while protecting the other that symbolize the oil and the wine; in an act that could only escalate the split in the church. We know that when God Almighty proclaims ‘oil’, He always refers to the flow of the anointing of the Holy Spirit. And yet, in the same token when Jeremiah mentions ‘wine’, He literally means the strength of that anointing.

Miracle of wine

We are reminded here of the inaugural exploit at the commencement of the indomitable ministry of our Lord Jesus. The induction of this titanic ministry of our Lord Jesus on earth, has always hit a spectacular remembrance with that momentous instance when he was invited to the wedding feast at Cana of Galilee. But regrettably for the hosts of that wedding, the wine that was being served to entertain the invited guests, suddenly ran out at the peak of the Merriment. A morose kind of distress abruptly emerged rendering people’s hearts apart at a time that ought to have been entirely jubilatory. This acute scarcity of wine instigated a very distressing scenario in the midst of this celebration, in which now the gala had to come to a complete halt on the grounds that the wine was over. In ancient Palestine, it was the role of the hosting family to endow the feast with all the required elements including wine, as the principal drink of the day. In those days, the variety of drinks were limited to mostly water and wine. Hence, wine played a very central part in entertaining guests at a celebration. And the scarcity of wine at a feast was not taken lightly at all, but rather considered a very serious offence in that society. Often times, the social ranking of the household’s standing in that era was in essence gauged by their capability to advance a lucrative hospitality to the invited guests. Therefore, falling short of offering an apt hospitality to the invited guests was deemed a grievous offence in that civilization. That is the reason why at the time of planning, every hosting family became well aware that the provision of adequate superior wine was the significant amount of time and afford sending out invitation cards to the greater society. As a result of the buzz of action that went on around the village and its precincts, the time of sending out invitation cards became the most sensitive in that countdown. Most delicate because every member of the society was in great expectation, while anxiously looking forward to receiving a formal invitation to that most anticipated wedding. Such desire to be invited to the wedding cut across the entire society encompassing the Israelite and alien immigrant communities alike. Nonetheless, this was hyped up by the increased activity of wedding preparations, as was conspicuously observable by all. To make matter worse, the more reknown the host family was, the greater the number of guests who were attracted to the wedding events even as they unfolded. Among the most crucial endeavours, the preparation of the wedding gown turned out to be the most delicately approached considering that such a garment had to match the full distinction of the D-day. As was often expected, the finer and more costly a wedding whose arrangement was unfortunately characterized by mediocrity, insignificance, non-impactiveness, callousness, effortlessness, inconspicuousness; often naturally coupled with the great attention let alone the audience that became uninterested. The invited guests to such a wedding often enjoyed an ample privilege of escape saying; “sorry, I am fully engaged with my family and cannot make it to your wedding.” Carelessly mobilized weddings normally achieved zero impact on the society, that the importance that failed the burden of proof, to outweigh the activity that people endeavored in. That meant there was not a reason significant enough for attendance.

Today’s Church: Cana showcase

During his heroic ministry on earth, there is no any one single task that Jesus did not approach in a daunting manner however formidable it may have been. That Jesus of Nazareth performed all aspects of his ministry that today’s church is preparing the church for rapture, ought to be apparent to all mankind today. It then means that literally everything Jesus ministered, be it in the synagogue, private, or public setting that today’s church has engaged in, has ultimately conferred upon her this greatest desolation ever. In showcasing the wedding at Cana, one would not fail to vividly recognize that it was not until the church is undergoing an inherent inability to entertain guests, did Jesus finally step in to salvage the ugly situation. Likewise in today’s church, a horrid kind of desolation has raised its ugly head in the house, to the extent that she is no longer even able to entertain her invited guests anymore. The bottom-line truth is that the church was raised as the mirror image of Christ Jesus on the earth, but she has not lived up to it. And that being the case for which the bible proclaims God’s creation of man as falling short of His intended glory and likeness (Genesis 1:26). Walking in that lofty spiritual lineage can only demand that the church pay host to all the nations and peoples of the earth. This is primarily purposed to bring the nations into knowledge of the Jesus of Nazareth. As God’s emblem of hosts on the earth therefore, the church must actively engage in genuine acts of service to the nations, as a host would in a wedding. Appallingly today though, even as the church has invited people into the fold of salvation, the evangelism has now posed a real challenge on the integrity of today’s Christianity itself. This is because the first wine that was poured during pentecost, has now run out at such a time when the guests are as a matter of fact already seated in the house of the Lord. Like did the scarcity of wine induce a social embarrassment of grotesque proportions; so has the absence of the Holy Spirit brought such a foul spiritual embarrassment in the present-day church. And it will only come from an open recognition and acceptance of defeat that the Holy Spirit will finally visit the house for revival. Such a public acknowledgment of the truth is what annuls all the human pride that has for a long time blocked the church from reaching her pledged endtime revival prophesies. Essentially this of no less than marking a most humble step of genuine repentance from sin. Nowonder the bible affirms that in her weakness, the church would find strength. The church’s strength is for all practical purposes God Almighty Himself. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart (Jeremiah 29:13).

Today’s church preparing for wedding

G oing by the lesson learnt at Cana, the church today ought to have emulated that sample of life. This is because in Cana, we see that a state of revival manifests in hosts families as they prepared for the wedding, to the extent that the entire society longed to be partaker of that event. But the church today, has not experienced that revival yet, which is the cause the heathen to even notice that a wedding is about behall the house. In Cana, we saw the most famous the wedding party were, the greater the prewedding activities were, and the more everyone in the society longed to be partaker of that wedding. And yet today in the church, we see that as matter of fact, she is preparing to wed the Son of Jehovah, which automatically makes her a royal bride. But then, how come the wedding preparations have not consummated across the four ends of the earth? To the extent that the entire society of the human race is going about her normal life routines unchanged, can only imply that the wedding preparations which the present church has engaged in, is falling short of engaging everyone enough to catch the attention of the world. It may also mean that the church is actually even not preparing for the wedding. This is because the kingdom to which the church is supposed to appropriate into, is a very popular and hawkened worldview. Jesus, the Perfect Groom, is known worldview as the Son of the King. And hence, how can the preparations for his wedding fail to catch the attention of the entire human race that he delivered and redeemed? This is the cross? This can only mean that, either the church is preparing very sloppily for this wedding or she is not even preparing at all. We also saw at Cana, that during but the fact that the church was truly preparing as a royal bride, the story of her wedding preparations and especially the betrothal and adornation of her wedding gown, ought to have been clear to all the church outlets globally right then. And it implies that the righteousness of her walk in this present hour ought to have been the Least of the world now. It should have been the talk of the nation. A Jewish proverb has been said, “Look how holy she is walking, and look at how righteous her ways are, because she is preparing for the wedding?” They ought to have admired the revival that is consuming her at this hour; the outpour of the Holy Spirit, the healing of the cripples, the opening of blind eyes, opening of deaf ears, healing of the mute, healing the lambs and the lepers, and all these endtime revival wedding-preparatory events, ought to have been the talk of the nations! But look, today she has actually even become unfaithful to the pre-wedding covenant that she had with her groom, on that table of last supper. But the sad part of it though, is that her unfaithfulness to her groom to be (Jesus), have become so apparent that even the heathen and the other religions are talking about her fall to sin. They are discussing her most abhorral unfaithfulness to her groom to be. How can they then long to partake of such a wedding? Given that the new wine Jesus revealed at Cana owed at its superiority to the former principally based on the fact that it had no part in the fermentation of yeast; then it is all plausible that the bible directs the church to keep the festival going allar from yeast (1 Cor 5:8). Sadly, the evangelism because one would have to have a reason sound enough to detract them from their normal routines in their cultic engagements. And because of the scarcity of the wine and the fact that the wine in Cana, the wine that was being carpeted for the whole world, was the last wine that was being carpeted for the marriage of our Lord Jesus Christ, it was essentially socially most embarrassing for the host family to suddenly run out of wine. This underlines just how vital it was that sufficient wine be available especially that these wedding lasted even up to a record seven days plus. When a household hosted a wedding, the most dreadful aspect of that whole exercise was the fear of emerging a failure, since that would most definitely be considered by the wedding guests with that unit. It was hence considered an appalling episode that closely borders on the curse, bearing in mind the smell of unpleasant stigma that would calibrate such a household. Unfortunately then, for such a people that had failed to put up a decent wedding, the stigma of resentment that emerged thereafter, would literally percolate down the fabric of the entire society. This is precisely why when the wine abruptly ran out at the Cana nuptial, an acute distress consumed the Lord to the extent that they eventually surrendered to defeat, thereby seeking the otherwise atypical divine intervention. It is absolutely obvious that for the hosts of the wedding to have sought the help of the Lord Jesus, their human capabilities had most practically succumbed. We are most publicly condemned to defeat in their human efforts, that became the biggest mark of humility that earned the village of Cana a miraculous remedy that Jesus proffered upon her life. It then transpired that this was to become the novel occasion for the Lord Jesus to perform the miracle of his ministry on earth. This the Lord did by instructing that water be poured into the six stonejars that stood in the vicinity. We cannot delve much on the symbolism accorded by the church to the wine because it has not been mentioned elsewhere. But the wine that Jesus miraculously converted into water, was the wine that is common in the eyes of the Hebrew people at Cana, it was all going to be obvious to the church that principal to it is the symbolism it bears on the wedding of the Lamb. Since JEHovah God never dwells on matters flesh, it is all apparent that the wedding at Cana bore a greater spiritual implication to the church that is relevant to today’s church. At this wedding, Jesus relayed a purely prophetic message that was pointing for directed the church towards the latter visitation of the Holy Spirit that would occur prior to his return. The Lord eloquently foretold that this form of latter anointing would highlight in the days prior to the wedding of the Lamb, except that this time around with a much greater power and authority. At the liberation of this third HORESMA of the Apocalypse, the exclamation: “AND YE ALSO WERE WANTED TO BE SOMETHING MORE WINE,” principally designated the strength of the latter anointing that needed preservation. This second outpour was designed to function at a plane over and above that at pentecost, as the rapture drew nigh. The Holy Spirit was asuring to visit the church with awesome power. However, the rationale for which the Lord wanted that prophetic anointing to be preserved, was because it offers the only prospect for the church to enter into the kingdom of God. Yet it is the process of protecting this proficient endpoint anointing that in essence comotes the separation of the elect spirit-filled church from the world.
seems here then, that God Almighty is egregiously concerned about the dangers of the world contaminating his latter most treasured glory in the church. It all boils down to the integrity of the christians in the endtime revival church, that Loyos was jealously clamouring to shield as he release of the black horse. God granted so much authority to the rider of this black horse, to cause devastation upon the life of mankind, to the extent that even the spiritual life of the church would be corrupted. Thus, for this reason, the church herself is the only thing that will normally arise from christians being caught up in doing anything to sustain their comfort during this atrocious famine. Such defiling conciliation in christian character will most definitely involve lying, fornication, and false kind of Christianity. The believers. A person who knew it too well that a compromised religious profession, having a form of godliness into lovers of money, lovers of pleasure, having a form of godliness; and the church, however bad they may seem at the moment. In the church, however bad they may seem at the moment, it can only be due to the extent that items are now being desecrated from the latter outpour of the Holy Spirit. To any impetus of the former impeachment, is the void tender that Jesus achieved over the heart. It is these adverse realities may present in the on-going economic recession; that God Almighty has percipient all this down from under the south side of the temple of the altar. He then led me through the outer gate down from under the south side of the temple of the altar. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, and is driven into dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then he goeth, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation. As the world with its sinfull desires attempts to wait the empty hearts of christians away from the truth, the Holy Spirit then comes in very handy to taint more than a timely fashioning of their hearts, while gradually revealing more and more of the Person of Christ. If there was any impetus for the shepherds of this age to teach as in the in-filling of the Holy Spirit, then this is it. More so, because of the corrupting influences of today’s post-modern spirit of the flesh Christ. It is this reality of more of Christ and the price he paid on the Cross to purchase men, that finally consumer man to totally surrendering his heart to Jesus, and completely shunning evil. That, according to the bible, is understanding: And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding (Job 28:28). This is basically the way in which the latter anointing of the Holy Spirit brings about the endtime revival across the nations, as more and more submit their lives to Jesus of Nazareth. The man brought me back to the entrance of the temple, and I saw water coming out from under the threshold of the temple, and it went out in two parts to the north and to the south. It also filled the broad valleys, and the valleys also were full of water. A river was brought forth to cleanse the temple of man. Today, it is so unfortunate that many christians live their lives in total spiritual decay without weighing the consequences thereof, of such a casual relationship with Jesus. The greatest challenge of this age will hence continue to be that of getting the shepherds to own up their sin of compromise, and come out eloquently to the sheep on the fact that the perishable will never inherit the perishable, neither will the mortal inherit the immortality. The Spirit of the Lord has been duly delegated to convert the church from her perishable apostate form, to the glorious imperishable, oil and wine, that enters the wedding of the Lamb. THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD in himself spoke about the necessity of this oil for crowning the spotless, burning towards Rapture. The Lord compared the perfect, mature, righteous and holy church that is worth rapture, to the five wise virgins that carried oil in their jars and used it to fuel the LAMPS of their salvation. The Holy Spirit is the oil for this hour in the church, in order to emit the fruit of the Spirit. That LIGHT is the LIGHT of Christ. By emitting the LIGHT of Christ, many who are distressed in the anguish of today, will inevitably admire the tranquility of the spirit-filled christians. That is the way in which the heathen would become convinced in surrendering their lives to Jesus. That JERUSALEM is the GROUND of LIGHT, who hates darkness, is obvious. No wonder in the interior of the current desolation, God commanded the priesthood to always use clear oil made out of pressed olives, to tend the LAMPS continuously from evening when the darkness sets in till morning when the daylight arrives. That can only emphasize that JERUSALEM our God desires to see the church of Christ continuously TENDING HER LAMP OF SALVATION using the anointed oil of the Holy Spirit.

J

The Lord said to Moses, “Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the LAMP so that the LAMPS may be kept burning continually. Outside the curtain of the Tent of Meeting, Aaron is to tend the LAMPS before the Lord from evening till morning, continually. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.” (The LAMPS on the pure gold Lampstand before the Lord must be tended continually (Lev. 24:1-4).)

When Spirit-filled christians shine the LIGHT of the Holy Spirit in their walk, they essentially fulfill the calling to become the LIGHT of the world. And hence attract many people to Jesus. This is what was intended as the endurance revival in the church. However desolate the church may be for this duration. Their light, however, as far as Israel in her greatest hour of anguish, is capable of converting today’s desolation into a flourishing revival of the eternity. “All the Spirit is poured upon us from on high, and the desert becomes a fertile field, and the fertile field seems like a forest.” (Isaiah 35:1.)

The spiritual beauty of it all, is that the rapture church is accorded a divine protection from God Almighty. In the midst of this global economic distress, the third HOUSBURN of the APOLLYCYPH is instructed to protect the spirit-filled elect of the Lord from plunder. That means that we are in a state of spiritual battle and plundering is a real threat. Of course the adversary would love to pilage especially from the tranquility elect. God’s protection in these days of the BLACK HORSE, is very real, both in the physical and spiritual dimension. A case in time is Israel whose economic protection the Lord has today guaranteed as an OASIS of refreshment within a hush economic desert. While many global leaders are today in panic with series of crisis meetings aimed at resolving the current global recession, the State of Israel has remained recession-proof and virtually unaffected. On the contrary, the Israeli economy has experienced a phenomenal growth of even greater strides this year, as the Israeli shekel has yet again appreciated in value against other currencies. For that to happen in the backdrop of such a harsh global financial meltdown, it must have been JERUSALEM that has been the envy of the whole world. Such a miracle can only come about as a result of the direct intervention of the God of Israel. So it is with the church that treads along the narrow path of obedience and righteousness. God Almighty who is the architect of the current grace in the economy, is able to protect his own elect with unmeasurable provision. Given that the agenda of the endtime revival was purely designed to fulfill this dispensation in the prophetic timeline towards rapture, then it is credible to catalogue it as that pledged greatest renaissance in the annals of today’s church. Fueled and driven by the Holy Spirit of JERUSALEM, then it is conceivably deducible that the momentum of such a spiritual renovation was indeed targeted at the purification and perfecting of the bride of Christ. This is the reason God sent the rider of the BLACK HORSE on that August 19th 2008, to demolish the human prosperity infrastructure that has otherwise today ramified the entire framework of the church, and overshadowed the LIGHT of Christ that she ought to project in this time of re-launching the highways of earthly prosperity that the adversary has maximally exploited to keep the church’s LAMP from emitting LIGHT and hence, off the novel highway of holiness, and yet faithfully delivering her into the decay of darkness. In the absence of such overpowering eradication of prosperity, the church will inevitably have no choice, but regain her spiritual LUMINATION and eventually be able to emit greater LIGHT that focuses her into the imperishable realm. Earnest pursuit for eternity is this. Such honest christians to thirst for more and more of the Holy Ghost out to refuel their LAMPS (1 Cor 15:50-56). In declaring his unconditional love for the church, the Lord himself tendered his unwarranted guarantee that those who would go out to seek him, can never lose him and would find his LIGHT to rekindle the LAMPS for their salvation. That is the motive for which the OURSBOURN on the BLACK HORSE was hurled onto the earth, to ravage the instruments of prosperity in the church’s lifestyle; in order to hinder the church’s progress in resuscitating the spiritual LAMPS of the church for this for this spell. It is this that separates out the endtime LUMINOUS revival church, thereof disconnecting her from the contaminating darkness of this world, while ultimately transforming her into an honourable Holy Ghost-filled LAMP of the world. These are the christian elect that the voice of the Lord from among the four living creatures cried out without vinegar, in a commanding tone: “Do no harm to the oil and the wine...”. The oil that the Lord jealously clammers to shield, essentially epitomizes the massive flow of the anointing of the Holy Spirit that is intended to keep the LAMPS of the elect burning as the church is ushered into her endtime. It greatly denotes on the wisdom of God with which the rapture-ready elect live while exuding the LIGHT of the fear of the Lord, prior to rapture. Only the spiritually wise elect whose souls have been lit up by the Holy Spirit will be able to appreciate the eternal consequences of a life lived in the absolute fear of the Lord. The most captivating attribute of the endtime revival church arises from the fact that the Light she carries is that of JERUSALEM. God Almighty becomes particularly very fond of her because she continues to LUMINATE the LIGHT of the Lord in this dark world. In a way, the church is at present a price that believers are hence required to pay in order to be moulded into the stonevessels of this day, as is a matter of fact, a greatly paying ronwad of God’s eternal love, yet in disguise. It is certain that the compensation that christians will receive for observing a separated life (2 Cor 6:14-18), while the LORD Jesus may have hinted on this elect as being symbolized by the five wise virgins of the allegory, the God Father on the other hand proclaims a mightier diviner for the church that keeps their LAMPS burning, amid the current anguish (Matt 25:1-13). For the Lord God to have decreed such a mighty safeguard surrounding the holy elect as he released the APOLLYCYPH BLACK HORSE, indicates that the most critical edge in these last days is going to boil down to the protection of the anointing oil of the Holy Spirit within the lives of the christians. Furthermore, the way in which the voice of the Lord yielded out to the rider of the BLACK HORSE saying, and do not damage the oil and the wine, cannot be said to be accidental. It is there to denote a covetous relationship with the excesses of this dark world, is what has humpered the revival of souls in the church, and consequently removed the LIGHT with which she was ordained as the ambassador of Christ. Because of this, darkness has raised up an unquenchable thirst of sinful desires in the flesh in this house. This has become the perpetual spiritual darkness in the lives of today’s christians. It never ceases to amaze that the scripture proclaiming: “seek ye first the kingdom of God and all his righteousness...” was aimed as shining the fine linen bright and clean in the church but today the shining of that LIGHT has been virtually dismissed in the churches. And yet their is the promise of their part in the lives of the elect holy and God-fearing believers, to the extent that they might shine the LIGHT of God in this dark world. Despite the effect getting entirely consumed by the pursuit of the kingdom of God in a righteous living, the Lord is always faithful in his promises. We can confidently play diligently for a meek church of this kind, and especially in the midst of this greatest global economic anguish. The reason God Almighty emphasizes on safeguarding the oil and the wine of the latter anointing in this dispensation is that the BLACK HORSE, is principally because only the anointing of the Holy Spirit has the mandate to separate the church from the dark deeds of this world. In that context, just as did the Holy Spirit lead Jesus to the cross, he is likewise willing to navigate today’s church to a place so as to be able to pick up her cross and follow the Lord, in the crucifixion of her sinful desires. Such separation from the flesh (world) is absolutely imperative if the present-day church is to regain her LIGHT and heavenly focus for access into the wedding feast of the Lamb. That the oxen of this world that God is resident in the blood of Jesus, is eternally imperishable as the LIGHT of righteousness that overtakes the sinful mortal body which christians wear today.

Our Heavenly Dwelling

“Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands. ‘Meanwhile we groan, longing to be released from this bond with our heavenly dwelling, because when we are clothed, we will not be found naked. For while we are in this tent, we groan and are burdened, because we do not wish to be unloaded but to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.’ Now it is God who has made us for this very purpose and has given us the Spirit as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come. Therefore we are always confident, we know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. We live by faith, not by sight. ‘We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord.’ So we make it our goal to please him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it. ‘For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive what was awarded to him for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad (2 Cor 5:1-10).”
meltdown is that God Almighty has finally shaken down man from his futile and dark earthly dwelling, so that he may now seek to clothe himself with a more permanent and stable heavenly dwelling of the Lord of Christ. Such a heavenly Lord is only present in the blood of Jesus, and purify the church from sexual sin, immorality, love of money, covetousness, homosexuality, witchcraft and all vices. For that reason, by letting out from heaven, the Black Horse of the apocalypse, God Almighty is unmanning the church from her prolonged slumber in darkness into an awakening of this last hour in preparation or the new day of the Lord (rapture) (Matthew 13:24-30). Correspondingly, Jehovah is today enlightening the church that her earthly insurance that she has most treasured over the centuries, in large homes, big cars, and fat bank reserves, are all but merely very empty and highly susceptible temporary perishables. For the first time in a very long time, mankind has now been completely compelled to think about the great realm of materialism. It is this spiritual restructuring that has now began to centralize the role of Jesus in the lives of many millions of people, who would have otherwise never ever have given the Lord even the slightest of a wink.

APOSTASY TODAY

The modern-day church of this era has majored on the preaching of a prosperity gospel, that has to the greater extent contributed to her apostate condition. And what most of the present-day christians have not well understood, is that spiritually the current apostasy in the church is this bunch of Pastors who can outrightly contribute, to the extent that today’s christians have, in as far as it reprioritizes the church, and instead opted to conceal a n d the blatant practicing of materialism. It is this spiritual decomposition which has now presented as rampant ungodliness in the church, whereby manifesting excessive perversion, love of money, sexual immorality, homosexuality, lesbianism, even among the pastors. This ilk of lawlessness in the house of the Lord, is what has negatively impacted the central calling of the church to evangelize the Jesus of Nazareth. A d tory fall of the church, has also brushed her in bad light, to the extent that today’s christians now bear a repulsive image that the church would neither long to bear, nor desire to associate with. The rubric of it all is the appalling state of perpetual spiritual infamy that has now descended upon her countenance. This apostacy has today well established in the church, even to the extent that believers are now reduced to a mere despondent batch that cares less of the word. It is unfortunate that this contemptible infamy has been virtually undetected for a very long time, and even more so this late in the day. The failure to intuit this seemingly obvious but very sneaky fall in the church, has thus majorly contributed to the loss of sensibility to sin among christians. It is a numbness that has raised the church’s threshold to sin, hence allowing her to eternal damnation, in a form of spiritual gangrene. Sadly, it is so disheartening to realise that the real definition of the mercy of God as a matter of fact the local death and decay of the body as a result of lack of blood in that area. It can be said of the church today, that she surely lacks the blood of Jesus in the body. If she doesn’t repent urgently this gangrene could as well get real definitive. The cause of the threshold to sin and evil simply means that christians gradually become accustomed to not only observing sin in the church, but also accommodating it in their personal lives. This is the careless living with compromise with the world, that has apparently factored in the state of the Lord and her holy reputation. Spiritual numbness of this sort is what has exactly besmirched worship to the extent that today christians no longer view their lifestyles as the true worship that Jesus taught on the cross. If there was any take-home lesson that Jesus taught on the cross, it was the crucifixion of the flesh. In that most exuberant greatest disposition of love towards the church, as the Lord gave his life on the cross, he also unvelled to her the biggest secret to a successful christians lifestyle. And that secret literally is in the combination of the sinful desires of the flesh in order to be born-again. This is one particular aspect of christian salvation that the larger majority of present-day christians have least understood. Contrary to the sat association of material possession with success, a true successful christian lifestyle involves the shunning of sin and walking in absolute holiness for entry into the kingdom of God. The failure by the Pastors to augment their teachings with this novel (cross, that is the cross), is what has now turned church services into a great dishonour of our time, hence reducing it into mere parcellated rituals of human tradition, and not a true worship in the spirit and in the truth. It is surprising though, that a form of faithlessness has gradually encroached into the holy pulpit, with the shepherds virtually looking for divine provision from the Lord. This lack of assurance that is currently proliferating among Pastors to the effect that God may not be able to miraculously provide for them in this day and age, is what has unfortunately hatched the conviction to believe that the church is unable to deliver the promised financial blessing. This elude has today mutated into a bunch of Pastors who can outrightly lie publicly, in order to loot offerings and the so-called ‘seed’ money from the faithful. They are the false prophets of the day. The priesthood today can openly deceive and feast on the sins of the saints in order to earn their so-called decent living. They feed on the sins of my people and relish their wickedness (Hosea 4:8).

Promised in the beginning as one of the key landmarks of the last days, it is nevertheless most painful to live to see this apostacy play itself to full course in our time. This level of officious worldlyliness, with its sulling post-modernism, right at the centre of the church, is what has finally provoked God Almighty to releasing the horrific pans of rider of the black apocalypse horse. Though, a necessary step within the prophetic timeline to capture, this third hoseman is intended to shake mankind from his more earthly inclination, back to a heavenly proclivity. The Lord intended that the subsequent global economic crisis unleashed by this horseman is what is meant to improve this apostacy church back to the echelon of her holiness. By collapsing and melting down all the structures of prosperity that had beclouded the christian vision, the Lord Almighty purposed that the release of the black horse purge the hearts of the saints off materialism back to spiritual purity. Such structures of prosperity that had beclouded the hearts of the christians, include aspects like accumulation of financial stock reserves, idolizing of homes and cars, priding in what they do and have.

Surely these structures had robbed God off the attention of man. Even among the Israelis, Jehovah has been super passionate about covenant keeping, reverence, worship diligence and a non-contaminated relationship. God the Father is equally jealous of the church and deserves the total attention of the believers. This is the rationale for which Jesus can deliberately crumble down every distraction that may sway mankind away from his complete attention. This, the Lord has previously done with that likewise obstinate generation at the monumental Tower of Babel pride. The dominant endeavours by third hoseman in shaking-up the global economy, is irrefutably a divine effort that is aimed at awakening the church of Christ on the necessity to repent from her corrupt deeds and prepare the righteous way for rapture (Isaiah 40:1-5). Righteousness is the fine linen with which today’s christians ought to clothe their hearts with, in order to enter into this most awaited wedding feast of the Lamb (Rev 19:6-9; Heb 12:14; 2 Cor 5:1-5). By virtue of the global response that this apocalyptic horseman discharges, an astonishingly parallel corresponding ravaging spiritual hunger has pervaded the church of Christ worldwide. This has especially built-up into a humongous spiritual scarcity for the essential gifts of the Holy Spirit. It is surprising though, that this is today well established in the church, and that is the reason today’s christians can be heard eking tongues, and false prophets hear counterfeiting the holy voice of God, while regular preachers can be seen eking miracles, etc. There surely is a huge clamour for the Holy Spirit to visit this house at this hour of great need. The visitation of the Holy Spirit is the only intervention that would finally release the much-needed wisdom of God into the current apostate church. All God-loving christians will today agree that if the global economic crunch is not internalised in the church back to God, then it is a good thing, and so be it. The advantage of the current economic shake-up can only accrue onto the lives of the christians, in as far as it redepriores the quest for eternity in their hearts. Considering the increased worldlyliness that characterizes the christian lifestyle today, there is surely no greater awakening that best describes the actions of the man of the black horse, than this scripture;

‘Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. ‘For everything in the world—the cravings of sinful man, the lust of his eyes and the boasting of what he has and does—has nothing to do with the Father but from the world. ‘The world and its desires pass away, but the man who does the will of God lives forever (1 John 2:15-17).

CASE FOR ISRAEL: WHY GOD SENDS THIRD HORSEMAN

Man’s disobedience against the will of God Almighty, has always been his greatest undoing. Unimmoral, God Almighty, the Creator of man, has been holy, and remains totally holy. This is the reason as to why mankind needs to know that for any meaningful covenant to transpire between himself and God Almighty, he has to live according to the ordained holy word of God. For example, when God spoke to Israel he expressed a lot of desire that the house of Jacob may maintain a lasting covenant with Him
To make great trial that directly hinge on the ushering of darkness right at the pulpit. By warning “watch out that no one deceives you...” the Lord Jesus implied the lolling of his own servants at this hour (Matthew 24).

TREASURES IN HEAVEN

The subprime mortgage crisis that rocked the global housing industry works over, has today led to such a widespread loss of homeowners, to a point where it now stands out on its own merit, as a monumental shaking of our lifestyle. Many families have in the recent past lost their homes owing to the fact that they can no longer sustain the monthly mortgage remittance to the lenders. It is a situation that has reduced millions of families in the developed economies to utter hopelessness, to the extent that they now confess to having nothing to write home about. Even more, what is most important is that man learns out of this daunting experience. By setting off the BLACK HORSE from heaven to trigger such a welfare calamity, the Holy Spirit has just reasserted to the church that her home is actually not here on earth, but as a matter of fact in heaven where Jesus went to prepare (John 14:1-3; 2 Cor 5:1-10). In this way, the Lord is vigorously employing the Holy Spirit to effectively shake believers into detachment from the wealth of the world, in order that they may resort to storing up for themselves treasures in heaven instead. This seemingly painful act is truly for the believer’s own good so that one may make it into paradise. It is under the splendor of God’s heavenly glory that destruction cannot befall man’s treasure. And going by this, an indestructible treasure is by all accounts an everlasting treasure. And among those that can suffice is a family anguish as has not happened since the creation of nations until today (Daniel 12:1). Ironically, as agonizing as this economic interlude of distress may be, we must not forget that this blessing to the church because it literally high on the greatest need to depend on God Almighty; and also denotes the spiritual landmark of all ages. The church ought to have eagerly been in great anticipation for the coming of this apocalyptic mile stone of Rapture. And for those devout holy Christians who will be blessed enough to partake of the rapture, they will sincerely have successfully attained the greatest historic feat of their entire existence. Therefore, this event becomes very critical here because it in essence defines the sustainability of the spiritual gains of repentance. Today, the majority of the Christians have repeated from sin and yet miserably returned right back to wallowing in the Egyptian mud (Heb 6:4-6; Heb 10:26-31; 2 Peter 2:19-22).

Ripening For Antichrist

The humblest crumbs of the financial markets and the resultant onset of its horrendous global recession have in essence pushed human suffering to an all time high. Households have been thrust to the brink of survival. This agony of pain has been even greater especially by the fact that there now seems to be no apparent dividing-line between the have-nots and the have-nots. Both today appear to be eating from the same plate of sorrows. For those that owned colossal stock or positive value, this economic avalanche has literally obliterated their earthly treasures to the extent that it has become the greatest nightmare of their lifetime. In one single 24-hour cycle for the first time in history we observed as the value of their most-treasured stocks get wiped-out to such dismal readings, that even suicides have been reported. As disturbing as this experience may seem to individual households, it has equally even acted more pitiless by virtually engulfing the accumulated reserves of the largest corporations and economic powershouses, known to man. This is essentially what has made history by re-writing the age-old classical law of free markets and Keynes economics, especially given that the iniquity of the ‘too big to fail’ law has been publicly exposed as worthless and non-place. In this day and age of the BLACK HORSE, no corporation of economy, however large can claim to shock absorb the ripples that resonated from this heartless prowling BLACK HORSE. The continued sustenance of this kind of depressing scenarios within the global marketplace can only help to make human life deteriorate even further down the pits of economic doldrums. Let alone the perpetual fear that continue to grip households on a daily basis as they observe the erratic behaviour of the financial markets, this economic meltdown has already as a matter of fact had its full share in unleashing such wanton suffering upon the lives of families across the entire globe. It is this economic hardship that will obviously now brew the unvindicate storm of economic rage and social upheaval across the largest cities on this earth, as labour unions take up placards and head to the street markets. The ensuing economic disaster is what will unfortunately hatch out a calamity on mankind, especially that families will no longer be able to place bread on in order to be blessed in the land she was to occupy. By living righteous and avoiding false religions, Israel would have plenty of rainfall, good weather and fertile soil. This was intended only those that would bring a good harvest in the land that she was to possess. There is no better place at which to see the generosity of God towards mankind than in the book of Deuteronomy chapter 28 and the book of Leviticus chapter 26. In these scriptures, the God of Israel promised a mighty blessing upon Israel only if Israel would obey Jehovah. And this obedience would entail keeping all of the Lord’s commands including observing a holy Sabbath. On the contrary, these same scriptures also disposition the curse of a gut-wrenching episode of disasters that would beset Israel if she did not obey his commandments and return to Jehovah before they miss the moment when he would render this third curse (Lev 26:1-9). The reason for which the Lord released this third horned horse of the BLACK APOCALYPTIC HORSE, is because the Lord intended to highlight a critical punctuation on the prophetic timeline. This is to say that the epicode of the hideous consequences that this HORSEMAN brings on the earth, we see very clearly that God Almighty sent him because of man’s rebellion and disobedience that has today unfortunately consumed the entire earth. The pangs that this third HORSEMAN of the apocalyptic brings upon the lifestyle of rebellious man, is indeed the greatest of everything that can ever descend from the throne of God. This is because it acts as an awakening for the nations to return to Jehovah before they miss Rapture. Thereupon, just as Jehovah promised to deliver Israel from the catastrophic consequences of sin, so has He pledged that he would hear the repentance and deliver the church from this distress and anguish brought in by this APOCALYPTIC BLACK HORSE (Daniel 12:1). In that event, only those that will repent at that last hour, will be nourished both spiritually and physically, in the midst of this historic FAMINE of food and the world. Not even FAMINES or earthquakes will separate those elect who choose to live in holiness from the Lord.

21 You will laugh at destruction and famine, and need not fear the beasts of the earth (Job 5:22).

Correspondingly, the age-old spiritual notion that, ‘sin doesn’t bring happiness’, once more stands out clearer even in this post-modern world, right unto the end of the age. By instigating the BLACK HORSE and its rider to lurk across the globe at this very critical threshold before Rapture, God Almighty must have purposed to now purify the church from the dross of the worldliness that has today encroached unto the deepest interior of worship. The mischievous notion that when one becomes born-again, they are rendered trial-proof, is totally out-witted by this defining experience of the truthfulness that the Lord Jesus has today encouraged unto the deepest interior of the house of the Lord. That judgment always returns a people back to the Lord in an argument no one can gain this. This is what particularly compelled Jesus to give a doomsday-style prophecy to the church on the Mt of Olives. The Lord himself emphatically warned the church to beware of the fact that in these last days there would be great trial that directly hinge on the ushering of darkness right at the pulpit. By warning “watch out that no one deceives you...” the Lord Jesus implied the lolling of his own servants at this hour (Matthew 24).
THE BLACK HORSE & Global Drought

Grim, gaunt and loathsome, like the fateful tinaries of war, famine and pestilence, have decreed untimely deaths for the hosts of the earth in this endtime generation. A veritable trio of evil, the three are as one scourge, at times equal in their devastating power and their sinister universality. A biblical survey shows that these three war, pestilence and famine have always been related, sometimes one and sometimes another being the cause, and the other two the effect. Where one of the trios has occurred the others, sometimes singly, but usually together, have followed. The primary cause of famine almost invariably has been the failure of food crops. And yet this failure has often resulted from a variety of causes, but most importantly long-continued DROUGHT, with its blasting hot winds notwithstanding. A biblical prologue reveals that DROUGHT-induced famines usually last many years long to ten years would be considered quite normal and the death toll is often huge. Whereas each of them stood out with such a virulent wickedness of their own order, the enormity of this BLACK HORSE-induced endtime DROUGHT-related famine definitely trivializes these ten famines that are recorded in the bible. In all, one of them, a ten-year long famine which drove Naomi and her husband out of the land of Judah into the country of the Moabites. Two other biblical famines are noteworthy as preludes to the depravity to which hunger brought mankind to his knees. In fact for today’s church to get a little glimpse of where this endtime DROUGHT-caused famine will take mankind, we should first be able to model the trajectory paths that previous biblical famines have followed. Though now trifled by this humongous dearth of the day, but the first authentic biblical record of cannibalism was as a matter of fact a result of famine that is found in the sacred recital of the siege of Samaria by Ben-Hadad, King of Aram. It tells about how a woman was asked to give her son to be eaten and the other would give her own the next day. The following day after the first one had been eaten by the people the other hid her son. Famine in Besieged Samaria

26 As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, “Help me, my Lord the king!” 27 The king replied, “If the Lord does not help you, where can I get help for you? From the threshing floor? From the winepress?” 28 Then he asked her, “What’s the matter?” She answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Give up your son so we may eat him today, and tomorrow we’ll eat your son.’” 29 So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I said to her, “Give up your son so we may eat him, but she had hidden him.”

This scourge of starvation extended across the entire land. And if this is that trivially insignificant in the face of today’s humongous onset of the current dearth, then how much more should this generation expect from the ensuing scarcity of famine. It is true that during biblical famines the rich and the poor suffered on equal terms, and that is what made people resort to a revolting cannibalism. Human flesh, which was sold in the open markets was obtained in the most horrible manner. Butchers concealed themselves behind lattice windows in the upper storeys of houses which looked out upon busy thoroughfares. Letting down ropes to which were attached great meat hooks, these anglers for human flesh snared the unwary pedestrians drew their shrieking victims through the air, and then prepared and cooked the food before presenting it for sale in the stalls in the street levels. It is true that this level of cruelty can only induce a man kind had been pushed to the wall. It is a form of degradation that starvation causes on a people. Unfortunately, the way today’s famine rolled out, does not give much hope because in Kenya people have even eaten rats, donkeys, baboons, dogs and wild tree leaves.

Without any spec of a doubt, the effects of the current global economic crisis and famine, have been immensely exacerbated by the onset of this year’s atrocious and most hideous drought ever. In what began as a simple patchwork pattern, a drought of historic magnitude ensued, and gradually started spreading from one nation to another. Whereas many factors may today be directly implicated to the cause of the current global food crisis.

Drought though stands out as the most wicked of them all. Incontrovertibly, the impunity with which the Lord released the rider of the Black Apocalypse Horse was such that even the vagaries of weather, drought inclusive, would have to also listen to him. This is what has finally dawned on the world. It now play a central role in aggravating the severity of the famine that the rider of this black horse was instructed to release upon man. Those who have been most severely affected by drought, include Somalia, Ethiopia, California, China, Kenya, Chad, Mauritania, Syria, Bangladesh, Argentina, Australia, Afghanistan, The Middle-East, and Parts of India and U.S among others. The onset of this particular kind of drought as we have witnessed in 2009, has served as a sobering depiction of the level of devastation that drought has executed onto man’s livelihood, one only needs to examine the impact of this death on the quantity of food production. There is an unmistakable corresponding correlation between countries that are drought-hit and those that are malnourished. Astonishingly, drought has of late all of a sudden become a widespread phenomenon that is stretching across the nations of the earth. To the extent that reportage on drought has become a one-size-fits-all global news story that is good for almost any part of the world right now, goes a long way to emphasize the enormity of its impact on the earth. In China for example, drought has devastated their national wheat production due to a massive crop failure. Media is currently barely scratching the surface, this now accustomed to screening cues of videos previewing farmers standing in fields of parched and stubbled cropped. When one thought that this class of images would be awful El Nino that makes the situation even more miserable. That in drought carcasses of animals have littered the land to the extent that it became nearly impossible to bury them. This is what threw up an appalling and horrible reek as the smell of death consumed the land. Coming without much warning, this drought had become the greatest stealth disaster that has ever visited the land of Kenya. A drought of the kind witnessed across the globe today, can do such a great damage on mankind because it has a different and much slower rhythm than the rest of the usual calamities. The pace with which drought overtakes a land, is so hidden that by the time a nation recognizes that drought has entered the land, its devastation will normally have gone much further and deeper within the population. This is mainly because of the hidden effects of a malnourishing population. And yet they all seem to succumb at almost the same time. Therefore, even if there may be no headline-grabbing satellite images of hurricane swells, no “Reporter” videos of towns blown apart by tornados, no families perched on roofs desperate to escape rising flood waters, no photographs of cities buried under snow, the pictures of another hand will inflect the most deadly damage on a nation. Even as drought takes hold, the signs of a waning ocean, and the shifting in the wind velocity, all are essentially very subtle. But come to the effects of such a drought, the repercussions will be global. In so across continents, and can last for years, even decades, and spare nothing at all in its path. All this can only highlight the brilliance of intelligence with which the rider of the Black Apocalypse Horse was sent, when he actually picked drought as his mounting of reverie. In so across this, this horseman has literally used drought to re-write the chapter on the new scale of definition of human suffering. Talk about hunger pangs, of the last days and drought will most certainly feature very prominently. With such a devastating and disconcerting about this global onset of drought is that even countries that one least expected to fall prey to this calamity of drought, have too shown up in the list. In South America, Argentina has been famously as the bread basket of not only South America but the world. Argentinian beef is popular in the most upscale world markets such as the EU, US, Australia, New Zealand, China, Japan, name it. But, in this year 2009 the images coming out of Argentina have been nothing short of dying cattle. Like economic recessions, droughts are declared official national disasters, well after serious damage has already been done. This semblance between drought and economic recession is so sneaky that it takes time for a patch of pleasant sunny weather to morph into a severe drought. And although top-notch scientists have perfected the art of interpreting data for predictions of upcoming calamities, for droughts, the prediction still remain pretty much non-existent at all. Whether or not science has not been spared either. Looking at how the current drought has devastated Australia, one is left with no choice but to rename her; the “big dry”. Things got so bad in Australia that the drought as a matter of fact, has been fan huge flames threatened to blaze the entire Australia, by consuming large tracts of farms and wildlife reserves. Tons of harvest went up in flames. For the meantime, mankind has been caught up grappling with different solutions for the current drought. In that fury though, they have assented that the best plan to avoid drought-induced hunger pangs, still remains that old biblical stand-by of stashing away surplus reserves from a good harvest. In all this still, no one can escape the wrath of this third horse of the Black Apocalyptic horse. With global grain reserves running very low and almost every “bread basket” farming region in the world buckling under the same withering weather report, leaves one asking how far exactly does this man called drought smoulder. That in that fury though, the Black Horse of the apocalypse has let loose a most scathing and brutal case of global food crisis of an unsurpassed breadth. To gravitate the highlight of what this means on a world-scale, it is important to be cognizant of the world’s food-flow channels that have sustained life on this aging planet earth, and how they operate in global food distribution. Australia for example has played the part of a mother-nation that feeds quite a huge chunk of the global population. But as a result of this miserable drought, hunger pangs now loom far and wide across the oceans. This is because the roughly 40% of Australia’s harvest that goes out as food exports, is normally destined to most of Asia and the Middle-East. This 40% of food export that supports a huge portion of the food supply and ensures the world comes from the Murray Darling basin. Today, this beautiful mother Murray Darling basin is a drought-plagued valley, that threatens to leave the world on the brink of the most catastrophic widespread starvation ever witnessed. It is a condition in which both the wealthy and the poor will have to face the hottest pangs of hunger as the wealthy lament in saying, “where is the then food to buy with all this money?” To prove that this drought is surely something out of planet, even irrigated crops such as rice and sugar and arid-land vegetables, the earth will not have to face the grim reality. But even native eucalyptus trees have taken a hit with a staggering 80% stressed or dead. Even when you were tempted to embark on a massive irrigation scheme to tackle this drought head-on, then you were faced with the problem of water. Prior to the drought, water reservoirs you depended on have been depleted to just a mere 16% of capacity. To make matters worse, algae are blooming and fish are dying in the warmth of shallower waters, in the impact of the financial downturn of 2009 has especially bad news here, since the region itself is reeling under its own extreme drought. While the annual rainfall totals in Jordan have gone down to 70%, Israel on the other hand is experiencing its hottest and driest winter in the 60 years of its existence. The Iraqi marshlands that once used to be the paradise of the Garden of Eden right before Adam fell to sin, are today fast drying up. This has gotten so bad to the extent that hundreds of thousands of Iraqi families were recently reported in October 2009, to be leaving their homes due to this horrifying drought. In the relatively moist Lebanon, water wars are heating up in a manner that appears to be exacerbated by the out-of-date irrigation systems and a rapidly growing population to feed. Suddenly, the Iraqis are now making everything that much worse in the West Bank and Gaza with the Palestinian Authority today calling the situation “very dangerous. In the US, California’s Central Valley has always stood out as the bread basket of the nation. But, that valley too has been affected by the global drought thereby taking a major hit. The most recent decision by the Federal Government to temporarily turn off the spigot in order to irrigate the state’s Central Valley farms, is inevitably yet another indicator of just where things stand. In Light of the most recent California’s drought emergency declaration, the problem is deeper or higher, if you will. This is because the snowpack that feeds the streams that replenishes the Colorado river, which in turn supplies the irrigation water, is now reported to have reached all-time low levels. It is thought that he could settle for milk, then comes the realization that the dairy industry too has not been spared these pangs of the heartless rider of the black horse. Sky-high alfalfa prices are now threatening the entire dairy industry in the<Khyber Pakhtoonkhwa province, that is instrumental to the aid workers for delivering agricultural inputs and food supplies. In Argentina, the worst drought in a half-century has devastated this year’s corn crop, with yields down more than a third from last year. An astonishingly shocking 1.5 million cattle have also died in the country of Argentina with an economic tally of over $5 billion in losses from this year’s drought. The state of Uttarakhand in Northern India has been almost entirely dependent on rainfall and snow melt for farming and yet lately there hasn’t been much moisture. Weather temperatures that recently even baked New Delhi, have also caused the key crop of mustard to flower prematurely hence significantly reducing yields. In China, a massive 240 million-acre drought has clocked the record as the worst in 50 years, leaving an estimated 4.4 million people and 2 million livestock literally at the risk of death. Rainfall in some Chinese provinces have been registered at less than 10% of the normal totals, in which case destroying half the wheat crop production. And because of the dreadful effects from the current global economic recession, factories in Chinese cities have shut down, thereby leaving an estimated 20 million migrant farm workers with literally nowhere else to go. Ironically, in attempting to escape the despondent effects of the black horse of the apocalyptic, the Chinese have even created a greater water shortage that is exacerbated by building extensive reservoir system, which has diverted water from underground aquifers and exposed it to increased surface evaporation. This just underlines how mankind cannotuck the effects of this horseman on the black horse of the apocalyptic, except to repent and be counted in the Lamb’s book of life (Daniel 12:1).

How the current ravaging famine has progressed away back in December 2007. In that pronouncement the Lord gave a judgment with its humiliating effects. The remedy thereof, the Lord decreed as the total repentance in the sackcloth owing to the gravity with which this famine was going to rage the nation. Today, October 15th 2009, the UN-FAO has ruled that Kenya must now be ranked among the top 20 most-starving and malnourished countries on the earth. This has directly thrown Kenya into the league of state of the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC), Somalia, Ethiopia, Burundi, and other most devasted countries that cannot afford to feed their own citizens. That this prophecy was beautifully fulfilled in this manner calls for repentance. In the Middle East-inflicted devastation this year, to be leaving their homes due to this humiliating drought, has hence brought is in fact a reeling of some of the greatest financial powerhouses in the developed west. And because the developed industrialized nations have no backup to those multinational financial institutions, their collapse directly willed the revenue of their home governments. In the face of dwindling reserves, the governments of the developed nations found themselves in a state of quagmire and embarrassment, but because collapsed financial institutions meant a high rate of unemployment among their nationals. For nations that had streamlined social welfare to the extent that a loss of job automatically meant receiving a welfare benefits cheque, there was suddenly no money to sustain the unemployed. Of course, Wall Street and other financial markets took such a hit that mostindicated stocks tumbled. In this way, the rider of the black horse has cut across the entire earth, causing the most immeasurable scientific technology to the point at which food production was fully boosted. In fact, a synopsis of the daily per capita calory intake reveals that in both the developed and the developing nations, there was a increase in the calory intake, a sign that undernourishment was going to be something of the past. But then all of a sudden comes this horseman who totally turned the tables on the strivers of human civilization. It is the reason famines are frequently said to be sent of the Lord such as witnessed in Leviticus 26:19, Deuteronomy 28:49-51; the 2Kings 8:1; Isaiah 14:30; Isaiah 51:19; Jeremiah 14:12-15; Jeremiah 18:21; Ezekiel 5:16. The righteous and godly though should be well prepared for God’s preservation in such times of famines (Job 5:22). That can only imply that in this famine hundreds of thousands of the elect will emerge from the holy elect from not only death but also keep them alive from death. In the days of famine they shall be satisfied as a special mark of the divine favour and power of God over their lives. Such famine is also indicative of the absence of a divine communications as a punishment that should come on the people who love wickedness. No wonder, by the words of Amos the Prophet, he pronounced that these days we live in would come in which there would be a famine of hearing the words of YAHWEH (Amos 8:11). Therefore to have chosen these two critical instruments of financial meltdown and drought, and to have them as special tools of the hour, on a global scale the rider of the black horse can now sing himself all the way to victory because it is all mission accomplished. Even after all these distresses, IT IS NOT YET OVER, because it has just begun. Only 10% of the world’s population can sustain the church, making this divine protection of the righteous iconical of their eternal protection into the kingdom of God. The UN-FAO most recently on October 15th, 2009 released the HUNGER INDEX in which several countries were ranked based on their food security status. But by countries worst hit by food crisis included Guatemala, Nepal, Bangladesh, Myanmar, Kenya, Somalia, Afghanistan, D.R. Congo, and many other nations. In that report the survey showed that the world’s hungry and starving has now hit the first time clocked 1 BILLION. The reason being the high food prices and loss of jobs that has raised the number of starving people.

Further, the report asserted that feeding the hungry across the globe is going to be most critical challenge for the maintenance of world peace and stability. The same seasonal paper reported that todate high food prices have sparked riots in 60 countries. Moreover, 60% of hungry are unfortunately reported to be women and children. The irony though, is that the same report did not understand why the hunger and famine, given that the world has economic and technical ability to make hunger disappear. In the face of the current food shortage, the number of hungry has now exceeded 1 BILLION, in fact it is 1.02 Billion people, of which 400 million are undernourished children in 2009. The region that is most affected and hence presenting the largest number of hungry people is Asia-pacific region. And alarmingly though, gruesome statistics now shows that after every 6 SECONDS a CHILD DIES because of hunger and hunger-related diseases. The report further went on to assert that a whopping 146 million people in developing countries are seriously malnourished hence underweight, and might die soon. Of those that are chronically hungry, year in year out, women constitute and entire 60%. Because of the global economic crisis, it was reported in that index that poor families spend as much as 70% of their income on food. This comes at a time when the Global Economic Crisis of the west has now caused many rich states cut back on aid. Moreover, the report crowned it all by saying that the flow of food aid from regions of surplus to the deficiency now stands at a twenty-year low. That can only mean that the rider of the black horse is surely determine to exert the effects of global economic crisis and famine on this generation as a landmark that the Messiah is soon coming for the church in the rapture (Matthew 24:7; Mark 13:8, Revelation 6:5-6). The Olivet Prophecy is surely being FULLFILLED right before our own eyes, by this third horseman taking away man’s comfort to shake him into repentance. What a blessing to be part of this generation that witnesses the fulfilment of the most central prophecy of the bible.

THE PALE HORSEMAN OF THE APOCALYPSE

Going by the current progression of situations that have today dissipated upon this earth, it is vividly clear that the horsemen of the apocalypse have continued to debouch on forward unimpeded. This tenor must continue because of the critical end dispensation that the church has entered into, towards the most anticipated coming of the Lord in the rapture. Unless mankind repents. These prophecies were eloquently given by the Lord Jesus in Matthew 13:49-52, Luke 13:19; thence had to be accurately fulfilled in accordance with the fullness of time. These four horsemen of the apocalyptic cardinality symbolize the final endtime culmination of the most traumatic and horrendous sorrows to ever befall humanity since man began to paint one of the most gruesome and ominous pictures ever to transplant upon mankind, in this very critical pre-rapture season.

When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Come!” I looked, and there before me was a PALE HORSE! Its rider was named DEATH, and Hades was following close behind him. They were given power over a fourth of the earth to kill by sword, famine and plague, and by the wild beasts of the earth (Rev 6:7-8).

WARNING

It is very important that the church becomes very intelligent and smart to the fact that in the prophetic order of things, it is the first three HORSEMEN of the apocalyptic that sound the warning for the church to repent, turn away from sin, and prepare for rapture in absolute holiness. The release of the horseman of the black horse of the apocalypse essentially marked the last warning to the church, that anytime now the wedding of the Lamb may take place. And that is why the effects of the third horseman of the apocalypse are greatly aggravated. But, when the fourth horseman of the apocalypse is released, he rides a pale horse and his name is death. He comes to destroy and kill up to a quarter of the global population. That event of the release of the pale horseman, only takes place after the holy church of Christ (elect) have been taken up in rapture. As long as the church is still on the earth, the Holy Spirit holds back such a tremendous holocaust. But when the church, the holy habitation of the Holy Spirit has been taken up in rapture, then calamity befalls. Therefore, this July 29 2009 prophecy, of the coming of the rider of the pale horse, is a very stern warning that tells the church that any time now, the rapture may occur. However, considering the speed with which the prophecy on the coming of the fourth horseman was fulfilled in a record twenty-three days, then one can only conclude that there is a prophetic acceleration going on in heaven; and that this prophecy on the release of the pale horseman, will also be released very soon. And when he does get released, the holy and righteous glorious church of Christ will have been raptured, however remnant she may be.

And Hades Follows Closely

The key word-marker on the identity of this fourth horseman comes from the fact that, he is the only horseman whose real name is given in the bible. His name is death and Hades follows him very closely. However, the main identity marker of this fourth horseman of the apocalypse is PALE. For reasons emanating from the aftermath that he unleashes across the earth, this fourth horseman can also essentially be referred to as pestilence. Pale exemplifies ash and death as his characteristic. It is this ash appearance that marks the characteristic of the dead. Likewise, HADES betokens the Hebrew word sheol. While Sheol is considered to be hell, biblical reference locates it as a place beneath the earth (Num 16:30), and under the waters (Job 26:5). The Word of God precisely elaborates that all the dead must descend there, never to return to Job 7:9; 16), with the exception of those who are directly taken up into the rapture of the church. Evidence of which is also found in the Old Testament, whereby Enoch and Elijah went straight into heaven, without ever seeing death; having been raptured (Gen 5:24; 2 Kgs 2:11). For all those who will miss the rapture, and go into sheol (hades) they will all be treated equally regardless of what their former status, religious (whether bishops or pastors), economic, political, health, or wealth, had been on the earth (Job 3:13-19; Ezeckiel 18:32). And in order to truly perceive the gravity of the impact that the pale horseman levies on the church, one should have to comprehend that in Sheol there will be neither doing nor thinking, neither understanding nor wisdom” for all her inhabitants (Ecc 9:10). The mystery of it all, is that God Almighty in his sovereign power, reigns the entire universe from heaven to Sheol (Ps 139:7-8; Job 26:6). And that can only intimate that death also belongs to God’s domain, the reason for which mankind has no escape route except that he returns to God Almighty himself, for his salvation and restitution (1 Sam 2:6).

JUDGMENT OF THE LORD COMING TO CHINA

The Lord spoke with me on October 5th, 2009, about a tremendous judgment coming to China. I saw very huge and humming horses. They are brownish in colour with mighty force and they are running violently all over the land. And one of them knocks down a catapillar and military tank just to emphasize the power of the horses. Soon, some of them collapsed and died as the rest continued to pursue people. Then I see a huge ferocious and dark beast pursuing and knocking down people with its horns. After a while I see the Chinese army rushing to try to intervene, and to try to take care of the situation. I see a lot of cars, and army vehicles pursuing them at very high speed and people are running away from restaurants. And then the Lord showed me the HORRIFIC SEXUAL SIN IN THE UNIVERSITIES and all over the land. After that judgment, the Chinese army began to receive the Lord and the army breaks out. That judgment opens way for Revival to reach their hearts. This will happen very soon and it shall be known that the mouth of the Lord, He has spoken.

HORRIFIC FLOODS COMING TO THE CARIBBEAN

The Lord on that day, took me from China, to the other end of the earth, in the Caribbean. And I see the church that is defiled. And He asked me to bring judgment to those islands, because of the horrific sexual sin in the church. I see pastors going for a mission and they get involved in sexual sin. And I see a bus that they were travelling in, hit 3 people and killed them, just to emphasize that the LORD is not with them. I see false prophets in the church, false apostles and the Lord asked me to pass judgment to those islands in the Caribbean. Then it shall be known that the mouth of the Lord has spoken.
It is considerable to remember that Sheol is also referred to as abaddon, gehenna, a place known as the abode of the dead, the gloomy abyss, the underworld, or pit. Our Lord Jesus in his own words portrayed Sheol as a place of torment that is reserved for the wicked who will not have made it into the rapture of the church (Luke 16:19-31). The cruel description of Sheol, exhibited above by the Holy Spirit, is essentially meant to give mankind a little glimpse of what beholds the wicked as they are ministered to in his rebellion and disobedience to God. The irony in mankind’s disobedience though, arises from the fact that our Lord Jesus, as a matter of fact, conquered death and shut down the hades. All that Jehovah God in heaven ever required of mankind, is that he turn away from sin, and prepares the way for the Coming of the Lord.

“I am the Living One; I was dead, and behold I am alive for ever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades (Rev 1:18).

PALE IN COLOUR

At the mere mention of pale, one normally is prompted to think of someone who is feeling sick, anaemic-looking, deathly looking, or ailing. Pale is a direct translation of a Greek word called CHLOROS. Chloros basically signifies the colour of chlorophyll, the property that gives plants their healthy, green colour. But, used in the biblical context, pale then becomes the colour of disease or sickness. Pale is described by other biblical translations describe the pale horse as an ash-coloured horse.

The bible also defines it as horse sickly-green or an ashy-pale horse. Albeit, we know that Christ Jesus the REVELATOR, is the only one who has the authority to correctly translate for the church the meaning and implication of the release of the pale horse. This, as we have mentioned, is because only Christ Jesus has the ascendency to break open even the fourth seal on the scroll.

There will be great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven (Luke 21:11).

The man of the pale horse signifies global encircling plagues and pandemics of every kind, with the four being soon to appear. The pronouncement in 2009 by the Geneva-based World Health Organization (WHO), that the H1N1 SwineFlu has now developed into a fully fledged global pandemic, gives a classical testimony that the season of the pale horseman is at hand, and about to befall mankind. Even as we write these words, these are soon going to be reported all across the globe, as the rider of the pale horse traverses the four ends of the earth. Global pandemics are going to be the greatest challenge for mankind to surmount in this last hour prior to rapture. The manner in which the HIV/AIDS pandemic has scourged mankind especially this year 2009, with over 23 million infected, just underscores how bad things have gotten. It is prudent to recollect that the HIV/AIDS could not be cured, to the extent that even the Anti-retroviral therapy (ARTs) are intended to merely prolong the lives of the infected. A relationship surely exists between the second, third and fourth HORSEMAN. God Almighty releases the sword, famine, and great signs from heaven to demonstrate what true worship looks like to the heathen communities. Like did the H1N1 pandemic, the devastating plagues and pandemics that are going to befall mankind especially this year 2009, will be the result of disobedience and worldliness that mankind has adopted towards him, in this age.

Therefore I bring charges against you again, declares the Lord. And I will bring charges against your children’s children (Jer 2:9).

It is surely the Lord that has now smitten the earth with such traumatic experiences, as never witnessed before (Dan 12:1). And yet the Lord vividly asserts that there is no escape. These plagues will be written found in the book of life of the Lamb, will be delivered. That can only imply that for mankind to suffer the tragedies of the HORSEMAN, it must be an act of his personal choice. The PALE HORSEMANS OF THE APOCALYPSE signify the prophetic forewarned common disobedience of mankind to the point that he lives the human being shrivelled and faint. He does this by intensifying the horrific effects of disease and sickness across the fibre of mankind. The overall effect of this fourth HORSEMAN appears to be that of rendering man totally unlivable and intellectually ineffective as a result of scorching ravages of disease.

yes, this is what the Lord Almighty says: I will send the sword, famine and plague against you and I will make them like poor figs that are so bad yet they cannot be eaten. I will pursue you with the sword, famine and plague and will make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth because of an object of cursing and horror, of scorn and reproach, and among all the nations I drive them (Jer 29:17-18).

Like did the Lord warn Israel before the onset of any calamity, so has he warned not only the church but also the nations of the earth to repent lest they be faced by the consequences of sin.

Therefore we see, the Lord is going to bring charges against you. He will not only imply that either the sword, famine and disease will bring them to death, or if they survive thereof, they would be in utter captivity during totalitarian conditions. In other words, the global redemption of man from death and hades was already achieved at the greatest feat at Calvary and on High when Jesus resurrected from the dead. In fact, he locked the hades and took away the key that no man may go there again. The only requirement after that is to bear the tremendous spiritual inheritance of triumph over death and hades, is that he repents in Christ Jesus. Only an unrepentant heart will enter into the hades, just as said he about the Israelites who opted to recycle back to Egypt after redemption from slavery.

Then the sword you fear will overtake you there, and the famine you dread will follow you there, and death will overtake you there (Jer 19:20).

The second (sword), third (famine) and fourth (pestilence) HORSEMEN derive their effects and origin directly from the first HORSEMAN called DECEPTION. This is because whoever escapes the lie of the first HORSEMAN, is indeed a repentant heart and hence delivered from the multiplying effects of the other three. Right now, the entire human population of the earth stands at a risk of witnessing multi-millions of people who will perish from worldwide global disease pandemics caused by the manifestations of the PALE HORSEMANS. The effects of this fourth HORSEMAN will be a total of up to one fourth of the earth’s population. That summation will combine those dead from wars to those who perish from economic distress, famine, global recession; to those who die from sickness and disease. This gross level of sorrows is conveyed about on mankind as a result of his UNABRIDGED rebellion towards his Creator Jehovah Yahuwh. Mankind’s refusal to comply with God’s requirements, couples with the fact that the course of the LORD’s sovereignty will cause him this self-inflicted GENOCIDE. And yet, God Almighty would have loved to give mankind peace and joy unpeasable, otherwise than a HOLocaust.

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it to the full (John 10:10). God in his infinite plan for mankind intends that man lives a life free from suffering here on earth, and an eternal life of peace and joy, which is the true definition of the abundant life that Jehovah celebrates in John 10:10.

FOREWARNED

As all these pangs take centre stage in the troubled life of today’s modern man, no christian can claim that they are in the least bit unaware of the consequences on the devastating effects of the HORSEMEN. The scripture has been without ambiguity on the fact that these HORSEMEN would be released in consecutive succession, at this hour prior to the wedding feast of the Lamb. The marriage of which is the book of Daniel, which, in its entirety, is an endtime prophecy. The phenomenon brought to the earth by these four HORSEMEN were truly foretold by Daniel the Prophet in Daniel 12:1, and by our precious LORD Jesus in Matthew 24:20. And so Christians today do not fit into God’s requirements for mankind. The Lord’s benchmark standard of holiness cuts across centuries, and also binds all nations. As did the Lord command Israel, that if they would follow his holy requirements they would be blessed; so has he commanded this generation. Likewise, as did the Lord chide Israel that if a failure to abide by his requirements would be an automatic curse, so it is with this generation. God does not change, for which reason he gave us Jesus Christ of Nazareth as our intercessor before him. The purpose for which the LORD Surrendered Jesus the Lamb of God, to die on the cross, was that whoever believes in him, and follows the teachings of the Christ, would not suffer the consequences of sin. And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them: Then shalt thou be smitten before thy enemies, and shalt come up behind, but thou shalt not be assisted; thou shalt not be lifted up, though thou be rebuilt from the earth, and though thou be lifted up above the earth (Deut 28:11-12).

Blessed shall thy bread be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field. Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field. Cursed shall be thy bread, and the fruit of thy land, the fruit of thy belly, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy cattle, and the increase of thy flock, and the increase of thy horse, and the increase of thy sheep, and the increase of all the possessions of thy loving ones (Deut 28:18-19).

The Lord will open unto thee the good treasure of heaven, and give thee the rain of thy land in his season, and to bless all the works of thine hands. But if thou shalt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them, then shalt thou be cursed in all the works of thy hands. For the Lord shall smite thee with wasting and blasting, with mildew and Booker's, and with the blasting, and the mildew, and the waster, and the Angie, and the scab, and the blight, and the thick and thin rust, and thou shalt be driven from off the land, whither tho sojourner may enter, and there shalt thou perish (Deut 28:20-21).

The Lord shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt be delivered into their hand, and they shall pursue thee, and take thee, and smite thee seven ways between the gates (Deut 28:22).

And thy carcase shall be meat unto all foul birds of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

Repentance &
The Lord will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed. The Lord shall smite thee with boils of plagues, with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

In this scriptural account, the Beast, which includes the fourth Horseman, will bring suffering and death to mankind. The Beast’s power will be manifest in the earth, causing death and destruction. The Bible describes the Beast as coming forth from the abyss, bringing death and destruction to the earth. This passage suggests that the Beast’s power will be so great that it will cause widespread death and suffering.

The passage also describes the Beast’s power in relation to the four Horsemen of the Apocalypse. These Horsemen are described as bringing famine, war, pestilence, and destruction to the earth. The Beast’s power is depicted as being greater than that of the Horsemen, indicating that it is a significant force of evil.

This passage is a warning to mankind about the dangers of following the Beast and its followers. The Beast’s power is depicted as being so great that it will cause widespread death and suffering. This passage serves as a reminder to humanity to turn away from this evil influence and to seek a path of righteousness and salvation.

In summary, this passage highlights the power of the Beast and its followers, emphasizing the need for humanity to avoid following this influence and to seek a path of righteousness and salvation. The passage serves as a powerful warning to humanity about the dangers of following the Beast and its followers, and as a reminder to seek a path of righteousness and salvation.
Earthquakes are amongst the most dreadful and perpetually by and large very terrifying phenomena one can ever live to encounter. A meticulous review of the twelve historic earthquakes in the bible vividly shows that they were used by God Almighty at various times for special divine purposes. For instance, on day three of God’s creation week, the earth’s waters were amassed into the oceanic basins as the continents suddenly emerged (Genesis 1:9-10). Continents were uplifted and the ocean floor was depressed during a grand faulting process that established the physical foundations of the earth. Biblical accounts of that event report that when the angels in heaven saw this mightiest sign and wonder of all time, they jubilantly praised the Omnipotent God as this earth-shaking process transpired.

Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding. (Job 38:4)

Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it? (Job 38:5)

Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof; that the line which thou didst stretch may be fastened? or who laid the inward stones thereof; (Job 38:8)

Where wast thou when I laid the foundations thereof; or who was with me, when I paved the corner thereof; (Job 38:9)

Who laid the cornerstone thereof; or who stretched the line upon it? (Job 38:7)

It was God Almighty who gave him the ten commandments, when God spoke to Moses on Mt. Sinai and commanded him to split open and come out of the Sea. (Exodus 14:21)

God’s voice expressed his wrath (Amos 1:12). David’s purpose was to bring judgment on sin through his consuming wrath, and begin the human race again from Noah’s family. Notwithstanding, the historical record of Israel’s crossing the Red Sea is poetically a heightened account that appears in Psalm 77:18. God’s voice expressed earthquakes that accompanied this extraordinary deliverance. Albeit though, before God spoke to Moses on Mt. Sinai and gave him the ten commandments, there was such a great earthquake that shook the mountain (Exodus 19:18). It is totally incredible that no doubt that God wanted to use the earthquake to prepare both Moses and Israel for the important truths that he was going to communicate through them to the commandments.

The fall of Jericho came about as a result of a heavy earthquake that toppled the walls of the city. (Joshua 6:20)

As soon as he finished saying all this, the ground under them split apart (Joshua 6:25) and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, with their households and all Korah’s men and all those wicked Philistines. In all this, the epitome is when Elijah went up on Mt. Horeb upon God’s request. When God wanted to speak to Elijah at this Mt. Sinai, as did he before to Moses, after the occurrence of a massive earthquake, the Lord chose a sequence of events that would clearly underscore the gravity of HIM passing by (1 Kings 19:11). For Elijah who had been hiding in a cave, the Lord sent a series of fearful events that included a monumental earthquake before HE could, in HIS meekness, reveal HIMSELF, simply in a still, and small voice. On the other hand, King Uzziah enjoyed his tenure as the longest reigning king of Judah to the extent that he could, in HIS strength, fulfill prophecy and wreak havoc on the land. (2 Chronicles 26), and because the Lord the God of Israel dislikes pride, HE afflicted Uzziah’s kingdom and buildings with a great horrendous earthquakes (Amos 1:1; Zechariah 14:5). In that earthquake, the Lord also afflicted King Uzziah personally with an incurable leprosy. Until today, scientific evidence has it that this earthquake was the largest in the entire history of Palestine. Moreover, after all these temblors, the most symbolic of them all, was yet to present in the fullness of time. It all happened when our Lord Jesus died on the cross and a great earthquake tore the curtain of the sanctuary of the Temple and many holy dead saint were resurrected from their tombs.

"At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook and the rocks split. (Mark 15:37). The tombs broke open and the bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life. (Mark 15:38). They came out of the tombs, and after Jesus’ resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many people. (When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified, and exclaimed, “Surely he was the Son of God!” (Matthew 27:51-54).

"Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding. (Job 38:4)

Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it? (Job 38:5)

Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof; that the line which thou didst stretch may be fastened? or who laid the inward stones thereof; (Job 38:8)

Where wast thou when I laid the foundations thereof; or who was with me, when I paved the corner thereof; (Job 38:9)

Who laid the cornerstone thereof; or who stretched the line upon it? (Job 38:7)

God delivered that city by causing an instant earthquake. However, in talking about earthquakes it would be a great disservice to the body of Christ, if we can lose sight of that most revered and fearful day when Korah and his men openly rebelled against Moses in the public. When Korah and his men did such a despicable act, the land on which they were camped was hit by an instant earthquake that caused it to split apart, swallowed, and closed back upon them. The two hundred and fifty men, women and children were on that most dreadful day destroyed by God because they were in rebellion against him.

"As soon as he finished saying all this, the ground under them split apart and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, with their households and all Korah’s men and all those wicked Philistines. In all this, the epitome is when Elijah went up on Mt. Horeb upon God’s request. When God wanted to speak to Elijah at this Mt. Sinai, as did he before to Moses, after the occurrence of a massive earthquake, the Lord chose a sequence of events that would clearly underscore the gravity of HIM passing by (1 Kings 19:11). For Elijah who had been hiding in a cave, the Lord sent a series of fearful events that included a monumental earthquake before HE could, in HIS meekness, reveal HIMSELF, simply in a still, and small voice. On the other hand, King Uzziah enjoyed his tenure as the longest reigning king of Judah to the extent that he was proud of his great building and the strength of his mighty army (2 Chronicles 26), and because the Lord the God of Israel dislikes pride, HE afflicted Uzziah’s kingdom and buildings with a great horrendous earthquakes (Amos 1:1; Zechariah 14:5). In that earthquake, the Lord also afflicted King Uzziah personally with an incurable leprosy. Until today, scientific evidence has it that this earthquake was the largest in the entire history of Palestine. Moreover, after all these temblors, the most symbolic of them all, was yet to present in the fullness of time. It all happened when our Lord Jesus died on the cross and a great earthquake tore the curtain of the sanctuary of the Temple and many holy dead saint were resurrected from their tombs.

"At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook and the rocks split. (Mark 15:37). The tombs broke open and the bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life. (Mark 15:38). They came out of the tombs, and after Jesus’ resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many people. (When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified, and exclaimed, “Surely he was the Son of God!” (Matthew 27:51-54).
The monumental earthquake that happened at the crucifixion in Jerusalem was used by the LORD to show the great salvation that had been accomplished that day on the Cross. Because of that humongous earthquake, theConsturction and those at the Cross, immediately recognized that Jesus was indeed the Son of the LIVING GOD. Nonetheless, when one thought that, was it all about that Jerusalem earthquake, then came one that rolled away the stone of our Lord’s tomb. Further on, as the gospel began to progress, Paul and Silas were released from prison by a massive earthquake that indeed authenticated their testimony. The jailer who witnessed the event recognized the Lord’s hand and believed in the Lord Jesus (Acts 16:26).

Quakes Despire Development...

The Lord Jesus in his last days, faithfully predicted in the Olivet discourse that a pronounced increase in the frequency and intensity of earthquakes would occur just prior to his return to the earth. This coincidence between the prophetic statements that Jesus pronounced and the recent increase in seismic events globally, is a matter to treat with utmost gravity. By taking steps to mitigate the under-development that characterize the greater part of his rugged life in the past centuries, mankind has most recently embarked on an aggressive technological advancement in macro economics, architecture, medicine, aerospace science and others. Information technology appears to be the driving force that is propelling man to his definitive destination of post-modernism. It is in this most belligerent pursuit of advancement that man has unfortunately morphed himself into a post-modern being that has totally failed to evince any glimmer of understanding on the fear of the Lord. The rogue pursuit of such post-modern sophistication is what has today caused mankind to blantly breach the basic law of the grace by rewarding the technologically stronger among the populace. The alternative law that the world has now adopted, does not respect bondmen of the Lord, but highly remunerates those who have transformed into brigands that prey upon the weaker members of the human society. The Lord viewed this abuse of the grace as a heinous level of bigotry in today’s post-modern life. This is what has finally caused the Lord to raise up his mighty outstretched arm in revolt, to pre-empt man’s safety and self-protection. That is the reason God Almighty is today able to raze down man’s godless civilization including very tall buildings.

2009 Quake Prophecy

Unmistakably, on that June 17th 2009, when I dialed the phone into Jesus is Lord radio station and went live on air to pronounce what the Lord had said, every listener must have clearly understood that God’s gravity was become very clear to me, on how tsunamis overpower huge territories of habitation and civilization. In that vision of the coming earthquakes and tsunamis, as the first wave hits, it would be very closely followed by the second, third and fourth waves, in a row; all the way to the 9th wave. Most conspicuous then in that prophecy, was the gory narrative of how people would run for their dear lives towards the higher hilly grounds. In that vision, I saw that men, women and children notwithstanding, had to escape their lives. As for the exact location of the earthquake that was upcoming, the Lord allowed me to describe the concerned island nations and how their people would be heavily shaken by the overwhelming wrath of the earthquake and its angry tsunami waves. The cup of the wrath of God was overflowing to the extent that HE had to demand for a genuine Repentance & turning away from sin, and the only way to escape was to move up higher ground.

It was At This Mighty Evening Meeting In San Felix, That The South Pacific Ocean Was Commanded To Come Out, An Earthquake Was Called To Split The Bottom Of The Ocean In A Prophecy That Stunned The World.

SEPTEMBER 30th – OCTOBER 1st, 2009 FILLED UP

After 1 Month & 28 Days, The Prophet Was Rapidly Fulfilled With A Historic Cascade Of Non-Stop Earthquakes & Tsunamis That Have Destroyed Property & Killed Lots Of People, Even Upto October 15th 2009. This Has Since Then Shaken The South Pacific & Indian Ocean To Levels Never Witnessed Before, Right From American Samoa Through To Tonga, Vanuatu And Indonesia.

San Felix, Venezuela
AUGUST 5, 2009 PROPHECY

Prophecy Published

Following the pronouncement of this prophecy on June 17th 2009, I was compelled by the Holy Spirit to publish it in the Restonance & Holiness magazine, June 2009 edition. This is a periodic SIN . . .

During that uncommon June 17th 2009 visitation, the Lord God Almighty spoke with me about the abhorreable sin that had consumed those island nations and chief among them was sexual sin. The Lord repeated history here by taking me across the entire groups of islands like did now attempted to run back towards the shores, I then saw heavy rocks splitting from the top of the mountain and pursuing those who had come to take refuge from the dreadful 2009 South Pacific and Indian Ocean earthquake and tsunami. That prophecy did not fail to warn that the Lord would shake their graves, ransack their homes, with their roads virtually becoming horrendous death traps, and flocks of vultures that would colonize and map the track of the scavenger outlaws in that post-tsunami desolation. This I said would yield untold panic among the inhabitants of those islands that have excessively indulged in detestable acts of homosexuality, sexual sin, lesbianism, other immorality, false prophets, false apostles, and the like evil.
The 2009 Samoa earthquake & tsunami warning was immediately issued for New Zealand and nearby islands. According to the news reports that day, four waves 15 to 20 feet (4 to 6 meters) struck American Samoa, reaching up to a mile (1.5 kilometres) inland and killing at least 99 people instantly. On that September 29th 2009 at exactly 03:20 pm ET, news networks began to first erroneously post Alerts to the effect that there was a high probability that major earthquakes under the sea would not generate significant tsunami. In their initial description, this error that caused people to be laid back, turned out to be very costly and deadly since they even purported that a tsunami wave could only depend on whether and how much of the floor of the sea had shifted. However, later on the contrary situation played out in a manner that turned very deadly, as a significant thrust on the sea floor acted like a giant paddle, and released an alarming tsunami. Because of the humongous magnitude of the earthquake, at the sea floor, a wide-scale tsunami alert was posted across most of the beaches. It is only later that a relief consummated when the experts reported by the Pacific Tsunami Warning Centre that no tsunami was expected along the California, Washington, British Columbia, and Alaska coasts. That just underlines how enormous this undersea earthquake was on that fateful September 29th 2009. Human wisdom was on that day humiliated when God Almighty bypassed the Pacific Tsunami Warning Centre that had however released a map showing how long it would take for any possible tsunami from this quake to reach various shorelines in the Pacific basin. And yet, the waves stealthily appeared in a very sudden manner and caused such a deadly tsunami to the shock of all. This was mainly because the experts forgot that on the open ocean, a God-sent tsunami is barely noticeable. A wave that might be just inches high can grow to building-tall proportions as it meets a rising sea floor near the coast. And that is exactly what happened on that nightmare day, for the islanders. The aggressive waves of tsunami gathered such an unprecedented force with which they made such a gruesome landing ashore. It was as though the ocean vomited all the contents of her stomach at that place.

SEEKING THE HIGHER GROUND

It is absolutely incredible that in that prophecy that preceded the onset of this humongous earth shaking quakes and tsunamis, there was a clear segment that openly expounded to greater details. The dynamics of that tsunami even as it ensues. Chief among them was the mention in that August 1st 2009 prophecy that people would literally run for their lives towards the mountains and higher grounds. But, to finally see the unfolding of the South Pacific earthquake and tsunami, and to hear the Samoan Red Cross saying they had to open several temporary shelters for over 15,000 people affected by the tsunami, is such a humbling experience on the ways of God. Even eye witness accounts, including a resort owner in Samoa telling National Public Radio (NPR) that when they saw the waters recede out to the coastal reef immediately after the quake had just struck, their gut feeling left a bitter after taste in their minds. They said that they knew something very very wrong and big was just about to happen, and they made for higher ground. Shockingly, when the prophecy pronounced that people would run away from the high speed angry waves of fury, little did the nations of the earth know that that running to higher grounds would mark the countenance of those island nations, including the American Samoa. Furthermore, they did not perceive the gravity of it is that running to higher grounds would save human lives, little wonder, when it all happened on that September 29th 2009, government officials in Samoa were quoted as saying, “People ran away to higher grounds, but others didn’t make it. At this hour, they are still searching for people’s bodies, some of which have been recovered, some have not been recovered,” said the officials. “Five minutes from when the earthquake struck to when the tsunami hit is just not ample time for people to get to higher ground. No way," said the government officials. "Kids were walking along the main road going to school, workers were getting up to catch transportation to get to work," Paul added. That’s the area that was hardest hit, and that’s total destruction there," reported the government official. The leadership of the American Samoa were heard lamenting of those who did not manage to get to higher grounds, by saying, "So much has gone. So many people are gone," he told reporters on board. "I’m so shocked, so saddened people are gone," he told reporters on Oct. 3rd, 2009, after the quake of magnitude 8.3 that struck the South Pacific near Samoa, sparking tsunami waves that killed at least 178 people and devastated coastal villages in Samoa, American Samoa and in northern Tonga. Total destruction. However, the top leadership of the American Samoa took a little time to appreciate life for those who were saved by saying, "Thankfully, the alarm sounded on the radio and gave people time to climb to higher grounds," he said. "But not everyone escaped." This has since then served as a very serious lesson that when the Lord pronounces a prophecy, every word of that prophecy therein becomes extremely very critical to perceive. For this particular prophecy, the key word of highlight seemed to have been higher grounds. However, in it all it is so baffling to look at the South Pacific. The Associated Press then began to report of a huge panic on September 30, 2009 by the military transports which rushed to ferry disaster relief supplies into the Samoa on Wednesday, a day after the islands bore the brunt of a devastating earthquake-fueled tsunami that killed at least 140 people and left a wake of destruction across the South Pacific. As officials expected the death toll to rise, signs of destruction were everywhere in Samoa and American Samoa, the islands closest to the magnitude 8.0 quake that triggered the killer waves. Streets and fields in American Samoa’s capital,Pago, were filled with debris, mud, overturned cars and several boats as a massive cleanup effort stretched into the night. Several buildings in the city just a few feet above sea level were flattened. A blackout reigned as power was expected to be out in the areas for up to a month. Given the strength of the earthquake, and magnitude of devastation, the US President Obama immediately declared the territory a major disaster area, and military transports carrying medical personnel, food, water, medicines and other supplies were released to the stricken islands.

MULTIPLE EARTHQUAKES

Following the initial huge temblor that struck the South Pacific Ocean and its subsequent deadly tsunami, a historic cascade of massive quakes has since then ensued in that ocean. Several islands have now been struck and jolted by quakes to the extent that life has been reduced to a state of perpetual panic. As though that were not enough some distress, a very strong earthquake rattled the Indonesian island of Java on Friday, sending panicked people into the streets of the capital city, Jakarta. Even iReporters presented short clips of how that quake jolted office buildings in the capital city, Jakarta. It is then that the U.S. Geological Survey put the quake’s magnitude at 6.1—lowering it from an earlier magnitude of 7.5. The epicentre of that quake was reported to be located in the Sunda Strait which is the narrow body of water between Java and Sumatra islands, about 115 miles (180 km) southwest of Jakarta, according to the USGS. The tremor struck shortly before 5 pm local time (6 am ET) and prompted a massive evacuation in downtown Jakarta. A mosque in Banten province, located on the western edge of Java, sustained significant damage, while other buildings including several houses, were flattened. It is part of the series of temblors that have rattled Indonesia, to the extent that a record six large earthquakes have occurred in Indonesia within the shortest timespan of two months. The latest earthquake took place on October 16th 2009 with a reading of magnitude 7.4. Immediately following the Samoan earthquake, a deadliest temblor jolted Padang in Indonesia with a 7.6-magnitude. This Sumatran quake happened on September 30, following a 6.6-magnitude earthquake a day later. More than 1,000 people have died after the initial quake destroyed buildings in the city of Padang, the capital of West Sumatra. Upto 4,000 people are buried under the rubble. A huge cascade of a record 16 undersea earthquakes hit the South Pacific on October 7th, 2009. Of the 16, four were very massive earthquakes that roared the sea floor and the basic common denominator does not seem to have changed at all. In every panic, and running for life that the islanders have experienced, those moments seem to have persistently borrowed from the framing of the prophecy that stated the quakes in the first place. That is the reason the authorities in New Caledonia too, a French territory, were on October 7th 2009, rapidly evacuating people from the island’s eastern shores and from the nearby Loyalty Islands to higher grounds, as reported by the local police. As that happened the police spokesman in the capital, Noumea, said the nation was as a matter of fact bracing itself for a massive tsunami to hit around 8:15 pm EDT on Thursday. That warning came. The tsunami hit the South Pacific near Samoa, sparking tsunami waves that killed at least 178 people and devastated coastal villages in Samoa, American Samoa and in northern Tonga.

What is especially so shocking is that many leading seismologists and geologists across the earth seem to have been greatly surprised that the first two huge quakes hit the same region on the same day. And this has continued in a relentless cascade that has since seen multitudes of major earthquakes hit the same region from September 29th through into October 16th 2009. Even leading global media networks have been very perplexed at this new trend and wave of earthquakes to the extent that they have posted many demanding questions. The questions that is being fronted by different television and media outlets is as to how such massive quakes can hit the same region same day with such impunity and yet not be detectable. Although the first quakes in the Samoan and Indonesia struck within 24 hours of each other, experts have asserted that there was no link between them. The U.S.-based National Earthquake Information Centre issued a statement saying that for sure something wrong must be going on the earth because in their years of research they had been fully convinced that because that quakes are essentially a random process, these two in Samoa and Indonesia respectively, are not related,”. It is not years of the research work, but the admission by these scientists that whereas the two quakes re not related something must still be going on with the earth to warrant such unrelated quakes to strike on the same day. It is as though mankind is beginning to reckoning with the authority of God given that the modern sophistication of science now appears to be acknowledging that these quakes cannot just be a coincidence. It is at this most critical threshold that man’s salvation into the rupture can be easily scored. This is because the quakes are of global impact and the reckoning is that they cannot have been a coincidence. Surely
There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines. These are the beginning of birth pains (Mark 13:5). The fact that earthquakes are now happening in various places seriously points at the dwindling to time towards the return of the Messiah. Surely the manner in which the waves of earthquakes are now striking the earth can only imply that sooner than later the Messiah will take church in the rapture. The magnitude of human suffering released by these non-stop earthquakes and tsunamis lends the true definition of the beginning of birth pains. In the first century Palestine every time an expectant woman moved closer to her due date, the Hebrew presentation of that condition can be directly transduced as sorrows. It was a sorrowful time for a woman because of the horrific pains she went through towards the due day. So it is with the church at this hour. The sorrows are too much as one earthquake after the other strike in a sequential cascade. Each of them though can stand out as monumental shaking of historic proportions because of the strength of their jolting and the fury of their tsunami waves. It is then prudent that even as people rend their hearts at the widescale devastation from these earthquakes, they should be realistic to the fact the Messias is coming. Nonetheless, Christ will come for his bride at an hour when all men on earth will be least expecting. He will come like a thief that comes to snatch away a precious item from the house (church; Revelation 16:15). These earthquakes are indeed more of a spiritual message that is being conveyed to mankind. In the past God may have overlooked such ignorance of indulging in sin, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent and turn away from sin in order to prepare the way for the coming of the Lord (Acts 17:30-31; Isaiah 40:1-5). That is the reason the Lord has made up his mind to defeat the sophistication of human technology by bringing these waves of earthquakes at the same time, that man may be able to connect the dots and prepare for the Messiah. These earthquakes indeed are the greatest embodiment of the love of God (Agape) to mankind. That the Lord spoke with me about these earthquakes and tsunami way back on June 17th 2009, and published in a magazine and prophesied them on August 1st and 4th in Venezuela, and then they happened one and twenty-five days later, is an occurrence that cannot be taken for granted. The Messias is coming.

VISION OF THE HAND WRITTEN NOTE FROM HEAVEN

May 11, 2009 Visitation of God

THE VISION THAT DEFINED GOD’S LOVE

Because the periodic recurrence of divine incarnations is a part of God’s creative enterprise, signs such as the beginning of birth pains are imprinted in the God’s Grand Master Plan of the Omnipotent. Sages, through their awakened soul intuition, can read the heavenly inscriptions; and if it be in accord with God’s will, that such a future event be made known, they prophesy in plain and at times in veiled revelations. This is indeed one of the ways that God assures His children of His awareness of their need for His presence amongst them. Of the future coming of the Messiah, several references are cited by devout Seers like in the book of Prophet Isaiah. That rather He chose to make Himself known through the diverse and worthy instrument of the Loro Jesus fashioned a form in which He then designed to dwell among His creatures. Consequently, divine intercession to mitigate the law of cause and effect, by which a man suffers awful penalty for his errors, was at the heart of the mission of the love Jesus came fulfilled. Whilst Moses may have brought the law from God to man, emphasizing the awful justice that befalls willful heedlessness, Jesus on the other hand overruled that when He came to demonstrate the forgiveness in the coming of God, whose love is a refuge even from exacting law. In archeology terminology, the record left behind by the Lord Jesus in the Olivet Discourse, does vividly evince the highest degree of divine realization, that makes known to man the deep esoteric truth experienced and transferred at the Calvary Cross. However, today the Holy Spirit presents this truth taught by Jesus, from the point of view of an inward intuitive realization. “Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do”; with these words Jesus placed his signature on a unique life that enthroned him everlasting on the altar of worshipful hearts as the incarnation of God’s loving compassion. That is the reason God can afford to lavish today’s church with such a phenomenal vision like that of May 11, 2009, which effectively translates into Love Unending. The Good Shepherd of souls, opened His arms to all, indeed rejecting none, and with His universal love coaxed the whole world to follow Him on the path to eternity, through His example of sacrifice, renunciation, forgiveness, love for friend and enemy alike, and supreme love for God Almighty, above all else. Therefore, this vision of a Note Written by God’s own hand, now unveils to us the deeper tidings that manifested when Jesus appeared as a tiny babe in the manger at Bethlehem, and as a Saviour who healed the sick and raised the dead and applied the salve of His love on the wounds of man’s errors. Christ Jesus truly lived among men as one of them that they too might learn to fear God Almighty and hence receive an invitation of entry into the kingdom of God. Today, through this loving vision of the hand-written note of God, we are vividly reminded here of the deeper unsearchable nature of Jehovah God. To the extent that mere mortals like the church can now cope with life of unsolved and insoluble mysteries, in an inescapable universe created by the Omnipoence of God; it must have surely taken the Blood of Jesus. Of the Omniscient essence of His Omniprovidence, would indeed an overwhelming challenge be, were it not for His divine emissary Jesus, who came to earth to reveal the voice and authority of God Almighty. For the guidance of erred man, the Lord Jesus did this in order that one day the evil church may also qualify to enter the wedding of the Lamb, not by their works but by Grace. Indeed, this vision of the Written Note of God is the pure testimony that Christ, the beloved Son of God didt embark on a storm-tossed sea of prejudiced minds, and their cruel-thought waves bitterly lashed his tender heart (Isaiah 53:1-12). And yet in it all, the trial on the Cross scored an immortal victory of humility over force, and soul over flesh. It is that particular fete on the Cross at Calvary, that has finally permitted God Almighty, who Himself had vowed to do off the sinnerliness with which he would appear at the midnight hour to take the church, only to relent (Revelation 16:15). By mercies unspeakable, now the Lord rescinds this and sends a Personal Hand-Written Note alerting mankind of the preparedness hour in the nigh. Truly, this 2:50am May 11, 2009 vision, had everything to do with revealing the esoteric message of God’s Agape love for today’s sinful and fallen church. Again, like it was at the inception of baby Jesus in Bethlehem, when the fullness of the time was come to redeem them, that which were under the curse of sin, God has now sent this love note that the church might receive the adoption of sons. But, this too acts as a call to repentance because when the fulfillment of the promise tarried, the church has recently drifted into sin as though they enjoyed a form of impunity. Whereas the Light of the truth seemed to have departed from among them, there were souls who were looking for that Light and who were filled with perplexity and sorrow, especially having encountered Jehovah their God, in the past. The more this darkness consummated in the House of the indulging in sin, the more they were thirsty for the knowledge of their Living God and for some little assurance of life beyond the graves. Likewise, in the church today, worship services have indeed been virtually converted into large-scale stage-production that chiefly represent legendary and traditional events, or tableaux in which the dramatic interest of the Lord has now become less important than the spectacle itself. Church services have now deteriorated into an elaborately colourful processional display, with ceremonial value other than the true worship in the Holy Spirit. This is the reason that when the Lord remembered the church once more and lavished her with this mighty vision of His own hand-written missive; it became on that May 11, the greatest milestone of hope and renewal in the church.

THE VISION

This year the Lord the God of Israel remembered Europe when He sent me to Paris, France to announce to them that the coming of the Messias has now drawn nearer than when they first believed. It caused me to hold a mighty revival meeting in Paris, at which the Man of the Spirit allowed me share with the Church of Christ in France about the hidden secrets of the Kingdom of God regarding the coming of the Messias. It was an elegant presentation of the entire conversation that the Lord has had with me regarding the coming of Christ Jesus in the rapture. I faithfully preserved the glorious message of the wedding rings in the sky, the revelation on the rapture of the dead, and the 5:30am vision of the mighty clock of God. Towards the end of that mission in France, as I prepared to leave that country, on that May 11, 2009 night, God Almighty visited me in the mightiest way, yet. It has since then turned out to be the most shocking vision to behold, because it involved the Lord God Almighty Himself literally handing me down His Personal Hand-Written Note. A direct communication to me about what took may break away upon waking up. It has also virtually merited as the most significant visitation in the church yet, within a series of outstanding phantom visions that the Loro has been conversationing with the church on, regarding the most recent vision of the Cross. On that May 11th 2009, come 2:50am in the night, then I saw the mighty vision of God Almighty. And all of a sudden, in that exceptional vision of God, I was walking along a narrow path that was well illuminated from the far mountain of the Light that shone from above was so startling that I could literally feel the weight of the rays as they shone on the path. I was also made very much aware of the fact that this was most holy ground. The illumination of that bright Light that shone from above, made it possible for me to see every rock and stone that was on the road I walked in that vision. And surely it was that brilliant Light that enabled me to navigate on that path without behind His coming as a thief in the midnight hour (Revelation 16:15; Matthew 24:36; Matthew 25:1-13). A loving compassion of this magnitude does not in any way take away from the standard benchmark of holiness Almighty in heaven, revealed that the first writing that was above the other two read:

IAM COMING

As I read on, the second writing in descending order, the one that was sandwiched between the two, it read:

Today, it is common knowledge for all devout christians that read the bible, that the most anticipated and sometimes dreadful coming of the LORD in the rapture, will mark the most ultimate culmination on the timeline. This is because at rapture the church will access entry into the kingdom of God. What makes this particular note even more precious is that the LORD’s coming stands out as a hidden and secret event, and yet God Almighty deemed it fit on that day to pronounce it in such a direct and open magnificent way. It is suffice to say that the scriptural context of the LORD’s coming will incontrovertibly

Waking up from the vision is when I looked at the clock and realized it was at about 2:50am in the morning. I also gradually began to embrace the sobering and most perplexing reality that the LORD Almighty had spoken from heaven, but this time around by a direct hand-written note. More to it was the most important content of the missive that the Messiah is coming. This directly and most immediately brought me down on my knees as I began to pray for the church of Christ world-over, especially given their unpreparedness.

REVELATION

behind His coming as a thief in the midnight hour (Revelation 16:15; Matthew 24:36; Matthew 25:1-13). A loving compassion of this magnitude does not in any way take away from the standard benchmark of holiness Almighty in heaven, revealed that the first writing that was above the other two read:

IAM COMING

As I read on, the second writing in descending order, the one that was sandwiched between the two, it read:

Today, it is common knowledge for all devout christians that read the bible, that the most anticipated and sometimes dreadful coming of the LORD in the rapture, will mark the most ultimate culmination on the timeline. This is because at rapture the church will access entry into the kingdom of God. What makes this particular note even more precious is that the LORD’s coming stands out as a hidden and secret event, and yet God Almighty deemed it fit on that day to pronounce it in such a direct and open magnificent way. It is suffice to say that the scriptural context of the LORD’s coming will incontrovertibly

Waking up from the vision is when I looked at the clock and realized it was at about 2:50am in the morning. I also gradually began to embrace the sobering and most perplexing reality that the LORD Almighty had spoken from heaven, but this time around by a direct hand-written note. More to it was the most important content of the missive that the Messiah is coming. This directly and most immediately brought me down on my knees as I began to pray for the church of Christ world-over, especially given their unpreparedness.

REVELATION

Today, it is common knowledge for all devout christians that read the bible, that the most anticipated and sometimes dreadful coming of the LORD in the rapture, will mark the most ultimate culmination on the timeline. This is because at rapture the church will access entry into the kingdom of God. What makes this particular note even more precious is that the LORD’s coming stands out as a hidden and secret event, and yet God Almighty deemed it fit on that day to pronounce it in such a direct and open magnificent way. It is suffice to say that the scriptural context of the LORD’s coming will incontrovertibly

Waking up from the vision is when I looked at the clock and realized it was at about 2:50am in the morning. I also gradually began to embrace the sobering and most perplexing reality that the LORD Almighty had spoken from heaven, but this time around by a direct hand-written note. More to it was the most important content of the missive that the Messiah is coming. This directly and most immediately brought me down on my knees as I began to pray for the church of Christ world-over, especially given their unpreparedness.

REVELATION

Today, it is common knowledge for all devout christians that read the bible, that the most anticipated and sometimes dreadful coming of the LORD in the rapture, will mark the most ultimate culmination on the timeline. This is because at rapture the church will access entry into the kingdom of God. What makes this particular note even more precious is that the LORD’s coming stands out as a hidden and secret event, and yet God Almighty deemed it fit on that day to pronounce it in such a direct and open magnificent way. It is suffice to say that the scriptural context of the LORD’s coming will incontrovertibly

Waking up from the vision is when I looked at the clock and realized it was at about 2:50am in the morning. I also gradually began to embrace the sobering and most perplexing reality that the LORD Almighty had spoken from heaven, but this time around by a direct hand-written note. More to it was the most important content of the missive that the Messiah is coming. This directly and most immediately brought me down on my knees as I began to pray for the church of Christ world-over, especially given their unpreparedness.

REVELATION

Today, it is common knowledge for all devout christians that read the bible, that the most anticipated and sometimes dreadful coming of the LORD in the rapture, will mark the most ultimate culmination on the timeline. This is because at rapture the church will access entry into the kingdom of God. What makes this particular note even more precious is that the LORD’s coming stands out as a hidden and secret event, and yet God Almighty deemed it fit on that day to pronounce it in such a direct and open magnificent way. It is suffice to say that the scriptural context of the LORD’s coming will incontrovertibly

Waking up from the vision is when I looked at the clock and realized it was at about 2:50am in the morning. I also gradually began to embrace the sobering and most perplexing reality that the LORD Almighty had spoken from heaven, but this time around by a direct hand-written note. More to it was the most important content of the missive that the Messiah is coming. This directly and most immediately brought me down on my knees as I began to pray for the church of Christ world-over, especially given their unpreparedness.

REVELATION

Today, it is common knowledge for all devout christians that read the bible, that the most anticipated and sometimes dreadful coming of the LORD in the rapture, will mark the most ultimate culmination on the timeline. This is because at rapture the church will access entry into the kingdom of God. What makes this particular note even more precious is that the LORD’s coming stands out as a hidden and secret event, and yet God Almighty deemed it fit on that day to pronounce it in such a direct and open magnificent way. It is suffice to say that the scriptural context of the LORD’s coming will incontrovertibly

Waking up from the vision is when I looked at the clock and realized it was at about 2:50am in the morning. I also gradually began to embrace the sobering and most perplexing reality that the LORD Almighty had spoken from heaven, but this time around by a direct hand-written note. More to it was the most important content of the missive that the Messiah is coming. This directly and most immediately brought me down on my knees as I began to pray for the church of Christ world-over, especially given their unpreparedness.

REVELATION

Today, it is common knowledge for all devout christians that read the bible, that the most anticipated and sometimes dreadful coming of the LORD in the rapture, will mark the most ultimate culmination on the timeline. This is because at rapture the church will access entry into the kingdom of God. What makes this particular note even more precious is that the LORD’s coming stands out as a hidden and secret event, and yet God Almighty deemed it fit on that day to pronounce it in such a direct and open magnificent way. It is suffice to say that the scriptural context of the LORD’s coming will incontrovertibly

Waking up from the vision is when I looked at the clock and realized it was at about 2:50am in the morning. I also gradually began to embrace the sobering and most perplexing reality that the LORD Almighty had spoken from heaven, but this time around by a direct hand-written note. More to it was the most important content of the missive that the Messiah is coming. This directly and most immediately brought me down on my knees as I began to pray for the church of Christ world-over, especially given their unpreparedness.
Spirit were they inspired.

But when the time had fully come, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under law, to redeem those under law, that we might receive the full rights of sons (Gal 4:4-5).

And it is this particular promise defining the church as God’s, that the devil most reverses. This is squarely because the symbol of identity between the church and God Almighty is a very strong covenant, Christ Jesus.

And the mere mention of Christ Jesus in the new era, the identity of the fullness of God’s endogeny ignites the end of her sojourning and permits the great clock of time to exempt her from the “days prolonged and visions failed” (Ezekiel 12:22).

That can only imply that this written note of God is meant to ignite and endue revision into the Matthew 24:1-35. God Almighty is hereby using this written note with its content, to remind man of the original works of salvation on the Cross at Calvary.

The salvation that purchased the church was received from the blood and the cross at Calvary. And hence because the Law Spirit was well aware that spiritual amnesia would disturb by inflicting the church with a very wicked form of forgetfulness, then came this reminder in the written note. I am Coming, says the Lord, but the church must jealously hold on to what she received at Calvary in order that her crown may not get off her head. Of this matter it is well too that in biblical perspective the crown greatly stands out as a symbol of the achievement that one has scored in life. Then, for the Lord to have appended this caution on the church to ensure that she holds on to what she originally received, in order that she may not lose her crown, then it can only mean that the church’s crown is right now at stake here. While seemingly cumbersome, this statement is entirely solvable.

This is because the absolute truth bears it that many Christians and Pastors takeoff on a good footing after receiving the salvation of the Lord Jesus, only to waft away into the corruption of the moment. It is that wafting away that equally drifts off the church’s crown into the hands of the adversary. Implication is taken hereof that all the gains thus far awon by believers may have scored in their Christian lives are currently at stake, because they literally have not held onto the original message that was handed down at Calvary. The appendix therefore denotes the revelation behind the statement that God Almighty wrote in that vision when he said; I am Coming. Such a memo is intended for the church of Christ that she may know that her appointed divine promise requires of her spiritual responsibility, Spiritual accountability at this hour becomes critically pivotal to the church because century after century passed away and the voices of Prophets seem to have ceased, to the extent that most of the believers had resigned from taking personal responsibility over their faith and literary succumbed to the heavy hand of the oppressor upon them. The rampant sexual sin, corruption of prosperity, love of money, false prophets, false apostles, witchcraft, lies, etc, that currently plagues the church openly announces her dire need for a healing miracle.

The church has been desperately exclaiming to the Lord for an open heavens for years. The days of Enoch God’s promise was faithfully repeated through the patriarchs and the Prophets in such a way that it kept alive the hope of his appearing, and yet he came not. That is exactly the reason as to why this time around the written note of God re-ignites that living hope because on this round the Messianic is finally coming (1 Thess 4:16-17).

It is reminiscent of that dawn of the noble incarnation of Jesus Christ, when the heavens and earth has consumed the earth owing to the sin of Adam. The incredibility of the adversary had virtually been imprisoned to the people to the extent that there was no hope until the Messiah was incarnated. The magi had seen the marvellous Light of God in the heavens and earth of the church. Which implies he saw the the Light of God that had just been shed on the dark earth. Today too in this vision, the Light of God is ever shining amidst the very darkness and opulence of the church.

The scriptures promised that there would come a star out of Jacob and a sceptre shall rise out of Israel in the days of darkness and a fruit of the Light of God is shed on the earth.

I am coming, therefore this written note has created an excitement that can only extol the Deity of God and its inherent piety, while denouncing the reign of sin and darkness and the identity of the Christians forever. As a matter of fact, now that this heavenly note awakens the church to the unlimited opulence of love from the Lord, this could as well mark the onset of a popular tumult that will eventually unseat the adversary’s dominion in the church. More so, because the message of this written note of God has the capacity to obliterate the previously concealed mistrust between the body of Christ and the Lord over the years due to sin and thwart the schemes of the cunning one. This is plausible because the message on the hand-written note of God, in the strategic coming of the Lord, will spur up a massive preparatory revival of repentance from sin. It is the turning away from sin that restores the novel relationship that Jesus established between the church and God Almighty, at the Cross. On another totally separate occasion in the bible, when the Lord said I am Coming, He tagged it to a very critical message of this dispensation.

Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give everyone according to what he has done (Revelation 22:12).

It is as though when the Lord finally sends this written missive to the church saying I am Coming, He is equally referring to an invitation to a private interview with her even when the church is deemed to be ripe for this rapture. This strictly refers to the obligatory appearance of the raptured church before the white throne of God’s Judgement. It is at this place that the church must account for every act that she got herself involved in, be it in the schemes of the devil or the thought of her mind or the deeds of her life. It is a call to perfectionizing the bride of Christ and to stir-up every Christian believer to strive for the highest prize. This must be done very quickly because the church, by this note which constitutes the treasured wisdom that allows the church into the kingdom of God. Also, the church must not at this hour of the written note, lose fact of the greater need to evangelize the beauty of the Lord Jesus to the heathen; those who do this will shine like the brightness of the stars for ever and ever. It is important to remember that the priests and the elders of Jerusalem were not as ignorant concerning the birth of Christ as they pretended because the report of the angel’s visit to the shepherds had been brought toJerusalem. But the rabbiis treated it as unworthy of their notice and attention. And that is how the priests and elders of Jerusalem missed out on that critical moment of their visitation. The magi on the other hand embraced the report and entered into the history books of heaven. In the same context a caution is hereby advanced before the church.

For God Almighty has to shine a brilliant Light from heaven in that May 11, 2009 vision, even as he descended the written note from heaven to the earth, it must have denoted that the mysterious Light which Jesus brought into the church, had now faded away thereby creating an urgent need for a luminous star to appear and linger in the skies. This is what gave the glimmers of hope as this Light in heaven shines upon the church’s spiritual night even as the glory of God floods the hills, countryside and terrains. This mysterious Light that the Lord shone in the vision essentially acted as a harbinger of the Promised One to come. I am Coming, which implies he comes with the dispensation of Light and hence the church must get out of the darkness and embrace the deeds of day believers. Children are of Light since at their salvation they found marvellous Light that is Christ Jesus. The Lord in that vision did shine the marvellous Light of mysteries from heaven upon the dark face of the earth. In doing so, his message to mankind resonated loud and clear that time had now come for the church to wake up from their slumber because their salvation has not been known nearer than when they first believed.

As he does this understanding present the time. The hour has come for the church to wake up from their slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believe. That is the day over; the day is almost here. So let us set aside the deeds of darkness and stand on the armour of Light. Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and lust, but in humor, wisdom, and devotion and jealousy.

Rather, clothe yourselves with the the faith of Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature (Rom 13:11-14).

The Lord said to the church: The coming of this written note of God is that of eternal life, and only if the church can repent and prepare the way in holiness, for the coming of the Messiah. The arrival of this hand-written note into the church proclaiming the coming of the Lord will be strictly quickened throughout the four ends of the earth in order to renew hope to both the born-again christians and the heathen. God has must repent and prepare the way for the coming of the Lord. However, the strange errand brought into this note of God has created an excitement that can only extol the Deity of God and its inherent piety, while denouncing the reign of sin and darkness and the identity of the Christians forever. As a matter of fact, now that this heavenly note awakens the church to the unlimited opulence of love from the Lord, this could as well mark the onset of a popular tumult that will eventually unseat the adversary’s dominion in the church. More so, because the message of this written note of God has the capacity to obliterate the previously concealed mistrust between the body of Christ and the Lord over the years due to sin and thwart the schemes of the cunning one. This is plausible because the message on the hand-written note of God, in the strategic coming of the Lord, will spur up a massive preparatory revival of repentance from sin. It is the turning away from sin that restores the novel relationship that Jesus established between the church and God Almighty, at the Cross. On another totally separate occasion in the bible, when the Lord said I am Coming, He tagged it to a very critical message of this dispensation.

Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give everyone according to what he has done (Revelation 22:12).
THE SCATTERED SHEEP: June 29th, 2008 vision of the LORD’s flock across the mountain slopes

While God’s hatred of sin is as strong as death, his love for the sinner is stronger than death. Having undertaken the noble task of the redemption of man, the LORD spared nothing that was necessary to complete his work at the Cross. No truth that is paramount to our salvation is withheld, no miracle of mercy is neglected, and yet no divine agency is unemployed. The LORD does this as the compassionate Father of all creation. This is the reason why God Almighty always tends the sheep of his flock with the kindest of heart, leading them to the fountain of fresh waters where the green pastures abounded. With an outstretched majestic arm, the LORD is often quick to gather his sheep and leads them away from eminent danger. By presenting Jesus, God Almighty greeted mankind with the joyful assurance of a good Shepherd. And that is the reason in the greatest symbolic gesture of all time, the angel of the LORD appeared, to none other than shepherds, who were keeping watch of their flocks at night. The angel proclaimed, “Do not be afraid, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all, because in the town of our one and only Christ we come to bring you good news of great joy.” This is the reason why God Almighty greeted mankind with the joyful assurance of a good Shepherd. And that is the reason in the greatest symbolic gesture of all time, the angel of the LORD appeared, to none other than shepherds, who were keeping watch of their flocks at night. The angel proclaimed, “Do not be afraid, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all, because in the town of our one and only Christ we come to bring you good news of great joy.”

THE VISION

On the night of June 29, 2008, I saw the visions of the LORD concerning the precious sheep of his flock in the church of Christ. I was lifted up to some plains of very fertile and dark-green field pasture. At this place there was very tender and succulent dark-green pastures that grew very nicely and enormously thrived to the extent that the whole plain was uniformly covered. A unique beauty emerged across this landscape owing to the colour and uniformity of height that marked this fields. As the Holy Spirit continued to show me the beauty of this landscape, then abruptly came forth the mighty voice of the LORD saying, “Look and see the sheep across the hills.”

That is when upon looking right ahead, there were the incredible outstretched mountain slopes which practically demarcated and outlined the limits of the green grass terrain. The mountain ranges extended their slopes from the right hand-limits all the way to the left hand limits of the green vegetation terrain then made a near-right angled turn. This gave a wholesome view of green grass within the backdrop of dry hilly slopes. A continued look across the mountain slopes that now stood from a distance ahead, immediately revealed that these slopes were as a matter of fact spotted with foraging sheep. The sheep I saw were hapazardly spread across the entire mountain stretch, beginning from the right all the way into the most extreme left. The sheep were fully engaged with an increased activity of movement, in what appeared to be a near unison. They were walking at the same time with complete focus to the ground as they nibbled the little grasses and remnant vegetation that they searched between the rocks, pebbles and small stones. In that vision, a panorama of the mountain presented so much sheep activity across the mountain slopes with each sheep rushing in an attempt to get something into their tummy before the day’s end. A careful scrutiny at the sheep in that early morning vision, gradually revealed that they were as a matter of fact white in colour, though presenting a not pure white countenance. They presented a dirty white kind of colour that can in most cases be associated with unclean. Another feature that prominently emerged, was the percolating water point that distinctly spotted the bottom of the mountain slopes. This was the locality of the green pastures with its adjacent intersection to the mountain slopes. This clean water point seemed to behold the lifeline of the flourishing green pastures. At this juncture, the LORD made me aware in this vision, that the well held a reservoir of cool fresh spring waters that kept the grass lush. Immediately then, I woke up from this mighty vision of the LORD. It took some time, approximately 10 minutes, for me to realize that the LORD had indeed showed me the sheep of his flock and their state. The sheep that the LORD showed me as spread across the slopes, were factually his own flock, though now terrible scattered across the mountain slopes in search of pastures. Because the sheep of Christ are made in the very image and likeness of God, then whenever their condition departs from this, God’s Sunlight is often quick to expose the fall. This becomes the most significant portrayal yet of the condition of anguish that today consumes the heart of God when he watches his own sheep languishing.

REVELATION

This vision presents God’s view as he observes the present-day church. What vividly comes out is the apparent scatter of the sheep of Christ in today’s church. The second most important observation is that of a serious misunderstanding that seems to prevail in the lives of the sheep and their shepherds. This is because of the two perceptible positions that present within the same locality, in that vision. If there wasn’t any misunderstanding then why would the sheep be languishing up the dry hills nibbling for little vegetation when in the actual sense there is such a rich evergreen pasture at the bottom of the hill. Sadly though, is the reality that procures across the dry rocky mountain slopes. It is a harsh condition in which the sheep have to really labour to fend for themselves. More than anything else, it also displays a cruel affront to the wonderful significance with which God briefed the early record of the church. Earlier on, Jehovah intended that the sheep of His flock would be tended in the greener pastures by cool spring waters. This decay across the dry hills, running up and down to catch up with the little vegetation of opportunity, is a significant departure from the original plan of God for His sheep. One cannot fail to perceive the life of scarcity that features very conspicuously among the sheep. This vision paints the real portrait of what is happening in the church today, because the shepherds have blatantly forsaken the LORD who is their fountain of living waters. Along the arid and rocky mountain slopes extreme thirst and hunger abounds because of the grumbling lack of cool fresh drinking water points. Ironically, it is difficult to envisage that the sheep and the shepherds must have initially started off from the greener pastures of the plains, from where they grew and waxed strong in the spirit, filled with wisdom and the grace of God that was upon them. No one can say Jesus is LORD, and give their lives to him, except that they received the Holy Spirit. Therefore I tell you that no one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says, “Jesus be cursed,” and no one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit (1Cor 12:3).

And that being so, the shepherds and the sheep must have partaken of the initial blessing of the Holy Spirit, before they part ways with the LORD. They drifted away from the cool fresh water pervades the greener pastures. The church knows it too well that God Almighty is the fountain of living waters who provided her initial anointing in order to receive Christ Jesus as LORD and Saviour. However, the shepherds washed away from the initial calling of tending the sheep with a Christ-like heart, and hence manhandled the flock with cruelty and such animosity. This cruelty confused the sheep to the extent they became scattered far away from the cool fresher water points, and up the arid mountain slopes. Tragic enough, when today’s pastors received the little initial anointing from the fountain of living waters, they quickly stroke their ceiling levels, and hewn for themselves cisterns that in reality did not hold much water. Unfortunately, the cisterns the pastors hewn for themselves were not as long lasting as the stone jars that Jesus used at Cana, to uphold the new wine. Hence they broke from the strength of the anointing and it is these broken cisterns that today’s pastors have still gone ahead to curve for themselves in an attempt to replace the fountain of living waters. In this vision, the LORD clearly laments the dilapidation upon his sheep. God Almighty greatly decays in tending his flock and it often pleases him to beget, nourish, bring up and protect the sheep for himself. With His mighty stretched-out arms, Jehovah God re-gathers the sheep of His flock from wandering the mountain slopes, back into the greener pastures of His fields. Often the choice of a blessing or a curse is left to mankind. Those that choose the FLAR of the LORD, have by all means attained the blessings therein. But a life of disobedience will normally drift one away into the spiritual aridities and scarcities of this world.

TAKING BROKEN CISTERNs

The bitter lamentation of the LORD over Israel, that he knew his master, and the donkey its owner’s manger, yet his people did not understand, was a deep expression of great anguish that had consumed the LORD’s heart over the lawlessness that had defiled the house (Isaiah 1:3). Israel had indeed strayed by drifting further and further away from Jehovah their...
And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? (John 7:15).

Which indicated they were surprised that Jesus had not received a rabbinical education and yet he had gained enormous knowledge and understanding of the word of God. His intimate acquaintance with the scriptures somehow differentiated to the word of God. So it is today, that the church has relied more into a rabbinical-style of theological education and head knowledge that has swerved the priesthood way up the mountain slopes where there is lack of renewing flow of the Holy Spirit. We must remember that the Holy Spirit is the teacher and the counsellor on the word and matters of God. Otherwise if the church had possessed the Lord’s sacred wisdom and understanding, the sheep would have stayed within the precincts and vistas of spiritual fountain of living waters. Today’s pastors are guilty of scattering the sheep of the Lord’s flock, up the hills and mountains at which green pastures and cool waters are severely lacking. This scattering is what has today made tradition to a greater degree supplanted into worship instead of leading the christians to seek the Lord, if happily they might follow after him. It is a condition that has resulted into a church absorbed in the rounds of externals instead of spending quiet inward time with God. The minds of the christians have hence become crowded with materialism that cannot be recognized in the higher school of the courts above. This has consequently resulted into a church that is worthless and experiences a great spiritual hunger and thirst within the Lord’s flock. In this vision, the fresh water reservoir that the Lord presented at the bottom of the mountain slopes symbolized of the fountain of living water that was intended to re-nourish and revive the church. The spiritual tragedy that has today befallen the church principally emanates from the excessive greed that pastors have indulged in. It has caused pastors to fetch a portion of this living water, then escaping with it to the mountain slopes to do their own things. This denotes the most errant of shepherding that literally herds the innocent sheep not only astray, but also most importantly on a different course from the Lord. It is one thing to tumble and fall while still on the same path, but it is quite another to drift away from the rightful path. Those who tumble and fall can still be picked up, dusted and brought back to their feet on the right path. However, those who drift away go astray because they stray away. Like Israel, the present-day shepherds have eaten their fill and turned disobedience and restlessness to the Lord, as a normal lifestyle. The iconical image of Jesus’ church presents the perfect model of a priesthood gone bad. He grew fat and kicked, and being filled with food, he became heavy in a sleekness that led him to abandon God His Maker, and rejecting the Rock His Saviour.

Jesus knew that the church has relied more into sin. We can testify that otherwise pervades the church of Christ, the royal bride, the house that once did shine with beauty and the glory of life at Pentecost; What become of you today? How come you now lie swalled among the pots? And yet you were fully purchased and led to the fountain of living water from where you drank and ate your green and healthy pastures. Where has that nibbling for the rocks for little remnant vegetation come from? Oh! Church of Christ what has become of thee? This is the question the Lord Almighty asked in the early hours of that June 29, 2008 vision! The heart of God the Father is longing to gather back the sheep of his waters in the church’s hewn cisterns will never agree with the sparkling waters of the living fountain of God, but will always withstand their testimonies forever. Today’s shepherds have gone ahead and hewn for themselves some temporary and leaky cisterns that cannot hold water even for a period. With such cisterns, they were able to initially draw from the fountain of living water. After drawing, they did not remember to return to the fountain for replenishment. It is for this reason that their waters have lost the original sparkle of the bubbling living water. Through this June 29, 2008 vision, Jehovah is mightily calling upon the shepherds to return the sheep of his flock back to the fountain of living waters at the bottom of the hill. Only the Holy Spirit that comes from this living fountain can quench the thirst of the sheep, this late in the day. Up the mountain slopes, the pastors appear to have even forgotten the initial sparkle of the fountain of living water. The sheep are being spiritually dried up, and the holy church.

The sheep against his will, flows from behind the throne of God, Bubbles up with the life of Christ that is intended to gradually transform the Sheep of the Lord’s Sheep’s fountain into the mountain slopes. Where there the church has not received a constant need for refreshing the sheep, that Jesus had not received a fountain of living water in God’s throne. This means that exceedingly great has been the new ideas of ways and means flashed through the apostasy of this age, in church. Yet previously, such vanity had been shielded out hence mighty was the appearance of God inwardly, in the people’s spirits in the first holy church. Then, at that time, God was the living fountain in the hearts of the people. After drawing, they did not remember to return to the fountain for replenishment. This spiritual living water that flows from behind the throne of God, Bubbles up with the life of Christ that is intended to gradually transform the Sheep of the Lord’s Shepherds have dried up, and the holy church.

Today it is common to see Christ’s shepherd and his sheep are singing what has today transformed Shepherding, what has today become but a type of the living fountain. This spiritual living water that flows from behind the throne of God, Bubbles up with the life of Christ that is intended to gradually transform the Sheep of the Lord’s Shepherds have dried up, and the holy church.

The sheep against his will, flows from behind the throne of God, Bubbles up with the life of Christ that is intended to gradually transform the Sheep of the Lord’s Shepherds have dried up, and the holy church.

Jesus stunned displays the extent of his life that was a quiet and simple one. This teaches an important lesson that the more quiet and simple the life of a Christian is, the more free from artificial excitement it becomes and more in harmony with the Holy Spirit it strikes, as a home of the favourable spiritual strength and vigour of stature.

The scattering of the sheep up the mountain slopes as a direct result of the lack of wisdom and understanding in the church. It is the fountain of living water that provides the eternal reservoir of wisdom and understanding that today’s pastors urgently need. In the well from which a community drew water was a highly regarded haven that often identified the tribe. It is for this reason that different communities often prized themselves of the wells from which they and their animals drank. For example, the well of Jacob was so coined that it marked a symbol of their identity that cut across several generations. Such wells had to be highly guarded in such a way that no neighborhood was ever established far away from the well. There was always a constant need for every household to access this fresh water point from which they would replenish their daily supply for their livelihood. Still, the capacity of a well to supply the needs of a community depended on the depth of such a well. It is for this reason that the process of well-digging in Israel always never stopped until the water site was hit. Upon striking the water table, the water often sprang-out and bubbled up, and an upsurging gush to fill the well. This water normally comes from the rapidly flowing ground water aquifers which first encounters the carbon-rich rocks that have highly charged surfaces. These rocks act as physical, chemical and biological filters that purify the water as it is bubbled up to the surface of the well. The more the water was drawn, the more well within and the ground water aquifers replenished its fresh supplies. This is the reason that cool deep wells were referred to as living water. Living because they were constantly bubbling up with life. Like it is with this well, so it is in the spiritual with the church of Christ. The church also needs a constant flow of the life giving spirit of the Lord in order to replenish her spiritual livelihood.

FOUNTAIN OF LIVING WATER

The Lord’s fountain of living water is the foundation of the church, that is, to make the present-day church desperately needs to relocate herself within the proximity of the fountain of living water. That makes the current scatter of the sheep across the mountain slopes a complete aberration from the will of God for the church. The fountain of living water that the church requires for her sustenance is the life-giving Spirit of the Lord that flows from living fountain of God in heaven into the four ends of the known world. This spiritual living water that flows from behind the throne of God, Bubbles up with the life of Christ that is intended to gradually transform the Sheep of the Lord’s Shepherds have dried up, and the holy church.

TODAY’S CHURCH

God’s will for the church was that she be positioned next to the fountain of living water for daily and perpetual spiritual refreshment. It means that the present-day church desperately needs to relocate herself within the proximity of the fountain of living water. That makes the current scatter of the sheep against his will, flows from behind the throne of God, Bubbles up with the life of Christ that is intended to gradually transform the Sheep of the Lord’s Shepherds have dried up, and the holy church.

REFORMATION & REHABILITATION MAGAZINE
GLORIOUS GOSPELS

The fountain of living water that was located at the bottom of the mountain slopes, is the reason why John the Baptist used the green pastures that occupied its vicinity and the entire plains. This fountain is the River of life that the Holy Spirit awails to the church, flowing with spiritual nourishment all the way from the Temple of God in heaven into the whole known earth. The Lord Jesus revealed the timeline to the Baptist to speak with me on my right-hand side. These four horses that the Lord disclosed in that 2004 vision, represent the four apocalyptic horses as they were still at the throne of God. Therefore implies that the events that would mark his return therefrom. These are the ones that embody all the gospels of God’s glory because of God’s glory because of God (Ezekiel 4:1-13). This is how Jesus was glorified in colour. Though they were nothing beneath his notice to judge in him at the well of Jacob, in the sheep that the Lord is glorifying in his holiness.

Looking at the way Christians are immorally dressed, loathful for money, visiting witch-doctors occasionally, basing their love for Christ on miracles of wealth and health, etc., one obviously sees underfed sheep without a shepherd. If they had a shepherd, they would have led them to the wisdom and understanding of the Lord (Ezekiel 34:1-31). Then why haven’t the shepherds returned today’s sheep of the Lord’s flock back to him, if things are this bad? The shepherds have run up and down across the globe in pastors’ conferences, crusades, seminars, Christian universities for degrees and doctorates in theology, looking for wisdom and understanding (Daniel 12:4). But all these academic and theological efforts in today’s church don’t seem to have yielded much wisdom and understanding of the Lord, at all. The most significant question then becomes, where is this wisdom located, that they may visit that place and bring the current quagmire to closure. This is what the Word itself says to shepherds and the sheep as to whom they should run to find this today otherwise very scarce wisdom and understanding.

Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out. And unto man he said, Behold, the man of God: this is what is that wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding (Job 28:27-28).

This is the wisdom and understanding that today’s pastors urgently need in order to return the sheep back to the fountain of the Holy Spirit for spiritual nourishment. It is the return to the fact of the Lord and the departure from evil, that constitute the wisdom and understanding of the Lord, respectively. Only the spiritually well nourished sheep will grow to spiritual maturity. Likewise, only spiritually mature sheep will enter the wedding of the Lamb of God (Ephesians 4:11-13). The Lord is using this June 29, 2008 vision to declare, “woe unto today’s shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of his pasture. The Lord also promises judgment to the shepherds who have not bestowed care on the sheep of his pasture by failing to strengthen the weak, not healing the sick nor binding up the injured (Ezekiel 34:4).

THE SHEEP IN THE VISION

Notably, in this June vision, the Lord instructed his shepherds to show the sheep, they were whitish in colour. Though they were whitish, they were not pure white, hence presenting a dirtened colour. The white in this vision represents the holiness and righteousness of the church. And because the sheep have been scattered away from the fountain of living water, they haven’t heard the privilege of being purged-off sin by the mighty Holy Spirit of God. The Holy Spirit is the final authority that has been charged with the duty of preparing the radiant bride whose gown is spotless, without any wrinkle, blemish or stain. And this means that the Lord is stressing on the need for the sheep to be bronze back to the fountain of living water for cleansing by the blood of Jesus. While this vision also stands for the life of Christ in the church. Solely, the Holy Spirit can spiritually translate and reveal more and more of the person of Christ into the very lives of today’s christians. In the absence of the manifestation of Christ Jesus in the lives of the christians, traces of death begin to show up in their countenance. This death will often appear as the wages of sin, and because their gowns are tainted with stains of sin as they wander across the mountain slopes, death will often claim them. The mere fact that the sheep I saw in this vision were white, though not pure white, means that they actually belong to Christ Jesus, the Living Water (John 4:1-26). Except that they need to keep their fine linen, bright and clean (Revelation 19:6-9). The Lord is today at this last hour re-emphasizing on the urgent need for the raiments of the believers to be whitened as snow as no fuller on earth can whiten them. Only the Holy Spirit of Jehovah can glorify the gown that the church is currently wearing, through wisdom in readiness for the wedding of the Lamb (Matthew 25:1-13; Daniel 12:1-4). For this reason, today’s shepherds need to return the sheep to the Holy Spirit who reveals Christ Jesus the Living Water. And because Jesus mentioned this Living Water in him at the well of Jacob, in the most prominent way, in this mighty vision, God Almighty is asking the church to return to the worship in the spirit and in the truth. Only the Holy Spirit at the fountain of living water can enable today’s scattered sheep to return to this highly celebrated true worship in the spirit and in the truth. In summary, the over-riding take home message that the Lord presented in this June 29, 2008 vision of the scattered sheep, is the centrality of the Holy Spirit in the church. One can almost hear it aloud as God exclaims the need for the church to return to the Holy Spirit to irrigate the arid hearts and souls of today’s decaying church!
THE GLORIOUS KASARANI REVIVAL
August 22-23, 2009

Crippled walked for the first time in 26yrs
Crippled baby walked for the first time

Babies sat for the first time

Blind eyes opened

Crippled stood up & walked

HIV/AIDS healed

Neck healed after car accident

Tremendous Glory of the LORD visited

Many deaf ears opened

The crippled walked

Mentally ill healed
Rheumatic heart disease healed
Paralysis healed

Glorious Holy Spirit outpour

Blind eyes open

Lame boy walked

Many crippled walked
MIGHTY VENEZUELA REVIVAL
August 1st -11th, 2009

Crippled boy walked for the first time since birth

Crippled on a wheelchair, after the Prophet of the Lord lifted his left hand and prayed, she felt the LORD pushing her up out of the wheelchair and she began to walk beautifully during the Valencia Meeting.

Fractured legs healed

The Lame walked

Right short leg pulled and leveled by the LORD

Paralysis healed

Tumour dissolves

Paralysis healed

Schizophrenia healed

Epilepsy healed

Lame walked

Deformed leg straightened

Hernia healed

Severe backache healed

Diabetes healed

Deaf ears opened

The Glorious San Felix Revival Meeting August 4th 2009

Crippled walked

Paralysis healed

Mute tongues loosened

Paralysis healed

4-yr Gastritis healed

Deaf ears opened

Hernia since birth healed

Back Hernia healed

Severe Astrosis healed

Deaf ears opened

Crippled walked

Appendicitis healed

17-yr Paralysis healed

Stomach Tumour dissolved

Rheumatism healed

Shrivelled legs straightened

GLORY TO KING JESUS!

...and every kind of disease was healed
The people were amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking and the blind seeing. And they praised the God of Israel (Matthew 15:31).